…Then maketh he prayer for his goods, for …wife and children, and is not ashamed to …speak to that which hath no life.
…For health, he calleth upon that which is …weak; for life, prayeth to that which is dead: …for aid, humbly beseecheth [a] that which hath …no senses to help: and for a good journey, he …asketh of that which cannot set a foot forward:
…And for gaining and getting, and for good …successe of his hands, asketh ability to do, of …him that is most unable to do any thing.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Though men do not pray to their ships, 5 yet are they saved rather by them, then by their idoles. 8 Idoles are accursed, and so are the makers of them. 14 The beginning of idolatry, 21 and the effects thereof. 30 God will punish them that sweare falsly by their idoles.

…Gain, one preparing himself to sail, and …about to passe thorow the raging waves, call…eth upon a piece of wood more rotten then the …vessell that carrieth him.
…For verely desire of gain devised [c] that, and …workman built it by his skill:
…But thy providence, O Father, governeth it: …for thou hast [d] made a way in the sea, and a safe …path in the waves:
…Shewing that thou canst save from all danger: …so that though a man went to sea without art.
…Nevertheless, thou wouldest not that the …works of thy wisdome should be idle, and there…fore do men commit their lives to a small piece …of wood, and passing the rough sea in a weak ves…sell, are saved.
…For in the old time also when the proud gi…ants perished, the hope of the world governed by …thy hand, escaped in a weak vessell, and left to all …ages a seed of generation.
…For blessed is the wood, whereby righteous…nesse cometh.
…But that which is made with hands, is cursed, …as well it, as he that made it: he, because he …made it; and it, because being corruptible, it was …called God.
…For the ungodly and his ungodlinesse are …both alike hatefull unto God.
…For that which is made shall be punished to…gether with him that made it.
…Therefore even [b] upon the idols of the Gen…tiles shall there be a visitation: because in the …creature of God they are become an abomination, …and a stumbling blocks to the soules of men, …and a snare to the feet of the unwise.
…For the deviſing of idols was the beginning …of spirituall fornication, and the invention of …them the corruption of life.
…For neither were they from the beginning, …neither shall they be for ever.
…For by the vain-glory of men they entred …into the world, and therefore shall they come …shortly to an end.
…For a father afflicted with untimely mourn…ing, when hee hath made an image of his child …that was taken away, now honoured him as a god, …which then a dead man, and delivered to those …that were under him, ceremonies and sacrifices.
…Then this wicked custome of time in continu…ance grown strong, was kept as a law, and …graven images were worshipped by the commande…ments of [e] Kings.
…Whom when men could not honour [f] in pre…sence, because they dwelt farre off, they took the …counterfeit of his visage from far, & made an ex…presse image of a king whom they honoured, to …the end that by this their forwardnes, they might …flatter him that was absent, as if he were present.
…Also the singular diligence of the Artificer …did help to set forward the ignorant to more …superstition.
…For he peradventure willing to please one …in authority, forced all his skill to make the re…semblance [g] of the best fashion.
…And so the multitude allured by the grace …of the work, took him now for a god, which a …little before was but honoured as a man.
…And this was an occasion to deceive the …world: for men serving either calamity or ty…ranny, did ascribe unto stones, and stocks, the …incommunicable [h] name.
…Moreover, this was not enough for them, …that they erred in the knowledge of God, but …whereas they lived in the great war of ignorance, …those so great plagues called they peace.
…For whiles they [i] slew their children in …sacrifices, or used secret ceremonies, or made …revellings of strange rites,
…They kept neither lives nor marriages any …longer undefiled: but either one slew another …traiterously, or grieved him by adultery:
…So that there reigned in all men, [k] without …exception, blood, man-slaughter, theft, and dissi…mulation, corruption, unfaithfulnesse, tumults, per…jury,
…Disquieting of good men, forgetfulnesse of …good turnes, defiling of soules, changing of [l] kinde, …disorder in marriages, adultery, and shamefull …uncleanesse.
…For the worshipping of idols [m] not to be …named, is the beginning, the cause, and the end of …all evill.
…For either they are mad when they be merry, …or prophetie lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly …forsweare themselves.
…For insomuch as their trust is in idols which …have no life, though they sweare falsly, yet they …look not to be hurt.
…Howbeit for both causes shall they be justly …punished: both because they thought not well of …God [n] giving heed unto idols, and also unjustly …swore in deceit, despising holinesse.
…For it is not the power of them by whom …they sweare; but it is the just vengeance of sin…ners, that punisheth always the offence of the un…godly.

CHAP. XV.

1 We do acknowledge the true God. 7 The folly of idol makers. 14 and of the enemies of Gods people: 15 because he fashioneth the idols of the Gentiles. 18 they worshipped vile beasts.

…But thou, O God, art gracious and true; long…suffering, and in mercy ordering all things.
…For if we sinne we are thine, knowing thy …power: but we will not sinne, knowing that we …are counted thine.
…For to know thee, is perfect righteousnesse; …yea, to know thy power is the root of immorta…litie.
…For neither did the mischievous invention of …men deceive us, nor an image spotted with diverse …colours, the painters fruitlesse labour.

5 The sight whereof a ſuddenly ſtroke them, whilſt after it, and ſo they deſpeirſe for in of a dead image that hath no breath.

6 Both they that make them, they that deſire them, and they that worſhip them, are lovers of evill things, and are worthy to have ſuch things to truſt upon.

7 For the b potter tempering ſoft earth, faſhioneth every veſſell with much labour for our ſervice: yea, of the ſame clay he maketh both the veſſels that ſerve for the clean uſes: and likewiſe alſo all ſuch as ſerve to the contrary: but what is the uſe of either ſort, the potter himſelf is the judge.

8 And imploying his labours lewdly, he maketh a vain god of the ſame clay, even he which a little before was made of earth himſelf, and within a little while after returneth to the ſame out of the which he was taken: when his c life which was lent him ſhall be demanded.

9 Notwithſtanding his care is, not that he ſhall have much labour, nor that d his life is ſhort: but ſtriveth to exceil goldſmiths, and ſilverſmiths, and endeavoureth to do like the workers in braſſe, and counteth it his glory to make counterfeit things.

10 His heart is aſhes, his hope is more vile then earth, and his life of leſſe value then clay:

11 Foraſmuch as he knew not his Maker, and him that inſpired into him an active ſoul, and breathed in a living ſpirit.

12 But they counted our life a paſtime, and our e time here a market for gain: for, ſay they, we muſt be getting every way, though it be by evill meanes.

13 f For this man that of earthly matter maketh brittle veſſels, and graven images, knoweth himſelf to offend above all others.

14 And all the enemies of thy people, that hold them in ſubjection are moſt fooliſh, and are more miſerable then very babes.

15 For they counted all the idoles of the heathen to be gods: which neither have the uſe of eyes to ſee, nor noſtrils to draw g breath, nor eares to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle, and as for their feet they are ſlow to go.

16 For man made them, and he that borrowed his own ſpirit, faſhioned them; but no man can make a god like unto himſelf.

17 For being mortall, he worketh a dead thing with wicked hands: for he himſelf is better then the things which he worſhippeth: whereas he lived once, but they never.

18 Yea, they worſhipped thoſe beaſts alſo that are moſt hatefull: for being compared together, ſome are worſe then others.

19 Neither are they beautifull, ſo much as to be deſired in reſpect of beaſts, but they went without the praiſe of God and his bleſſing.

CHAP. XVI.

2 God gave ſtrange meat to his people, to ſtir up their appetite, and vile beaſts to their enemies to take it from them. 5 He ſtung with his ſerpents, 12 but ſoon healed them by his word only. 17 The creatures altered their nature to pleaſure Gods people, and to offend their enemies.

Why the Egyptians were puniſhed with darkneſſe. 12 The terrours of that darkneſſe. 17 The terrours of a ſpirit.

…great are thy judgements, and cannot be …preſſed: therefore [d] unnurtured ſouls have
For when unrighteous men thought to op-
…the holy nation: they being ſhut up [e] in
…ſons, the priſoners of darkneſſe, and fet-
…with the bonds of a long night, lay [there]
…ed from the eternall providence.
For while they ſuppoſed to lie hid in their …ſinnes, they were ſcattered [g] under a dark
…forgetfulneſſe, being horribly aſtoniſhed,
…bled with (ſtrange) [h] apparitions.
For neither might the corner that held …keep them from fear: but noiſes (as of …) falling down, ſounded about them, and
…ſtes appeared unto them with heavie coun-
…nance.
No power of the fire might give them light:
…ther could the bright flames of the ſtarres
…ake to lighten that horrible night.
Onely there appeared unto them a fire kind…led of it ſelf, very dreadfull: for being much ter-
…fied, they thought the things which they ſaw to
…orſe then the ſight they ſaw not.
As for the illuſions of art Magick, they …put down, and their vaunting in wiſdome
…proved with diſgrace.
For they that promiſed to drive away ter-
…, and troubles from a ſick ſoul, were ſick
…emſelves of fear worthy to be laughed at.
For though no terrible thing did fear them:
…ing ſcared with beaſts that paſſed by, and
…d ſerpents,
…y died for feaſ, [k] denying that they ſaw
…hich could of no ſide be avoided.
…wickedneſſe condemned by her own
…, is very timorous, and being preſſed with
…nt, alwayes forecaſteth grievous things.
…or feare is nothing elſe, but a betraying of
…ers which reaſon offereth.
…And the expectation from within being
…eaker then the ignorance more then the cauſe
…ough the torment.
…they ſleeping the ſame ſleep that night,
…were indeed intolerable, and which came …out of the bottome of inevitable hell:

…ſometimes ſcarely vexed with monſtrous ſpec-
…ritions, and partly fainted, their heart failing
…them: for a ſodden fear and not looked for, came …upon them.
16 So then, whoſoever there fell down, was …ſtraitly kept, ſhut up in a priſon without iron
…[barres.]
17 For whether he were huſbandman, or ſhep-
…herd, or a labourer in the [m] field, he was over-
…taken, and endured that neceſſity which could not …be avoided: for they were all bound with one
…chain of darkneſſe.
18 Whether it were a whiſtling winde, or a …melodious noiſe of birds among the ſpreading
…branches, or a pleaſing fall of water running
…violently:
19 Or a [n] terrible ſound of ſtones caſt down,
…or a running that could not be ſeen of ſkipping
…beaſts, or a roaring voyce of moſt ſavage wilde
…beaſts, or a rebounding eccho from the hollow
…mountains: theſe things made them to ſwoon
…for fear.
20 For the whole world ſhined with cleare
…light, and none were hindered in their labour.
21 Over them only was ſpread an heavie night,
…an image of that darkneſſe which ſhould after…wards receive them: but yet were they unto
…themſelves more grievous then the darkneſſe.

Egypt was puniſhed with darkneſſe, 5 and with the death of their children: 18 they themſelves ſaw the cauſe thereof. 20 God alſo plagued his own people. 21 By what means that plague was ſtayed.

…Nevertheleſſe, thy Saints had a very great
…[o] light, whoſe voyce they hearing, and not …ſeeing their ſhape, becauſe they alſo had not ſuf-
…fered the ſame things, they counted them happy.
2 But for that they did not hurt them now,
…of whom they had been wronged before, they …thanked them, and beſought them pardon, for
…that they had been enemies.
3 [p] In ſtead whereof thou gaveſt them a burn…ing pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the un…known journey, and an harmleſſe ſunne to entertain them honourably.
4 For they were worthy to be deprived of …light, and impriſoned in darkneſſe, who had kept
…thy ſonnes ſhut up, by whom the [q] uncorrupt light
…of the Law was to be given unto the world.
5 [r] And when they had determined to ſlay the …babes of the Saints, one childe being caſt forth, and
…ſaved: to reprove them, thou tookeſt away the …multitude of their children, and deſtroyedſt them
…altogether in a mighty water.
6 [s] Of that night were our fathers certified …afore, that aſſuredly knowing unto what oathes
…they had given credence, they might afterwards
…be of good chear.
7 So of thy people was accepted both the …ſalvation of the righteous, and deſtruction of the …enemies.
8 For wherewith thou didſt puniſh our adver-
…ſaries, by the ſame thou didſt glorifie us whom
…thou hadſt called.
9 [t] For the righteous children of good men
…did ſacrifice ſecretly, and with one conſent made

11 a The master and the servant were punished after one manner, and like as the King, so suffered the common person.

12 So they altogether had innumerable dead, with one kind of death, neither were the living sufficient to bury them: for in one moment the noblest off spring of them was destroyed.

13 For whereas they would not believe any thing by reason of the inchantments, upon the destruction of the first born, they acknowledged this people to be the sonnes of God.

14 For while all things were in quiet silence, and that night was in the middest of her swift course,

15 Thine Almighty word leapt down from heaven, out of thy royall Throne, as a fierce man of warre into the midst of a land of destruction, 16 And brought thine unfained commandment as a sharp sword, and standing up filled all things with death, and it touched the heaven, but it stood upon the earth.

b Or, imaginations.

17 Then suddenly b visions of horrible dreames troubled them sore, and terrours came upon them unlooked for.

18 And one thrown here, another there half dead, shewed the cause of his death.

19 For the dreames that troubled them did foreshew this, lest they should perish, and not know why they were afflicted.

20 Yea, the tasting of death touched the righteous also, and there was a destruction of the c multitude in the wilderneſse: but the wrath endured not long.

21 For then the blamelesse man made haste, and stood foorth to defend them, and bringing the shield of his proper ministery, even prayer and the propitiation of incense, set himself against the wrath, and so brought the calamity to an end, declaring that he was thy servant.

22 So he overcame the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of armes, but with a word subdued he him that punished, alledging the oathes and covenants made with the fathers.

23 For when the dead were now fallen down by heapes one upon another, standing between, he stayed the wrath, and

CHAP. XIX.

1 Why God shewed no mercy to the Egyptians, 5 and how wonderfully he dealt with his people. 14 The Egyptians were worse then the Sodomites. 18 The wonderfull agreement of the creatures to serve Gods people.

AS for the ungodly, wrath came upon them without mercy unto the end: for he knew before what they would do:

2 How that having given them leave to depart, and sent them hastily away, they would repent and pursue them.

3 For whileſt they were yet mourning, and making lamentation at the graves of the dead, they added another foolish device, and pursued them as fugitives, whom they had f intreated to be gone.

f Or, cast out by entreaty.

4 For the destinie whereof they were worthy, drew them unto this end, and made them forget the things that had already happened, that they might fulfill the punishment which was wanting to their torments,

5 And that thy people might passe a strange way: but they might finde a strange death.

6 For the whole g creature in his proper kinde was fashioned again anew, serving the proper commandments that were given unto them, that thy children might be kept without hurt.

g As namely, a cloud shadowing the campe, and where water stood before, dry land appeared, and out of the Red sea a way without impediment, and out of the violent streame a grene field;

7 Where-thorow all the people went that were defended with thy hand, seeing thy marvellous strange wonders.

8 For they went at large like horses, and skipped like lambes, praising thee, O Lord, which hadst delivered them.

9 For they were yet mindfull of the things that were done while they sojourned in the strange land, how the ground brought forth, not cattell, and how the river cast up in stead of fishes a multitude of frogs in stead of fishes.

10 But afterwards they saw a new generation of fowls, when being led with their appetite they asked delicate meats.

11 For quails came up unto them from the sea for their h contentment.

h Or, lust.

12 And punishments came upon the sinners not without former tokens by the force of thunders: for they suffered justly, according to their owne wickednesse, insomuch as they used a more cruell and hatefull behaviour towards strangers.

13 For the Sodomites did not receive those whom they knew not when they came: but these brought friends into bondage, that had well deserved of them.

14 And not onely so: but peradventure some respect shall be had of those, because they entertained strangers not friendly.

15 But these very grievously afflicted those whom they had received with feastings, and that already made partakers of the same lawes with them.

17 Therefore even with blindnesse were they stricken, as those were at the doors of the righteous man: when being compassed about with horrible great darknesse, every one sought the passage of his own doors.

18 For the elements were changed i in themselves by a kinde of harmonie, like as in a psalterie notes change the name of the musick, yet are alwayes sounds, which may well be perceived by the sight of the things that have been done.

i Or, in themselves.

19 For earthly things were turned into waters, and the things that before swam in the water went upon the ground.

20 The fire had power in the water, forgetting his own vertue: and the water forgat his quenching nature.

21 On the other side, the flames wasted not the flesh of the corruptible living things, although they walked therein, neither melted they the kinde of heavenly meat, that was of like nature to melt.

22 For in all things, O Lord, thou magnifie thy people, and glorifie them, and thou lightly regard them: but dost assist them in every time and place.

THE WISDOME OF Jesus THE sonne of SIRACH, or ECCLESIASTICUS.

¶ A Prologue made by an uncertain Authour.

Jesus was the sonne of Sirach, and grand-childe to Jesus of the same name with him: This man therefore lived in the latter times, after the people had beene led away captive, and called home, and almost after all the Prophets. Now his grand-father Jesus (as he himself witnesseth) was a man of great diligence and wisdome among the Hebrews, who did not onely gather the most short sentences of wise men, that had been before him, but himself also uttered some of his own, full of much understanding and wisdome. When as therefore the first Jesus died, this Book almost [a] perfected, Sirach his sonne receiving it after him, left it to his own sonne Jesus; who having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one Volume, and called it Wisdome, intituling it, both by his owne name, his fathers name, and his grand-fathers, for the hearer by the very name of Wisdome, to have a greater love to the study of this book. Wherein there is wise sayings, dark sentences, and parables, and certain particular ancient stories of men that pleased God. Also his prayer and song. Moreover, what benefits God had given people, and what plagues he had heaped upon their enemies. This Jesus did imitate, and was no lesse famous for wisdome and learning, both being indeed a man of great, and so reputed also.

Forasmuch as many and great things have been delivered unto us by the Law and the Prophets, and by others that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdome, and whereof not onely the readers must needs become skilfull themselves, but also they that desire to learn, be able to profit them which are [b] without, both by speaking and writing: My grand-father Jesus, when he had much given himself to the reading of the Law and the Prophets, and other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgement, was drawn also himself, to write something pertaining to Learning and Wisdome, to the intent that they which are desirous to learn, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in living according to the Law. Wherefore, let me intreat you to read it with favour and attention, and to pardon us, wherein we may seem to come short of some words which we have laboured to interpret. For the same things uttered in Hebrew, and translated into another tongue, have not the same force in them: and not onely these things, but the Law it self and the [c] Prophets, and the rest of the books, have no small [d] difference when they are spoken in their own language. For in the eight and thirtieth yeere, comming into Egypt, when Evergetes was King, and continuing there some time, I found a [e] book of no small learning: therefore I thought it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and travaile to interpret it: using great watchfulnesse and skill in that space, to bring the book to an end, and set it forth for them also, which in a strange countrey are willing to learn, being prepared before in manners to live after the Law.

CHAP. I.

1 All wisdome is from God. 10 He giveth it to them that love him. 12 The fear of God is full of many blessings. 28 To fear God without hypocrisie.

ALl [f] wisdome cometh from the Lord, and is with him for ever.

2 Who can number the sand of the sea, and the drops of rain, and the dayes of eternity?

3 Who can finde out the height of heaven, and the breadth of the earth, and the deep, and wisdome?

4 Wisdome hath been created before all things, and the understanding of prudence from everlasting.

5 The word of God most high, is the fountain of wisdome, and her wayes are everlasting commandments.

6 To whom hath the root of wisdome been revealed? or who hath known her wise counsels?

7 [Unto whom hath the knowledge of wisdome been made manifest? and who hath understood her great experience?]

8 There is one wise and greatly to be feared; sitting upon his throne.

9 The Lord created her, and saw her, and numbred her, and poured her out upon all his works.

10 She [is] with all flesh according to his gift, and he hath given her to them that love him.

11 The fear of the Lord is honour, and glory, and gladnesse, and a crown of rejoycing.

12 [h] The fear of the Lord maketh a merry heart, and giveth joy and gladnesse, and a long life.

13 Who so feareth the Lord it shall go well with him at the last, and he [i] shall finde favour in the day of his death.

14 To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdome: and it was created with the faithfull in the wombe.

15 She hath built an everlasting foundation with men, and she shall continue [k] with their seed.

16 To fear the Lord is fulnesse of wisdome, and filleth men with her fruits.

17 She filleth all their house with things desireable, and the garners with her increase.

18 The fear of the Lord is a crown of wisdome, making peace and perfect health to flourish, both which are the gifts of God: and it enlargeth their rejoycing that love him.

19 Wisdome raiseth down skill and knowledge of understanding, and exalteth them to honour that hold her fast.

20 The root of wisdome is to fear the Lord, and the branches thereof are long life.

h Prov. 1.7. psal. 111.10.

i Or, shall be blessed.

k 2. Chron. 20. 21.

11 The fear of the Lord driveth away sinnes: and where it is present, it turneth away wrath.

a Or, shall be punished. 22 A furious man cannot a be justified, for the sway of his fury shall be his destruction.

23 A patient man will bear for a time, and afterward joy shall spring up unto him.

24 He will hide his words for a time, and the lips of many shall declare his wisdome.

25 The parables of knowledge are in the treasures of wisdome: but godlinesse is an abomination to a sinner.

26 If thou desire wisdome, keep the Commandments, and the Lord shall give her unto thee.

27 For the fear of the Lord is wisdome and instruction: and faith and meeknes are his delight.

b Or, be not diffident of it. 28 b Distrust not the fear of the Lord when thou art poor: and come not unto him with a double heart.

29 Be not an hypocrite in the sight of men, and take good heed what thou speakest.

30 Exalt not thy self, lest thou fall, and bring dishonour upon thy soul, and so God discover thy secrets, and cast thee down in the midst of the Congregation, because thou camest not in truth to the fear of the Lord: but thy heart is full of deceit.

CHAP. II.

1 Gods servants must look for trouble, 7 and be patient, and trust in him: 12 for woe to them that do not so. 15 But they that fear the Lord, will do so.

c Matth. 9.11. 2.tim.3. 12.1.pet. 4.12. d Or, hasten not.

MY sonne, if c thou come to serve the Lord, prepare thy soul for temptation.

2 Set thy heart aright, and constantly endure, and d make not haste in time of trouble.

3 Cleave unto him, and depart not away, that thou mayest be encreased at thy last end.

4 Whatsoever is brought upon thee, take cheerfully, and be patient when thou art changed to a low estate.

e Wisd. 3.6. prov. 17.3.1 5 e For gold is tried in the fire, and acceptable men in the furnace of adversity.

6 Beleeve in him, and he will help thee, order thy way aright, and trust in him.

7 Ye that fear the Lord, wait for his mercy, and go not aside, lest ye fall.

8 Ye that fear the Lord, beleeve him, and your reward shall not fail.

9 Ye that fear the Lord, hope for good, and for everlasting joy and mercy.

10 Look at the generations of old, and see, did ever any trust in the Lord, and was confounded? or did any abide in his fear, and was forsaken? or whom did he ever despise that called upon him?

f Psal. 37.23. 11 And the f Lord is full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, and very pitifull, and forgiveth sinnes, and saveth in time of affliction.

12 Wo be to fearfull hearts, and faint hands, and the sinner that goeth two wayes.

13 Wo unto him that is faint-hearted: for he beleeveth not, therefore shall he not be defended.

14 Wo unto you that have lost patience: and what will ye do when the Lord shall visit you?

g John 14.20. 15 They g that fear the Lord, will not disobey his word, and they that love him will keep his wayes.

16 They that fear the Lord will seek that which is well pleasing unto him, and they that love him shall be filled with the Law.

17 They that fear the Lord, will prepare their hearts, and humble their souls in his sight:

18 saying, We will fall into the hands of the Lord, and not into the hands of men: for as his majesty is, so is his mercy.

CHAP. III.

1 Children must honour and obey parents. 22 We may not desire too many things. 26 The incorrigible must abide. 30 Alms are rewarded.

HEar me your father, O children, and do thereafter, that ye may be safe.

2 For the Lord hath given h the father power over the children, and hath confirmed the authority of the mother over the sonnes.

3 Who so honoureth his father maketh an atonement for his sinnes.

4 And he that honoureth his mother, is as he that layeth up treasure.

5 Whoso honoureth his father, shall have joy of his own children, and when he maketh his prayer, he shall be heard.

6 He that honoureth his father shall have a long life; and he that is obedient unto the Lord shall be a comfort to his mother.

7 He that feareth the Lord, will honour his father, and will do service unto his parents, as unto masters.

8 k Honour thy father and mother, both in word and deed, that a blessing may come upon thee from them.

9 For the l blessing of the father establisheth the houses of children, but the curse of the mother rooteth out foundations.

10 Glory not in the dishonour of thy father, for thy fathers dishonour is no glory unto thee.

11 For the glory of a man is from the honour of his father: and a mother in dishonour is a reproach to the children.

12 My sonne, help thy father in his age, and grieve him not as long as he liveth.

13 And if his understanding fail, have patience with him, and despise him not when thou art in thy full strength.

14 For the relieving of thy father shall not be forgotten; and in stead of sinnes it shall be received to build thee up.

15 In the day of thine affliction it shall be remembred, thy sinnes also shall melt away as the ice in the fair warm weather.

16 He that forsaketh his father, is as a blasphemer, and he that angreth his mother, is cursed of God.

17 My sonne, go on with thy businesse in meekenesse, so shalt thou be beloved of him that is approved.

18 m The greater thou art, the more humble thy self, and thou shalt finde favour before the Lord.

19 Many are in high place and of renowne, but mysteries are revealed unto the meek.

20 For the power of the Lord is great, and he is honoured of the lowly.

21 p Seek not out the things that are too hard for thee, neither search the things that are above thy strength.

22 But what is commanded thee, think thereupon with reverence, for it is not needful for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are in secret.

23 Be not curious in unnecessary matters: for more things are shewed unto thee, than men understand.

24 For many are deceived by their own opinion; and an evill suspition hath hindred their judgement.

25 Without eyes thou shalt want light: get not the knowledge therefore that is hurtfull.

26 A stubborn heart shall fare evill at the last, and he that loveth danger shall perish therein.

...stinate heart shall be laden with sor-

CHAP. IIII.

We may not despise the poor or fatherlesse, 11 but seek for wisdome, 20 and not be ashamed of some things, nor gainsay the truth, 30 nor sin wilfully in our houses.

1 MY sonne, defraud not the poor of his living,
...and make not the needy eyes to wait long.

2 Grieve not an hungry soul sorrowfull, neither
...e a man in his distresse.

3 Adde not more trouble to an heart that ...ed, and deferre not to give to him that is in 4 Reject not the supplication of the afflicted,

...nor turn away thy face from a poor man.

5 Turn not away thine eye from [a] the needy,
...ive him none occasion to curse thee:

6 For if he curse thee in the bitternesse of his
..., his prayer shall be heard of him that made

7 Get thy self the love of the Congregation,
...bow thy head to a great man.

8 Let it not grieve thee to bow down thine
...e to the poor, and give him a friendly answer

9 Deliver him that suffereth wrong, from the ...d of the oppressour, and be not faint-hearted
...when thou sittest in judgement.

10 Be as a father unto the fatherlesse, and in ...ad of a husband unto their mother: so shalt
...thou be as the sonne of the most High, and he shall ...love thee more then thy mother doth.

11 Wisdome exalteth her children, and layeth
...hold of them that seek her.

12 He that loveth her, loveth life, and they that ...rise to her early, shall be filled with joy.

13 He that holdeth her fast shall inherit glory,
...and wheresoever she entreth, the Lord will blesse.

14 They that serve her, shall minister [d] to ...the holy One, and them that love her, the Lord
...doth love.

15 Whoso giveth ear unto her, shall judge the ...nations, and he that attendeth unto her, shall dwell
...securely.

16 If a man commit himself unto her, he shall ...inherit her, and his generation shall hold her in ...possession.

17 For at the first she will walk with him by ...crooked steps, and bring fear and dread upon ...him, and torment him with her discipline, untill
...she may trust his soul, and try him by her laws.

18 Then will she return the straight way unto ...him, and comfort him, and shew him her secrets.

19 But if he go wrong, she will forsake him, and ...give him over to his own ruine.

20 Observe the opportunity, and beware of evill,
...and be not ashamed when it concerneth thy soul.

21 For there is a shame that bringeth sinne, and ...there is a shame which is glory and grace.

22 Accept no person against thy soul, and let
...no reverence of any man cause thee to fall:

23 And refraine not to speak, [e] when there is ...occasion to do good, and hide not thy wisdome in her ...beauty.

24 For by speech wisdome shall be known, and ...learning by the word of the tongue.

25 In no wise speak against the truth, but be ...abashed of the errour of thine ignorance.

26 Be not ashamed to confesse thy sinnes, [f] and ...force not the course of the river.

27 Make not thy self an underling to a foolish
...man, neither accept the person of the mighty.

28 Strive for the truth unto death, and the ...Lord shall fight for thee.

29 Be not hasty in thy tongue, and in thy deeds
...slack and remisse.

30 Be not as a lion in thy house, not frantick
...among thy servants.

31 Let not thine hand be stretched out to re...ceive, and shut when thou shouldest [g] repay.

CHAP. V.

1 We must not presume of our wealth and strength, 6 nor of the mercy of God to sinne. 9 We must not be double-tongued, 12 nor answer without knowledge.

SEt not thine heart upon thy goods, and say not, [h] I have enough for my life.

2 Follow not thine own minde, and thy ...strength, to walk in the wayes of thy heart:

3 And say not, Who shall controul me for ...my works? for the Lord will surely revenge thy ...pride.

4 Say not, I have sinned, and what harm hath ...happened unto me? for the Lord is long suffer...ing, he will in no wise let thee go.

5 Concerning propitiation, be not without fear
...to adde sinne unto sinne.

6 And say not, His [i] mercy is great, he will be ...pacified for the multitude of my sinnes: for mer...cy and wrath come from him, and his indignation
...resteth upon sinners.

7 [k] Make no tarrying to turn to the Lord, and ...put not off from day to day: for suddenly shall the ...wrath of the Lord come forth, and in thy security
...thou shalt be destroyed, and perish in the day of ...vengeance.

8 [l] Set not thine heart upon goods unrighte-
...gotten: for they shall not profit thee in the day
...of calamity.

9 Winnow not with every winde, and go not ...into every way; for so doth the sinner that hath
...a double tongue.

10 Be stedfast in thy understanding, and let thy ...word be the same.

11 [m] Be swift to hear, and let thy life be sincere,
...and with patience give answer.

12 If thou hast understanding, answer thy neigh...bour, if not, lay thy hand upon thy mouth.

13 Honour and shame is in talk, and the tongue
...of man is his fall.

14 Be not called a whisperer, and lie not in ...wait with thy tongue: for a foul shame is upon
...the thief, and an evill condemnation upon the ...double tongue.

15 Be not ignorant of any thing, in a great mat...ter or a small.

CHAP. VI.

2 Do not extol thine own conceit, nor make choise of a friend. 18 Seek wisdome betimes. 20 It is grievous to some, 28 yet the fruits thereof are pleasant. 33 Be ready to hear wisdome.

3 Thou shalt eat up thy leaves, and lose thy fruit, and leave thy self as a dry tree.

4 A wicked soul shall destroy him that hath it, and shall make him to be laughed to scorn of his enemies.

a Good, a sweet throat.

5 [a] Sweet language will multiply friends and a fair speaking tongue will increase kind greetings.

6 Be in peace with many: nevertheless have but one counseller of a thousand.

b Or, get him in the time of trouble.

7 If thou wouldest get a friend, [b] prove him first, and be not hasty to credit him.

8 For some man is a friend for his own occasion, and will not abide in the day of thy trouble.

9 And there is a friend, who being turned to enmity and strife, will discover thy reproach.

c Chap. 27.5.

10 [c] Again, some friend is a companion at the table, & will not continue in the day of thy affliction

11 But in thy prosperity he will be as thy self, and will be bold over thy servants.

12 If thou be brought low, he will be against thee, and will hide himself from thy face.

13 Separate thy self from thine enemies, and take heed of thy friends.

14 A faithfull friend is a strong defence: and he that hath found such an one, hath found a treasure.

15 Nothing doth countervail a faithfull friend, and his excellency is unvaluable.

16 A faithfull friend is the medicine of life; and they that fear the Lord, shall finde him.

17 Whoso feareth the Lord, shall direct his friendship aright; for as he is, so shall his neighbour be also.

18 My sonne, gather instruction from thy youth up: so shalt thou finde wisdome, till thine old age.

19 Come unto her as one that ploweth, and soweth, and wait for her good fruits, for thou shalt not toil much in labouring about her, but thou shalt eat of her fruits right soon.

d Or, learn. e Zach. 12.4.

20 She is very unpleasant to the unlearned: he that is without [d] understanding, will not remain with her.

21 She will lie upon him as a [e] mighty stone of triall, and he will cast her from him ere it be long.

22 For wisdome is according to her name, and she is not manifest unto many.

27 Search and seek, and she shall be made known unto thee, and when thou hast got hold of her, let her not go.

28 For at the last thou shalt finde her rest, and that shall be turned to thy joy.

29 Then shall her fetters be a strong defence for thee, and her chains a robe of glory.

30 For there is a golden ornament upon her, and her bands are [h] purple lace.

31 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour: and shalt put her about thee as a crown of joy.

32 My sonne, if thou wilt, thou shalt be taught: and if thou wilt apply thy minde, thou shalt be prudent.

with him into a solitary place: for blood is as nothing in his sight, and where there is no help he will overthrow thee.

17 Consult not with a fool: for he cannot keep counsell.

18 Do no secret thing before a stranger: for thou knowest not what he will bring forth.

19 Open not thine heart to every man, least he requite thee with a shrewd turn.

CHAP. IX.

1 We are advised how to use our wives. 3 What women to avoid. 10 And not to change an old friend. 13 Not to be familiar with men in authority, 14 but to know our neighbours, 15 and to converse with wise men.

BE not jealous over the wife of thy bosome, and teach her not an evill lesson against thy self.

2 Give not thy soul unto a woman, to set her foot upon thy substance.

3 Meet not with an harlot, least thou fall into her snares.

4 Use not much the company of a woman that is a singer, least thou be taken with her attempts.

5 Gaze not on a maid, that thou fall not by those things that are precious in her. [m] Or, plagues more intolerable.

6 Give not thy soul unto harlots, that thou lose not thine inheritance.

7 Look not round about thee in the streets of the city, neither wander thou in the solitary places thereof.

8 [n] Turn away thine eye from a beautifull woman, and look not upon another beauty: for many have been deceived by the beauty of a woman, for herewith love is kindled as a fire. [n] Gen. 34. 2. Sam. 11. 2. Judg. 19.

9 Sit not at all with another mans wife, nor sit down with her in thine armes, and spend not thy money with her at the wine, least thine heart encline unto her, and so through thy desire thou fall into destruction.

10 Forsake not an old friend, for the new is not comparable to him: a new friend is as new wine: when it is old thou shalt drink it with pleasure.

11 Envie not the glory of a sinner: for thou knowest not what shall be his end.

12 Delight not in the thing that the ungodly have pleasure in, but remember they shall not go unpunished unto their grave.

13 Keep thee farre from the man that hath power to kill, so shalt thou not doubt the fear of death: and if thou come unto him, make no slip, least he take away thy life presently: remember that thou goest in the midst of snares, and that thou walkest upon the battlements of the city.

14 As neer as thou canst, speak at thy neighbour, and consult with the wise.

15 Let thy talk be with the wise, and all thy communication in the Law of the most High.

16 And let just men eat and drink with thee, and let thy glorying be in the fear of the Lord.

17 For the hand of the artificer, the work shall be commended: and the wise Ruler of the people, for his speech.

18 A man of an ill tongue is dangerous in his city, and he that is rash in his talk shall be hated.

CHAP. X.

1 The commodities of a wise Ruler. 4 God setteth him up. 7 The inconveniences of pride, injustice, and covetousness. 14 What God hath done to the proud. 19 Who shall be honoured, 29 and who not.

A Wise Judge will instruct his people, and the government of a prudent man is well ordered.

As

of the city it, such are all they that dwell therein.

4 An unwise King destroyeth his people, but through the prudence of them which are in authority, the city shall be inhabited.

4 The power of the earth is in the hand of the Lord, and in due time he will set over it one that is profitable.

5 In the hand of God is the prosperity of man: and upon the [b] person of the Scribe shall he lay his honour.

b Or, face.

6 Bear not hatred to thy neighbour for [c] every wrong, and do nothing at all by injurious practices.

c Levit. 19. 17.

7 Pride is hatefull before God, and man: and by both doth one commit iniquity.

8 Because of unrighteous dealings, injuries, and riches got by deceit, the kingdome is translated from one people to another.

9 Why is earth and ashes proud? There is not a more wicked thing, then a covetous man: for such an one selleth his own soul to sale, because while he liveth, he casteth away his bowels.

10 The Physician cutteth off a long disease: and he that is to day a King, to morrow shall die.

11 For when a man is dead, he shall inherit creeping things, beasts and wormes.

12 The beginning of pride is, when one departeth from God, and his heart is turned away from his Maker.

13 For pride is the beginning of sinne, and he that hath it, shall powre out abomination: and therefore the Lord brought upon them strange calamities, and overthrew them utterly.

14 The Lord hath cast down the thrones of proud Princes, and set up the meek in their stead.

15 The Lord hath plucked up the roots of the proud nations, and planted the lowly in their place.

16 The Lord overthrew countreys of the heathen, and destroyed them to the foundations of the earth.

17 He took some of them away, and destroyed them, and hath made their memoriall to cease from the earth.

18 Pride was not made for men, nor furious anger for them that are born of a woman.

19 They that fear the Lord, are a sure seed, and they that love him, an honourable plant: they that regard not the Law, are a dishonourable seed: they that transgresse the Commandments, are a [d] deceiveable seed.

d Or, deceiveable seed.

20 Among brethren he that is chief is honourable, so are they that fear the Lord in his eyes.

21 The fear of the Lord goeth before [e] the obtaining of authority: but roughnesse and pride is the losing thereof.

e Or, the obtaining of authority.

22 Whether he be rich, noble, or poor, their glorie is the fear of the Lord.

23 It is not meet to despise the poor man that hath understanding, neither is it convenient to magnifie a sinfull man.

24 Great men, and Judges, and Potentates shall be honoured, yet is there none of them greater then he that feareth the Lord.

25 Unto the servant that is wise, shall they that are free do service: and he that hath knowledge, will not grudge when he is reformed.

26 Be not overwise in doing thy businesse, and boast not thy self in the time of thy distresse.

27 Better is he that laboureth and aboundeth in all things, then he that boasteth himself, and wanteth bread.

28 My son, glorifie thy soul in meekenesse, and give it honour according unto [f] the worth of it.

f Or, as it is worthy.

29 Who will justifie him that sinneth against his own soul? & whowill honour him that dishonoureth his own life?

30 The poor man is honoured for his knowledge, and the rich man is honoured for his riches.

31 He that is honoured in poverty, how much more in riches? and he that is dishonoured in riches, how much more in poverty?

CHAP. XI.

4 We may not vaunt or set forth our selves for riches, nor answere rashly, 10 nor meddle with other mens matters. 14 Wealth and all things come of God. 24 Brag not of thy wealth, 29 nor receive every man into thy house.

WIsedome lifteth up the head [h] of him that is of low degree, and [i] maketh him to sit among great men.

h Or, humbleth.

i Or, maketh him sit.

2 Commend not a man for his beauty, neither abhorre a man for his outward appearance.

3 The Bee is little among such as fly: but her fruit is the chief of sweet things.

4 [k] Boast not of thy clothing, nor be proud, and exalt not thy self in the day of thine honour: for the works of the Lord are wonderfull, and his works among men are hidden.

k Or, Boast not of thy clothing.

5 Many [l] kings have sit down upon the ground, and one that was never thought of, hath worn the crown.

l Or, kings have sit down upon.

6 [m] Many mighty men have been greatly disgraced: and the honourable delivered into other mens hands.

m Or, Many mighty men have been greatly disgraced.

7 [n] Blame not before thou hast examined the truth: understand first, and then rebuke.

n Or, Blame not before thou hast examined the truth.

8 [o] Answer not before thou hast heard the cause: neither interrupt men in the middest of their talk.

o Or, Answer not before thou hast heard the cause.

9 Strive not in a matter that concerneth thee not: and sit not [p] in judgement with sinners.

p Or, in judgement with sinners.

10 My sonne, meddle not with many businesses: for if thou meddle much, thou shalt not be innocent: and if thou follow after, thou shalt not overtake, neither shalt thou [q] escape by flying.

q Or, escape by flying.

11 [r] There is one that laboureth, and taketh pains, and maketh haste, and is so much the more behinde.

r Or, There is one that laboureth and taketh pains.

12 Again, there is another that is in need of help, wanting ability, and full of poverty: [s] yet the eye of the Lord looked upon him for good, and set him up from his low estate.

s Or, yet the eye of the Lord looked upon him for good.

13 And lifted up his head from misery: so that many that saw it, marvelled at him.

14 Prosperity and adversity, health and sickenesse, poverty and riches, come of the Lord.

15 Wisedome, knowledge, and understanding of the Law, are of the Lord: love, and the works of good works, are from him.

16 Errour and darknesse had their beginning together with sinners: and evill shall wax old with them that glory therein.

17 The gift of the Lord remaineth with the godly, and his favour bringeth prosperity for ever.

18 There is that waxeth rich by his wariness and pinching, and this is the portion of his reward:

19 Whereas he saith, I find rest, and now will eat continually of my goods: and knoweth not what time shall come upon him, and that he must leave those things to others, and die.

20 Be [t] stedfast in thy covenant, wilderneſſe: ſo the rich eat up the poore.

20 As the poore heare, they hate him: but the rich abhorreth the poore.

21 A rich man beginning to fall, is held up of his friends: but a poor man being downe, is thruſt alſo away by his friends.

22 When a rich man is falſen, he hath many helpers: he ſpeaketh things not to be ſpoken, and yet men juſtifie him: the poore man ſlipt, and yet they rebuked him too: he ſpake wiſely, and could have no place.

23 When a rich man ſpeaketh, every man holdeth his tongue, and look what he ſaith, they extoll it to the clouds: but if the poor man ſpeak, they ſay, What fellow is this? and if he ſtumble, they will help to overthrow him.

24 Riches are good unto him that hath no ſinne: and poverty is evill in the mouth of the ungodly.

25 The heart of a man changeth his countenance, whether it be for good or evill: and a merry heart maketh a cheerfull countenance.

26 A cheerfull countenance is a token of a heart that is in proſperity, and the finding out of parables is a weariſome labour of the minde.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 A good conſcience maketh men happy. 5 The wiſe word doth good to many. 13 But do them good. 20 Men are happy that drive near to wiſedome.

a Chap. 19.16. & 25.8. Rom.3.2. b Or, ſcornes.

BLeſſed a is the man that hath not ſlipt with his mouth, and is not pricked with the b multitude of ſinnes.

2 Bleſſed is he whoſe conſcience hath not condemned him, and who is not fallen from his hope in the Lord.

3 Riches are not comely for a niggard: and what ſhould an envious man do with money?

4 He that gathereth by defrauding his own ſoul, gathereth for others that ſhall ſpend his goods riotouſly.

5 He that is evill to himſelf, to whom will he be good? he ſhall not take pleaſure in his goods.

6 There is none worſe than he that enviеth himſelf; and this is a recompenſe of his wickedneſſe.

7 And if he doth good, he doth it unwillingly, and at the laſt he will declare his wickedneſſe.

8 The envious man hath a wicked eye, he turneth away his face, and deſpiſeth men.

c Prov. 23.20. 9 c A covetous mans eye is not ſatisfied with his portion, and the iniquity of the wicked drieth up his ſoul.

10 A wicked eye enviеth [his] bread, and he is a niggard at his table.

11 My ſonne, according to thy ability do good to thy ſelf, and give the Lord his due offering.

12 Remember that death will not be long in coming, and that the covenant of the grave is not ſhewed unto thee.

d Tob.4. 7. Iake 14.13. 13 d Do good unto thy friend before thou die, and according to thy ability ſtretch out thy hand and give to him.

e Or, the laſt day 14 Defraud not thy ſelf of e the good day, and let not the part of a good deſire overpaſſe thee.

15 Shalt thou not leave thy travels unto another? and thy labours to be divided by lot?

16 Give and take, and ſanctifie thy ſoul: for there is no ſeeking of dainties in the grave.

f Iſa.40. 9.Iam.1. 10.1.pet. 2.24. 17 f All fleſh waxeth old as a garment: for the covenant from the beginning is, Thou ſhalt die the death.

18 Even as of a greene leafe on a thicke tree, ſome falleth off, and ſome groweth: ſo is the nature of fleſh and blood, one dieth, another is borne.

19 Every work rotteth and commeth to an end, and the workeman of them ſhall paſſe away with it.

20 Bleſſed is the man that ſhall continue in the things in wiſdome, and that ſhall meditate in his righteouſneſſe, and in the things by his underſtanding.

21 He that conſidereth her waies in his heart, ſhall alſo have knowledge of her ſecrets.

22 Go after her as one that traceth, and wait in her wayes.

23 He that priеth in at her windows, ſhall heare at her doores.

24 He that doth lodge neere her houſe, ſhall faſten a pin in her walls.

25 He ſhall pitch his tent nigh unto her, and ſhall lodge in a lodging where good things are.

26 He ſhall ſet his children under her covering, and ſhall lodge under her branches.

27 By her he ſhall be covered from the heate, and in her glory ſhall he dwell.

CHAP. XV.

2 Wiſdome entreateth them that fear God. 11 The wicked ſhall not eſcape. 13 He that hath God with him ſhall not fall. 14 For he ſeeketh to his ſervice.

HE that feareth the Lord will do good, and he that hath the knowledge of the law ſhall obtain her.

2 And as a mother ſhall ſhe meet him, and receive him as a wife married of a virgin.

3 With the bread of underſtanding ſhall ſhe feed him, and give him the water of wiſedome to drink.

4 He ſhall be ſtayed upon her, and ſhall not be moved, and ſhall truſt upon her, and ſhall not be confounded.

5 She ſhall exalt him above his neighbours, and in the midſt of the Congregation ſhall ſhe open his mouth.

6 He ſhall finde joy and a crowne of gladneſſe, and ſhe ſhall cauſe him to inherit an everlaſting name.

7 The fooliſh men ſhall not attaine unto her, and ſinners ſhall not ſee her.

8 For ſhe is farre from pride, and men that are lyers cannot remember her.

9 Praiſe is not ſeemly in the mouth of a ſinner; for it was not ſent him of the Lord.

10 For praiſe ſhall be uttered in wiſedome, and the Lord will proſper it.

11 Say not thou, It is through the Lord that I fell away, for thou oughteſt not to do the things that he hateth.

12 Say not thou, He hath cauſed me to erre: for he hath no need of the ſinfull man.

13 The Lord hateth all abomination, and there is nothing that God loves, if it be.

14 He himſelf made man from the beginning, and left him in the hand of his counſell;

15 If thou wilt, to keep the commandements, and to perform acceptable faithfulneſſe.

16 He hath ſet fire and water before thee: ſtretch forth thy hand unto whether thou wilt.

17 Before man is life and death, and whether him liketh ſhall be given him.

18 For the wiſedome of the Lord is mighty in power, and ſeeing all things:

19 And his eyes are upon them that feare him, and he knoweth every work of man.

20 He hath commanded no man to do wickedly, neither hath he given thing neither labour, nor act wrought, nor cloth from their works.

28 None of them hindereth another, and they shall never disobey his word.

29 After this the Lord looked upon the earth, and filled it with his blessings.

30 With all manner of living things hath he covered the face thereof, and they shall return into it again.

CHAP. XVII.

1. How God created and furnished man. 14. Avoid all sins: 19. For God seeth all things. 25. Turn to him while thou livest.

THe Lord 1 created man of the earth, and turned him into it again. 1 Gen. 1.27. 3.19.

2 m He gave them few days, and a short time, and power also over the things therein. 3.2. 10.23.

3 He endued them with strength by themselves, and made them according to his image. 7.1, 6.2. 40.11. 7.

4 And put the fear n of man upon all flesh, and gave him dominion over beasts and fowls. col. 3.22. n Gen. 9.2.

5 [They received the use of the five operations of the Lord, and in the fifth place he imparted unto them understanding, and in the seventh, speech, as interpreter of the cogitations thereof.] 1.26. 4.20. 11.7. o Or, of 6 Counsel, and a tongue, and eies, ears, and o him, heart gave he them to understand.

7 Withall he filled them with the knowledge of understanding, and shewed them good and evil. 37.20

8 He set his eye upon their hearts, that he might shew them the greatness of his works.

9 He gave them to glory in his marvellous acts for ever, that they might declare his works with understanding.

10 And the Elect shall praise his holy Name.

11 Besides this he gave them knowledge, and the Law of life for an heritage.

12 He made an everlasting Covenant with them, and shewed them his judgments.

13 Their eies saw the Majesty of his glory, and their ears heard his glorious voice.

14 And he said unto them, Beware of all unrighteousness, and he p gave every man commandment concerning his neighbour. p Exod. 20.12. 22.23.

15 Their ways are ever before him, and shall not be hid from his eies.

16 Every man from his youth is given to evil, neither could they make up themselves to take hearts for stone.

17 For in the division of the nations of the whole earth, he set up q chief governors, and took Israel to be his peculiar people. q Deut. 32.8.

18 Whom, being the first born, and receiving instruction, he nourished, and gave them the light of his love, and not forsake them.

19 Therefore all their works are as the sun before him, and his eies are continually upon their ways.

20 None of their unrighteous deeds are hid from him, but all their sins are before the Lord.

21 But the Lord keepeth merciful, and knoweth his creature, and will not destroy them, neither forsake them.

22 The almes of a man is as a seal with him, and he will keep the good deeds of man as the apple of the eye, and give repentance to his children and daughters.

28 [a] Afterward he will look upon them, and remember them, and render their recompence upon their heads.

24 [b] But unto them that repent, he granted them return, and comforted those that fail in patience.

25 [c] Return unto the Lord, and forsake thy sinnes, make thy prayer before his face, and [d] offend lesse.

26 Turn again to the most High, and turn away from iniquity: for he will lead thee out of darkenesse into the [e] light of health, and hate thou abomination vehemently.

27 [f] Who shall praise the most High in the grave, in stead of them which live and give thanks?

28 Thankfgiving perisheth from the dead, as from one that is not: the living and sound in heart shall praise the Lord.

29 How great is the loving kindnesse of the Lord our God, and his compassion unto such as turn unto him in holinesse!

30 For all things cannot be in men, because the sonne of man is not immortall.

31 [g] What is brighter than the Sunne? yet the light thereof faileth: and flesh and blood will imagine evill.

32 He vieweth the power of the height of heaven, and all men are but earth and ashes.

CHAP. XVIII.

God works are to be wondred at. 9 Mans life is short. 11 God is mercifull. 15 Do not blemish thy good deeds with ill words. 22 Deferre not to be justified. 30 Follow not thy lusts.

[h] HE that liveth for ever, [h] created all things in generall.

2 The Lord onely is righteous, and there is none other but he:

3 Who governeth the world with the palm of his hand, and all things obey his will: for he is the King of all, by his power [i] dividing holy things among them from prophane.

4 To whom hath he given power to declare his works? [k] and who shall finde out his noble acts?

5 Who shall number the strength of his Majestie? and who shall also tell out his mercies?

6 As for the wonderous works of the Lord, there may nothing be taken from them, neither may any thing be put unto them, neither can the ground of them be found out.

7 When a man hath done, then he beginneth, and when he leaveth off, then he shall be doubtfull.

8 What is man, and wherein serveth he? what is his good, and what is his evill?

9 [l] The number of a mans dales at the most are an hundred yeers.

10 As a drop of water unto the sea, and a gravell stone in comparison of the sand, so are a [m] thousand yeers to the dales of eternity.

11 Therefore is God patient with them, and poureth forth his mercy upon them.

12 He saw, and perceived their end to be evill; therefore he multiplied his compassion.

13 [n] The mercy of man is toward his neighbour: but the mercy of the Lord is upon all flesh: he reproveth, and nurtureth, and teacheth, and bringeth again, as a shepherd his flock.

14 He hath mercy on them that receive discipline, and that diligently seek after his judgements.

15 [o] My sonne, blemish not thy good deeds, neither use any words when thou givest any thing.

16 Shall not the dew assuage the heat? so is the word better than a gift.

17 Lo, is not a word better than a gift? but both are with a franckes man.

18 A fool will upbraid churlishly, and the enuious consumeth the eies.

19 Learn before thou speak, and use [p] remedies ever thou be sick.

20 Before judgement [q] examine thy self, and in the day of visitation thou shalt finde mercy.

21 Humble thy self before thou be sick, and in the time of sinnes shew repentance.

22 Let nothing hinder thee to pay thy vow in due time, and defer not untill death to be justified.

23 Before thou prayest, prepare thy self, and be not as one that tempteth the Lord.

24 [r] Think upon the wrath that shall be at the end, and the time of vengeance when he shall turn away his face.

25 When thou art plenteous, remember the time of hunger, and when thou art rich think upon the poverty and need.

26 From the morning untill the evening the time is changed, and all things are soon done before the Lord.

27 [s] A wise man will fear in every thing, and in the day of sinning he will beware of offence: but a fool will not observe time.

28 Every man of understanding knoweth discretion, and will give praise unto him that findeth her.

29 They that were of understanding in words became also wise themselves, and powred out exquisite parables.

30 [t] Go not after thy lusts, but refraine thy self from thine appetites.

31 If thou grantest thy soul the desire of her, she will make thee a laughing stock to thine enemies that malice thee.

32 Take not pleasure in much good cheer, neither be tied to the expence thereof.

33 Be not made a beggar by banqueting and borrowing, when thou hast nothing in thy purse: for thou shalt lie in wait for thy own life, and be talked on.

CHAP. XIX.

Wine and women seduce wise men. 5 Try a friend before. 17 Reprove thy friend wisely. There is no wickednesse in woman like.

A Labouring man that is given to wine shall not be rich, and he that despiseth small things, shall fall by little and little.

2 Wine and women will make men of understanding to fall away, and he that cleaveth unto harlots, will become impudent.

3 Moathes and wormes shall have him in heritage, and a bold man shall be taken away.

4 He that is hasty to give credit, is light of heart, and he that sinneth, shall offend against his own soul.

5 Whoso taketh pleasure in wickednesse, shall be condemned; but he that resisteth it, shall preserve his life.

6 He that can rule his tongue, shall have understanding, and he that hateth babbling, shall have less evill.

7 Rehearse not unto any man that which is told thee, and then shalt thou have no shame.

8 Whether it be friend or foe, tell it not, and if thou have committed any sinne, or intendest to commit it, confesse it unto thy self.

9 Hear the word, and [u] keep it in thee, and let it rot and burst in thee, and thou shalt not be moved.

10 [x] A fool receiveth a word as a woman that is in travell with child, and as a bundle of thornes that fall from one in drunkennesse, and it becometh not in his mouth.

11 A word out of season is as a sore in the thigh, or the [y] labour of a childe.

17 [a] Chap. 41. 21.

Ps.141.5. Prov.25.12. Ps.119.127. 21. My son, hast thou sinned? do so no more, but pray for those things that are past, that they may be forgiven thee.

2 Flee from sin as from the face of a serpent: for if thou comest near unto it, it will take thee by the heart: the teeth thereof are as the teeth of a lion, slaying the souls of men.

3 All iniquity is as a two-edged sword, the wounds whereof cannot be healed.

4 To terrifie and do wrongs will waste riches: thus the house of proud men shall be made desolate.

b Exod.3. 9. & 22. 23. 5 b A prayer out of a poor man's mouth reacheth to the ears of God, and his judgement cometh speedily.

6 He that hateth to be reproved, is in the way of sinners: but he that feareth the Lord, will repent from his heart.

c Greek, he is well-versed. 7 An eloquent man is known farre and neer, but a man of understanding knoweth when he slippeth.

8 He that buildeth his house with other mens money, is like one that gathereth him stones for the tombe of his burial.

d 1 Chap. 16.16. 9 d The congregation of the wicked is like tow wrapped together; and the end of them is a flame of fire to destroy them.

10 The way of sinners is made plain with stones, but at the end thereof is the pit of hell.

11 He that keepeth the Law of the Lord, getteth the understanding thereof: and the perfection of the fear of the Lord, is wisdome.

e Eccles. 1.18. 12 He that is not f wise, will not be taught: but there is a g wisdome which multiplieth bitter sorrow.

13 The knowledge of a wise man shall abound like a flood; and his counsell is like a pure fountain of life.

h Chap. 27.11. 14 h The inner parts of a fool are like a broken vessel, and he will hold no knowledge as long as he liveth.

15 If a learned man heare a wise word, he will commend it, and adde unto it: but as soon as a voluptuous man heareth it, it displeaseth him, and he casteth it behinde his back.

16 The talking of a fool is like a burden in the way: but grace shall be found in the lips of the wise.

17 They enquire at the mouth of the wise man in the congregation, and they shall ponder his words in their heart.

18 As is a house that is destroyed, so is wisedome to a fool: and the knowledge of the unwise is as talk i without sense.

19 Doctrine unto fools is as fetters on the feet, and like manacles on the right hand.

20 k A fool lifteth up his voyce with laughter, but a wise man doth scarce smile a little.

k Or, not so he enquired after. Chap. 19.27,28

21 Learning is unto a wise man, as an ornament of gold, and like a bracelet upon his right arm.

22 A foolish mans foot is soon in his [neighbors] house: but a man of experience is ashamed of him.

23 A fool will peep in at the door into the house, but he that is well nurtured, will stand without.

24 It is the rudeness of a man to hearken at the door: but a wise man will be grieved with the disgrace.

25 The lips of talkers will be telling such things as pertain not unto them: but the words of such as have understanding, are weighed in the balance.

26 The heart of fools is in their mouth, but the mouth of the wise is in their heart.

27 When the ungodly curseth Satan, he curseth his own soul.

12 Seven dayes do men mourn for him that is dead, but for a fool and an ungodly man [illegible] dayes of his life.

13 Talk not much with a fool, and [illegible] to him that hath no understanding: [illegible] him, lest thou have trouble, and [illegible] be defiled [illegible] with his foolishness: [illegible] and then shalt thou rail, and [illegible] with his madness.

42 I will yet make doctrine to shine as the morning, and will send forth her light afarre off.

43 I will yet powre out teaching as prophecie, and leave it to all ages for ever.

i Chap. 33.16. 44 Behold, that I have not laboured for my self only, but for all them that seek wisdome.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Three things he reioyceth, 3 which are commended of God and men. 7 Nine things he hateth, 8 which are greatly abhorred of him.

IN three things I am well pleased, for they are beautifull before God and men: the a unity of brethren, the love of neighbours: a. Gen. 13. 8. 29. 14. and. man and wife that agree together.

2 Three sorts of men my soul hateth, and I am greatly offended at their life: a poor man

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Of boast in glory and laying. 7 One faith with all within it is to. 16 A friend's gift by discovering his secrets. 25 He that regards a pie, shall fall into it.

DO not boast thy self for to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?

5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

7 The full soul loatheth an honey-comb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart; so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near, than a brother far off.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a pledge: and him for the strange women.

14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day, and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her, hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth himself.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

20 Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

21 As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.

22 Though thou bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.

24 For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation?

25 The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

27 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Of fear in flying and laying. 7 One faith with all within it is. 16 A friend's gift by discovering his secrets. 25 He that regards a pie, shall fall into it.

1 THE wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.

4 They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the Lord understand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit: but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked arise, a man is hidden.

13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good: for for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that rebuketh a man shall afterwards find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked arise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Of stiffness in sin. 3 Of keeping the law. 5 Of flattery. 15 Of correction. 20 Of hasty words. 24 Of partaking with thieves.

1 HE that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked bear rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to falsehood, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the Lord lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the Lord.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

27 He that worketh all things, he shall turn upon him, and he shall not know whence it cometh.

28 Mockery and reproach are from the proud: but a vengeance as a lion shall lie in wait for them.

29 They that rejoyce at the fall of the righteous, shall be taken in the snare, and anguish shall consume them before they die.

30 Malice and wrath, even these are abominations, and the sinful man shall have them both.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Against revenge, and quarrelling. 10 anger. 15 and perverseness.

HE that revengeth shall finde vengeance from the Lord, and he will surely keep his sinnes [in remembrance].

2 Forgive thy neighbour the hurt that he hath done unto thee, so shall thy sinnes also be forgiven when thou prayest.

3 One man beareth hatred against another, and doeth he seek pardon from the Lord?

4 He sheweth no mercy to a man, which is like himself, and doeth he ask forgivenesse of his own sinnes?

5 If he that is but flesh nourish hatred, who will intreat for pardon of his sinnes?

6 Remember thy end, and let enmity cease, [remember] corruption and death, and abide in the Commandments.

7 Remember the Commandements, and bear no malice to thy neighbour, [remember] the Covenant of the Highest, and wink at ignorance.

8 b Abstain from strife, and thou shalt diminish thy sinnes: for a furious man will kindle strife.

9 c A sinful man disquieteth friends, and maketh debate among them that be at peace.

10 As the matter of the fire is, so it burneth: and as a mans strength is, so is his wrath, and according to his riches his anger riseth, and the stronger they are which provoked, the more they will be inraged.

11 An hasty contention kindleth a fire, and an hasty fighting sheddeth blood.

12 If thou blow the spark, it shall burne: if thou spit upon it, it shall be quenched, and both these come out of thy mouth.

13 d Curse the whisperer and double tongued: for many have destroyed peace that were at peace.

14 A backbiting tongue hath disquieted many, and driven them from nation to nation, strong cities hath it pulled down, and overthrown the houses of great men.

15 The backbiting tongue hath cast out vertuous women, and deprived them of their labours.

16 He that giveth heed unto it, shall never finde rest, and never dwell quietly.

17 The stroke of the whip maketh marks in the flesh, but the stroke of the tongue breaketh the bones.

18 Many have fallen by the edge of the sword, but not so many as have fallen by the tongue.

19 Well is he that is defended from it, and hath not drawn the yoke of it upon him, nor been bound in her bands.

20 For the yoke thereof is a yoke of iron, and the bands thereof are bands of brass.

21 The death thereby is an evil death, the grave were better than it.

22 It shall not have rule over them that love God, but they shall be burned with the flame thereof.

23 Such as forsake the Lord shall fall into it, and it shall be set among them, and not be quenched: it shall be sent among them as a Lyon, it shall destroy them as a leopard.

24 Look that thou hedge thy possessions with thorns, and bind up thy silver and gold, 25 And weigh thy words in a just balance, and make a door and bar for thy mouth.

26 Beware that thou slide not by it, lest thou fall before him that lieth in wait.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 We must shew mercy, and lend him that needeth: we must not defraud the brethren or strangers: and undertake for others in danger: and we ought to live at home, then in strangers.

HE that is merciful, will lend unto his neighbour, and he that strengtheneth him keepeth the Commandments.

2 Lend to thy neighbour in time of his need, and pay thou thy neighbour again in due season.

3 Keep thy word, and deal faithfully with him, and thou shalt always finde that which is necessary for thee.

4 Many, when a thing was lent them, reckoned it to be found, and put them to trouble that helped them.

5 Till he hath received, he will kiss a mans hand, and for his neighbours money he will speak submissly, but when he should restore it, he will prolong the time, and return words of grief, and complain of the times.

6 ¶ If he prevail, he shall hardly receive the half, and he will count as if he had found it: if not, he hath defrauded him of his money, and he hath gotten him an enemy without cause: he payeth him with curses and railings, and for honour he will pay him disdain.

7 Many therefore have refused to lend for other more ill deserving, fearing to be defrauded without cause.

8 Yet have thou patience with a poor man, and delay not to shew him mercy.

9 Help the poor, for the commandements sake, and turn him not away because of his poverty.

10 Lose thy money for thy brother and friend, and let it not rust under a stone to thy losse.

11 k Lay up thy treasure according to the commandements of the most High, and it shall bring thee more profit than gold.

12 Knit up alms in thy bosom, and it shall fetch thee out of all adversity.

13 It shall fight better for thee than a strong shield, and than a mighty spear.

14 An honest man is surety for his neighbour, but he that is impudent will forsake him.

15 A sinner will overthrow the good name of his surety,

16 And he that is unthankful in his heart will leave him in [danger].

17 Forsake not a friend for money, nor a brother for the gold of Ophir.

18 A good wife with a good portion is a blessing in the [house].

19 Riches and goods make the heart glad, and thou shalt have the prosperity of the flesh.

20 Like as the fire is tried by the stroke of the hammer, so is a rich man by the tongue of a slanderer.

21 Many have sinned for a little money, and have turned away their eyes from the [poor].

22 Like as a nail sticketh fast between the joynts of the stones, so doth sin stick between buying and selling.

23 Except a man hold himself diligently in the fear of God, his house shall soon be overthrown.

24 Of the mouth of the unlearned, and of the unlearned and rude, beware: for it is a sword.

25 Swearing, rashness, and lightness of the tongue, make a man to sin.

26 Beware that thou be not called a swearer, and that thou be not found rash in the name of the Lord.

27 For as a servant that is continually punished shall not want a wale, so he that sweareth and taketh the name of God in vain shall not be cleansed.

28 A man that sweareth much shall be filled with iniquity, and the plague shall not depart from his house: if he offend, his sin shall be upon him, and if he neglect it, he sinneth double.

29 If he swear in vain, he shall not be justified, his house shall be full of calamities.

30 There is a curse of death: let no man be found of his own heritage.

31 Teach thy children to fear God, that when they come to age they may not be found to blaspheme.

32 A father that teacheth his son, and all that learn of him, shall praise him among the [wise].

33 He that teacheth his son, maketh his enemy envious: and before his friends he shall rejoyce of him.

34 When he is dead, he is not sorry, for he leaveth behind him one that is like him after the flesh.

35 He maketh glad his father in his life, and when he dieth he is not ashamed.

36 He leaveth behind him a defender against his enemies, and one that requiteth kindness to his friends.

37 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

38 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

39 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

40 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

41 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

42 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

43 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

44 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

45 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

46 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

47 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

48 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

49 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

50 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

51 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

52 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

53 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

54 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

55 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

56 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

57 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

58 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

59 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

60 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

61 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

62 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

63 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

64 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

65 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

66 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

67 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

68 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

69 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

70 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

71 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

72 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

73 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

74 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

75 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

76 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

77 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

78 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

79 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

80 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

81 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

82 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

83 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

84 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

85 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

86 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

87 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

88 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

89 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

90 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

91 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

92 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

93 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

94 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

95 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

96 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

97 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

98 Unthankfulness is a sore wound, it will make the land barren, and destroy the substance of many.

99 Like as a sore wound in the head, so is unthankfulness in a man.

100 Whosoever is unthankful, who hath brought him up, he is like a wound in the head, for he provoketh his mother to curse him.

CHAP. XXX.

Take good to correct our children, and not to curse them.

14 Health is better than wealth, and a merry heart than pleasures and treasure profitable to the grief.

He that loveth his sonne, causeth him oft to feel the rod, that he may have joy of him in the end.

He that chastiseth his sonne, shall have joy of him, and shall rejoyce of him among his acquaintance.

He that teacheth his sonne, grieveth the enemy: and before his friends he shall rejoyce of him.

Although his father die, yet he is as though he were dead: for he hath left one behind him, which is like himself.

While he lived, he saw and rejoyced in him: and when he died, he was not sorrowfull.

He left behinde him an avenger against his enemies, and one that shall requite kindnesse to his friends.

He that maketh too much of his sonne, shall bind up his wounds, and his bowels will be troubled every time he crieth.

A horse not broken becometh head-strong: a child left to himself will be wilfull.

Cocker thy child, and he shall make thee afraid: play with him, and he will bring thee to heavinesse.

Laugh not with him, lest thou have sorrow with him, and last thou gnash thy teeth in the end.

Give him no liberty in his youth, and wink not at his folly.

Bow down his stubborn neck while he is young, and beat him on the sides while he is a child, lest he wax stubborn, and be disobedient unto thee, and so bring heaviness to thine heart.

Chastise thy sonne, and deal hardly with him, that no lewd behaviour be a grief unto thine heart.

Better is the poore living sound and strong of body, than a rich man that is afflicted in his body.

For all good state of body, and whatsoever is above a strong body above infinite wealth.

There is no riches above a sound body, and no joy above the joy of the heart.

Death is better than a bitter life, or continual sickness.

Good meat sent upon a mouth that is shut, is as a gift layed upon a grave.

What profiteth a gift unto an idol? for neither can it eat nor smell: so is he that is punished of the Lord.

He seeth with his eyes, and sigheth, as an eunuch that embraceth a maid, and turneth himself backward.

Give not over thy mind to heaviness, and afflict not thyself willingly.

Joy of heart is the life of man, and the rejoycing of a man prolongeth his dayes.

Love thine own soul, and comfort thy heart, remove grief from thee: for sorrow hath killed many, and there is no profit therein.

Envie and wrath shorten the life, and carefulness bringeth age before the time.

A cheerfull and good heart will have a care of his meat and diet.

CHAP. XXXI.

Of the abuse of Riches, and of moderation and temperance in eating, & drinking wine.

WAtching for riches consumeth the flesh, and the care thereof driveth away sleep.

Watching cause will not live a man quietly, as a slumbering sickness betweene sleeps.

The rich hath great labour in gathering riches together, and when he resteth, he is filled with his delicates.

The poor laboureth in his poor estate, and when he leaveth off, he is still needy.

He that loveth gold shall not be justified, and he that followeth corruption, shall have enough thereof.

Gold hath perished many, and their destruction was present.

It is a stumbling block unto them that sacrifice unto it, and every fool shall be taken therewith.

Blessed is the rich, that is found without blemish, and hath not gone after gold, nor put his trust in money nor treasures.

Who is he? and we will call him blessed: for wonderfull things hath he done among his people.

Who hath been tried thereby, and found perfect? then let him glory. Who might have sinned, and hath not sinned? and done evil, and hath not done it?

His goods shall be established, and the congregation shall declare his almes.

If thou sit at a bountifull table, gape not greedily upon it, and lay not a great deale upon it: for evill is a greedy thing.

Remember that a wicked eye is not a good thing: and what is worse than the eye? therefore it weepeth sooner for every thing.

Stretch not thine hand whereunto thine eye is bent, and thrust it not with him into the dish: for even thy neighbour will judge of thy manners by thy eyes.

Be not greedy in every point, and use not many words: for so shalt thou be hated.

Leave off first for manners sake, and be not unsatiable, lest thou offend.

When thou sittest among many, reach not out thine hand over all before them.

How little is to a man that is well ordered, for he goeth not to bed sick.

Sound sleep cometh of moderate eating: he riseth early, and his wits are with him: but the pain of watching, and choler, and griefs of the belly are with an unsatiable man.

And if thou have been forced to eat, arise, go out, vomit, and thou shalt have rest.

My sonne, hear me, and despise me not, and at the last thou shalt find my words true: in all thy deeds be quick, and there shall no sickness come to thee.

The lippes shall tell of him that is liberall, and the congregation will declare his commendation.

Whoso is liberall of his mouth, men shall speak well for him: and the witnesse of his good house-keeping will be faithfull.

26 But a prudent man that is a stayer of his mony, the whole city shall nourish, and the habitation of his stay shall continue: the dread of a10.8.22 Sister not thy A valiant wife is like the Judeth 13.14 hath destroyed many.
26 The furnace proveth the edge by dipping; so doth wine the hearts of the proud by drunkenness.
27 Wine is as good as life to a man, if it be drunk moderately: what life is then to a man that is without wine? for it was made to make men glad.
28 Wine ministereth drink, and in season, bringeth gladness of the heart, and cheerfulness of the mynde.
29 Bitterness drunken with anguish, maketh bitterness of the mynde, with brawling and quarrelling.
30 Drunkenness encreaseth the rage of a fool till he offend, it diminisheth strength, and maketh wounds.
31 Rebuke not thy neighbour at the wine, and despise him not in his mirth: give him no de-spightfull words, and presse not upon him with urging him (to drink).

CHAP. XXXII.

Of his duty that is chief or master in a feast.

1 Of the fear of God. 18 Of counsell. 20 Of a charged and a friendly wife. 23 Trust not to any but to thy self and to God.

WHen thou art made the master (of the feast) lift not thy self up, but be among them as one of the rest: take diligent care for them, and so sit down.
2 And when thou hast done all thy office, take thy place, that thou mayest be merry with them, & receive a crown for thy well ordering of the feast.
3 Speak then (as an elder,) for it becometh thee, but with sound judgement, and hinder not musick.
4 Powre not out words where there is a musician, and shew not forth wisdome out of time.

I was oft times in danger of death, yet I was [illegible] because of these things.
The spirit of those that fear the Lord shall live: for their hope is in him that saveth them.
Whoso feareth the Lord, shall not fear, nor [illegible] for he is his hope.
Blessed is the soul of him that feareth the Lord: to whom doth he look? and who is his [illegible]?
For the eies of the Lord are upon them that love him, he is their mighty protection and strong defence, from heat, and a cover from [illegible] at noon, a preservation from stumbling, [illegible] from falling.

When one prayeth, and another curseth, whose voice will the Lord hear?
He [g] that washeth himself after the touching of a dead body, if he touch it again, what availeth his washing?
So is it with a man that fasteth for his sinnes, and goeth again and doth the same: who will hear his prayer, or what doth his humbling profit him?

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Sacrifice pleasing God. 14 The prayer of the fatherless, of the widow, and of the humble in spirit. 20 Righteous mercy.

He [a] that keepeth the Law, bringeth offerings enough: he that taketh heed to the commandment, offereth a peace offering.
He that requiteth a good turn, offereth fine flour: and he that giveth alms, sacrificeth praise.
To depart from wickedness, is a thing pleasing to the Lord: and to forsake unrighteousness, is a propitiation.
[b] Thou shalt not appear empty before the Lord:
For all these things [are to be done] because of the commandment.
The offering of the righteous maketh the Altar fat, and the sweet savour thereof is before the most High.
The sacrifice of a just man is acceptable, and the memoriall thereof shall never be forgotten.
Give the Lord his honour with a good eye, and diminish not the first fruits of thine hands.
[c] In all thy gifts shew a cheerfull countenance, and [d] dedicate thy tithes with gladness.
[e] Give unto the most High according as he hath enriched thee, and as thou hast gotten, give with a cheerfull eye.
For the Lord recompenseth, and will give thee seven times as much.
[f] Do not think to corrupt with gifts, for such he will not receive: and trust not to unrighteous sacrifices, for the Lord is judge, and with him is [g] no respect of persons.
He will not accept any person against a poor man: but will hear the prayer of the oppressed.
He will not despise the supplication of the fatherless: nor the widow, when she powreth out her complaint.
Doth not the tears run down the widows cheeks? and is not her cry against him that causeth them to fall?
He that serveth the Lord, shall be accepted with favour, and his prayer shall reach unto the clouds.
The prayer of the humble pierceth the clouds: and till it come nigh, he will not be comforted; and will not depart till the most High [illegible] to judge righteously, and execute judgement.
[illegible] will not be slack, neither will the [illegible] patient toward them, till he have smitten in sunder the loins of the unmerciful, and repayed vengeance to the heathen: till he have [illegible]

1 How to know friends and counſellers. 7 Of counſellers of ſundry ſorts. 16 Of a wiſe man. 22 Of wiſedome and wickedneſſe.

EVery friend ſaith, I am his friend alſo: but there is a friend which is only a friend in name.

2 Is it not a griefe unto death, when a companion and friend is turned to an enemy?

3 O wicked imagination, whence camſt thou in to cover the earth with deceit?

4 There is a companion, which rejoyceth in the proſperity of a friend: but in the time of affliction he will be againſt him.

5 There is a companion which helpeth his friend for the belly, and taketh up the buckler againſt the enemy.

6 Forget not thy friend in thy mind, and be unmindfull of him in thy riches.

7 Every counſeller extolleth counſell: but there is ſome that counſelleth for himſelf.

8 Beware of a counſeller, and learn before what need he hath, (for he will counſell for himſelf) leſt he caſt the lot upon thee:

9 And ſay unto thee, Thy way is good: and afterward he ſtand on the other ſide, to ſee what ſhall befall thee.

10 Conſult not with one that looketh aſkew, and hide thy counſell from ſuch as envy thee.

11 Neither conſult with a woman touching her rival, of whom ſhe is jealous, neither with a coward in matters of warre, nor with a merchant touching exchange, nor with a buyer of ſelling, nor with an envious man of thankfulneſſe, nor with an unmercifull man touching kindneſſe, nor with a lazie full for any work, nor with an hireling for dayes of faſhing work, ſtir with an idle ſervant about any buſineſſe: Hearken not unto theſe in any matter of counſell.

12 But be continually with a godly man, whom thou knoweſt to keep the Commandments of the Lord, whoſe minde is according to thy minde, and who will ſorrow with thee if thou fall.

13 And let the counſell of thine own heart ſtand: for there is no man more faithfull unto thee then it.

14 For a man's minde is ſometimes wont to tell him more then ſeven watchmen that ſit above in an high tower.

15 And above all this, pray to the moſt high, that he will dire& thy way in truth.

16 Let reaſon go before every enterpriſe, and counſell before every action.

17 The countenance is a ſigne of the change of the heart.

18 Four manner of things appear unto me to be evill, life and death: but the tongue hath power over them continually.

20 There is one that ſheweth wiſedome in words, and is hated: he ſhall be deſtitute of all victuall.

21 For grace is not given him from the Lord, becauſe he is deprived of all wiſedome.

22 Another is wiſe to himſelf, and the fruits of his understanding are commended in his mouth.

23 A wiſe man inſtructeth his people, and the fruits of his underſtanding ſtand ſure.

24 A wiſe man ſhall have bleſſings upon his head, and all they that ſee him ſhall call him bleſſed.

1 Honour to the Physician, and why. 16 Rest to mourners for the dead. 24 The wisdome of the rude man, and of the labourer, and Artificer, by the use of their hands.

1 Honour a Physician with the honour due unto him, for the uses which you may have of him: for the Lord hath created him.

2 For of the most High cometh healing, and he shall receive honour of the King.

3 The skill of the Physician shall lift up his head: and in the sight of great men he shall be in admiration.

4 The Lord hath created medicines out of the earth; and he that is wise will not abhorre them.

5 Was not the water made sweet with wood, that the vertue thereof might be known?

6 And he hath given men skill, that he might be honoured in his marvellous works.

7 With such doth he heal [men] and taketh away their pains.

8 Of such doth the Apothecary make a confection; of his works there is no end, and from him is peace over all the earth.

9 My sonne, in thy sickneſſe be not negligent: but pray unto the Lord, and he will make thee whole.

10 Leave off from sinne, and order thy hands aright, and cleanse thy heart from all wickedneſſe.

11 Give a sweet savour, and a memoriall of fine flour; and make a fat offering, as not being.

12 Then give place to the Physician, for the Lord hath created him: let him not go from thee, for thou hast need of him.

13 There is a time when in their hands there is good successe.

14 For they shall also pray unto the Lord, that he would prosper that which they give, for ease and remedy to prolong life.

15 He that sinneth before his Maker, let him fall into the hand of the Physician.

16 My sonne, let tears fall down over the dead, and begin to lament, as if that hadst suffered great harm thy self: and then cover his body according to custome, and neglect not his burriall.

17 Weep bitterly, and make great moane, and use lamentation as he is worthy, and that a day or two, lest thou be evill spoken of: and then comfort thy self for thy heavineſſe.

18 For of heavineſſe cometh death, and the heavineſſe of the heart breaketh strength.

19 In affliction also sorrow remaineth; and the life of the poor is the curſe of the heart.

20 Take no heavineſſe to heart: drive it away, remember the last end.

21 Forget it not, for there is no turning again: thou shalt not do him good, but hurt thy self.

27 So every carpenter, and work-master, that labours night and day: and they that cut and grave seals, and are diligent to make great variety, and give themselves to counterfeit imagery, and watch to finish a work.

28 The smith also sitting by the anvill, and considering the iron work, the vapour of the fire wasteth his flesh, and he fighteth with the heat of the furnace: the noise of the hammer and the anvill is ever in his ears, and his eyes look still upon the pattern of the thing that he maketh, he setteth his minde to finish his work, and watcheth to polish it perfectly.

29 So doth the potter sitting at his work, and turning the wheel about with his feet, who is alway carefully set at his work, and maketh all his work by number.

30 He fashioneth the clay with his arm, and boweth down his strength before his feet: he applieth himself to lead it over, and he is diligent to make clean the furnace.

31 All these trust to their hands: and every one is wise in his work.

32 Without these cannot a city be inhabited:
and they shall not dwell where they will, nor go up and down.

33 They shall not be sought for in publike counsell, nor sit high in the Congregation: they shall not sit on the judges seat, nor understand the sentence of judgement: they cannot declare justice and judgement, and they shall not be found where parables are spoken.

34 But they will maintain the state of the world, and [all] their desire is in the work of their craft.

1 A description of one that is truely wise. 12 An exhortation to praise God for his works: which are good to the good, and evill to them that are evill.

BUt he that giveth his minde to the Law of the most High, and is occupied in the meditation thereof, will seek out the wisdome of all the Ancient, and be occupied in prophecies.

2 He will keep the sayings of the renowned men, and where subtill parables are, he will be there also.

3 He will seek out the secrets of grave sentences, and be conversant in dark parables.

4 He shall serve among great men, and appear before Princes: he will travell through strange countreys, for he hath tried the good and the evill among men.

5 He will give his heart to resort early to the Lord that made him, and will pray before the most High, and will open his mouth in prayer, and make supplication for his sinnes.

6 When the great Lord will, he shall be filled with the spirit of understanding: he shall powre out wise sentences, and give thanks unto the Lord in his prayer.

7 He shall direct his counsell and knowledge, and in his secrets shall he be conversant.

[g] Many shall despise and forsake her, and she shall not forsake them, but shall be with them at all times, and to all men that live [truly] according to their nature.

16 [g] Hearken unto me, O ye holy children, and bud forth as a rose growing by the [c] brook of the field:

17 And give ye a sweet savour as frankincense, and flourish as a lily, send forth a smell, and sing a song of praise, bless the Lord in all his works.

18 Magnifie his Name, and shew forth his praise with the tunes of your lips, and with harps, and in praising him you shall say after this manner:

19 [d] All the works of the Lord are exceeding good, and whatsoever he commandeth, shall be accomplished in due season.

20 And none may say, What is this? wherefore is that? for at time convenient they shall all be sought out: at his commandment the waters stood as an heap, and at the words of his mouth the receptacles of waters.

21 At his commandement is done whatsoever pleaseth him, and none can hinder when he will save.

22 The works of all flesh are before him, and nothing can be hid from his eyes.

23 He seeth from everlasting to everlasting, and there is nothing wonderful before him.

24 A man need not to say, What is this? wherefore is that? for he hath made all things for their uses.

25 His blessing covered the dry land as a river, and watered it as a flood.

26 As he hath turned the waters into saltness: so shall the heathen inherit his wrath.

27 [e] As his ways are plain unto the holy, so are they stumbling blocks unto the wicked.

28 For the good are good things created from the beginning: so evil things for sinners.

29 The principall things for the whole use of mans life, are water, fire, iron, and salt, flowre of wheat, honey, milk, and the blood of the grape, and oil, and clothing.

30 All these things are for good to the godly: so to the sinners they are turned into evil.

31 There be spirits that are created for vengeance, which in their fury lay on sore strokes, in the time of destruction they powre out their force, and appease the wrath of him that made them.

32 Fire, and hail, and famine, and death: all these were created for vengeance:

33 Teeth of wilde beasts, and scorpions, [f] serpents, and the sword, punishing the wicked to destruction.

34 They shall rejoyce in his commandement, and they shall be ready upon earth when need is, and when their time is come, they shall not transgresse his word.

35 Therefore from the beginning I was resolved, and thought upon these things, and have left them in writing, 36 All the works of the Lord are good: and he will give every needfull thing in due season.

37 So that a man cannot say, This is worse than that: for in season all shall be well approved.

38 And therefore praise with [g] the whole heart and mouth, and bless the blame of the Lord.

[g] Many shall condemn [wisdom] and it shall stand fast for ever, as the world endureth it shall be found: and [wisdom] shall not be seen. [g] Many shall despise and forsake her, and she shall not forsake them, but shall be with them at all times, and to all men that live [truly] according to their nature.

GReat travell is created for every man, and an heavie yoke is upon the sonnes of Adam, from the day that they go out of their mothers womb, till the day that they return to the mother of all things.

2 Their [a] troublesome thoughts, and the fear of their hearts is of the day of death: [b] trouble [causeth] fear of heart:

3 From him that sitteth on a throne of glory, unto him that is humbled in earth and ashes,

4 From him that weareth purple and a crown, unto him that is clothed with [c] linnen [cloth].

5 Wrath and envie, trouble and unquietness, fear of death, and anger, and strife: and in the time of rest upon his bed, his night sleep doth change his knowledge.

6 A little or nothing, is hisrest, and then he is in his sleep, as in a day of watching: troubled in the vision of his heart, as one that is escaped out of a battell:

7 When all is done, he awaketh, and wondereth that the fear was nothing.

8 [Such things happen] unto all flesh, both man and beast, and that is seven fold more upon sinners.

9 [Death and bloudshed, strife and contention,] launces, famine, trouble, and the scourge:

10 These things are created for the wicked, and for their sakes came the flood.

11 [All things that are of the earth,] shall turn to the earth again: and that which is of the waters, doth return into the sea.

12 All [d] bribery, and unrighteousness shall be put out: but true dealing shall endure for ever.

13 The goods of the unjust shall be dried up like a river, and shall vanish with a noise like great thunder in rain.

14 While he openeth his hand, he shall rejoyce: so shall transgressours come to nought.

15 The children of the ungodly shall not bring forth many branches: but are as unclean roots upon a hard rock.

16 [e] The weed growing upon every water and bank of a river, shall be pulled up before all grasse.

10 With an holy garment, with gold and blue silk, and purple, the work of the embroiderer, with a breastplate of judgement, and with Urim, and Thummim.

11 With twisted scarlet the work of the cunning workman, with precious stones graven like seals, and set in gold, the work of the jeweller, with a writing engraved for a memorial, after the number of the tribes of Israel.

12 He set a crown of gold upon the mitre, wherein was engraved holiness, an ornament of honour, a costly work, the desire of the eies, goodly and beautiful.

13 Before him there were none such, neither did ever any stranger put them on, but only his children, and his children's children perpetually.

14 Their sacrifices shall be wholly consumed every day twice continually.

15 Moses consecrated him, and anointed him with holy oyl, this was appointed unto him by an everlasting Covenant, and to his seed so long as the heavens should remain, that they should minister unto him, and execute the office of the Priesthood, and bless the people in his Name.

16 He chose him out of all men living, to offer sacrifices to the Lord, incense and a sweet savour for a memorial, to make reconciliation for his people.

17 t He gave unto him his Commandments, and authority in the Statutes of Judgements, that he should teach Jacob the Testimonies, and inform Israel in his Laws. t Deut. 17.10. & 33.10.

18 u Strangers conspired together against him, and maligned him in the wilderness, even the men that were of Dathan, and Abiron's side, and the congregation of Core with fury and wrath. u Numb. 16.1.

19 This the Lord saw, and it displeased him, and in his wrathful indignation were they consumed: he did wonders upon them, to consume them with the fiery flame.

20 x But he made Aaron more honourable, and gave him an heritage, and divided unto him the first fruits of the increase; especially he prepared bread in abundance: x Numb. 17.8.

a Numb. 27.18. deut. 34. 9. josh. 1.2. and 12.7.

2 a Jesus the sonne of Nave was valiant in the warres, and was the successour of Moses in prophecies, who according to his name was made great for the saving of the elect of God, and taking vengeance of the enemies that rose up against them, that he might set Israel in their inheritance.

b Josh. 10.12, 13,14.

3 b How great glory gate he when he did lift up his hands, and stretched out his sword against the cities?

4 Who before him so stood to it? for the Lord himself brought his enemies unto him.

5 Did not the Sunne go back by his meanes? and was not one day as long as two?

6 He called upon the most high Lord when the enemies pressed upon him on every side, and the great Lord heard him.

7 And with hailstones of mighty power he made the battell to fall violently upon the nations, and in the descent (of Bethoron) he destroyed them that resisted, that the nations might know all their strength, because he fought in the sight of the Lord, and he followed the mighty One.

8 In the time of Moses also he did a work of mercy, he and Caleb the sonne of Jephunne, in that they withstood the Congregation, and withheld the people from sinne, and appeased the wicked murmuring.

c Numb. 26.65. deut. 35.36.

9 c And of six hundred thousand people on foot, they two were preserved to bring them into the heritage, even unto the land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 The Lord gave strength also unto Caleb, which remained with him unto his old age, so that he entred upon the high places of the land, and his seed obtained it for an heritage.

11 That all the children of Israel might see that it is good to follow the Lord.

15 By the Law of the Lord he judged the Congregation, and the Lord had respect unto Jacob.

16 By his faithfulnesse he was found a true Prophet, and by his word he was known to be faithfull in vision.

17 He called upon the mighty Lord, when his enemies pressed upon him on every side, when he offered the f sucking Lambe.

3 k He played with lions as with kids, and with k 1 Sam. 17.34. bears as with lambes.

4 l Slew he not a giant, when he was yet but young? and did he not take away reproch from the people, when he lifted up his hand with a stone in the sling, and beat down the boasting of Goliah?

5 For he called upon the most high Lord, and he gave him strength in his right hand to slay that mighty warriour, and set up the horn of his people:

6 So the people honoured him with m ten thousands, and praised him in the blessings of the Lord, in that he gave him a crown of glory.

7 For he destroyed the enemies on every side, and n brought to nought the Philistines his adversaries, and brake their horn in pieces unto this day.

8 In all his works he praised the holy One most High, with words of Glory, with his whole heart he sang songs, and loved him that made him.

9 He set singers also before the o Altar, that by their voices they might make sweet melody, and daily sing praise in their songs.

10 He beautified [illegible] for his solemne times, [illegible] praise his holy Name, and that the Temple might sound from morning.

11 The Lord took away his [illegible] his p kingdom for ever: he gave him a covenant of Kings, and a throne q of glory in Israel.

12 After him rose up a wise sonne, and for his sake he dwelt at large.

13 r Solomon reigned in a peaceable time, and was honoured, for God made all quiet round about him, that he might build an house in his Name, and prepare his Sanctuary for ever.

14 s How wisest thou in thy youth, and [illegible] flood filled with understanding?

15 Thy soul covered the whole earth, and thou filledst it with dark parables.

16 Thy name went farre unto the Iles, and for thy peace thou wast beloved.

17 The countreys marvelled at thy songs, and proverbs, and parables, and interpretations.

18 By the Name of the Lord God, which is called the Lord God of Israel, thou didst gather gold as tinne, and didst multiply silver as lead.

19 t Thou didst bow thy loines unto women, and by thy body thou wast brought into subjection.

20 Thou didst stain thy honour, and pollute thy seed, so that thou broughtest wrath upon thy children, and wast grieved for thy folly.

21 u So the Kingdome was divided, and out of Ephraim ruled a rebellious kingdome.

22 But the Lord will never forsake his mercy, neither shall any of his works perish, neither will he abolish the posterity of his elect, and the seed of him that loved him, he will not take away: therefore he gave a remnant unto Jacob, and [illegible] a root unto David.

23 Thus [illegible] of the flesh, and [illegible] of the Lord, [illegible] the sonne of Nebat, who [b] caused Israel to sinne, and drove Ephraim the way of sinne:

6 And their sinnes were multiplied exceedingly, that they were driven out of the land.
15 For they sought out all wickednesse, till the vengeance came upon them.

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 The praise of Elias, 12 Of Elizeus, 17 and of Ezekias.

THen stood up [c] Elias the Prophet as fire, and his word burnt like a lamp.
2 He brought a sore famine upon them, and by his zeal he diminished their number.
3 By the word of the Lord he [d] shut up the heaven, [e] and also three times brought down fire.
4 O Elias, how wast thou honoured in thy wondrous deeds! and who may glory like unto thee!
5 [f] Who didst raise up a dead man from death, and his soul from the [g] place of the dead, by the word of the most High.
6 Who broughtest Kings to destruction, and honourable men from their [h] bed.
7 Who heardest the rebuke of the Lord in Sinai, [k] and in Horeb the judgement of vengeance.
8 Who [i] anointest kings to take revenge, and Prophets to succeed after him:
9 [m] Who wast taken up in a whirlewind of fire, and in a chariot of fiery horses:
10 Who wast [n] ordained [o] for reproofes in their times, to pacifie the wrath of the Lords judgement before it broke forth into fury, and to turn the heart of the father unto the sonne, and to [p] restore the tribes of Jacob.
11 Blessed are they that saw thee, and [q] slept in love: for we shall surely live.
12 [r] Elias it was who was covered with a whirlewind: and Elizeus was filled with his spirit:
whilest he lived he was not moved [with the presence] of any Prince, neither could any bring him into subjection.
13 [s] No word could overcome him, [t] and after he was dead his body prophesied.
14 He did wonders in his life, and at his death were his works marvellous.
15 For all this the people repented not, neither departed they from their sinnes, [u] till they were spoiled [and carried] out of their land, and were scattered through all the earth: yet there remained a small people, and a ruler in the house of David.
16 Of whom some did that which was pleasing unto God, and some multiplied sinnes.
17 [x] Ezekias fortified his city, and brought in water into the midst thereof: he digged the hard rock with iron, and made wells for waters.
18 In his time [y] Sennacherib came up, and sent Rabsaces, and lift up his hand against Sion, and boasted proudly.
19 Then trembled their hearts and hands, and they were in pain as women in travell.
20 But they called upon the Lord which is merciful, and stretched out their hands towards him continually: the holy One heard them out of heaven, and delivered them by the [z] ministery of Esay.
21 He smote the hoste of the Assyrians, and his Angel destroyed them.
22 For Ezekias had done the thing that pleased the Lord, and was strong in the wayes of David his father, as Esay the Prophet, who was great and honourable in his vision, had commanded him.
23 In his time the Sonne went backward, and he lengthened the Kings life.
24 He saw by an excellent spirit what should come to passe at the last, and he comforted them that mourned in Sion.
25 He shewed what should come to passe for ever, and secret things or ever they came.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 The praise of Josias, 4 Of David, and Ezekias, 6 Of Jeremy, 8 Of Ezekiel, 11 Zorobabel, 12 Jesus the sonne of Josedec, 13 Of Nehemiah, Enoch, Seth, Sem, and Adam.

THe remembrance of [c] Josias is like the composition of the perfume that is made by the art of the Apothecary: it is sweet as honey in all mouthes, and as musick at a [a] banquet of wine.
2 He [d] behaved himself uprightly in the conversion of the people, and took away the abomi-nations of iniquity:
3 [e] He directed his heart unto the Lord, and in the time of the ungodly he established the worship of God.
4 All, except David, and Ezekias, and Josias, were defective: for they forsook the Law of the most High, (even) the Kings of Judah failed.
5 Therefore he gave their [f] power unto others, and their glory to a strange nation.
6 § They burnt the chosen city of the Sanctuary, and made the streets desolate [h] according to the prophesie of Jeremias:
7 For they [i] intreated him evill, who even thereselfe was a Prophet [k] sanctified in his mothers womb, that he might root out, and afflict, and destroy, and that he might build up also and plant.
8 [l] It was Ezekiel who saw the glorious vision, which was shewed him upon the chariot of the Cherubims.
9 For he [m] made mention of the enemies under [the figure of] the rain, and [n] directed them that went right.
10 And of the twelve Prophets let the memoriall be blessed, and let their bones flourish again out of their place: for they comforted Jacob, and delivered them by assured hope.
11 [o] How shall we magnifie Zorobabel? even he was as a signet on the right hand.
12 [p] So was Jesus the sonne of Josedec: who in their time builded the house, and set up an holy Temple to the Lord, which was prepared for everlasting glory.
13 And among the Elect was Nehemias, whose renown is great, who raised up for us the walls that were fallen, and set up the gates and the barres, and raised up our ruines again.
14 [q] But upon the earth was no man created like Enoch, for he was taken from the earth.
15 Neither was there a man born like unto Joseph, a governour of his brethren, a stay of the people, whose bones were regarded of the Lord.
16 [r] Sem and Seth were in great honour among being in compasse as the sea, was covered with plates of brasse.

4 He took care of the Temple that it should not fall, and fortified the city against besieging.

5 How was he honoured in the midst of the people, in his coming out of the a Sanctuary?

a Or the house of the veil.

6 He was as the morning starre in the midst of a cloud: and as the Moon at the full.

7 As the Sunne shining upon the Temple of the most High, and as the rain-bow giving light in the bright clouds.

8 And as the flower of roses in the spring of the yeer, as lilies by the rivers of waters, and as the branches of the frankincense tree in the time of summer:

9 As fire and incense in the censer, and as a vessell of beaten gold set with all manner of precious stones,

10 And as a faire Olive tree budding forth fruit, and as a Cypresse tree which groweth up to the clouds.

11 When he put on the robe of honour, and was clothed with the perfection of glory, when he went up to the holy Altar, he made the garment of holinesse honourable.

12 When he took the portions out of the Priests hands, he himself stood by the hearth of the Altar, compassed with his brethren round about, as a young Cedar in Libanus, and as Palm trees compassed they him round about.

13 So were all the sonnes of Aaron in their glory, and the oblations of the Lord in their hands, before all the Congregation of Israel.

14 And finishing the service at the Altar, that he might adorn the offering of the most High Almighty, 15 He stretched out his hand to the cup, and powred of the blood of the grape, he powred out at the foot of the Altar, a sweet smelling savour unto the most high King of all.

16 Then shouted the sonnes of Aaron, and sounded the b silver trumpets, and made a great noise to be heard, for a remembrance before the most High.

b Or, trumpets beaten forth with the hammer.

17 Then all the people together hasted, and fell down to the earth upon their faces to worship their Lord God Almighty the most High.

18 The singers also sang praises with their voyces, with great variety of sounds was there made sweet melody.

19 And the people besought the Lord the most High by prayer before him that is mercifull, till the solemnity of the Lord was ended, and they had finished his service.

20 Then he went down, and lifted up his hands over the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, to give the blessing of the Lord with his lips, and to rejoyce in his Name.

21 And they bowed themselves down to worship the second time, that they might receive a blessing from the most High.

22 Now therefore blesse ye the God of all, which onely doth wonderous things every where, which exalteth our dayes from the womb, and dealeth with us according to his mercy.

23 He grant us joyfulnesse of heart, and that peace may be in our dayes in Israel for ever.

24 That he would confirm his mercy with us, and deliver us at his time.

25 There be two manner of nations which my heart abhorreth, and the third is no nation.

26 They that sit upon the mountain of Samaria, and they that dwell amongst the Philistines, and that foolish people that dwell in Sichem.

27 Jesus the sonne of Sirach of Jerusalem hath written in this book the instruction of understanding and knowledge, who out of his heart hath powred forth wisdome.

28 Blessed is he that shall be exercised in these things, and he that layeth them up in his heart, shall become wise.

29 For if he do them, he shall be strong to all things, for the light of the Lord leadeth him, who giveth wisdome to the godly: blessed be the Lord for ever. Amen. Amen.

CHAP. LI.

¶ A prayer of Jesus the sonne of Sirach.

I Will thank thee, O Lord and King, and praise thee, O God my Saviour, I do give praise unto thy Name:

2 For thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserved my body from destruction, and from the c snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and hast been my helper against mine adversaries:

c Or teeth.

3 And hast delivered me according to the multitude of thy mercies, and greatnesse of thy Name, from the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had:

4 From the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not:

5 From the depth of the belly of hell, from an unclean tongue, and from lying words.

6 By an accusation to the King from an unrighteous tongue, my soul drew neer even unto death, my life was near to the hell beneath.

7 They compassed me on every side, and there was no man to help me: I looked for the succour of men, but there was none:

8 Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest those as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hand of the enemies:

9 Then lifted I up my supplication from the earth, and prayed for deliverance from death.

10 I called upon the Lord, the Father of my Lord, that he would not leave me in the day of my trouble, and in the time of the proud when there was no help.

11 I will praise thy Name continually, and will sing praise with thanksgiving, and so my prayer was heard:

12 For thou savedst me from destruction, and deliveredst me from the evill time: therefore will I give thanks and praise thee, and bless the Name, O Lord.

13 When I was yet young, or ever I went abroad, I desired wisdome openly in my prayer.

14 I prayed for her before the Temple, and will seek her out even to the end:

15 Even from the flower till the grape was ripe hath my heart delighted in her, my foot went right way, from my youth up sought I after her.

16 I bowed down mine ear a little, and received her, and gate much learning.

17 I profited therein, [therefore] will ascribe the glory unto him that giveth me wisdome.

18 For I purposed to do after her, I zealously followed that which is good, so shall I not be confounded:

19 My soul hath wrestled with her, and in my doings I was exact; I stretched forth my hands to the heaven above, and bewailed my ignorances of her.

20 d I directed my soul unto her, and in her I found purenesse, I have had my heart from the beginning, therefore shall I not forsake it.

12 My [a] heart was troubled in seeking her: therefore have I gotten a good possession.

13 The Lord hath given me a tongue for my reward, and I will praise him therewith.

14 Draw near unto me you unlearned, and dwell in the house of learning.

15 Wherefore are you slow, and what say you of these things, seeing your souls are very thirsty?

16 [b] I opened my mouth, and said, Buy her for your selves without money.

26 Put your neck under the yoke, and let your soul receive instruction, she is hard at hand to finde.

27 [c] Behold with your eyes, how that I have had but little labour, and have gotten unto me much rest. c Chap. 6. 18.

28 Get learning with a great summe of money, and get much gold by her.

29 Let your soul rejoyce in his mercy: and be not ashamed of his praise.

30 Work your work betimes, and in his time he will give you your reward.

¶ BARUCH.

CHAP. I.

1 Baruch wrote a book in Babylon. 5 The Jews there wept at the reading of it. 7 They send money and the book to the brethren at Jerusalem.

NOw these are the words of the book, which Baruch the sonne of Neriah, the sonne of Maasias, the sonne of Sedecias, the sonne of Asadias, the sonne of Chelcias, wrote in Babylon,

2 In the fifth year, and in the seventh day of the month, what time as the Caldeans took Jerusalem, and burnt it with fire.

3 And Baruch did read the words of this book, in the hearing of Jechonias, the sonne of [a] Joachim, King of Judah, and in the ears of all the people, that came to [hear] the book,

4 And in the hearing of the Nobles, and of the Kings sonnes, and in the hearing of the Elders, and of all the people from the lowest unto the highest, even of all them that dwelt at Babylon, by the river Sud.

5 Whereupon they wept, fasted, [b] and prayed before the Lord.

6 They made also a collection of money, according to every mans power.

7 And they sent it to Jerusalem unto [c] Joachim the high Priest, the son of Chelcias, sonne of Salum, and to the Priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem,

8 At the same time, when he received the vessels of the house of the Lord that were carried out of the Temple, to return them into the land of Juda the tenth day of the moneth Sivan, [namely] silver vessels, which Sedecias the sonne of Josias king of Judah had made,

9 After that Nabuchodonosor King of Babylon had carried away Jechonias, and the Princes, and the [d] captives, and the mighty men, and the people of the land from Jerusalem, and brought them unto Babylon;

10 And they said, Behold, we have sent you money to buy you burnt offerings, and some offerings, and incense; and prepare ye [e] Manna, and offer upon the Altar of the Lord our God, 11 And pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of Balthasar his sonne, that their dayes may be upon earth as the dayes of heaven.

12 And the Lord will give us strength, and lighten our eyes, and we shall live under the shadow of Nabuchodonosor King of Babylon, and under the shadow of Balthasar his son, and we shall serve them many dayes, and finde favour in their sight.

13 Pray for us also unto the Lord our God, (for we have sinned against the Lord our God, and unto this day the fury of the Lord, and his wrath is not turned from us)

14 And ye shall read this book, which we have sent unto you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon the feasts and solemn dayes.

15 And ye shall say, [f] To the Lord our God belongeth righteousnesse, but unto us the confusion of faces, as it is come to passe this day unto them of Juda, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, f Chap. 2. 6.

16 And to our Kings, and to our Princes, and to our Priests, and to our Prophets, & to our fathers.

17 For we have [g] sinned before the Lord, g Dan. 9. 8

18 And disobeyed him, and have not hearkned unto the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in the Commandments that he gave us openly:

19 Since the day that the Lord brought our forefathers out of the Land of Egypt, unto this present day, we have been disobedient unto the Lord our God, and we have been negligent in not hearing his voyce.

20 [h] Wherefore the evils cleaved unto us, and the curse which the Lord appointed by Moses his servant, at the time that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us a land that floweth with milk and honey, like as it is to see this day. h Deut. 28. 15.

21 Nevertheless we have not hearkned unto the voyce of the Lord our God, according unto all the words of the Prophets, whom he sent unto us:

22 But every man followed the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve strange gods, and to do evill in the sight of the Lord our God.

CHAP. II.

The prayer and confession which the Jews at Babylon made, and sent in that book unto the brethren in Jerusalem.

THerefore the Lord hath made good his word, which he pronounced against us, and against our judges that judged Israel, and against our Kings, and against our Princes, and against the men of Israel and Judah,

2 To bring upon us great plagues, such as never happened under the whole heaven, as it came to passe in Jerusalem, according to the things that were written in the Law of Moses,

3 That a man should [i] eat the flesh of his own sonne, and the flesh of his own daughter. i Deut. 28. 53.

4 Moreover, he hath delivered them to be in subjection to all the kingdomes that are round about us, to be as a reproach and desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord hath scattered them.

5 Thus we [k] were cast down and not exalted, because we have sinned against the Lord our God, and have not been obedient unto his voice. k Greek, were brought, and not above.

6 [l] To the Lord our God appertaineth righteousnesse: but unto us and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day. l Chap. 1. 15.

7 For all these plagues are come upon us, which the Lord hath pronounced against us,

8 Yet have we not prayed before the Lord, that we might turn every one from the imaginations of his wicked heart.

9 Wherefore the Lord watched over us for evill, and the Lord hath brought it upon us: for the Lord is righteous in all his works, which he hath commanded us.

10 Yet we have not hearkned unto his voice, to walk in the Commandments of the Lord, that he hath set before us.

a Dan. 9. 15. 11 [a] And now, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and high arm, and with signes, and with wonders, and with great power, and hast gotten thy self a Name, as appeareth this day:

12 O Lord our God, we have sinned, we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all thine ordinances.

13 Let thy wrath turn from us: for we are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered us.

14 Hear our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliver us for thine own sake, and give us favour in the sight of them which have led us away:

15 That all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God; because Israel and his posterity is [b] called by thy Name.

b Or, thy Name is called upon Israel. c Deut. 26. 15. isa. 63. 15. d Psa. 6. 5. & 115. 17. isa. 38. 18, 19. e Or, spirit, or life. 16 O Lord, [c] look down from thy holy house, and consider us; bow down thine ear, O Lord, to hear us.

17 [d] Open thine eyes and behold: for the dead that are in the graves, whose [e] souls are taken from their bodies, will give unto the Lord neither praise nor righteousnesse.

18 But the soul that is greatly vexed, which goeth stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul will give thee praise and righteousnesse, O Lord.

f Dan. 9. 20. 19 [f] Therefore we do not make our humble supplication before thee, O Lord our God, for the righteousnes of our fathers, and of our kings.

20 For thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation upon us, as thou hast spoken by thy servants the Prophets, saying, g Jere. 27. 7, 8. 21 [g] Thus saith the Lord, Bow down your shoulders to serve the king of Babylon: so shall ye remain in the land that I gave unto your fathers.

22 But if ye will not hear the voice of the Lord to serve the king of Babylon, 23 I will cause to cease out of the cities of Juda, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of joy: the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, and the whole land shall be desolate of inhabitants.

24 But we would not hearken unto thy voice, to serve the king of Babylon: therefore hast thou made good the words that thou spakest by thy servants the Prophets, namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers should be taken out of their places.

25 And lo, they are cast out to the heat of the day, and to the frost of the night, and they died in great miseries, by famine, by sword, and by pestilence.

26 And the house which is called by thy Name, (hast thou laid waste) as it is to be seen this day, for the wickednes of the house of Israel, and the house of Juda.

27 O Lord our God, thou hast dealt with us after all thy goodnesse, and according to thy great mercy of thine.

28 As thou spakest by thy servant Moses the day when thou didst command him to write the Law before the children of Israel, saying, h Deut. 4. 27. & 28. 64. i Or, this very great multitude shall be turned into a small [number] among the nations where I will scatter them. 29 [h] If ye will not hear my voice, surely [i] this very great multitude shall be turned into a small [number] among the nations where I will scatter them.

30 For I knew that they would not hear me, because it is a stiffe-necked people: but in the land of their captivities they shall remember themselves, 31 And shall know that I am the Lord their God: for I give them an heart, and ears to hear.

32 And they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and think upon my Name, 33 And return from their stiffe neck, and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers which sinned before the Lord.

34 And I will bring them again into the land which I promised with an oath unto their fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and they shall be lords of it, and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished.

35 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, to be their God, and they shall be my people: and I will no more drive my people Israel out of the land that I have given them.

CHAP. III.

The prayer of the dead Israelites continued in that book, which Baruch writ and sent to Jerusalem. 30 Wisdome was shewed first to Jacob, and was seen upon the earth.

O Lord Almighty, God of Israel, the soule is anguish, the troubled spirit cries unto thee.

2 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy: for thou art mercifull, and have pity upon us, because we have sinned before thee.

3 For thou endurest for ever, and we perish utterly.

4 O Lord Almighty, thou God of Israel, hear now the prayers of the dead Israelites, and of their children, which have sinned before thee, and hearkned unto the voyce of thee their God, for the which cause these plagues cleave unto us.

5 Remember not the iniquities of our forefathers: but think upon thy power and thy Name now at this time.

6 For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praise.

7 And for this cause thou hast put thy fear in our hearts, to the intent that we should call upon thy Name, and praise thee in our captivity: for we have called to minde all the iniquity of our forefathers that sinned before thee.

8 Behold, we are yet this day in our captivity where thou hast scattered us, for a reproach and curse, and to be subject to payments, according to all the iniquities of our fathers which departed from the Lord our God.

9 Hear, Israel, the Commandments of life: give ear to understand wisedome.

10 How happeneth it, Israel, that thou art in thine enemies land, that thou art waxen old in a strange countrey, that thou are defiled with the dead, 11 That thou art counted with them that go down into the grave?

12 Thou hast forsaken the fountain of wisedome.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The book of Commandments, & that wisdome which was commended in the former Chapter.
35 The Jews are moved to patience, and to hope for the deliverance.

THis is the book of the Commandments of God, and the Law that endureth for ever: all they that keep it, shall come to life; but such as leave it, shall die.

2 Turn thee, O Jacob, and take hold of it: walk d in the presence of the light thereof, that thou mayest be illuminated.

3 Give not thine honour to another, nor the things that are profitable unto thee, to a strange nation.

4 O Israel, happy are we: for things that are pleasing to God, are made known unto us.

5 Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel.

6 Ye were sold to the nations, not for [your] destruction: but because you moved God to wrath, ye were delivered unto the enemies.

7 For ye provoked him that made you, by e sacrificing unto devils, and not to God. e 1. Cor. 10. 20.

8 Ye have forgotten the everlasting God, that brought you up, and ye have grieved Jerusalem that nursed you.

9 For when she saw the wrath of God coming upon you, she said, Hearken, O ye that dwell about Sion: God hath brought upon me great mourning.

10 For I saw the captivity of my sonnes and daughters, which the Everlasting brought upon them.

11 With joy did I nourish them: but sent them away with weeping and mourning.

12 Let no man rejoyce over me a widow, and forsaken of many, who for the sinnes of my children am left desolate: because they departed from the Law of God.

13 They knew not his Statutes, nor walked in the wayes of his Commandments, nor trode in the paths f of discipline in his righteousnesse. f Or, of all discipline in righteousnesse.

14 Let them that dwell about Sion come, and remember ye the captivity of my sonnes and daughters, which the Everlasting hath brought upon them.

15 For he hath brought a nation upon them from farre: a shamelesse nation, and of a strange language, who neither reverenced old man, nor pitied childe.

16 These have carried away the deare beloved children of the widow, and left her that was alone, desolate without daughters.

17 But what can I help you?

18 For he that brought these plagues upon you, will deliver you from the hands of your enemies.

19 Go your way, O my children, go your way; for I am left desolate.

20 I have put off the clothing of g peace, and put upon me the sackcloth of my prayer; I will cry unto the Everlasting h i in my dayes. g Or, prayer. h Or, times of mercy. i Psal. 116. 2. 137. 4.

21 Be of good cheer, O my children, cry unto the Lord: and he shall deliver you from the power and hand of the enemies.

22 For my hope is in the Everlasting, that he will save you, and joy is come unto me from the holy One, because of the mercy which shall soon come unto you from the Everlasting our Saviour.

23 For I sent you out with mourning and weeping: but God will give you to me again with joy and gladnesse for ever.

24 Like as now the neighbours of Sion have seen your captivity: so shall they see shortly your salvation from our God, which shall come upon you with great glory, and brightnesse of the Everlasting.

25 My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come upon you from God: for thine enemy hath persecuted thee: but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt tread upon his neck.

26 k My delicate ones have gone rough wayes, and were taken away as a flock caught of the enemies. k Or, and darkenesse.

27 Be of good comfort, O my children, and cry unto unto God: for you shall be remembred of him that brought these things upon you.

28 For as it was your minde to go astray from God; so being returned seek him ten times more.

29 For he that hath brought these plagues upon you, shall bring you everlasting joy again with your salvation.

30 Take a good heart, O Jerusalem: for he that gave thee that name, will comfort thee.

31 Miserable are they that afflicted thee, and rejoyced at thy fall.

32 Miserable are the cities which thy children served: miserable is she that received thy sonnes.

33 For as she rejoyced at thy ruine, and was glad of thy fall: so shall she be grieved for her own desolation.

34 For I will take away the rejoycing of her great multitude, and her pride shall be turned into mourning.

35 For fire shall come upon her from the Everlasting, long to endure; and she shall be inhabited of devils for a great time.

36 O Jerusalem, look about thee toward the East, and behold the joy that cometh unto thee from God.

37 Lo, thy sonnes come whom thou sentest away: they come gathered together from the East to the West, by the word of the holy One, rejoycing in the glory of God.

CHAP. V.

1 Jerusalem is warned to rejoyce, 5 and to behold their return out of captivity with glory.

PUt off, O Jerusalem, the garment of thy mourning and affliction, and put on the comliness of the glory that cometh from God for ever.

2 Cast about thee a double garment of the righteousnesse which cometh from God, and set a diademe on thine head of the glory of the Everlasting.

3 For God will shew thy brightnesse unto every countrey under heaven.

4 For thy Name shall be called of God for ever, The peace of righteousnesse, and the glory of Gods worship.

5 Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high, and look about toward the East, and behold thy children gathered from the West unto the East by the word of the holy One, rejoycing in the remembrance of God.

6 For they departed from thee on foot, and were led away of their enemies: but God bringeth them unto thee exalted with glory, as children of the kingdome.

7 For God hath appointed that every high hill, and banks of long continuance should be cast down, and valleys filled up, to make even the ground, that Israel may go safely in the glory of God.

8 Moreover, even the woods, and every sweet smelling tree, shall overshadow Israel by the commandment of God.

9 For God shall lead Israel with joy, in the light of his glory, with the mercy and righteousnesse that cometh from him.

The Epistle of Jeremy.

CHAP. VI.

1 The cause of the captivity is their sinne. 3 The plot wherein they were carried to Babylon: the vanity of whose idols and idolatry are set forth at large in this Chapter.

A Copy of an Epistle which Jeremy sent unto them which were to be led captives into Babylon, by the King of the Babylonians, to certifie them, as it was commanded him of God.

2 Because of the sinnes which ye committed before God, ye shall be led captives unto Babylon by Nabuchodonosor the Babylonians.

3 So when ye be come unto Babylon, ye shall remain there many years, and for a long time, namely seven generations: and after that I will bring you away peaceably from thence.

4 Now shall ye see in Babylon gods of silver, and of gold, and of wood, born upon shoulders, which cause the nations to fear.

5 Beware therefore that ye in no wise be like to strangers, neither be ye afraid of them, when ye see the multitude before them, and behind them, worshipping them.

6 But say ye in your hearts, O Lord, we must worship thee.

7 For mine Angel is with you, and I my self caring for your soules.

8 As for their tongue, it is polished by the workman, and they themselves are gilded and laid over with silver, yet are they but falsh and cannot speak.

9 And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loves to go gay, they make crowns for the heads of their gods.

10 Sometimes also the Priests convey from their gods gold and silver, and bestow it upon themselves.

11 Yea, they will give thereof to the common harlots, and deck them as men with garments [being] gods of silver, and gods of gold and wood.

12 Yet cannot these gods save themselves from rust and mother, though they be covered with purple raiment.

13 They wipe their faces because of the dust of the Temple, when there is much upon them.

14 And he that cannot put to death one that offendeth him, holdeth a sceptre as though he were a Judge of the country.

15 He hath also in his right hand a dagger and an ax: but cannot deliver himself from war and theeves.

16 Whereby they are known not to be gods, therefore fear them not.

17 For like as a vessell that a man uses, is nothing worth when it is broken, even so it is with their gods: when they be set up in the Temple, their eyes be full of dust, through the feet of them that come in.

18 And as the doors are made fast on every side upon him that offendeth the King, as one worthy committed to suffer death: even so the Priests make fast their Temples with doors, with locks and bars, lest their gods be spoiled with robbers.

19 They light them candles, yea more than for themselves, whereof they cannot see one.

20 They are as one of the beames of the Temple, yet they say, their hearts are eaten upon them by things creeping out of the earth, and when they eat them and their clothes, they feel it not.

21 Their faces are blacked, through the smoke that comes out of the Temple.

22 Upon their bodies and heads sit Bats, Swallowes, and Birds, and the Cats also.

23 By this you may know that they are no gods: therefore fear them not.

24 Notwithstanding the gold that is about them, to make them beautiful, except one wipe off the rust they will not shine: for even when they were molten did they feel it.

25 The things wherein there is no breath bought for a most high price.

they are born upon shoulders, having no they declare unto men that they be vanities.

They also that serve them are ashamed: for fall to the ground at any time, they cannot up again of themselves: neither if one set upright can they move of themselves: neiif they be bowed down, can they make them-straight: but they set [b] gifts before them unto dead men.

As for the things that are sacrificed unto their Priests sell and [c] abuse: in like manner themselves lay up part thereof in salt: but unto poor and impotent they give nothing of it.

Menstruous women, and women in child-bed eat their sacrifices: by these things ye may know that they are no gods: fear them not.

For how can they be called gods? because women set meat before the gods of silver, gold, and wood.

And the Priests sit in their temples, having their clothes rent, and their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads.

They roar and cry before their gods: as men do at the feast, when one is dead.

The Priests also take off their garments, and array their wives and children.

Whether it be evill that one doth unto them, or good: they are not able to recompense it: they can neither set up a King, nor put him down.

In like manner, they can neither give riches, nor money: though a man make a vow unto them, and keep it not, they will not require it.

They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty.

They cannot restore a blinde man to his sight, nor help any man in his distresse.

They can shew no mercy to the widow: nor do good to the fatherlesse.

Their gods of wood, and which are overlaid with gold and silver, are like the stones that be hewn out of the mountain: they that worship them shall be confounded.

How should a man then think and say that they are gods? when even the Caldeans themselves dishonour them.

Who if they shall see one dumb that cannot speak, they [d] bring him, and entreat Bel that he may speak, as though he were able to understand.

Yet they cannot understand this themselves, and leave them: for they have no [e] knowledge.

The women also with cords about them sitting in the wayes, burn bran for perfume: but if any of them drawn by some that passeth by, lie with him, she reproacheth her fellow that she was not thought as worthy as her self, nor her cord broken.

Whatsoever is done among them is false:
how may it then be thought or said that they are gods?

They are made of carpenters and goldsmiths, they can be nothing else then the workmen will have them to be.

And they themselves that made them, can never continue long, how should then the things that are made of them be gods?

For they left lies and reproaches to them that come after.

For when there cometh any warre or plague upon them, the Priests consult with themselves where they may be hidden with them.

How then cannot men perceive, that they be not, which can neither save themselves from warre nor from plague?

For seeing they be but of wood, and overlaid with silver and gold: it shall be known hereafter that they are false.

And it shall manifestly appear to all nations and kings that they are no gods: but the works of mens hands, and that there is no work of God in them.

Who then may not know that they are no
gods?

For neither can they set up a King in the land, nor give rain unto men:

Neither can they judge their own cause, nor redresse a wrong being unable: for they are as crowes between heaven and earth.

Whereupon when fire falleth upon the house of gods of wood, or laid over with gold or silver, their Priests will flee away and escape: but they themselves shall be burnt asunder like beames.

Moreover they cannot withstand any king or enemies: how can it then be thought or said that they be gods?

Neither are those gods of wood, and laid over with silver or gold able to escape, either from theeves or robbers.

Whose gold and silver, and garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong do take, and go away withall: neither are they able to help themselves.

Therefore it is better to be a king that sheweth his power, or else a profitable vessell in an house, which the owner shall have use of, then such false gods: or to be a door in an house to keep such things safe as be therein, then such false gods: or a pillar of wood in a palace, then such false gods.

For sunne, moon, and starres being bright, and sent to do their offices, are obedient.

In like manner the lightning when it break-eth forth is easie to be seen, and after the same manner [h] the winde bloweth in every country.

And when God commandeth the clouds to go over the whole world, they do as they are bidden:

And the fire sent from above to consume hills and woods, doth as it is commanded: but these are like unto them neither in shew, nor power.

Wherefore it is neither to be supposed nor said that they are gods, seeing they are able neither to judge causes, nor to do good unto men.

Knowing therefore that they are no gods, fear them not.

For they can neither curse nor blesse kings.

Neither can they shew signes in the heavens among the heathen: nor shine as the sunne, nor give light as the moon.

The beasts are better then they: for they can get under a covert, and help themselves.

It is then by no means manifest unto us that they are gods: therefore fear them not.

For as a scar-crow in a garden of cucumbers keepeth nothing: so are their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold.

And likewise their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold, are like to a white thorn in an orchard that every bird sitteth upon: as also to a dead body, that is cast into the dark.

And you shall know them to be no gods, by the [i] bright purple that rotteth upon them: and they themselves afterwards shall be eaten, and shall be a reproach in the country.

Better therefore is the just man that hath none idols: for he shall be farre from reproach.

¶ The song of the three holy children, which followeth in the third [illegible] of Daniel, after this place, [And they walked in the midst of the [illegible] praising God, and blessing the Lord.] That which followeth is not in the Hebrew; to wit [Then Azarias stood up] unto these words. [And Nabuchodonosor.]

1 Azarias his prayer and confession in the flame, 24 wherewith the Chaldeans about the oven were consumed, but the three children within it were not hurt. 28 The song of the three children in the oven.

THen Azarias stood up and prayed on this manner, and opening his mouth in the midst of the fire, said,

2 Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers: thy Name is worthy to be praised, and glorified for evermore.

3 For thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done to us: yea, true are all thy works: thy wayes are right, and [a] all thy judgements truth.

a Psal. 25.10.

4 In all the things that thou hast brought upon us, and upon the holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgement: for according to truth and judgement, diddest thou bring all these things upon us because of our sinnes.

5 For we have sinned and committed iniquity, departing from thee.

6 In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy Commandments, nor kept them, neither done as thou hast commanded us, that it might go well with us.

7 Wherefore all that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgement.

8 And thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, most hatefull forsakers [of God] and to an unjust King, and the most wicked in all the world.

9 And now we cannot open our mouthes, we are become a shame, and reproach to thy servants, and to [illegible] that worship thee.

10 [illegible] over us not up wholly for thy names sake, neither disanull thou thy Covenant:

11 And cause not thy mercy to depart from us: for thy beloved Abrahams sake, for thy servant Isaacs sake, and for thy holy Israels sake.

12 To whom thou hast spoken and promised, That thou wouldest multiply their seed as the starres of heaven, and as the sand that lieth upon the sea shore.

13 For we, O Lord, are become lesse then any nation, and are kept under this day in all the world, because of our sinnes.

14 Neither is there at this time Prince, or Prophet, or Leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before thee, and to finde mercy.

15 Nevertheless in a contrite heart, and an humble spirit let us be accepted,

16 Like as in the burnt offering of rammes and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs: so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and grant that we may wholly go after thee: for they shall not be confounded that put their trust

17 [illegible] and now we follow [illegible] and fear thy face,

18 Put us not to shame; but deal with us after thy loving kindnesse, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

19 Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and give glory to thy name, O Lord: and let all them that do thy servants harm be ashamed.

20 And let them be confounded [illegible] power & might, and let their strength be broken.

21 And let them know that thou art the Lord their onely God, and glorious over the whole world.

22 And the Kings servants that put them in, ceased not to make the oven hot with [illegible] pitch, tow, and small wood.

23 So that the flame streamed forth above the furnace, fourty and nine cubits:

24 And it passed thorow, and burnt those Chaldeans it found about the furnace.

25 But the Angel of the Lord came down into the oven, together with Azarias and his fellowes, and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven:

26 And made the midst of the furnace as if it had been a moist whistling winde, so that the fire touched them not at all, neither hurt nor troubled them.

27 Then the three, as out of one mouth praised, glorified, and blessed God in the furnace, saying:

28 Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers, and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

29 And blessed is thy glorious holy Name, and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

30 Blessed art thou in the Temple of thy holy glory: and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

31 Blessed art thou that beholdest the deep, and sittest upon the Cherubims, and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

32 Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdome, and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

33 Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven, and above all to be praised and exalted for ever.

¶ The hiſtory of Suſanna, ſet apart from the beginning of Daniel, becauſe it is not in Hebrew, as neither the narration of [a] Bel and the Dragon.

17 Then ſhe ſaid to … and walking … I may waſh me.

18 And they did as ſhe … virgin … Elders … them: but … were hid.

19 Now … two Elders …

22 Then Susanna sighed and said, I am straitned on every side: for if I do this thing, it is death unto me; and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands.

23 It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sinne in the sight of the Lord.

24 With that Susanna cryed with a loud voice: and the two Elders cryed out against her.

25 Then ranne the one, and opened the garden door.

26 So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at a privy door, to see what was done unto her.

27 But when the Elders had declared their matter, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna.

28 And it came to passe the next day, when the people were assembled to her husband Joacim, the two Elders came also full of mischievous imagination against Susanna to put her to death, 29 And said before the people, Send for Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, Joacims wife. And so they sent.

30 So she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kinred.

31 Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and beauteous to behold.

32 And these wicked men commanded to uncover her face (for she was covered) that they might be filled with her beauty.

33 Therefore her friends, and all that saw her, wept.

34 Then the two Elders stood up in the midst of the people, and laid their hands upon her head.

35 And she weeping, looked up towards heaven: for her heart trusted in the Lord.

36 And the Elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away.

37 Then a young man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her.

38 Then we that stood in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickedness, ran unto them.

39 And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the doore, and leaped out.

40 But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was: but she would not tell us: these things do we witnesse.

41 Then the assembly believed them, as those that were Elders and Judges of the people: so they condemned her to death.

42 Then she cryed out with a loud voice, and said, O [illegible] God that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things before they be;

43 [illegible] they have born false witnesse against me, and [illegible] I must die a guiltesse: I have done none of these things that these men have maliciously invented against me.

44 And the Lord heard her voice.

45 Therefore when she was led to be put to death, the Lord [illegible] holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was [illegible]

46 Who cryed with a [illegible] from the blood of [illegible]

47 Then all the people turned [illegible] him, and said: What manner [illegible] hast spoken?

48 So he standing in the midst of [illegible] ye such fools, ye sonnes of Israel, that [illegible] examination or knowledge of the truth, ye [illegible] deemned a daughter of Israel?

49 Return again to the place of [illegible] for they have born false witnesse against [illegible]

50 Wherefore all the people turned [illegible] hast, and the Elders said unto him, Come [illegible] among us, and sitte with us, seeing God [illegible] thee the honour of an Elder.

51 Then said Daniel unto them, Put [illegible] side one far from another, and I will examine [illegible]

52 So when they were put asunder one [illegible] other, he called one of them, and said unto [illegible] thou that art waxen old in wickedness, [illegible] sinnes which thou hast committed afore time, [illegible] come [to light.]

53 For thou hast pronounced false [illegible] and hast condemned the innocent, and let the [illegible] guilty go free, albeit the Lord saith, The [illegible] cent and righteous shalt thou not slay.

54 Now then if thou hast seen her, tell us [illegible] what tree sawest thou them companying [illegible] who answered, Under a b mastick tree.

55 And Daniel said, Very well; Thou [illegible] against thine own head: for even now the [illegible] of God hath received the sentence of God [illegible] thee in two.

56 So he put him aside, and commanded [illegible] the other, and said unto him, O thou [illegible] seed of Canaan, and not of Judah: beauty hath [illegible] and lust hath perverted thine heart.

57 Thus have ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied [illegible] but the daughter of Juda would not abide [illegible] wickedness.

58 Now therefore tell me, Under [illegible] didst thou take them companying together? [illegible] answered, Under a c holme tree.

59 Then said Daniel unto him, Well [illegible] also lied against thine own head: for the [illegible] God waiteth with the sword, to cut thee [illegible] that he may destroy you.

60 With that all the assembly cryed [illegible] loud voice, and praised God who saveth [illegible] that trust in him.

61 And they arose against the two Elders [illegible] Daniel had convicted them of false witnesse [illegible] their own mouth)

62 And according to the law of [illegible] did unto them in such sort as they [illegible] intended to do to their neighbour: And [illegible] them to death. Thus the innocent blood [illegible] the same day.

63 Therefore Chelcias and his wife [illegible] for their daughter Susanna, with Joacim [illegible] husband, and all the Kinred: because [illegible] shamefully found in her.

64 From that day forth was [illegible] reputation in the sight of the [illegible]

† Bel and the Dragon, cut off from the end of DANIEL.

The fraud of Bels Priests is discovered by Daniel, and the Dragon slain, which was worshipped. Habbakuk is transported to the Lions-den. 42 The King acknowledges the God of Daniel, and casteth another into the same den.

AND King Astyages was gathered to his fathers, and Cyrus of Persia received his kingdome.

2 And Daniel was conversed with the King, and was honoured above all his friends.

3 Now the Babylonians had an idol called Bel, and there were spent upon him every day twelve great measures of fine flowre, and fourty sheep, and threefats of wine.

4 And the King worshipped it, and went daily to adore it: but Daniel worshipped his own God. Then the King said unto him, Why dost not thou worship Bel?

5 Who answered and said, Because I may not worship idols made with hands, but the living God, who hath created the heaven and the earth, and hath soveraignty over all flesh.

6 Then said the King unto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a living god? seest thou not how much he eateth and drinketh every day?

7 Then Daniel smiled, and said, O King, be not deceived: for this is but clay within, and brasse without, and did never [b] eat or drink any thing.

8 So the King was wroth, and called for his Priests, and said unto them, If ye tell me not who this is that devoureth these expences, ye shall die.

9 But if ye can certifie me that Bel devoureth them, then Daniel shall die: for he hath spoken blasphemy against Bel. And Daniel said unto the King, Let it be according to thy word.

10 Now the Priests of Bel were threescore and ten, beside their wives and children) and the King went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.

11 So Bels priests said, Lo, we go out: but thou, O King, set on the meat, and make ready the wine, and shut the door fast, and seal it with thine own signet:

12 And to morrow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten up all, we will suffer death, or else Daniel, that speaketh falsely against us.

13 And they little regarded it: for under the table they had made a privie entrance, whereby they entred in continually, and consumed those things.

14 So when they were gone forth, the King set the meat before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and those they strewed throughout all the temple, in the presence of the King alone; then went they out and shut the door, and sealed it with the Kings signet, and so departed.

15 Now in the night came the priests with their wives and children, (as they were wont to do) and did eat and drink up all.

16 Then the King arose early in the morning, and Daniel [illegible] the King arose, and 17 And said, Art thou so great, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit at all.

18 Then laughed Daniel, and held the King that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark well whose footsteps are these.

19 And the King said, I see the footsteps of men, women and children: and then the King was angry.

20 And took the priests, with their wives and children, who shewed him the privie doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table.

21 Therefore the King slew them, and delivered Bel into Daniels power, who destroyed him and his temple.

22 [c] And in that same place there was a great Dragon, which they of Babylon worshipped.

23 And the King said unto Daniel, Wilt thou also say that this is of brasse? lo, he liveth, he eateth and drinketh, thou canst not say, that he is no living god: therefore worship him.

24 Then said Daniel unto the King, I will worship the Lord my God: for he is the living God.

25 But give me leave, O King, and I shall slay this Dragon without sword or staff. The King said, I give thee leave.

26 Then Daniel took pitch, fat, and hair, and did seethe them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the Dragons mouth, and so the Dragon burst in sunder: and Daniel said, Lo, these are the gods you worship.

27 When they of Babylon heard [illegible] great indignation, and conspired against the King, saying, The King is become a Jew, and he hath destroyed Bel, he hath slain the Dragon, and put the priests to death.

28 So they came to the King, and said, Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy thee and thine house.

29 Now when the King saw that they [illegible] him sore, being constrained, he delivered [illegible] unto them:

30 Who cast him into the lions den, [illegible] was six dayes.

31 And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given them every day [illegible] two sheep: which devoured nothing [illegible] to the intent they might devour Daniel.

32 Now there was in Jewry [illegible] Habbacuc, who had [illegible] broth, and [illegible] bread in a bowl, and was going [illegible] to bring it to the reapers.

33 But the [illegible] of the Lord said unto Habbacuc, Go carry the dinner that thou hast unto Babylon unto Daniel, which is in the [illegible]

34 And Habbacuc said, Lord, I never saw Babylon: neither do I know [illegible]

35 Then the [illegible] of the Lord set him [illegible] the crown of his [illegible] and set him [illegible] his own place.

the Lord for Nabuchodonosor his own glory, and for the ignorance of all that dwell in Babylon.

40 Upon the seventh day the King went to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and beheld, Daniel was sitting.

41 Then cried the King with a loud voice, saying, Great art thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other besides thee.

42 And he drew him out; and cast those which were the cause of his destruction into the den, and they were devoured in a moment before his face.

¶ THE PRAYER OF MANASSES KING OF Juda, when he was holden captive in Babylon.

O Lord, Almighty God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed: who hast made heaven and earth, with all the ornament thereof: who hast bound the sea by the word of thy Commandment: who hast shut up the deep, and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious Name, whom all men fear, and tremble before thy power: for the Majesty of thy glory cannot be born; and thine angry threatning toward sinners is importable: but thy mercifull promise is unmeasurable, and unsearchable: for thou art the most high Lord, of great compassion, long-suffering, very mercifull, and repenteſt of the evils of men. Thou, O Lord, according to thy great goodneſſe haſt promiſed repentance, and forgiveneſſe to them that have ſinned againſt thee: and of thine infinite mercies haſt appointed repentance unto ſinners, that they may be ſaved. Thou therefore, O Lord, that art the God of the juſt, haſt not appointed repentance to the juſt, as to Abraham, and Iſaac, and Jacob, which have not ſinned againſt thee; but thou haſt appointed repentance unto me that am a ſinner: for I have ſinned above the number of the ſands of the ſea. My tranſgreſſions, O Lord, are multiplied: my tranſgreſſions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and ſee the height of heaven, for the multitude of mine iniquity. I am bowed down with many iron bands, that I cannot lift up mine head, I neither have any releaſe: for I have provoked thy wrath, and done evill before thee; I did not thy will, neither kept I thy Commandments: I have ſet up abominations, and have multiplied offences. Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beſeeching thee of grace: I have ſinned, O Lord, I have ſinned, and I acknowledge mine iniquities: wherefore I humbly beſeech thee, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and deſtroy me not with mine iniquities: be not angry with me for ever, by reſerving evill for me, neither condemne me into the lower parts of the earth. For thou art the God, even the God of them that repent: and in me thou wilt ſhew all thy goodneſſe: for thou wilt ſave me that am unworthy, according to thy great mercy. Therefore I will praiſe thee for ever all the dayes of my life: for all the powers of the heavens do praiſe thee, and thine is the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ THE FIRST BOOK OF the MACCABEES.

CHAP. I.

Antiochus gives leave to ſet up the ſaſhions of the Gentiles in Jeruſalem, 22 and ſpoiles it, and the Temple in it, 57 and ſet up therein the abomination of deſolation. 63 and ſlew thoſe that did circumciſe their children.

AND it happened, after that Alexander ſonne of Philip the Macedonian, who came out of the land of [a] Chettiim, had ſmitten Darius King of the Perſians and Medes, that he reigned in his ſtead, the firſt over Greece,

2 And made many wars, and won many ſtrong holds, and ſlew the Kings of the earth,

3 And went thorow to the ends of the earth, and took ſpoile of many nations, inſomuch that the earth was quiet before him, whereupon [b] he was exalted, and his heart was lifted up.

4 And he gathered a mighty ſtrong hoſt, and ruled over countreys, and nations, and [c] Kings, who became tributaries unto him.

5 And after theſe things he fell ſick, and perceived [d] that he muſt die.

6 Wherefore he called for his friends, ſuch as were honourable, and bred up with him from his youth, and parted his kingdom among

9 And after his death they all put crowns [upon] on themſelves] ſo did their ſons after them many yeers, and evils were multiplied in the earth.

10 And there came out of them a wicked root Antiochus [ſirnamed] Epiphanes, ſonne of Antiochus the King, who had been an hoſtage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundreth and thirty and ſeventh yeer of the kingdome of the Greeks.

11 In thoſe dayes went there out of Iſrael wicked men, who perſwaded many, ſaying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen that are round about us: for ſince we departed from them [e] we have had much ſorrow.

12 So this device pleaſed them well.

13 Then certain of the people were ſo forward herein, that they went to the King, who gave them licence to do after the ordinances of the heathen.

14 Whereupon they [f] built a place of exerciſe at Jeruſalem, according to the cuſtome of the heathen, 15 And made themſelves uncircumciſed, and forſook the holy Covenant, and joyned themſelves to the heathen, and were ſold to worke evill.

16 Now when the kingdome was ſetled before

[illegible] Prolemee was afraid of him, and fled: [illegible] were wounded to death.

[illegible] they got the strong cities in the land of [illegible] and he took the spoils thereof.

[illegible] after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, returned again in the hundred fourty & third [illegible] and went up against Israel and Jerusalem [illegible] great multitude,

21 And entred proudly into the Sanctuary, and took away the golden Altar, and the candlestick of light, and all the vessels thereof,

22 And the Table of the Shew-bread, and the drinking vessels, and the vials, and the censers of gold, and the vail, and the crowns, & the golden ornaments that were before the Temple, all which he pulled off.

23 He took also the silver, and the gold, and the precious vessels: also he took the hidden treasures which he found:

24 And when he had taken all away, he went into his own land, having made a great massacre, and spoken very proudly.

25 Therefore there was great mourning in Israel, in every place where they were;

26 So that the Princes and Elders mourned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of women was changed.

27 Every bridegroom took up lamentation, and she that sate in the marriage chamber, was in heaviness.

28 The land also was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

29 And after two years fully expired, the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Juda, who came unto Jerusalem with a great multitude,

30 And spake peaceable words unto them, but they were all deceit: for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel.

31 And when he had taken the spoils of the city, he set it on fire, and pulled down the houses and wall thereof on every side.

32 But the women and children took they captive, and possessed the cattell.

33 Then builded they the city of David with a great and strong wall, [and] with mighty towers, and made it a strong hold for them;

34 And they put therein a sinfull nation, wicked men, and fortified [themselves] therein.

35 They stored it also with armour and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and they became a sore snare;

36 For it was a place to lie in wait against the Sanctuary, and an evill adversary to Israel.

37 Thus they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled it.

38 Insomuch that the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled for fear of them, whereupon [the city] was made a habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her, and her own children left her:

39 Her Sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, her feasts were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproach, her honour into contempt.

40 As her glory had been great, so her dishonour increased, and her excellency was turned into heaviness.

41 Moreover king Antiochus wrote unto his whole kingdome, that all should be one people, 42 And every one should leave his laws; so all the heathen agreed, according to the commandment of the King.

43 Yea many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the Sabbath.

44 For the King had sent letters by messengers unto Jerusalem, and the cities of Juda, that they should follow [c] the strange laws of the land,

45 And forbid burnt offerings and sacrifice, and drink offerings in the Temple, and that they should profane the Sabbaths and festivall dayes:

46 And pollute the Sanctuary and holy people:

47 Set up altars, and groves, and chappels of idols, and sacrifice swines flesh, and uncleane beasts:

48 That they should also leave their children uncircumcised, and make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and prophanation:

49 To the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances.

50 And whosoever would not do according to the commandment of the King [he said] he should die.

51 In the self same maner wrote he to his whole kingdome, and appointed overseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Juda to sacrifice, city by city.

52 Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law, and so they committed evils in the land:

53 [d] And drove the Israelites into secret places, even wheresoever they could flee for succour.

54 Now the fifteenth day of the month Casleu, in the hundred fourty and fifth year, they set up the abomination of desolation upon the altar, and builded idol-altars thorowout the cities of Juda on every side:

55 And burnt incense at the doors of their houses, and in the streets.

56 And when they had rent in pieces the books of the Law, which they found, they burnt them with fire.

57 And wheresoever was found with any the book of the Testament, or if any consented to the Law, [e] the Kings commandment was that they should put him to death.

58 Thus did they by their authority every month to the Israelites every month, to as many as were found in the cities.

59 Now the five and twentieth day of the moneth, they did sacrifice upon the idol-altar, which was upon the Altar of God.

60 At which time according to the commandment, they put to death certain women which had caused their children to be circumcised, 61 And they hanged the infants about their necks, and rifled their houses, and slew those that had circumcised them.

62 Howbeit, many in Israel were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves, not to eat any uncleane things.

63 Wherefore they chose rather to die, that they might not be defiled with meats, and that they might not prophane the holy covenant: so then they died.

64 And there was very great wrath upon Israel.

CHAP. II.

[illegible]

[illegible]

by force, 65 and polute their brother Judas Machabeus generall.

a Or, Mattathias the sonne of John, &c. arose from Jerusalem, or else of Jerusalem.

1 IN those dayes 1 arose Mattathias the sonne of 2 John, the sonne of Simeon, a Priest of the sonnes of Joarib, from Jerusalem, and dwelt in Modin.

2 And he had five sonnes, Joannan, b called 3 Caddis:

3 Simon, called Thassi:

4 Judas who was called Maccabeus:

5 Eleazar, called 4 Avaran, and Jonathan, whose surname was Apphus.

6 And when he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Juda and Jerusalem, b Or, who was called: & so afterward in the rest.

7 He said, Wo is me, wherefore was I born to see this misery of my people, and of the holy city, and to dwell there, when it was delivered into the hand of the enemy, and the Sanctuary into the hand of strangers?

c Gaddis.

8 Her Temple is become as a man without glory.

9 Her glorious vessels are carried away into captivity, her infants are slain in the streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy.

10 What nation hath not had a part in her kingdome, and gotten of her spoiles?

11 All her ornaments are taken away, of a free woman she is become a bond-slave.

d Or, Aaron, or, Aberon.

12 And behold, our 5 Sanctuary, even our beauty, and our glory is laid waste, and the Gentiles have profaned it.

b Or, holy thing.

13 To what end therefore shall we live any longer?

14 Then Mattathias and his sonnes rent their clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourned very sore.

15 In the mean while the Kings officers, such as compelled the people to revolt, came into the city Modin to make them sacrifice.

16 And when many of Israel came unto them, Mattathias also and his sonnes came together.

17 Then answered the Kings officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou art a ruler, and an honourable and great man in this city, and strengthened with sonnes and brethren:

18 Now therefore come thou first and fulfill the Kings commandment, like as all the heathen have done, yea, and the men of Juda also, and such as remain at Jerusalem: so shalt thou and thy house be in the number of the Kings friends, and thou and thy children shall be honoured with silver, and gold, and many rewards.

19 Then Mattathias answered, and spake with a loud voice, Though all the nations that are under the Kings dominion obey him, and fall away every one from the religion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments:

20 Yet will I, and my sonnes, and my brethren walk in the covenant of our fathers.

21 God forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances:

22 We will not hearken to the Kings words, to go from our religion, either on the right hand, or the left.

23 Now when he had left speaking these words, there came one of the Jews in the sight of all, to sacrifice on the altar, which was at Modin, according to the Kings commandment.

24 Which thing when Mattathias saw, he was inflamed with zeal, and his reins trembled, neither could he forbear to shew his anger according to judgement: wherefore he ran and slew him upon the altar.

25 Also the Kings commissioner, who compelled men to sacrifice, he killed at that time, and the Altar he pulled down.

26 Thus dealt he zealously for the Law of God, like as 6 Phinees did unto Zambri the sonne of Salom.

27 And Mattathias cried throughout the city with a loud voice, saying, Whosoever is zealous of the Law, and maintaineth the Covenant, let him follow me.

28 So he and his sonnes fled into the mountains, and left all that ever they had in the city.

29 Then many that sought after righteousness and judgement, went down into the wilderness to dwell there:

30 Both they and their children and their wives, and their cattell, h because affliction was sore upon them.

31 Now when it was told the Kings servants, and the hoste that was at Jerusalem, in the city of David, that certain men, who had broken the Kings commandment, were gone down into the secret places in the wildernesse, 32 They pursued after them, a great number: and having overtaken them, they camped against them, and made warre against them on the Sabbath day.

33 And they said unto them, Let that which you have done hitherto, suffice: Come forth now, and do according to the commandment of the King, and you shall live.

34 But they said, We will not come forth, neither will we do the Kings commandment, to prophane the Sabbath day.

35 So then i they gave them the battell with all speed.

36 Howbeit they answered them not, neither cast they a stone at them, nor stopped up the places where they lay hid,

37 But said, Let us die all in our innocency: heaven and earth shall testifie for us, that ye put us to death wrongfully.

38 So they rose up against them in battell upon the Sabbath, and they slew them with their wives and children, and their cattell, to the number of a thousand 7 people.

39 Now when Mattathias and his friends understood hereof, they mourned for them right sore.

40 And one of them said to another, If we shall do as our brethren have done, and not fight for our lives and laws against the heathen, they will now quickly root us out of the earth.

41 At that time therefore they decreed, saying, Whosoever shall come to make battell against us on the Sabbath day, we will fight against him, lest we die all, as our brethren did in the secret places.

42 Then came there unto them a company of Asideans, who were mighty men of Israel, even all such as were voluntarily given over unto the Law.

43 Also all they that fled for persecution joined themselves unto them, and were a stay unto them.

44 So they joyned their forces, and smote sinfull men in their anger, and wicked men in their wrath: but the rest fled to the heathen for succour.

45 Then Mattathias and his friends went about, and pulled down the altars.

46 And whatsoever children they found within the coast of Israel uncircumcised, that circumcised they manfully.

47 They pursued also after the proud men, and the work prospered in their hands.

delivered the Law out of the fire, and out of the hand of King, pleasing they the flower to stumble, what the time drew near that he should die, he said unto his friend, Simon, behold, I have gotten strength, and the time of rashness and the wrath of indignation now therefore, my sons, be ye zealous for the Law, and give your lives for the Covenant of your fathers.
Call to remembrance what acts our fathers did in their time, so shall ye receive great honour and an everlasting name.
Was not Abraham found faithful in temptation, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness?
Joseph in the time of his distresse kept the commandment, and was made lord of Egypt.
Phinees our father, in being zealous and fervent, obtained the Covenant of an everlasting Priesthood.
Jesus for fulfilling the word, was made a Judge in Israel.
Caleb for bearing witnesse before the Congregation, received the heritage of the land.
David for being mercifull, possessed the throne of an everlasting kingdome.
Elias for being zealous and fervent for the Law was taken up into heaven.
Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, by believing were saved out of the flame.
Daniel for his innocency was delivered from the mouth of Lions.
And thus consider ye throughout all ages, that none that put their trust in him, shall be overcome.
Fear not then the words of a sinfull man: for his glory shall be dung and worm.
To day he shall be lifted up, and to morrow he shall not be found, because he is returned into his dust, and his thought is come to nothing.
Wherefore you my sons, be valiant, and shew yourselves men in the behalf of the Law, for by it shall you obtain glory.
And behold, I know that your brother Simon is a man of counsell, give ear unto him always: he shall be a father unto you.
As for Judas Maccabeus, he hath been mighty and strong, even from his youth up, let him be your captain, and fight the battell of the people.
Take also unto you all those that observe the Law, avenge ye the wrong of your people.
Recompence fully the heathen, and take heed to the commandments of the Law.
So he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers.
And he died in the hundreth forty and fifth yeer, and his sonnes buried him in the sepulchres of his fathers at Modin, and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

CHAP. III.

1 Jerusalem and state of Judea. 2 Heliodorus, 10 Apollonius, 13 the pride of Simon the high priest. 27 Heliodorus smitten. 31 Prayers for him. 34 He and his host worship God. 38 Onias and Seleucus.

Now when Judas, called Maccabeus, and all they that were with him, went privily into the villages, and called their kinsfolk unto them, and took unto them such as continued in Israel, and all his mother left, they came to Modin.
And they departed, and fought with the Gentiles, which had compassed them about, and made a breach upon them, and smote them, destroying the ungodly: and the rest fled.
Then the children of Israel, that were of the Gentiles, delivered themselves.
Moreover, he went throughout the cities of Judea, destroying the ungodly out of them, and turning away wrath from Israel.
So that he was renowned unto the utmost part of the earth, and he received unto him such as were ready to perish.
Then Apollonius gathered the Gentiles together, and a great host out of Samaria to fight against Israel.
Which thing when Judas perceived, he went forth to meet him, and so he smote him and slew him, many also fell down dead, but the rest fled.
Whereupon Judas took their spoils, and Apollonius sword also, and therewith he fought all his life long.
Now when Seron a Prince of the army of Syria, heard say, that Judas had gathered unto him a multitude, and company of the faithfull, to go out with him in warre:
He said, I will get me a name and honour in the kingdome, for I will go fight with Judas, and those that are with him, who despise the kings commandement.
So he made him ready to go up, and there went with him a mighty host of the ungodly to help him, and to be revenged of the children of Israel.
And when he came near to the going up of Bethoron, Judas went forth to meet him with a small company.
Who when they saw the hoste coming to meet them, said unto Judas, How shall we be able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude, and so strong, seeing we are ready to faint with fasting all this day?
Unto whom Judas answered, It is no hard matter for many to be shut up in the hands of a few, and with the God of heaven it is all one to deliver with a great multitude, or a small company.
For the victory of battell standeth not in the multitude of an hoste, but strength cometh from heaven.
They come against us in the multitude of their insolency, to destroy us, and our wives, and children, and to spoil us:
But we fight for our lives, and our laws.
Wherefore the Lord himself will overthrow them before our face: and as for you, be ye not afraid of them.
Now as soon as he had left off speaking these words, he leaped suddenly upon them, and so Seron and his host was discomfited before him.
And he pursued them in the going down of Bethoron unto the plain, where there were slain about eight hundred men; and the rest fled into the land of the Philistines.
Then began the fear of Judas, and of his brethren, and a dread to fall upon the nations round about them.
His name came even unto the king, and the nations told one another the warres of Judas.
But when king Antiochus heard these things, he was full of indignation: therefore he sent and gathered together all the forces of his kingdome, even a very strong army.
He opened also his treasure, and gave his soldiers pay for a year, commanding them to be ready whensoever he should need them.
Nevertheless when he saw that the money of his treasure failed, and that the tributes were small in the land, because of the dissension and plague which he had brought upon the land, in taking away the ordinances which had been of old time:
He feared that he should not have sufficient as he had done before, and was very much perplexed in his mind, therefore he determined to go into Persia, and to take the tributes of the countries, and so to get much money together.
Then left he Lysias, a nobleman, and one of the blood royall, to oversee the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates unto the borders of Egypt.
And to bring up Antiochus his son, until he came again.
Moreover he delivered unto him the one half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as concerning them that dwell in Judea and Jerusalem:
That he should send an army against them, to destroy and overthrow the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and cause their memorial to cease from that place:
And that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot.
So the king took the other half of his forces, and departed from Antioch his royall city, in the hundreth forty and seventh yeer, and passed over the river Euphrates, and went through the high countries.
Then Lysias chose Ptolemee the son of Dorymenes, Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men of the friends of the king:
And sent with them forty thousand footmen, and seven thousand horsemen, to go into the land of Judea, and to destroy it, according as the king commanded.
So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by Emmaus in the plain country.
When the merchants of the countrey heard the fame of them, they took silver and gold very much, and bonds, and went to the camp to take the children of Israel for servants: moreover the power of Syria and the Philistines joined themselves unto them.
Now Judas and his brethren saw that evils were multiplied, and that the forces did pitch themselves in their borders: for they knew in what manner the commandement which the king had given, must be executed upon the people, even to bring them to destruction, and utterly to abolish them.
Then said they one to another, Let us restore the decayed estate of our people, and let us fight for our people and the sanctuary.
Then was the congregation gathered together, that they might be ready to fight, and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion.
Now Jerusalem was void as a wilderness, there was none of her children that went in or out: and the sanctuary was trodden down, and strangers were in the fortresse: the heathen had their habitation there, and have taken away the glory from Jacob, and the joyfull pipe and harp ceased.
Therefore they assembled themselves together, and came to Maspha over against Jerusalem: for in Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Israel.
And they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and strewed ashes upon their heads, and rent their clothes,
And laid open the book wherein the images of the heathen had sought counsell, and took the first fruits of the increase, and the tithes, and stirred up the Nazarites, which had fulfilled their days:
And they cried with a loud voice toward heaven, saying, What shall we do with these, and whither shall we carry them?
For thy sanctuary is trodden down and polluted, and thy priests are in heavinesse, and brought low.
And behold the heathen are assembled against us to destroy us: thou knowest what they imagine against us.
How can we withstand them except thou, O God, be our help?
Then sounded they with trumpets, and cried with a loud voice.
And after this Judas ordained captains over the people, even over thousands, and over hundreds, over fifties, and over tens.
And he said unto them that were in building houses, or had newly married wives, or planted vineyards, or were fearfull, that they should return every man to his house according to the Law.
So the hoste removed, and encamped on the south side of Emmaus.
And Judas said, Arm yourselves, and be valiant men, and be ready against morning to fight with these nations that are assembled against us to destroy us and our sanctuary.
For it is better for us to die in battell, than to see the calamities of our nation and sanctuary.
Nevertheless as the will in heaven is, even so let him do.

26 Inasmuch as this fame came unto the king, and all nations talked of the battels of Judas, 27 Then when king Antiochus heard these things, he was full of indignation: wherefore he sent and gathered together all the forces of all his realm [very] strong army.

28 He opened also his treasure, and gave his souldiers pay for a year, commanding them to be ready at whatsoever he should need them.

29 Nevertheless, when he saw that the money of his treasures failed, and that the tributes in the country were small, because of the dissension and plague which he had brought upon the land, in taking away the Laws which had been of old time,

30 He feared that he should not be able to bear the charges any longer, nor to have such gifts to give so liberally, as he did before; for he had abounded above the kings that were before him.

31 Wherefore being greatly perplexed in his mind, he determined to go into Persia, there to take the tributes of the countrys, and to gather much money.

32 So he left Lysias a noble man, and one of the blood royall, to overlook the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates, unto the borders of Egypt;

33 And to bring up his sonne Antiochus, until he came again.

34 Moreover he delivered unto him the half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Judah and Jerusalem:

35 To wit, that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away their memorial from that place;

36 And that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot.

37 So the king took the half of the forces that remained, and departed from Antioch his royall city, the hundred fourty and seventh yeer; and having passed the river Euphrates, he went through the high countries.

38 Then Lysias chose Ptolemie, the sonne of Dorymenes, and Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men of the kings friends:

39 And with them he sent fourty thousand footmen, and seven thousand horsemen to go into the land of Juda, and to destroy it as the king commanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by Emmaus in the plain countrey.

41 And the merchants of the country, hearing the fame of them, took silver & gold very much, with servants, and came into the camp to buy the children of Israel for slaves; a power also of Syria, and of the land of the Philistines, joyned themselves unto them.

42 Now when Judas and his brethren saw that miseries were multiplied, and that the forces did encamp themselves in their borders; for they knew of the words that the king commanded to do, to destroy the people, and utterly to abolish them:

43 They said one to another, Let us restore the decayed estate of our people, and let us fight for our people and the sanctuary.

44 Then was the congregation gathered together, that they might be ready for battell, and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion.

45 Now Jerusalem lay void as a wilderness, there was none of her children that went in or out; the sanctuary also was trodden down, aliens kept the strong hold: the heathen had their habitation in that place, and joy was taken from Jacob, and the pipe with the harp ceased.

46 Wherefore the Israelites assembled themselves together, and came to Maspha over against Jerusalem; for in Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Israel.

47 Then they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and cast ashes upon their heads, and rent their clothes;

48 And laid open the book of the Law, wherein the heathen had sought to paint the likenesse of their images.

49 They brought also the priests garments, and the first fruits, and the tithes, and the Nazarites they stirred up, who had accomplished their dayes.

50 Then cryed they with a loud voice toward heaven, saying, What shall we do with these, and whither shall we carry them away?

51 For the Sanctuary is trodden down and profaned, and thy priests are in heavines, and brought low.

52 And lo, the heathen are assembled against us to destroy us: what things they imagine against us, thou knowest.

53 How shall we be able to stand against them, except thou (O God) be our help?

54 Then sounded they with trumpets, and cryed with a loud voyce.

55 And after this Judas ordained captains over the people, even captains over thousands, and over hundreds, and over fifties, and over tens.

56 But as for such as were building houses, or had betrothed wives, or were planting vineyards, or were fearfull, those he commanded, that they should return, every man to his own house, according to the Law.

57 So the camp removed, and pitched by the south side of Emmaus.

58 And Judas said, Arm your selves, and be valiant men, and see that ye be in a readinesse against the morning, that ye may fight with these nations that are assembled together against us to destroy us and our Sanctuary.

59 For it is better for us to die in battell, than to behold the calamities of our nation and Sanctuary.

60 Nevertheless as the will of God is in heaven, so let him do.

CHAP. IIII.

6 Judas discomfiteth the host of Gorgias, 23 and pursueth them. 28 Lysias overthroweth Judas. 36 He takes Jerusalem. After which the heathen that remained set fresh up a new, do undermine the Sion.

THen took Gorgias five thousand footmen, and a thousand of the best horsemen, and marched out of the camp by night;

2 To the end he might rush in upon the camp of the Jewes, and smite them suddenly. And some of the fortresse were his guides.

3 Now when Judas heard thereof, he and his men moved, & the valiant men set forward, that they might smite the kings army which was in Emmaus,

4 While as yet the forces were dispersed from the camp.

5 In the mean season came Gorgias by night to the camp of Judas: and when he found no man there, he sought them in the mountains: for, said he, These fellowes flee from us.

6 But assoon as it was day, Judas appeared a Greek, a seventy weeks.

b Or that the collections of tribute in the country were few.
c Or for the taking away of the lawes.

...ria which three thousand had not armour, and had neither armour nor swords to their minds.

7 And they saw the camp of the heathen that was strong and well fortified, and compassed round about with horsemen, and these were expert men of warre.

8 Then said Judas to the men that were with him: Fear ye not their multitude, neither be ye afraid of their assault.

9 Remember how our fathers were delivered in the red sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with an army.

10 Now therefore let us cry unto heaven, if peradventure the Lord will have mercy upon us, and remember the covenant of our fathers, and destroy this host before our face this day.

11 That so all the heathen may know that there is one, who delivereth and saveth Israel.

12 Then the strangers lift up their eyes, and beheld them coming over against them.

13 Wherefore they went out of the camp to battell, but they that were with Judas sounded their trumpets.

14 So they joyned battell, and the heathen being discomfited, fled into the plain.

15 Howbeit all the hindmost of them were slain with the sword: for they pursued them unto Gazara, and unto the plains of Idumea, and Azotus, and Jamnia, so that there were slain of them, upon a thousand men.

16 This done, Judas returned again with his host pursuing them,

17 And said to the people, Be not greedy of the spoils, in as much as there is a battell before us,

18 And Gorgias and his host are here by us in the mountain, but stand ye now against your enemies, and overcome them, and after this you may boldly take the spoils.

19 As Judas was yet speaking these words, there appeared a part of them looking out of the mountain:

20 Who when they perceived that the Jews had put their host to flight, and were burning the tents, (for the smoak that was seen declared what was done)

21 When therefore they perceived these things, they were sore afraid, and seeing also the host of Judas in the plain ready to fight:

22 They fled every one into the land of strangers.

23 Then Judas returned to spoil the tents, where they got much gold and silver, and blue silk, and purple of the sea, and great riches.

24 After this they went home, and sung a song of thanksgiving, and praised the Lord in heaven: because it is good, because his mercy endureth for ever.

25 Thus Israel had a great deliverance that day.

26 Now all the strangers that had escaped, came and told Lysias what had happened.

27 Who when he heard thereof, was confounded, and discouraged, because neither such things as he would were done unto Israel, nor such things as the king commanded him were come to passe.

28 The next yeer therefore following, Lysias gathered together threescore thousand choice men of foot, and five thousand horsemen, that he might subdue them.

29 So they came into Idumea, and pitched their tents at Bethsura, and Judas met them with ten thousand men.

30 And when he saw that mighty army, he prayed, and said: Blessed art thou, O Saviour of Israel, b who didst quell the violence of the mighty man by the hand of thy servant David, and gavest the host of c strangers into the hands of d Jonathan the sonne of Saul, and his armour-bearer.

31 Shut up this army in the hand of thy people Israel, and let them be confounded in their power and horsemen.

32 Make them to be of no courage, and cause the boldnesse of their strength to e fall away, and let them quake at their destruction.

33 Cast them down with the sword of them that love thee, and let all those that know thy Name, praise thee with thanksgiving.

34 So they joyned battell, and there were slain of the host of Lysias about five thousand men, even before them were they slain.

35 Now when Lysias saw his army put to flight, and the manlinesse of Judas souldiers, and how they were ready, either to live or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia, and gathered together a company of strangers, and having made his army greater then it was, he purposed to come again into Judea.

36 Then said Judas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: let us go up to cleanse, and f dedicate the Sanctuary.

37 Upon this all the host assembled themselves together, and went up into mount Sion.

38 And when they saw the Sanctuary desolate, and the Altar profaned, and the gates burnt up, and shrubs growing in the courts, as in a forrest, or in one of the mountains, yea, and the Priests chambers pulled down,

39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and cast ashes upon their heads, 40 And fell down flat to the ground upon their faces, and blew an alarm with the trumpets, and cryed towards heaven.

41 Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against those that were in the fortresse, untill he had cleansed the Sanctuary.

42 So he chose Priests of blamelesse conversation, such as had pleasure in the Law:

43 Who cleansed the Sanctuary, and bare out the defiled stones into an unclean place.

44 And when as they consulted what to do with the Altar of burnt offerings which was profaned,

45 They thought it best to pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because the heathen had defiled it; wherefore they pulled it down, 46 And laid up the stones in the mountain of the Temple, in a convenient place, untill there should come a Prophet, to shew what should be done with them.

47 Then they took whole stones ‖ according to the Law, and built a new Altar, according to the former:

48 And made up the Sanctuary, and the things that were within the Temple, and hallowed the courts.

49 They made also new holy vessels, and into the Temple they brought the Candlestick, and the Altar of burnt offerings, and of incense, and the Table.

50 And upon the Altar they burnt incense, and the lamps that were upon the Candlestick they lighted, that they might give light in the Temple.

51 Furthermore they set the loaves upon the Table, and h spread out the vails, and finished all the works which they had begun to make.

in the hundred fourty and eight year they rose up betimes in the morning, 54 And offered sacrifice according to the Law, upon the new Altar of burnt offerings which they had made.

54 Look at what time, and what day the heathen had profaned it, even in that was it dedicated with songs, and cythems, and harps, and symbals.

55 Then all the people fell upon their faces, worshipping, and praising the God of heaven, who had given them good successe.

56 And so they kept the dedication of the Altar eight dayes, and offered burnt offerings with gladnesse, and sacrificed the sacrifice of [a] deliverance and praise.

58 Thus was there very great gladnesse among the people, for that the reproach of the heathen was put away.

59 Moreover, Judas and his brethren, with the whole Congregation of Israel, ordained that the dayes of the dedication of the Altar, should be kept in their season from yeer to yeer by the space of eight dayes, from the five and twentieth day of the moneth Casleu, with mirth and gladnes, 60 At that time also they builded up the mount Sion with high walls, and strong towers round about, lest the Gentiles should come and tread it down, as they had done before.

61 And they set there a garison to keep it, and fortified Bethsura to preserve it, that the people might have a defence against Idumea.

NOw when the nations round about heard that the Altar was built, and the Sanctuary renewed as before, it displeased them very much.

2 Wherefore they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that was among them, and thereupon they began to slay and destroy the people.

3 Then Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumea at [d] Arabattine, because they besieged Israel: and he gave them a great overthrow, and abated their courage, and took their spoils.

4 Also he remembred the [e] injury of the children of [f] Baan, who had been a snare and an offence unto the people, in that they lay in wait for them in the wayes.

f Or, Baean. Gen. 36. 27. Chron. 33. 32.

5 He shut them up therefore in the towers, and encamped against them, and destroyed them utterly, and burnt the towers of that place with fire, and all that were therein.

6 Afterward he passed over to the children of Ammon, where he found a mighty power, and much people with Timotheus their captain.

7 So he fought many battels with them, till at length they were discomfited before him; and he smote them.

8 And when they had taken Jazar, with the towns belonging thereto, he returned into Judea.

9 Then the heathen that were at Galaad assembled themselves together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to destroy them: but they fled to the fortresse of Dathema;

10 And sent letters unto Judas and his [g] brethren saying: The heathen that are round about us g Or, brethren.

are assembled together against us to 11 And they are preparing to come the fortresse whereunto we are fled, being captain of their host.

12 Come now therefore, and deliver us their hands, for many of us are slain.

13 Yea, all our brethren that were in the place of Tubin, are put to death, their wives and children: also they have carried away captives, and born away their stuffe, and they have destroyed there about a thousand men.

14 While these letters were yet reading, behold, there came other messengers from Galilee, with their clothes rent, who reported in this wise, 15 And said, They of Ptolemais, and of Tyrus, and Sidon, and all Galilee of the Gentiles, are assembled together against us, to consume us.

16 Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled a great Congregation together, to consult what they should do for their brethren that were in trouble, and suffered of them.

17 Then said Judas unto Simon his brother, Chuse thee out men, and go, and deliver thy brethren that are in Galilee; for I and Jonathan my brother, will go into the country of Galaad.

18 So he left Joseph the sonne of Zacharias, and Azarias captains of the people, with the remnant of the host in Judea to keep it.

19 Unto whom he gave commandement, saying, Take ye the charge of this people, and see that you make not warre against the heathen, until the time that we come again.

20 Now unto Simon were given three thousand men to go into Galilee, and unto Judas eight thousand men for the country of Galaad.

21 Then went Simon into Galilee, where he fought many battels with the heathen, so that the heathen were discomfited by him.

22 And he pursued them unto the gate of Ptolemais: and there were slain of the heathen about three thousand men, whose spoils he took.

23 And those that were in Galilee and Sarepta, with their wives and their children, and all that they had, took he away [with him] and brought them into Judea with great joy.

24 Judas Maccabeus also, and his brother Jonathan went over Jordan, and travelled three dayes journey in the wildernesse,

25 Where they met with the Nabathites, who came unto them in peaceable manner, and told them every thing that had happened to their brethren in the land of Galaad,

26 And how that many of them were shut up in [h] Bosora, and Bosor, in Alema, (Casphor, Maked, and Carnaim, (all these cities are strong and great) h Or, Bosera, and Bosor, in Alema, Casphor, Maked, and Carnaim.

27 And that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the country of Galaad, and that they purpose to morrow [i] they are appointed to bring forth their host against the forts, and to take them and to destroy them all in one day.

i Or, they are appointed to bring forth their host against the forts, and to take them and to destroy them all in one day.

28 Hereupon Judas and his host turned suddenly by the way of the wildernesse unto Bosora, and when he had won the city, he slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burnt the city with fire.

29 From whence he removed by night, and went till he came to the fortresse.

30 And betimes in the morning they lift up their eyes, and behold there was an innumerable people bearing ladders, and other engines of warre, to take the fortresse; for they assaulted them

...ther Judas therefore saw that the battell ...ame, and that the cry of the city went ...to heaven, with trumpets and a great sound, 37 He said unto the host, Fight this day for your brethren.
38 So he went forth behind them in three companies, who sounded their trumpets, and cryed with prayer.
39 Then the host of Timotheus, knowing that it was Maccabeus, fled from him: wherefore he slew them with a great slaughter: so that there were fallen of them that day about eight thousand men.
40 This done, Judas turned aside to Maspha, and after he had assaulted it, he took it, and slew all the males thereof, and received the spoils thereof, and burnt it with fire.
41 From thence went he, and took Casphon, Maked, Bosor, and the other cities of the country of Galaad.
42 After these things gathered Timotheus another host, and encamped against Raphon beyond the brook.
43 So Judas sent [men] to espie the host, who brought him word, saying, All the heathen that be round about us, are assembled unto them, even a very great host.
44 He hath also hired the Arabians to help them, and they have pitched their tents beyond the brook, ready to come and fight against thee: upon this Judas went to meet them.
45 Then Timotheus said unto the captaines of his host, When Judas and his host come neer the brook, if he passe over first unto us, we shall not be able to withstand him, for he will mightily prevail against us.
46 But if he be afraid, and camp beyond the river, we shall go over unto him, and prevail against him.
47 Now when Judas came neer the brook, he caused the Scribes of the people to remain by the brook, unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Suffer no man to remain in the camp, but let all come to the battell.
48 So he went first over unto them, and all the people after him: then all the heathen, being discomfited before him, cast away their weapons, and fled unto the Temple that was at Carnaim.
49 But they took the city, and burnt the Temple, with all that were therein. Thus was Carnain subdued, neither could they stand any longer before Judas.
50 Then Judas gathered together all the Israelites that were in the country of Galaad, from the least unto the greatest, even their wives and their children, and their stuffe, a very great host, to the end they might come into the land of Juda.
51 Now when they came unto Ephron, (this was a great city in the way as they should go, very well fortified) they could not turn from it, either on the right hand, or the left, but must needs passe through the midst of it.
52 Then they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones.
53 Wherupon Judas sent unto them in peaceable manner, saying, Let us passe through your land to go into our own country, and none shall do you any hurt, we will only passe through on foot: notwithstanding, they would not open unto him.
54 Wherefore Judas commanded a proclamation to be made throughout the host, that every man should pitch his tent in the place where he was.
55 So the souldiers pitched, and assaulted the city all that day, and all that night, till at the length the city was delivered into his hands.
56 Who slew also with the edge of the sword, and razed the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed thorow the city over them that were slain.
57 After this went they over Jordan, into the great plain before Bethsan.
58 And Judas gathered together those that came behind, and encouraged the people all the way thorow, till they came into the land of Judah.
59 So they went up to mount Sion with joy and gladnesse, where they offered burnt offerings, because not one of them were slain until they had returned in peace.
60 Now what time as Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon his brother in Galilee before Ptolemais, 61 Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, captaines of the garison, heard of the valiant acts and warlike deeds which they had done.
62 Wherefore they said, Let us also get us a name, and go fight against the heathen that are round about us.
63 So when they had given charge unto the garison that was with them, they went towards Jamnia.
64 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the city, to fight against them.
65 And so it was, that Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and pursued unto the borders of Judea: and there were slain that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men.
66 Thus was there a great overthrow among the children of Israel, because they were not obedient unto Judas and his brethren, but thought to do some valiant act.
67 Moreover, these men came not of the seed of those, by whose hand deliverance was given unto Israel.
68 Howbeit, the man Judas and his brethren were greatly renowned in the sight of all Israel, and of all the heathen wheresoever their name was heard of,
69 Insomuch as the people assembled unto them with joyfull acclamations.
70 Afterward went Judas forth with his brethren, and fought against the children of Esau, in the land toward the South, where he smote Hebron, and the [a] towns thereof, and pulled down the fortresse of it, and burnt the towres thereof round about.
71 From thence he removed to go into the land of the [g] Philistines, and passed thorow Samaria.
72 At that time certain Priests, desirous to shew their valour, were slain in battell, for that they went out to fight unadvisedly.
73 So Judas turned to Azotus in the land of the Philistines, and when he had pulled down their altars, and burnt their carved images with fire, and spoiled their cities, he returned into the land of Judea.

Elimais in the country of Persia, was a city greatly renowned for riches, silver and gold:

2 And that there was in it a very rich temple, wherein were [a] coverings of gold, and breastplates, and [b] shields, which Alexander sonne of Philip the Macedonian King, who reigned first among the Grecians, had left there.

3 Wherefore he came and sought to take the city, and to spoil it, but he was not able, because they of the city having had warning thereof,

4 Rose up against him in battell: So he fled and departed thence with great heavinesse, and returned to Babylon.

5 Moreover there came one, who brought in tidings into Persia, that the armies which went against the land of Judea, were put to flight:

6 And that Lysias, who went forth first with a great power, was driven away of the Jews, and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and store of spoils, which they had gotten of the armies whom he had destroyed.

7 Also that they had pulled down the abomination which he had set up upon the Altar in Jerusalem, and that they had compassed about the Sanctuary with high walls as before, and his city Bethsura.

8 Now when the king heard these words, he was astonished, and sore moved: whereupon he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not befallen him, as he looked for.

9 And there he continued many dayes: for his grief was ever more and more, and he made account that he should die.

10 Wherefore he called for all his friends, and said unto them, The sleep is gone from mine eyes, and my heart faileth for very care.

11 And I thought with my self: Into what tribulation am I come, and how great a flood [of misery] is it wherein now I am? for I was bountifull, and beloved in my power.

12 But now I remember the evils that I did at Jerusalem, and that I took all the vessels of gold and silver that were therein, and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Judea without a cause.

13 I perceive therefore, that for this cause these troubles are come upon me, and behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land.

14 Then called he for Philip one of his friends, whom he made ruler over all his realm:

15 And gave him the crown, and his robe, and his signet, to the end [c] he should bring up his sonne Antiochus, and nourish him up for the kingdome.

16 So king Antiochus died there in the hundreth fourty and ninth yere.

17 Now when Lysias knew that the King was dead, he set up Antiochus his sonne (whom he had brought up being young) to reign in his stead, and his name he called Eupator.

18 About this time they that were in the tower, shut up the Israelites round about the Sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen.

19 Wherefore Judas purposing to destroy them, called all the people together to besege them.

20 So they came together, and besieged them in the hundreth and fiftieth yeer, & he made mounts for shot against them, and [other] engines.

21 Howbeit certain of them that were besieged got forth, unto whom some ungodly men of Israel joyned themselves.

22 And they went unto the King, and said, How long will it be ere thou execute judgement, and avenge our brethren?

23 We have been willing to serve thy father, and to do as he would have us, and to obey his Commandments.

24 For which cause they of our nation shut up the tower, and are alienated from us: and as many of us as they could light on, they slew, and spoiled our inheritance.

25 Neither have they stretched out their hand against us onely, but also against all their borders.

26 And behold, this day are they besieging the tower at Jerusalem to take it: the Sanctuary also and Bethsura have they fortified.

27 Wherefore if thou doest not prevent them quickly, they will do greater things than these, neither shalt thou be able to rule them.

28 Now when the king heard this, he was wroth, and gathered together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and those that had charge of the horse.

29 There came also unto him from other kingdomes, and from Iles of the sea, bands of hired souldiers.

30 So that the number of his army was an hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsmen, and two and thirty Elephants trained in battell.

31 These went through Idumea, and pitched against Bethsura, which they assaulted many dayes, making engines of war: but they [of Bethsura] came out, and burnt them with fire, and fought valiantly.

32 Upon this Judas removed from the tower, and pitched in Bathzacharias, over against the kings camp.

33 Then the king rising very early, marched fiercely with his host toward Bathzacharias, where his armies made them ready to battell, and sounded the trumpets.

34 And to the end they might provoke the Elephants to fight, they shewed them the blood of grapes and mulberies.

35 Moreover, they divided the beasts among the armies, and for every Elephant they appointed a thousand men, armed with coats of mail, and with helmets of brasse on their heads, and besides this, for every beast were ordained five hundred horsmen of the best.

36 These were ready at every occasion: where soever the beast was, and whithersoever the beast went, they went also; neither departed they from him.

37 And upon the beasts were there towers of wood, which covered every one of them, and were girt fast unto them with devices: and there were also upon every one two and thirty strong men that fought upon them, besides the Indian that ruled him.

38 As for the remnant of the horsmen, they set them on this side, and that side, at the two corners of the host, & giving them signes what to do, being harnessed all over amidst the companies.

39 Now when the Sunne shone upon the shields of gold and brasse, the mountains glistered with them, and shined like lamps of fire.

40 So part of the kings army being spread upon the high mountains, and part of them below, they marched on safely and in order.

41 Whereupon all that heard the noise of the multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the harnesse, were moved: for the army was very great and mighty.

33 ¶ Eleazar alſo (ſirnamed) Auaran, perceiuing that one of the beaſts armed with royall armour, was higher then all the reſt, and ſuppoſing that the king was upon him, 34 Put himſelf in jeopardy, to the end he might deliuer his people, and get him a perpetuall name.

35 Wherefore he ran vpon him courageouſly through the midſt of the battell, ſlaying on the right hand, and on the left, [a] ſo that they were diuided from him on both ſides.

36 Which done, he crept vnder the Elephant, and thruſt him vnder, and ſlew him: whereupon the elephant fell down vpon him, and there he died.

37 Howbeit [the reſt of the Jewes] ſeeing the ſtrength of the king, and the violence of his troupes, turned away from them.

38 ¶ Then the Kings army went vp to Jeruſalem to meet them, and the King pitched his tents [b] againſt Judea, and againſt mount Sion.

39 But with them that were in Bethſura, he made peace: for they came out of the city, becauſe they had no victuals there, to endure the ſiege, it being a yeer of reſt to the land.

40 So the King took Bethſura, and ſet a garriſon there to keep it.

41 As for the Sanctuary he beſieged it many dayes, [d] and ſet there artillery with engines, and inſtruments to caſt fire and ſtones, and pieces to caſt darts, and ſlings.

42 Whereupon [e] they alſo made engines againſt their engines, and held them battell a long ſeaſon.

43 Yet at the laſt their veſſels being without victuals, (for that it was the ſeuenth yeer, and they in Judea that were delliuered from the Gentiles, had eaten up the reſidue of the ſtore)

44 There were but a few left in the Sanctuary, becauſe the famine did ſo prevail againſt them, that they were faln to diſperſe themſelves, every man to his own place.

45 At that time Lyſias heard ſay, that Philip (whom Antiochus the King whiles he liued, had appointed to bring up his ſonne Antiochus, that he might be King)

46 Was returned out of Perſia and Media, and the Kings hoſt alſo that went with him, and that he ſought to take vnto him the ruling of the affaires.

47 Wherefore he went in all haſte, and ſaid to the King, and the captains of the hoſt, and the company, We decay daily, and our victuals are but ſmall, and the place we lay ſiege vnto is ſtrong, and the affairs of the kingdome lie upon us.

48 Now therefore let us [f] be friends with theſe men, and make peace with them, and with all their nation, 49 And couenant with them that they ſhall liue after their laws, as they did before: for they are therefore diſpleaſed, and haue done all theſe things, becauſe we abolliſhed their laws.

50 So the King and the Princes were content: wherefore he ſent vnto them to make peace, and they accepted thereof.

51 Alſo the King and the Princes made an oath vnto them: whereupon they went out of the ſtrong hold.

52 Then the King entred into mount Sion, but when he ſaw the ſtrength of the place, he brake the oath that he had made, and gaue commandement to pull down the wall round about.

53 Afterward departed he in all haſte, and returned vnto Antiochia, where he found Philippus to be maſter of the city. So he fought againſt him, and tooke the city by force.

CHAP. VII.

1 Antiochus is ſlain, and Demetrius reigneth in his ſtead. 5 Alcimus would be high Prieſt, and complaineth of Judas to the King. 16 He ſlayeth threeſcore Aſſidæans. 43 Nicanor is ſent, and the Kings forces are diſcomfited by Judas. 49 The day of this victory is kept holy euery yeer.

IN the hundred and one and ſixtieth yeer, Demetrius the ſonne of Seleucus departed from Rome, and came up with a few men into a city of the Sea coaſt, and reigned there.

2 And as he entred into the [a] palace of his anceſtors, ſo it was, that his forces had taken Antiochus and Lyſias to bring them vnto him.

3 Wherefore when he knew it, he ſaid, Let me not ſee their faces.

4 So his hoſt ſlew them. Now when Demetrius was ſet upon the throne of his kingdome, 5 There came vnto him all the wicked and ungodly men of Iſrael, having Alcimus (who was deſirous to be high Prieſt) for their captain.

6 And they accuſed the people to the king, ſaying, Judas and his brethren haue ſlain all thy friends, and driuen us out of our own land.

7 Now therefore ſend ſome man whom thou truſteſt, and let him go and ſee what harock he hath made amongſt us, and in the Kings land, and let him puniſh them with all them that aid them.

8 Then the King choſe Bacchides, a friend of the King, who ruled beyond the flood, and was a great man in the kingdome, and faithfull to the King.

9 And him he ſent with that wicked Alcimus, whom he made high Prieſt, and commanded that he ſhould take vengeance of the children of Iſrael.

10 So they departed, and came with a great power into the land of Judea, where they ſent meſſengers to Judas and his brethren with peaceable words deceitfully.

11 But they gaue no heed to their words, for they ſaw that they were come with a great power.

12 Then did there aſſemble vnto Alcimus and Bacchides, a company of [i] Scribes, to require juſtice.

13 Now the Aſſideans were the firſt among the children of Iſrael, that ſought peace of them.

14 For, ſaid they, one that is a Prieſt of the ſeed of Aaron, is come with this army, and he will do us no wrong.

15 So he ſpake vnto them peaceably, and ſware vnto them, ſaying, We will procure the harm neither of you, nor your friends.

16 Whereupon they beleeued him: howbeit he took of them threeſcore men, and ſlew them in one day, according to the words which he wrote:

17 [k] The fleſh of thy Saints [haue they caſt out] and their blood haue they ſhed round about Jeruſalem, and there was none to bury them.

18 Wherefore the fear and dread of them fell upon all the people, who ſaid, There is neither truth nor [l] righteouſneſſe in them, for they haue broken the couenant and oath that they made.

19 After this removed Bacchides from Jeruſalem, and pitched his tents in Bezeth, where he ſent and took many of the men that had forſaken him, and certain of the people alſo, and when he had ſlain them, [he caſt them] into the great pit.

20 Then consulted he the treasury to Alcimus, and left with him a power to aid him: so Bacchides went unto the king.

21 But Alcimus [a] contended for the high Priesthood.

22 And unto him reforted all such as troubled the people, who after they had gotten the land of Juda into their power, did much hurt in Israel.

23 Now when Judas saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his company had done among the Israelites, even above the heathen, 24 He went out into all the coast of Judea round about, and took vengeance of them that had [b] revolted from him, so that they durst no more [c] go forth into the country.

25 On the other side, when Alcimus saw that Judas and his company [d] had gotten the upper hand, and knew that he was not able [e] to abide their force, he went again to the king, and laid all the worst of them that he could.

26 Then the king sent Nicanor, one of his honourable Princes, a man that bare deadly hate unto Israel, with commandment to destroy the people.

27 So Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great force: and sent unto Judas and his brethren deceitfully, with [f] friendly words, saying, 28 Let there be no battell between me and you, I will come with a few men, that I may [g] see you in peace.

29 He came therefore to Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably. Howbeit the enemies were prepared to take away Judas by violence.

30 Which thing after it was known to Judas (to wit) that he came unto him with deceit, he was sore afraid of him, and would see his face no more.

31 Nicanor also, when he saw that his counsell was discovered, went out to [h] fight against Judas beside [i] Capharsalama:

32 Where there were slain of Nicanors side, about five thousand men, and [the rest] fled into the city of David.

33 After this went Nicanor up to mount Sion, and there came out of the Sanctuary certain of the Priests, and certain of the Elders of the people, to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the burnt sacrifice that was offered for the king.

34 But he mocked them, and laughed at them, and [k] abused them shamefully, and spake proudly, 35 And sware in his wrath, saying, unlesse Judas and his host be now delivered into my hands, if ever I come again [l] in safety, I will burn up this house: and with that he went out in a great rage.

36 Then the Priests entred in, and stood before the Altar, and the Temple, weeping, and saying, 37 Thou, O Lord, didst chuse this house to be called by thy Name, and to be a house of prayer and petition for thy people.

38 Be avenged of this man and his host, and let them fall by the sword: Remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue any longer.

39 So Nicanor went out of Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Bethoron, where an host out of Syria met him.

40 But Judas pitched in Adasa, with three thousand men, and there he prayed, saying, 41 [m] O Lord, when they that were sent from the king of the Assyrians blasphemed, thine Angel went out, and smote an hundred, fourscore, and five thousand of them.

42 Even so destroy thou this host before our face this day, that the rest may know that he hath spoken blasphemously against thy Sanctuary, and judge him according to his wickedness.

43 So the thirteenth day of the month Adar they joyned battell, but Nicanors host was discomfited, and he himself was first slain in the battell.

44 Now when Nicanors host saw that he was slain, they cast away their weapons, and fled.

45 Then [n] they pursued after them a days journey, from Adasa unto Gazera, sounding an alarum after them with their trumpets.

46 Whereupon they came forth out of all the townes of Judea round about, and closed them in, so that they turning back upon them that pursued them, were all slain with the sword, and not one of them was left.

47 Afterwards they took the spoils, and the prey, and smote off Nicanors head, and the right hand which he stretched out so presumptuously, and brought them away, and hanged them up over against Jerusalem.

48 For this cause the people rejoyced greatly, and they kept that day a day of great gladness.

49 Moreover they ordained to keep yearly this day, being the thirteenth of Adar.

50 Thus the land of Juda was in rest a little while.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Judas is informed of the power and policy of the Romanes, 20 and maketh a league with them. 24 The articles of that league.

NOw Judas had heard of the fame of the Romanes, that they were mighty and valiant men, and such as would lovingly accept all that joyned themselves unto them, and make a league of amity with all that came unto them,

2 And that they were men of great valour: he was told him also of their warres and acts done which they had done amongst the [o] Galathians, and how they had conquered them, and brought them under tribute.

3 And what they had done in the country of Spain, for the winning of the Mines of the silver and gold which is there.

4 And that by their policie and patience they had conquered [p] all that place (though it were very far from them) and the kings also that came against them from the uttermost part of the earth, till they had discomfited them, and given them a great overthrow, so that the rest did give them tribute every yeer.

5 Besides this, how they had discomfited in battell Philip, and Perseus King of the [q] Citims, with others that lift up themselves against them, and had overcome them.

6 How also Antiochus the great King of Asia that came against them in battell, having an hundred and twenty Elephants, with horsemen and chariots, and a very great army, was discomfited by them:

7 And how they took him alive, and appointed that he, and such as reigned after him, should pay a great tribute, and give hostages for it, which was agreed upon,

8 And the country of India and [r] Media, Lydia, and of the goodliest countreys they took of him, and gave unto King Eumenes.

9 Moreover, how the Grecians had determined to come and destroy them:

their children and their wives, and spoil them, and keep them for a prey, and eat their substance before them.

7 It was told him [Judas] how they destroyed and brought under their dominion all the kingdoms and Illes that at any time resisted them.

8 For with their friends and such as relyed upon them, they kept amity: and that they had subdued kingdoms both farre and nigh, insomuch as all that heard of their name were afraid of them.

9 Also that whom they would help to a kingdom, those reign, and whom again they would, they displace: finally that they were greatly exalted.

10 Yet for all this none of them wore a crown, nor clothed in purple to be magnified thereby.

11 Moreover, how they had made for themselves a Senate house, wherein three hundred and twenty men sat in counsell daily, consulting alwayes for the people, to the end they might be well ordered.

12 And that they committed their government unto one man every yeare, who ruled over all their country, and that all were obedient to that one, and that there was neither envy nor emulation amongst them.

13 In consideration of these things Judas chose Eupolemus the sonne of John, the sonne of Accus, and Jason the sonne of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome to make a league of amity and confederacy with them, 14 [And to intreat them] that they would take the yoke from them, for they saw that the kingdome of the Grecians did oppresse Israel with bondage.

15 They went therefore to Rome (which was a very great journey) and came into the Senate, where they spake and said, 16 Judas Maccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Jews, have sent us unto you to make a confederacie, and peace with you, and that we might be registred your confederates and friends.

17 So that matter pleased the Romanes well.

18 And this is the copy of the Epistle which (the Senate) wrote back again in tables of brasse, and sent to Jerusalem, that there they might have by them a memoriall of peace and confederacie.

19 Good successe be to the Romanes, and to the people of the Jews by sea, and by land for ever: the sword also and enemy be far from them.

20 If there come first any warre upon the Romanes, or any of their confederates throughout all their dominion, 21 The people of the Jews shall help them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart.

22 Neither shall they give any thing unto them that make war upon them, or aid them with victuals, weapons, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romanes, but they shall keep their covenants without taking any thing therefore.

23 In like manner also shall [If] warre come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romanes shall help them with all their heart, according as the time shall be appointed them.

24 Neither shall victuals be given to them that take part against them, or weapons, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romanes, but they shall keep their covenants, and that without fraude.

25 According to these articles did the Romanes make a covenant with the people of the Jews.

26 Moreover, if hereafter the one party or the other, shall think meet to adde or diminish any thing, they may do it at their pleasure, and whatsoever they shall adde or take away, shall be ratified.

27 And as touching the evils that Demetrius doeth to the Jews, we have written unto him, saying, Wherefore hast thou made thy yoke heavy upon our friends and confederates the Jews?

28 If therefore they complain any more against thee, we will do them justice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

CHAP. IX.

1 Alcimus and Bacchides come again with new forces into Judea. 7 The army of Judas flee from him. 17 and he is slain. 30 Jonathan is in his place. 40 and revengeth his brother Johns quarrell. 55 Alcimus is plagued, and dieth. 70 Bacchides maketh peace with Jonathan.

NOw when Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his host, were slain in battell, a he sent Bacchides and Alcimus into the land of Judea the second time, and with them the b chief strength of his host.

2 Who went forth by the way that leadeth to c Galgala, and pitched their tents before Masaloth, which is in Arbela, and after they had won it, they slew much people.

3 Also the first moneth of the hundred fifty and second yeer, they encamped before Jerusalem.

4 From whence they removed and went to d Berea, with twenty thousand footmen, and two thousand horsemen.

5 Now Judas had pitched his tents at Eleasa, and three thousand chosen men with him.

6 Who seeing the multitude of the other army to be so great, were very afraid, whereupon many conveyed themselves out of the host, insomuch as there abode of them no more but eight hundred men.

7 When Judas therefore saw that his host was away, and that the battell pressed upon him, he was sore troubled in minde, and much disturbed for that he had no time to gather them together.

8 Nevertheless unto them that remained, he said; Let us arise and go up against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them.

9 But they dehorted him, saying, We shall never be able: e let us now rather save our lives, and hereafter we will return with our brethren, and fight against them: for we are but few.

10 Then Judas said, God forbid that I should do this thing, and flee away from them: if our time be come, let us dy manfully for our brethren, and f let us not stain our honour.

11 With that the host of [Bacchides] removed out of their tents, and stood over against them, their horsemen being divided into two troops, and their slingers and archers going before the host, and they that marched in the forward were all mighty men.

12 As for Bacchides, he was in the right wing, so the host drew neer on the two parts, and sounded their trumpets.

13 They also of Judas side, even they sounded their trumpets also, so that the earth shook at the noise of the armies, and the battell continued from morning till night.

14 Now when Judas perceived that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, he took with him all the hardy men, 15 Who discomfited the right wing, and pursued them unto the mount Azotus.

16 But when they of the left wing saw that they of the right wing were discomfited, they followed upon Judas and those that were with him, hard at the heels from behind:

17 Whereupon there was a sore battell, insomuch as many were slain on both parts.

18 Judas also was killed, and the remnant fled.

19 Then Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers in Modin.

20 Moreover they bewailed him, and all Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned many dayes, saying, 21 How is the valiant man fallen, that delivered Israel!

22 As for the other things concerning Judas and his warres, and the noble acts which he did, and his greatnesse, they are not written: for they were very many.

23 ¶ Now after the death of Judas, the wicked began to put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and there rose up all such as wrought iniquity.

24 In those dayes also was there a very great famine, by reason whereof the countrey revolted, and went with [a] them.

25 Then Bacchides chose the wicked men, and made them lords of the country.

26 And they made enquiry and search for Judas friends, and brought them unto Bacchides, who took vengeance of them, and [b] used them despightfully.

27 So there was a great affliction in Israel, the like whereof was not since the time that a Prophet was not seen amongst them.

28 For this cause all Judas friends came together, and said unto Jonathan, 29 Since thy brother Judas died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies, and Bacchides, and against them of our nation that are adversaries to us.

30 Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our Prince, and captain in his stead, that thou mayest fight our battels.

31 Upon this, Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and rose up in stead of his brother Judas.

32 But when Bacchides gate knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay him.

33 Then Jonathan and Simon his brother, and all that were with him, perceiving that, fled into the wildernesse of Thecoe, and pitched their tents by the water of the pool Asphar.

34 [c] Which when Bacchides understood, he came neer to Jordan with all his hoste upon the Sabbath day.

35 Now Jonathan had sent his brother [d John] a captain of the people, to pray his friends the Nabathites, [e] that they might leave with them their carriage, which was much.

36 But the children of Jambri came out of Medaba, and took John and all that he had, and went their way with it.

37 After this came word to Jonathan and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great marriage, and were bringing the bride from [f] Nadabatha with a great train, as being the daughter of one of the great Princes of Canaan.

38 Therefore they remembred John their brother, and went up, and hid themselves under the covert of the mountain:

39 Where they lift up their eyes, and looked, and beheld, there was much adoe and [g] great bestowing of stuff: and the bridegroom came forth, and his friends and brethren to meet them with tabrets and instruments of musick, and many weapons.

40 Then Jonathan and they that were with him rose up against them from the place where they lay in ambush, and made a slaughter of them after such sort, as many fell down dead, and the rest fled into the mountain, and they took all their spoils.

41 Thus was the marriage turned into mourning, and the noise of their melodie into lamentation.

42 So when they had avenged fully the blood of their brother, they turned again to the marish of Jordan.

43 Now when Bacchides heard thereof he came on the Sabbath day unto the banks of Jordan with a great power.

44 Then Jonathan said to his company, Let us go up now and fight for our lives, for it is not with us to day, as in time past:

45 For behold, the battell is before us, behind us, and the water of Jordan on this side and that side, the marish likewise and wood, neither is there place for us to turn aside.

46 Wherefore cry ye now unto heaven, that ye may be delivered from the hand of your enemies.

47 With that they joyned battell, and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides, but he turned back from him.

48 Then Jonathan and they that were with him leapt into Jordan, and swam over unto the further bank: howbeit the other passed not over Jordan unto them.

49 So there were slain of Bacchides side that day, about a [i] thousand men.

50 Afterward returned [h] Bacchides to Jerusalem, and [k] repaired the strong cities in Judea, as the fort in Jericho, and Emmaus, and Bethoron, and Bethel, and Thamnatha, Pharathon, and [l] Taphon, (these did he strengthen with high walls, with gates, and with barres).

51 And in them he set a garison, that they might work malice upon Israel.

52 He fortified also [m] the city Bethsur, and Gazara, and the tower, and put forces in them, and provision of victuals.

53 Besides he took the chief mens sonnes in the countrey for hostages, and put them into the tower at Jerusalem to be kept.

54 Moreover, in the hundred fifth and third year, in the second moneth, Alcimus commanded that the wall of the inner court of the sanctuary should be pulled down, he pulled down also the works of the Prophets.

55 And as he began to pull down, even at that time was Alcimus plagued, and his enterprise hindred: for his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsie, so that he could no more speak any thing, nor give order concerning his house.

56 So Alcimus died at that time with great torment.

57 Now when Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, he returned to the king, whereupon the land of Judea was in rest two years.

58 Then all the ungodly men held a councell, saying, Behold, Jonathan and his company live at ease, and dwell without care: now therefore we will bring Bacchides hither, who shall take them all in one night.

59 So they went and consulted with him.

60 Then removed he, and came with some letters privily to his adherents in Jerusalem, that they should take Jonathan, and shut him up: but when they came, he said, that he would send some that should kill him.

3 Whereupon they took no heed, because they knew that he was a man of great reputation, and that his words were not false.

4 Wherefore they took all the most of the men that were privy unto that mischief, and left only certain, and deputed them.

5 Afterward Jonathan and Simon, and they that were with him, got them away to Bethbasi, which is in the wilderness, and they repaired the ruinous places thereof, and made it strong.

6 Which thing when Bacchides knew, he gathered together all his host, and sent word unto them that were of Judea.

7 Then went he and laid siege against Bethbasi, and they fought against it a long season, and made engines of warre.

8 But Jonathan left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth himself into the country, and with a certain number went he forth.

9 And he smote b Odomarkes and his brethren, and the children of Phasiron in their tent.

10 And when he began to smite them, and came with his forces, Simon and his company went out of the city, and burnt up the engines of warre.

11 And fought against Bacchides, who was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore: for his counsell and travell was in vain.

12 Wherefore he was very wroth at the wicked men, that gave him counsell to come into the country, insomuch as he slew many of them, and purposed to return into his own country.

13 Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadours unto him, to the end he should make peace with him, and deliver them the prisoners.

14 Which thing he accepted, and did according to his demands, and swore unto him that he would never do him harm all the dayes of his life.

15 When therefore he had restored unto him the prisoners that he had taken aforetime out of the land of Judea, he returned, and went his way into his own land, neither c came he any more into their borders.

16 Thus the sword ceased from Israel: but Jonathan dwelt at Michmas, and began to d govern the people, and he destroyed the ungodly out of Israel.

CHAP. X.

Demetrius maketh large offers to have peace with Jonathan. 25 He writeth to the Jews, 47 Jonathan maketh peace with Alexander, 60 and is with honour received. 61 And marrieth the daughter of Ptolemie. 66 Jonathan is set for by him, and much honoured, 87 and prevaileth against the forces of Demetrius the younger, 89 and learneth the trouble of Dagon.

IN the hundreth and threescore year, Alexander the e sonne of Antiochus, surnamed Epiphanes, went up and took Ptolemais: for the people received him, and in them wherof he reigned after.

2 Now when king Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered together an exceeding great host, and went forth against him to fight.

3 Moreover Demetrius sent letters unto Jonathan with loving words, for he magnified him.

4 For, said he, Let us first make peace with him, before he join with Alexander against us:

5 Else he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brethren, and his people.

6 Wherefore he gave him authority to gather together an host, and to provide weapons that he might aid him in battell, he commanded also that the hostages that were in the tower should be delivered him.

7 Then came Jonathan to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the tower:

8 Who were sore afraid when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together an host.

9 Whereupon they of the tower delivered their hostages unto Jonathan, and he delivered them unto their parents.

10 This done, Jonathan seated himself in Jerusalem, and began to build and repair the city.

11 And he commanded the workmen to build the walles, and the mount Sion round about with square stones, for fortification, and they did so.

12 Then the strangers that were in the fortresses which Bacchides had built, fled away.

13 Insomuch as every man left his place, and went into his own country.

14 Onely at Bethbasi certain of them that had forsaken the law and the commandments remained still: for it was their place of refuge.

15 Now when King Alexander had heard about all the promises Demetrius had sent unto Jonathan; when also it was told him of the battells and noble acts which he and his brethren had done, and of the pains that they had taken, 16 He said, Shall we find such another man? Now therefore we will make him our friend, and confederate.

17 Upon this he wrote a letter, and sent it unto him, according to these words, saying,

18 King Alexander to his brother Jonathan, sendeth greeting:

19 We have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and meet to be our friend.

20 Wherefore now this day we ordain thee to be the high Priest of thy nation, and to be called the King's friend, (and therewithall he sent him a purple robe, and a crown of gold) f and require thee] to take our part, and keep friendship with us.

21 So in the seventh month of the hundred and sixtieth year, at the feast of Tabernacles, Jonathan put on the holy robe, and gathered together forces, and provided much armour.

22 Whereof when Demetrius heard, he was very sorry, and said,

23 What have we done that Alexander hath prevented us, in making amity with the Jews to strengthen himself?

24 I also will write unto them words of encouragement [and promise them] dignities and gifts, that I may have their aid.

25 He sent unto them therefore, to this effect: King Demetrius unto the people of the Jews, sendeth greeting:

26 Whereas you have kept covenants with us, and continued in our friendship, not joining yourselves with our enemies, we have heard hereof, and are glad:

27 Wherefore now continue ye still to be faithfull unto us, and we will recompence you for the things you do in our behalf;

28 And will grant you many immunities, and give you rewards.

29 And now I do free you, and for your sake I release all the Jews from tributes, and from the customes of salt, and from crown taxes,

30 And from that which appertaineth unto you to receive for the third part of the seed, and the half of the feast of the tents, I remit it from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Judea, nor of the three governments which are added thereunto out of the country of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth for evermore.

31 Let Jerusalem also be holy and free, with the borders thereof, both from tenths and tributes.

32 And as for the tower which is at Jerusalem, I yield up my authority over it, and give it to the high Priest, that he may set in it such men as he shall chuse to keep it.

33 Moreover I freely set at liberty every one of the Jews that were carried captives out of the land of Judea, into any part of my kingdome, and I will that all my officers remit the tributes even of their cattell.

34 Furthermore, I will that all the feasts and Sabbaths, and new Moons, and solema dayes, and the three dayes before the feast, and the three dayes after the feast, shall be all dayes of immunity and freedome for all the Jews in my realm.

35 Also no man shall have authority to meddle with them, or to molest any of them in any matter.

36 ¶ I will further, that there be enrolled among the kings forces about thirty thousand men of the Jews, unto whom pay shall be given as belongeth to all the kings forces.

37 And of them some shall be placed in the kings strong holds, of whom also some shall be set over the affairs of the kingdome, which are of trust: and I will that their overseers and Governours be of themselves, and that they a live after their own Laws, even as the king hath commanded in the land of Judea.

a Or, walk.

38 And concerning the three governments that are added to Judea from the country of Samaria, let them be joyned with Judea, that they may be reckoned to be under one, not bound to obey other authority then the high Priests.

39 As for Ptolemais and the land pertaining thereto, I give it as a free gift to the Sanctuary at Jerusalem, for the necessary expences b of the Sanctuary.

b Or, of the holy things.

40 Moreover, I give every yeer fifteen thousand shekels of silver out of the kings accounts from the places appertaining.

41 And all the overplus which the officers payed not in, as in former time, from henceforth shall be given towards the works of the Temple.

42 And besides this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they took from the uses of the Temple out of the accounts yeer by yeer, even those things shall be released, because they appertain to the Priests that minister.

43 And whosoever they be that flee unto the Temple at Jerusalem, or be within the liberties thereof, being indebted unto the king, or for any other matter, let them be at liberty, and all that they have in my realm.

44 For the building also and repairing of the works of the Sanctuary, expences shall be given of the kings accounts.

45 Yea, and for the building of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, expences shall be given out of the kings accounts, as also for building of the walls in Judea.

46 Now when Jonathas and the people heard these words, they gave no credit unto them, nor received them, because they remembred the great evill that he had done in Israel: for he had afflicted them very sore.

47 But with Alexander they were well pleased, because he was the first that intreated of peace with them, and they were [illegible] him always.

48 Then gathered king Alexander great [illegible] and camped over against Demetrius.

49 And after the two Kings had joyned [illegible] Demetrius broke first: but Alexander followed him, and prevailed against them.

50 And he continued the battell very [illegible] till the Sunne went down, and that day was [illegible] slain.

51 Afterward Alexander sent Ambassadors [illegible] Ptolomee king of Egypt, with a message [illegible] effect;

52 Forasmuch as I am come again to my [illegible] and am set in the throne of my progenitors, [illegible] have gotten the dominion, and overthrown [illegible] metrius, and recovered our country,

53 (For after I had joyned battell with him, both he and his host was discomfited by us, [illegible] we sit in the throne of his kingdome)

54 Now therefore let us make a league of [illegible] together, and give me now thy daughter to [illegible] and I will be thy sonne in law, and will give [illegible] thee and her gifts according to thy dignity.

55 Then Ptolemee the king gave answer, [illegible] Happy be the day wherein thou diddest [illegible] into the land of thy fathers, and satest in the [illegible] of their kingdome.

56 And now will I do to thee as thou hast [illegible] ten: meet me therefore at Ptolemais, that [illegible] see one another, for I will marry my daughter [illegible] thee according to my desire.

57 So Ptolemee went out of Egypt [illegible] daughter Cleopatra, and they came unto [illegible] lemais in the hundred threescore and [illegible] yeer.

58 Where king Alexander meeting him, [illegible] unto him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great glory, [illegible] the manner of kings is.

59 Now King Alexander had written [illegible] to Jonathan, that he should come and [illegible] him.

60 Who thereupon went honourably [illegible] Ptolemais, where he met the two kings, and [illegible] and their friends silver and gold, and many [illegible] sents, and found favour in their sight.

61 At that time certain pestilent fellows [illegible] Israel, men of wicked life, assembled themselves [illegible] against him, to accuse him: but the king would not hear them.

62 Yea more than that, the king commanded [illegible] take off his garments, and clothe him in purple; [illegible] and they did so.

63 Also he made him sit by himself, and [illegible] unto his Princes, Go with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause.

64 Now when his accusers saw that he was honoured according to the proclamation, and clothed in purple, they fled all away.

65 So the king honoured him, and wrote him among his chief friends, and made him a Duke, and c partaker of his dominion.

66 Afterward Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness.

67 Furthermore, in the hundred threescore and fifth yeer, came Demetrius, sonne of Demetrius, out of Crete into the land of his fathers.

68 Whereof when king Alexander heard tell, he was right sorry, and returned into Antioch.

69 Then Demetrius made Apollonius the governour of Coelosyria his generall, who [illegible] against …great host, and compass in Jonathan, and …Jonathan the high Priest, saying;

…stone lifteth up thy foot against us, and …had to scorn for thy sake, and reproached, …why dost thou vaunt thy power against us in …thy?

…ore therefore if thou trustest in thine own …forces, come down to us into the plain field, …and there let us try the matter together, for with …us is the power of the cities.

…k and learn who I am, and the rest that …about part, and they shall tell thee that thy …is not able to stand before our face; for thy …fathers have been twice put to flight in their own …land.

…Wherefore now thou shalt not be able to …the horsemen, and so great a power in the …plain, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place …to flee unto.

…So when Jonathan heard these words of …Apollonius, he was moved in his mind, and chose …out a thousand men, he went out of Jerusalem, …and Simon his brother met him for to help …him.

…And he pitched his tents against Joppe: but …they of Joppe shut him out of the city, because …Apollonius had a garison there.

…Then Jonathan laid siege unto it: whereupon …they of the city set him in the midst, and so Jonathan …took Joppe.

…Whereof when Apollonius heard, he took …three thousand horsmen, with a great host of …footmen, and went to Azotus [a] as one that journeyed …therewithall: [b] so drew him forth into the …plain, for he had a great number of horsmen, …whom he put his trust.

…Then Jonathan followed after him to Azotus, …and the armies joyned battell.

…Now Apollonius had left a thousand horsmen in ambush.

…And Jonathan knew that there was an ambushment behinde him, for they had compassed …his host, and cast darts at the people from morning …till evening.

…But the people stood still as Jonathan had commanded them: and so the enemies horses …were tired.

…Then brought Simon forth his host, and set …against the footmen, (for the horsmen were …put) who were discomfited by him and fled.

…The horsmen also being scattered in the field, …fled to Azotus, and went into Beth-dagon their …idols temple for safety.

…But Jonathan set fire on Azotus, and the cities …round about it, and took their spoils, and …the temple of Dagon, with them that were fled …into it, he burnt with fire.

…Thus there were burnt and slain with the …sword, well nigh eight thousand men.

…And from thence Jonathan removed his host, …and encamped against Ascalon, where the men of …the city came forth, and met him with great …pomp.

…After this returned Jonathan and his host …with spoiles, having many spoiles.

…Now when King Alexander heard these …things, he honoured Jonathan yet more,

…and sent him a buckle of gold, as the use is …to give to such as are of the King's blood: he …gave him also Accaron with the borders thereof …in possession.

CHAP. XI.

Ptolemeus taketh away his daughter from Alexander, and giveth her to his kingdome. 37 After under pretence of friendship, and profession made within three days. 51 Jonathan besieged the tower at Jerusalem. 56 The Jews send to be succoured by Demetrius. 58 Who is refused by the Jews from his own friends in Antioch. 67 Antiochus the young, honoureth Jonathan. 61 His exploits in divers places.

AND the King of Egypt gathered together a great host like the sand that lieth upon the sea shore, and many ships, and went about through deceit to get Alexanders kingdome, and join it to his own.

2 Whereupon he took his journey into Syria in peaceable manner, so as they of the cities opened unto him, and met him: for King Alexander had commanded them so to do, because he was his father in law.

3 Now as Ptolemie entred into the cities, he set in every one of them a garison of soldiers to keep it.

4 And when he came near to Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon, that was burnt, and Azotus, and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed; and the bodies that were cast abroad, and them that he had burnt in the battell, for they had made heaps of them by the way where he should pass.

5 Also they told the King whatsoever Jonathan had done, to the intent he might blame him: but the King held his peace.

6 Then Jonathan met the King with great pomp at Joppe, where they saluted one another, and lodged:

7 Afterward Jonathan when he had gone with the King to the river called Eleutherus, returned again to Jerusalem.

8 King Ptolemie therefore having gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea, unto Seleucia, upon the sea coast, imagined wicked counsels against Alexander.

9 Whereupon he sent Ambassadours unto King Demetrius, saying, Come, let us make a league betwixt us, and I will give thee my daughter whom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign in thy fathers kingdome:

10 For I repent that I gave my daughter unto him, for he sought to slay me.

11 Thus did he slander him, because he was desirous of his kingdome.

12 Wherefore he took his daughter from him, and gave her to Demetrius, and forsook Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known.

13 Then Ptolemie entred into Antioch, where he set two crowns upon his head, the crown of Asia, and of Egypt.

14 In the mean season was King Alexander in Cilicia, because those that dwelt in those parts had revolted from him.

15 But when Alexander heard of this, he came to warre against him, whereupon King Ptolemie brought forth his host, and met him with a mighty power, and put him to flight.

16 So Alexander fled into Arabia, there to be defended: but king Ptolemie was exalted.

17 For Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexanders heads, and sent it unto Ptolemie.

18 King Ptolemie also died the third day after, and they that were in the strong holds, were slain one of another.

19 By this means Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and seventh year.

20 At the same time Jonathan gathered together them that were in Judea, to take the tower that was in Jerusalem; & he made many engines of war against it, a Greek, Egypt.

21 Then

Or, and most that were in the holds, were slain of those that were in the hold 21 Then certain ungodly persons, who hated their own people, went unto the King, and told him that Jonathan besieged the tower.

22 Whereof when he heard, he was angry, and immediatly removing he came to Ptolemais, and wrote unto Jonathan, that he should not lay siege to the tower, but come and speak with him at Ptolemais in great haste.

23 Nevertheless, Jonathan when he heard this, commanded to besiege it [still] and he chose certain of the elders of Israel, and the Priests, and put himself in perill, 24 And took silver and gold, and raiment, and divers presents besides, and went to Ptolemais unto the king, where he found favour in his sight.

25 And though certain ungodly men of the people had made complaints against him,

26 Yet the king intreated him as his predecessours had done before, and promoted him in the sight of all his friends, 27 And confirmed him in the high Priesthood, and in all the honours that he had before, and gave him preeminence among his chief friends.

28 Then Jonathan desired the king, that he would make Judea free from tributs, as also the three governments with the country of Samaria, and he promised him three hundred talents.

29 So the king consented and wrote letters unto Jonathan, of all these things, after this manner:

30 King Demetrius unto his brother Jonathan, and unto the nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting.

31 We send you here a copy of the letter, which we did write unto our cousin Lasthenes, concerning you, that you might see it.

32 King Demetrius unto his father Lasthenes, sendeth greeting:

33 We are determined to do good to the people of the Jews, who are our friends, and keep covenants with us, because of their good will towards us.

a Joseph. Ant. lib. 13. chap. 8

34 a Wherefore we have ratified unto them the borders of Judea, with the three governments of Aphaerema, and Lidda, and Ramathem, that are added unto Judea, from the country of Samaria, and all things appertaining unto them, for all such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem, in stead of the payments, which the king received of them yearly aforetime, out of the fruits of the earth, and of trees.

35 And as for other things that belong unto us, of the tithes and customes pertaining unto us, as also of the salt-pits, and the crown-taxes, which are due unto us, we discharge them of them all for their relief.

36 And nothing hereof shall be revoked from this time forth for ever.

37 Now therefore see that thou make a copy of these things, and let it be delivered unto Jonathan, and set upon the holy mount in a conspicuous place.

38 After this when king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his forces every one to his own place, except certain bands of strangers, whom he had gathered from the Isles of the heathen, wherefore all the forces of his fathers hated him.

39 Moreover there was one Tryphon, that had been of Alexanders part afore, who seeing that all the host murmured against Demetrius, went to Simalcue the Arabian, that brought up Antiochus the young sonne of Alexander.

40 And lay sore upon him, to deliver him [this young Antiochus] that he might reign in his fathers stead; he told him therefore all that Demetrius had done, and how his men of war had enmitie with him, and there he remained a long season.

41 In the mean time Jonathan sent unto Demetrius, that he would cast those of the fort out of Jerusalem, and those also in the strongholds. For they fought against Israel.

42 So Demetrius sent unto Jonathan, saying, I will not only do this for thee and thy people, but will greatly honour thee and thy nation, if opportunitie serve.

43 Now therefore thou shalt do well, if thou send me men to help me; for all my forces are gone from me.

44 Upon this Jonathan sent him three thousand strong men unto Antioch, and when they came to the King, the King was very glad of their coming.

45 Howbeit they that were of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city to the number of an hundred and twenty thousand men, and would have slain the King.

46 Wherefore the King fled into the court, but they of the city kept the passages of the city, and began to fight.

47 Then the King called to the Jews for help, who came unto him all at once, and dispersed themselves thorow the city, slew that day in the city to the number of an hundred thousand.

48 Also they set fire on the city, and got many spoiles that day, and delivered the King.

49 So when they of the city saw that the Jews had got the city as they would, their courage abated, wherefore they made supplication unto the King, and cried, saying,

50 b Grant us peace, and let the Jews cease from assaulting us and the city.

51 With that they cast away their weapons, and made peace, and the Jews were honoured in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realm, and they returned to Jerusalem having great spoils.

52 So King Demetrius sate on the throne of his kingdome, and the land was quiet before him.

53 Nevertheless, he dissembled in all that he spake, and estranged himself from Jonathan, neither rewarded he him according to the benefits which he had received of him, but troubled him very sore.

54 After this returned Tryphon, and with him the young child Antiochus, who reigned and was crowned.

55 Then there gathered unto him all the men of war whom Demetrius had put away, and they fought against Demetrius, who turned his back and fled.

56 Moreover Tryphon took the c Elephants, and wonne Antioch.

57 At that time young Antiochus wrote unto Jonathan, saying, I confirm thee in the high priesthood, and appoint thee ruler over the four governments, and to be one of the King's friends.

58 Upon this he sent him golden vessels to be served in, and gave him leave to drink in gold, and to be clothed in purple, and to wear a golden buckle.

59 His brother Simon also he made captain from the place called The ladder of Tyre unto the borders of Egypt.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jonathan renueth his league with the Romanes and Lacedemonians. 28 The forces of Demetrius fleeing to surprise Jonathan, flee away for fear. 31 Jonathan fortifieth the castles in Judea, 48 and is set upon by the friend of Tryphon in Ptolemais.

NOw when Jonathan saw that the time served him, he chose certain men and sent them to Rome, for to confirm and renew the friendship that they had with them.

... He sent letters also to the Lacedemonians, ... to other places for the same purpose.

... So they went unto Rome, and entred into the ..., and said, Jonathan the high Priest, and the ... of the Jews sent us unto you, to the end ... should renew the friendship which you had ... them, and league, as in former time.

... Upon this the Romanes gave them letters unto ... governours of every place, that they should ... them into the land of Judea peaceably.

... And this is the copy of the letters which Jonathan wrote to the Lacedemonians:

... Jonathan the high Priest, and the Elders of the nation, and the Priests, and the other people of the Jews, unto the Lacedemonians their brethren, send greeting.

7 There were letters sent in times past unto Onias the high Priest from [d] Darius, who reigned then among you, to signifie that you are our brethren, as the copy here under-written doth specifie.

8 At which time Onias entreated the ambassadour that was sent, honourably, and received the letters, wherein declaration was made of the [e] league and friendship.

9 Therefore we also, albeit we need none of these things, for that we have the holy books of Scripture in our hands to comfort us,

10 Have never the lesse attempted to send unto you, for the renewing of brotherhood, and friendship, lest we should become strangers unto you altogether: for there is a long time passed since you sent unto us.

11 We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our feasts, and other convenient dayes, do remember you in the sacrifices which we offer, and in our prayers, as reason is, and as it becometh us to think upon our brethren:

12 And we are right glad of your honour.

13 As for our selves, we have had great troubles and warres on every side, for so much as the Kings that are round about us have fought against us.

14 Howbeit we would not be troublesome unto you, nor to others of our confederates and friends in these warres:

15 For we have help from heaven that succoureth us, so as we are delivered from our enemies, and our enemies are brought under foot.

16 For this cause we chose Numenius the sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Jason, and sent them unto the Romanes, to renew the amity that we had with them, and the former league.

17 We commanded them also to go unto you, and to salute you, and to deliver you our letters, concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

18 Wherefore now ye shall do well to give us an answer thereto.

19 And this is the copy of the letters which [f] Onias sent:

20 Areus King of the Lacedemonians, to Onias the high Priest, greeting.

21 It is found in writing, that the Lacedemonians and Jews are brethren, and that they are of the stock of Abraham:

22 Now therefore, since this is come to our knowledge, you shall do well to write unto us of your [g] prosperity.

23 We do write back again to you, that your cattell and goods are ours, and ours are yours. We do command therefore [our ambassadours] to make report unto you on this wise.

24 Now when Jonathan heard that Demetrius Princes were come to fight against him with a greater host then afore, 25 He removed from Jerusalem, and met them in the land of Amathis: for he gave them no respite [h] to enter his country.

26 He sent spies also unto their tents, who came again and told him, that they were appointed to come upon them in the night season.

27 Wherefore so soon as the sunne was down, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in armes, that all the night long they might be ready to fight: also he sent forth scouts round about the host.

28 But when the adversaries heard that Jonafeared and trembled in their hearts, and a they kindled fires in their camp.

29 Howbeit, Jonathan and his company knew it not till the morning: for they saw the lights burning.

30 Then Jonathan pursued after them, but overtook them not: for they were gone over the river Eleutherus.

31 Wherefore Jonathan turned to the Arabians, who were called b Zabadeans, and smote them, and took their spoils.

b Joseph. Gr. Nabatheans, or, Zabadeans.

32 And removing thence, he came to Damascus, and so passed thorow all the countrey.

33 Simon also went forth, and passed thorow the countrey unto Ascalon, and the holds there adioyning, from whence he turned aside to Joppe, and won it.

34 For he had heard that they would deliver the hold unto them that took Demetrius part, wherefore he set a garison there to keep it.

35 After this came Jonathan home again, and calling the Elders of the people together, he consulted with them about building strong holds in Judea, 36 And making the walls of Jerusalem higher, and raising a great mount between the tower and the city, for to separate it from the city, that so it might be alone, that men might neither sell nor buy in it.

37 Upon this they came together to build up the city, c forasmuch as [part of] the wall toward the brook on the East side was fallen down, and they repaired that which was called Caphenatha.

c Or, according to the Roman reading, And he came nere to the wall of the brook toward the East.

38 Simon also set up Adida in Sephela, and made it strong with gates and barres.

39 Now Tryphon went about to get the kingdome of Asia, and to kill Antiochus the King, that he might set the crown upon his own head.

40 Howbeit, he was afraid that Jonathan would not suffer him, and that he would fight against him, wherefore he sought a way how to take Jonathan, that he might kill him. So he removed, and came to Bethsan.

41 Then Jonathan went out to meet him with fourty thousand men chosen for the battell, and came to Bethsan.

42 Now when Tryphon saw that Jonathan came with so great a force, he durst not stretch his hand against him, 43 But received him honourably, and commended him unto all his friends, and gave him gifts, and commanded his men of warre to be as obedient unto him, as to himself.

44 Unto Jonathan also he said, Why hast thou put all this people to so great trouble, seeing there is no warre betwixt us?

45 Therefore send them now home again, and chuse a few men to wait on thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais: for I will give it thee, and the rest of the strong holds, and forces, and all that have any charge: as for me, I will return, and depart; for this is the cause of my coming.

46 So Jonathan beleeving him, did as he bade him, and sent away his host, who went into the land of Judea.

47 And with himself he retained but three thousand men, of whom he d sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with him.

48 Now assoon as Jonathan entred into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and took him, and all them that came with him they slew with the sword.

49 Then sent Tryphon an host of [illegible] horsmen into Galilee, and into the great [illegible] destroy all Jonathans company.

50 But when they knew that Jonathan, and that were with him, were taken and slain, they encouraged one another, and went close together prepared to fight.

51 They therefore that followed upon them, perceiving that they were ready to fight for their lives, turned back again.

52 Whereupon they all came into the land of Judea peaceably, and there they bewailed Jonathan, and them that were with him, and they were sore afraid, wherefore all Israel made great lamentation.

53 Then all the heathen that were round about them, sought to destroy them. For, said they, They have no captain, nor any to help them. Now therefore let us make warre upon them, and take away their memoriall from amongst men.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Simon is made captain in his brother Jonathans room. 19 Tryphon getteth two of Jonathans sons into his hands, and slayeth their father. 27 The tombe of Jonathan. 36 Simon is favoured by Demetrius, 43 and winneth Gaza and the town of Jerusalem.

NOw when Simon heard that Tryphon had gathered together a great host to invade the land of Judea, and destroy it,

2 And saw that the people was in great trouble and fear, he went up to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together,

3 And gave them exhortation, saying, Ye your selves know what great things I and my brethren and my fathers house have done for the Law and the Sanctuary, the battels also, and troubles which we have seen.

4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slain for Israels sake, and I am left alone.

5 Now therefore be it farre from me, that I should spare mine own life in any time of trouble, for I am no better then my brethren.

6 Doubtlesse I will avenge my nation, and the Sanctuary, and our wives, and our children: for all the heathen are gathered to destroy us, of very malice.

7 Now assoon as the people heard these words, their spirit revived.

8 And they answered with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt be our leader in stead of Judas and Jonathan thy brother.

9 Fight thou our battels, and whatsoever thou commandest us, that will we do.

10 So then he gathered together all the men of warre, and made haste to finish the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about.

11 Also he sent Jonathan the sonne of Absalom, and with him a great power to Joppe, who casting out them that were therein, remained there in it.

12 So Tryphon removed from Ptolemais with a great power, to invade the land of Judea, and Jonathan was with him in ward.

13 But Simon pitched his tents at Adida, over against the plain.

14 Now when Tryphon knew that Simon was risen up in stead of his brother Jonathan, and meant to joyn battell with him, he sent messengers unto him, saying,

15 Whereas we have Jonathan thy brother bold, it is for money that he is owing unto the King treasure, * concerning the businesse that was committed unto him.

36 Wherefore now send an hundred talents of siluer, and two of his sonnes for hostages, that when he is at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will let him go.

37 Hereupon Simon, albeit he perceived that they spake deceitfully unto him, yet sent he the money and the children, lest peradventure he should procure to himself great hatred of the people:

38 Who might have said, Because I sent him not the money and the children, therefore is [Jonathas] dead.

39 So he sent them the children and the hundred talents: howbeit [Tryphon] dissembled, neither would he let Jonathan go.

40 And after this came Tryphon to invade the land, and destroy it, going round about by the way that leadeth unto Adora, but Simon and his hoste marched against him in every place wheresoever he went.

41 Now they that were in the tower, sent messengers unto Tryphon, to the end that he should hasten his coming unto them by the wildernesse, and send them victuals.

42 Wherefore Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that night, but there fell a very great snow, by reason whereof he came not: So he departed, and came into the country of Galaad.

43 And when he came neer to Bascama, he slew Jonathan, who was buried there.

44 Afterward Tryphon returned, and went into his own land.

45 Then sent Simon, and took the bones of Jonathan his brother, and buried them in Modin, the city of his fathers.

46 And all Israel made great lamentation for him, and bewailed him many dayes.

47 Simon also built a monument upon the sepulchre of his father & his brethren, & raised it aloft to the sight with hewen stone behind and before.

48 Moreover, he set up seven Pyramides one against another, for his father and his mother, and his four brethren.

49 And in these he made cunning devices, about the which he set great pillars, and upon the pillars he made all their armour for a perpetuall memory, and by the armour, ships carved, that they might be seen of all that sail on the Sea.

50 This is the sepulchre which he made at Modin, and it standeth yet unto this day.

51 Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the young King Antiochus, and slew him, 52 And he reigned in his stead, and crowned himself king of Asia, and brought a great calamity upon the land.

53 Then Simon built up the strong holds in Judea, and fenced them about with high towers, and great walles, and gates, and bars, and laid up victuals therein.

54 Moreover, Simon chose men, and sent to king Demetrius, to the end he should give the land an immunity, because [c] all that Tryphon did, was to spoil.

55 Unto whom King Demetrius answered, and wrote after this manner:

56 King Demetrius unto Simon the high Priest, and friend of kings, as also unto the Elders, and nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting.

57 The golden crown, and the scarlet robe which you sent unto us, we have received, and we are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, yea, and to write unto our officers, to confirme the immunities which we have granted.

58 And whatsoever covenants we have made with you, shall stand, and the strong holds which ye have builded shall be your own.

59 As for any oversight, or fault committed unto this day, we forgive it, and the crown-tax also, which ye owe us, if there were any other tribute paid in Jerusalem, it shall no more be paid.

60 And look who are meet among you to be in our court, let them be inrolled, and let there be peace betwixt us.

61 This the yoke of the heathen was taken away from Israel, in the hundred and seventieth yeer.

62 Then the people of Israel began to write in their instrumens and contracts, in the first yeer of Simon the high Priest, the governour and leader of the Jews.

63 In those dales Simon camped against Gaza, and besieged it round about: he made also an engine of warre, and set it to the city, and battered a certain tower, and took it.

64 And they that were in the engine, leapt into the city, whereupon there was a great uproar in the city;

65 Insomuch as the people of the city rent their clothes, and climbed upon the walles, with their wives and children, and cried with a loud voice, beseeching Simon [d] to grant them peace.

66 And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickednesse, but according to thy mercy.

67 So Simon was appeased towards them, and fought no more against them, but put them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein the idols were, and so entred into it, with songs, and thanksgiving.

68 Yea, he put all uncleannesse out of it, and placed such men there, as would keep the Law, and made it stronger then it was before, and built therein a dwelling place for himself.

69 They also of the tower in Jerusalem were kept so straight, that they could neither come forth, nor go into the country, nor buy, nor sell, wherefore they were in great distresse for want of victuals, and a great number of them perished through famine.

70 Then cryed they to Simon, beseeching him [e] to be at one with them, which thing he granted them, and when he had put them out from thence, he cleansed the tower from pollutions:

71 And entred into it the three and twentieth day of the second moneth, in the hundred seventy and one yeer, with thanksgiving, and branches of palm-trees, and with harps, and cymbals, and with viols, and hymnes, and songs: because there was destroyed a great enemy out of Israel.

72 He ordained also, that that day should be kept every yeer with gladnesse. Moreover the hill of the Temple that was by the tower, he made stronger then it was, and there he dwelt himself, with his company.

73 And when Simon saw that John his sonne was a valiant man, he made him Captain of all the hosts, and dwelt in Gazara.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 Demetrius is taken by the King of Persia. 4 The good deeds of Simon to his country. 18 The Lacedemonians and Romanes renew their league with him. 26 A memorial of his acts is set up in Sion.

NOw in the hundred threescore and twelfth yeer, King Demetrius gathered his forces together, and went into Media, to get him help to fight against Tryphon.

2 But when Arsaces the King of Persia and

* Or, gave them his right hand.

d Or, to give them peace.

e Or, to make peace with them.

Media, heard that Demetrius was entred within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him alive.

3 Who went and smote the host of Demetrius, and took him, and brought him to Arsaces, by whom he was put in ward.

4 As for the land of Judea, that was quiet all the daies of Simon: for he sought the good of his nation, in such wise, as that evermore his authority and honour pleased them well.

5 And as he was honourable (in all his acts) so in this, that he took Joppe for an haven, and made an entrance to the Iles of the Sea,

6 And enlarged the bounds of his nation, and recovered the country,

7 And gathered together a great number of captives, and had the dominion of Gazara, and Bethsura, and the tower, out of the which he took all uncleanesse, neither was there any that resisted him.

8 Then did they till their ground in peace, and the earth gave her increase, and the trees of the field their fruit.

9 The ancient men sate all in the streets communing together of [a] good things, and the young men put on glorious and warlike apparell.

a Or, the wealth of the land.

10 He provided victuals for the cities, and set in them all manner of munition, so that his honourable name was renowned unto the end of the world.

11 He made peace in the land, and Israel rejoyced with great joy:

b 1 Kings 4.25.

12 For [b] every man sate under his vine, and his fig-tree, and there was none to fray them:

13 Neither was there any left in the land to fight against them: yea, the kings themselves were overthrown in those daies.

14 Moreover, he strengthened all those of his people that were brought low: the Law he searched out, and every contemner of the Law, and wicked person he took away.

15 He beautified the Sanctuary, and multiplied the vessels of the Temple.

16 Now when it was heard at Rome, and as farre as Sparta, that Jonathan was dead, they were very sorry.

17 But assoon as they heard that his brother Simon was made high Priest in his stead, and ruled the country, and the cities therein,

18 They wrote unto him in tables of brasse, to renew the friendship and league which they had made with Judas and Jonathan his brethren:

19 Which writings were read before the Congregation at Jerusalem.

20 And this is the copy of the letters that the Lacedemonians sent: The rulers of the Lacedemonians, with the city, unto Simon the high Priest, and the Elders and Priests, and residue of the people of the Jews our brethren, send greeting.

21 The Ambassadours that were sent unto our people, certified us of your glory and honour, wherefore we were glad of their coming,

22 And did register the things that they spake, in the counsell of the people, in this manner: Numenius sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater sonne of Jason, the Jews ambassadours, came unto us, to renew the friendship they had with us.

23 And it pleased the people to entertain the men honourably, and to put the copy of their ambassage in publike records, to the end the people of the Lacedemonians might have a memoriall thereof: furthermore, we have written a copy thereof unto Simon the high Priest.

24 After this, Simon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of gold, of a thousand pound weight, to confirm the league with them.

25 Whereof when the people heard, they said, What thankes shall we give to Simon and his sonnes?

26 For he and his brethren, and the house of his father have established Israel, and chased their enemies from them, and confirmed their liberty.

27 So then they wrote [it] in tables of brasse, which they set upon pillars in mount Sion, and this is the copy of the writing. The eighteenth day of the moneth Elul, in the hundred threescore and twelfth yeer, being the third yeer of Simon the high Priest, 28 At [c] Saramel in the great Congregation of the Priests and people, and rulers of the nation, and Elders of the country, were these things published unto us.

29 Forsomuch as oftentimes there have been wars in the country, wherein for the maintenance of their Sanctuary, and the Law, Simon the sonne of Mattathias, of the posterity of Jarib, together with his brethren, put themselves in jeopardy, and resisting the enemies of their nation, did their nation great honour.

30 (For after that Jonathan having gathered his nation together, and been their high Priest, and added to his people, 31 Their enemies purposed to invade their country, that they might destroy it, and to put hands on the Sanctuary.

32 At which time Simon rose up, and fought for his nation and spent much of his own substance, and armed [d] the valiant men of his nation, and gave them wages, 33 And fortified the cities of Judea, together with Bethsura, that lieth upon the borders of Judea, where the [e] armour of the enemies lay before, but he set a garrison of Jews there.

34 Moreover, he fortified Joppe, which lieth upon the Sea, and [f] Gazara that borders upon Azotus, where the enemies had dwelt before, but he placed Jews there, and furnished them with all things convenient for the reparation thereof.)

35 The people therefore seeing the acts of Simon, and unto what glory he thought to bring his nation, made him their governour and high Priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice and faith which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to exalt his people.

36 For in his time things prospered in his hands, so that the heathen were taken out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David in Jerusalem, who had made them a tower, out of which they issued, and polluted about the Sanctuary, and did much hurt in the holy place.

37 But he placed Jews therein, and fortified for the safety of the country, and the city, and raised up the walles of Jerusalem.

38 King Demetrius also confirmed him in the high Priesthood, according to those things, 39 And made him one of his friends, and honoured him with great honour.

40 For he had heard say, that the Romans had called the Jews their friends, and confederates, and brethren, and that they had entertained the ambassadours of Simon honourably.

41 Also that the Jews and Priests were pleased that Simon should be their governour, and high Priest for ever, untill there should arise a faithfull Prophet,

Moreover, that he should be their captain, should take charge of the Sanctuary, to set him over their works, and over the country, and over the armour, and over the fortresses, that (I say) he should take charge of the Sanctuary.

Besides this, that he should be obeyed of every man, and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and weare gold.

Also that it should be lawfull for none of the people or Priests to break any of these things, or to gain-say his words, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or weare a buckle of gold.

And whosoever should do otherwise, or break any of these things, he should be punished.

This it liked all the people to deal with Simon, and to do as hath been said.

Then Simon accepted hereof, and was well pleased to be high Priest, and captain, and governour of the Jews, and Priests, and to defend them all.

So they commanded that this writing should be put in tables of brasse, and that they should be set up within the compasse of the Sanctuary in a conspicuous place.

Also that the copies thereof should be laid up in the treasury, to the end that Simon and his sons might have them.

CHAP. XV.

Antiochus dispatcheth letters to Tryphon, and sendeth great honours to Simon and the Jews. 6 The Romanes write to divers kings and nations to favour the Jews. 27 Antiochus prevaileth with Simon, 38 and sendeth some to assay Judea.

Moreover, Antiochus sonne of Demetrius the King, sent letters from the Iles of the Sea unto Simon the Priest, and Prince of the Jews, and to all the people.

The contents whereof were these: King Antiochus to Simon the high Priest, and Prince of his nation, and to the people of the Jews, greeting.

For as much as certain pestilent men have seized the kingdome of our fathers, and my purpose is to challenge it again, that I may restore it to the old estate, and to that end have gathered a multitude of forreine souldiers together, and prepared ships of warre,

My meaning also being to go thorow the country, that I may be avenged of them that have destroyed it, and made many cities in the kingdome desolate:

Now therefore I confirme unto thee, all the oblations which the Kings before me granted thee, and whatsoever gifts besides they granted.

I give thee leave also to coin money for thy country with thine own stamp.

And as concerning Jerusalem and the Sanctuary, let them be free, and all the armour that thou hast made, and fortresses that thou hast built, and keepest in thy hands, let them remain unto thee.

And if any thing be, or shall be owing to the King, let it be forgiven thee from this time forth and evermore.

Furthermore, when we have obtained our kingdome, we will honour thee and thy nation, and thy Temple with great honour, so that your honour shall be known thorowout the world.

In the hundred threescore and fourteenth yeere Antiochus went into the land of his fathers, at which time all the forces came together unto him, so that few were left with Tryphon.

Wherefore being pursued by King Antiochus, he fled unto Dora, which lieth by the sea-side.

For he saw, that troubles came upon him all at once, and that his forces had forsaken him.

Then camped Antiochus against Dora, having with him an hundred and twenty thousand men of warre, and eight thousand horsemen.

And when he had compassed the city round about, and joyned ships close to the town, on the sea-side, he vexed the city by land and by sea, neither suffered he any to go out or in.

In the meane season came Numenius and his company from Rome, having letters to the kings and countreys, wherein were written these things.

Lucius Consul of the Romanes, unto King Ptolemee, greeting.

The Jews Ambassadours our friends and confederates, came unto us to renew the old friendship and league, being sent from Simon the high Priest, and from the people of the Jews.

And they brought a shield of gold of a thousand pound:

We thought it good therefore to write unto the Kings and countreys, that they should do them no harm, nor fight against them, their cities or countreyes, nor yet aid their enemies against them.

It seemed also good to us, to receive the shield of them.

If therefore there be any pestilent fellowes that have fled from their country unto you, deliver them unto Simon the high Priest, that he may punish them according their own law.

The same thing wrote he likewise unto Demetrius the King, and Attalus, to [a] Ariarathes and Arcaces:

And to all the countryes, and to [b] Sampsames and the Lacedemonians, and to Delus, & Mynd...s, and Sycion, and Caria, and Samos, & Pamphylia, and Lycia, and Halicarnassus; and Rhodus, and [c] Phaselli...s, and Cos, and Side, and Aradus, and Gortina, and Cnidus, and Cyprus, and Cyrene.

And the copy hereof they wrote to Simon the high Priest.

So Antiochus the King camped against Dora the second day, [d] assaulting it continually, and making engines, by which meanes he shut up Tryphon that he could neither go out nor in.

At that time Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to aid him: silver also and gold, and much armour.

Nevertheless, he would not receive them, but brake all the covenants which he had made with him afore, and became strange unto him.

Furthermore, he sent unto him Athenobius, one of his friends, to commune with him, and say: You withhold Joppe and Gazara, with the tower that is in Jerusalem, which are cities of my realm.

The borders thereof ye have wasted, and done great hurt in the land, and got the dominion of many places within my kingdome.

Now therefore deliver the cities which ye have taken, and the tributes of the places whereof ye have gotten dominion [e] without the borders of Judea:

Or else give me for them five hundred talents of silver, and for the harm that you have done, and the tributes of the cities other five hundred talents: if not, we will come and [f] fight against you.

So Athenobius the Kings friend came to Jerusalem, and when he saw the glory of Simon, a Or, Arsaces.

d Greek, bringing his ...s to it.
e Or, except the borders, &c. f Or, fight you in ...ght.

and the cupboard of gold, and silver plate, and his great attendance, he was astonished, and told him the Kings message.

33 Then answered Simon and said unto him, We have neither taken other mens land, nor holden that which appertaineth to others, but the inheritance of our fathers, which our enemies had wrongfully in possession a certain time.

34 Wherefore we having opportunity, hold the inheritance of our fathers.

35 And whereas thou demandest Joppe and Gazara; albeit they did great harm unto the people in our countrey, yet will we give an hundred talents for them: Hereunto Athenobius answered him not a word, 36 But returned in a rage to the King, and made report unto him of these speeches, and of the glory of Simon, and of all that he had seen: whereupon the King was exceeding wroth.

37 In the meane time fled Tryphon by ship unto Orthosias.

38 Then the King made Cendebeus captain of the Sea-coast, and gave him an hoste of footmen and horsemen, 39 And commanded him to remove his host toward Judea: also he commanded him to build up Cedron, and to fortifie the gates, and to warre against the people, but as for the King [himself] he pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came to Jamnia, and began to provoke the people, and to invade Judea, and to take the people prisoners, and slay them.

41 And when he had built up Cedron, he set horsemen there, and an hoste [of footmen] to the end that issuing out, they might make outroads upon the wayes of Judea, as the King had commanded him.

CHAP. XVI.

3 Judas and John prevail against the forts sent by Antiochus. 11 The captain of Jericho inviteth Simon and two of his sonns into his castle, and there treacherously murdereth them. 19 John is sought for. 22 and escapeth, and killeth those that sought for him.

THen came up John from Gazara, and told Simon his father what Cendebeus had done.

2 Wherefore Simon called his two eldest sonnes, Judas and John, and said unto them, I and my brethren, and my fathers house have ever from our youth unto this day fought against the enemies of Israel, and things have prospered so well in our hands, that we have delivered Israel oftentimes.

3 But now I am old, and ye [by Gods mercy] are of a sufficient age: Be ye in stead of me and my brother, and go and fight for our nation, and the help from heaven be with you.

4 So he chose out of the countrey twentie thousand men of war with horsemen, who went out against Cendebeus, and rested that night at Modin.

5 And when as they rose in the morning, and went into the plain, behold, a mighty great host, both of footmen, and horsemen came against them: howbeit there was a water-brook betwixt them.

6 So he and his people pitched over against them, and when he saw that the people were afraid to go over the water-brook, he went first over himself, and then the men seeing him, passed thorow after him.

7 [That done] he divided his men, and set the horsemen in the middest of the footmen; for the enemies horsemen were very many.

8 Then sounded they with the holy trumpets: whereupon Cendebeus and his hoste were put to flight, so that many of them were slain, and the remnant gate them to the strong hold.

9 At that time was Judas Johns brother wounded: but John still followed after them, until he came to Cedron, which [Cendebeus] had built.

10 [a] So they fled even unto the towers in the fields of Azotus, wherefore he burnt it with fire: So that there were slain of them about two thousand men. Afterward he returned into the land of Judea in peace.

11 Moreover in the plain of Jericho was Ptolomeus the sonne of Abubus made captain, and he had abundance of silver and gold.

12 For he was the high Priests sonne in law.

13 Wherefore his heart being lifted up, he thought to get the countrey to himself, and thereupon consulted deceitfully against Simon, and his sonnes to destroy them.

14 Now Simon was visiting the cities that were in the countrey, and taking care for the good ordering of them, at which time he came down himself to Jericho with his sonnes, Mattathias and Judas, in the hundred threescore and seventh yeer, in the eleventh moneth called Sabat.

15 Where the sonne of Abubus receiving them deceitfully into a little hold called Dochs, which he had built, made them a great banquet: howbeit he had hid men there.

16 So when Simon and his sonnes had drunk largely, Ptolome and his men rose up, and took their weapons, and came upon Simon into the banqueting place, and slew him and his two sonnes, and certain of his servants.

17 In which doing he committed a great treachery, and recompensed evill for good.

18 Then Ptolome wrote these things, and sent to the King, that he should send him an hoste to aid him, and he would deliver him the countrey and cities.

19 He sent others also to Gazara to kill John, and unto the [b] tribunes he sent letters to come unto him, that he might give them silver, and gold and rewards.

20 And others he sent to take Jerusalem, and the mountain of the Temple.

21 Now one had run afore to Gazara, and told John that his father and brethren were slain, and [quoth he] Ptolome hath sent to slay thee also.

22 Hereof when he heard, he was sore afraid: So he laid hands on them that were come to destroy him, and slew them; for he knew that they sought to make him away.

23 As concerning the rest of the acts of John, and his wars, and worthy deeds which he did, and the building of the walls which he made, and his doings, 24 Behold, these are written in the Chronicles of his Priesthood, from the time he was made high Priest after his father.

¶ THE

¶ THE SECOND BOOK OF THE MACCABEES.

CHAP. I.

A letter of the Jews from Jerusalem to them of Egypt, to thank God for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hid in the pit. 24 The prayer of Nehemias.

THE brethren the Jews that be at Jerusalem, and in the land of Judea, wish unto the brethren the Jews that are throughout Egypt, health, and peace.

2 God be gracious unto you, and remember his covenant that he made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, his faithfull servants:

3 And give you all an heart to serve him, and to do his will with a good courage, and a willing mind:

4 And open your hearts in his Law and Commandments, and send you peace:

5 And hear your prayers, and be at one with you, and never forsake you in time of trouble.

6 And now we be here praying for you.

7 What time as Demetrius reigned, in the hundred threescore and ninth year, we the Jews wrote unto you in the extremity of trouble that came upon us in those years, from the time that Jason and his company revolted from the holy land and kingdome,

8 And burnt the porch, and shed innocent blood. Then we prayed unto the Lord, and were heard: we offered also sacrifices, and fine flowre, and lighted the lamps, and set forth the loaves.

9 And now see that ye keep the feast of [a] Tabernacles in the moneth Casleu.

10 In the hundreth fourescore and eighth year, the people that were at Jerusalem, and in Judea, and the councill, and Judas, sent greeting and health unto Aristobulus, king Ptolemeus master, who was of the stock of the anointed Priests, and to the Jews that were in Egypt.

11 Inasmuch as God hath delivered us from great perils, we thank him highly, as having been in battell against a King.

12 For he cast them out that fought within the holy city.

13 For when the leader was come into Persia, and the army with him that seemed invincible, they were slain in the Temple of Nanea, by the deceit of Naneas Priests.

14 For Antiochus, as though he would marry her, came into the place, and his friends that were with him to receive money in name of a dowry.

15 Which when the Priests of Nanea had set forth, and he was entred with a small company into the compasse of the Temple, they shut the Temple assoone as Antiochus was come in.

16 And opening a privy door of the roof, they threw stones like thunderbolts, and strook down the captain, hewed them in pieces, smote off their heads, and cast them to those that were without.

17 Blessed be our God in all things, who hath delivered up the ungodly.

18 Therefore, whereas we are now purposed to keep the purification of the Temple upon the five and twentieth day of the moneth [b] Casleu, we thought it necessary to certifie you thereof, that ye also might keep it as the [a feast] of the [a] tabernacles, and of the fire [which was given us] when Nehemias offered sacrifice, after that he had builded the Temple and the Altar.

19 For when our fathers were led into Persia, the Priests that were then devout, took the fire of the Altar privily, and hid it in a hollow place of a pit without water, where they kept it sure, so that the place was unknown to all men.

20 Now after many years, when it pleased God, Nehemias being sent from the King of Persia, did send of the posterity of those Priests that had hid it, to the fire: but when they told us, they found no fire, but thick water;

21 Then commanded he them to draw it up, and to bring it; and when the sacrifices were laid on, Nehemias commanded the Priests to sprinkle the wood, and § things laid thereupon with the water.

22 When this was done, and the time came that the Sunne shone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a great fire kindled, so that every man marvelled.

23 And the Priests made a prayer whilest the sacrifice was consuming [I say] both the Priests, and all the rest, Jonathan beginning, and the rest answering thereunto, as Nehemias did.

24 And the prayer was after this manner, O Lord, Lord God, Creatour of all things, who art fearfull, and strong, and righteous, and mercifull, and the onely and gracious King,

25 The onely giver of all things, the onely Just, Almighty, and Everlasting, thou that delliverest Israel from all trouble, and didst chuse the Fathers and sanctifie them:

26 Receive the sacrifice for thy whole people Israel, & preserve thine own portion, & sanctifie it.

27 Gather those together that are scattered from us, deliver them that serve among the heathen, look upon them that are despised and abhorred, and let the heathen know that thou art our God.

28 Punish them that oppresse us, and with pride do us wrong.

29 Plant thy people again in thy holy place, as Moses hath spoken.

30 And the Priests sung psalmes of thanksgiving.

31 Now when the sacrifice was consumed, Nehemias commanded the water that was left, to be powred on the great stones.

32 When this was done, there was kindled a flame, but it was consumed by the light that shined from the Altar.

33 So when this matter was known, it was told the King of Persia, that in the place where the Priests that were led away, had hid the fire, there appeared water, and that [c] Nehemias had purified the sacrifices therewith.

34 Then the King inclosing the place, made it holy, after he had tryed the matter.

35 And the king took many gifts, and bestowed thereof on those whom he would gratifie.

36 And Nehemias called this thing, Naphthar, which is as much to say as a cleansing: but many men call it Nephi.

CHAP. II.

1 What Jeremie the Prophet did. § How he hid the Tabernacle, the Ark, and the Altar. 13 What Nehemias and Judas wrote. 20 What Judas wrote in in five books: 25 and how these were abridged by the Author of this title.

IT is also found in the records, that Jeremie the Prophet commanded them that were carried away, to take of the fire, as it hath been signified,

2 And how that the Prophet having given them the Law, charged them not to forget the commandments of the Lord, and that they should not erre in their minds, when they see images of silver, and gold, with their ornaments.

3 And with other such speeches exhorted he them, that the Law should not depart from their hearts.

4 It was also contained in the same writing, that the Prophet being warned of God, commanded the Tabernacle, and the ark to go with him, as he went forth into the mountain, where Moses climbed up, and saw the heritage of God.

5 And when Jeremie came thither, he found an hollow cave, wherein he laid the Tabernacle, and the Ark, and the Altar of incense, and so stopped the door.

6 And some of those that followed him, came to mark the way, but they could not find it.

7 Which when Jeremie perceived, he blamed them, saying, As for that place, it shalbe unknown, untill the time that God gather his people again together, and receive them unto mercy.

8 Then shall the Lord shew them these things, and the glory of the Lord shall appear, and the cloud also as it was shewed under Moses, and as when Solomon desired that the place might be honourably sanctified.

9 It was also declared, that he being wise, offered the sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the Temple.

10 And as when Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the sacrifices: even so prayed Solomon also, and the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offerings.

11 And Moses said, because the sinne offering was not to be eaten, it was consumed.

12 So Solomon kept those eight dayes.

13 The same things also were reported in the writings, and commentaries of Nemias, and how he founding a library, gathered together the acts of the Kings, and the Prophets, and of David, and the Epistles of the Kings concerning the holy gifts.

14 In like manner also, Judas gathered together all those things that were lost, by reason of the warre we had, and they remain with us.

15 Wherefore if ye have need thereof, send some to fetch them unto you.

16 Whereas we then are about to celebrate the purification, we have written unto you, and ye shall do well if ye keep the same dayes.

17 [a] We hope also, that the God that delivered all his people, and gave them all an heritage, and the Kingdome, and the Priesthood, and the Sanctuary, 18 As he promised in the Law, will shortly have mercy upon us, and gather us together out of every Land under heaven into the holy place: for he hath delivered us out of great troubles, and hath purified the place.

19 Now as concerning Judas Maccabeus, and his brethren, and the purification of the great Temple, and the dedication of the Altar,

20 And the warres against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eupator his sonne,

21 And the manifest signes that came from heaven, unto those that behaved themselves valiantly to their honour for Judaisme: so that they being but a few, they overcame the whole country, chased barbarous multitudes,

22 And recovered again the Temple renowned all the world over, and freed the city, and upheld the Laws which were going down, the Lord being gracious unto them with all favour:

23 All these things (I say) being declared by Jason of Cyrene in five books, we will assay to abridge in one volume.

24 For considering the infinite number, and the difficulty which they finde that desire to enter into the narrations of the story, for the variety of the matter,

25 We have been carefull that they that will read, might have delight, and that they that are desirous to commit to memory, might have ease, and that all into whose hands it comes, might have profit.

26 Therefore to us that have taken upon us this painfull labour of abridging, it was not easie, but a matter of sweat and watching,

27 Even as it is no ease unto him that prepareth a banquet, and seeketh the benefit of others; yet b for the pleasuring of many we will undertake gladly this great paine:

28 Leaving to the author the exact handling of every particular, and labouring to follow the rules of an abridgement.

29 For as the master-builder of a new house must care for the whole building; but he that undertaketh to set it out, and paint it, must seek out fit things for the adorning thereof: even so I think it is with us.

30 To stand upon every point, and go over things at large, and to be curious in particulars, belongeth to the first author of the story.

31 But to use brevity, and avoid much handling of the work, is to be granted to him that will make an abridgement.

32 Here then will we begin the story, without adding thus much to that which hath been said, that it is a foolish thing to make a long preface, and to be short in the story it self.

CHAP. III.

1 Of the honour done in the Temple by the gifts of the Gentiles. 4 Simon accuseth wrongfully Onias in the Temple. 7 Heliodorus is sent to take away. 24 He is striken of God, and healed by the prayer of Onias.

NOw when the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the Laws were kept very well, because of the godlinesse of Onias the high Priest, and his hatred of wickednesse:

2 It came to passe, that even the kings themselves did honour the place, and magnifie the Temple with their best gifts:

3 Insomuch that Seleucus King of Asia of his own revenues, bare all the costs belonging to the service of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin, who was made governour of the Temple, fell out with the high Priest about disorder in the city.

5 And when he could not overcome Onias, he gate him to Apollonius the sonne of Thraseas, who then was governour of Celosyria and Phœnice,

6 And told him that the treasury in Jerusalem was full of infinite summes of money, and the multitude of their riches, which did not pertain to the account of the sacrifices, was innumerable, and that it was possible to bring into the kings hand.

a Or now God it is that saved all his people, and restored the heritage and the kingdome, and the priesthood, and the Sanctification, as he promised in the Law: For we hope in God that he will shortly, &c.

now when Apollonius came to the King, and shewed him of the money, whereof he had told, the King chose out Heliodorus his chief officer, and sent him with a commandment to bring him the foresaid money.

8 So forthwith Heliodorus took his journey under a colour of visiting the cities of Cœlosyria and Phœnice, but indeed to fulfill the king's purpose.

9 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received of the high Priest of the city, he told him what intelligence was given of the money, and declared wherefore he was come, and asked if these things were so indeed.

10 Then the high priest told him that there was such money laid up for the relief of widows, and fatherless children;

11 And that some of it belonged to Hircanus, one of Tobias, a man of great dignity, and not as that wicked Simon had misinformed: the same whereof in all was four hundred talents of silver, and two hundred of gold;

12 And that it was altogether impossible that such wrong should be done unto them, that had committed it to the holiness of the place, and to the majestie and inviolable sanctity of the Temple honoured over all the world.

13 But Heliodorus because of the King's commandment given him, said, That in any wise it must be brought into the King's treasury.

14 So at the day which he appointed, he entred in order into this matter: wherefore there was no small agonie throughout the whole city.

15 But the Priests prostrating themselves before the Altar in their Priests vestments, called unto heaven, upon him that had made a law concerning things given to be kept, that they should safely be preserved for such as had committed them to be kept.

16 Then whoso had looked the high Priest in the face, it would have wounded his heart: for his countenance, and the changing of his colour declared the inward agonie of his minde:

17 For the man was so compassed with fear and horrour of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked upon him, what sorrow he had in his heart.

18 Others ran flocking out of their houses a to the generall supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt.

19 And the women girt with sackcloth under their breasts, abounded in the streets, and the virgins that were kept in, ran some to the gates, and some to the walls, and others looked out of the windows:

20 And all holding their hands towards heaven, made supplication.

21 Then it would have pitied a man to see the falling down of the multitude of all sorts, and the fear of the high Priest, being in such an agony.

22 They then called upon the Almighty Lord, to keep the things committed of trust, safe and sure for them that had committed them.

23 Nevertheless, Heliodorus executed that which was decreed.

24 Now as he was there present himself with his guard c about the treasure, the c Lord of spirits, and the Prince of all power, caused a great apparition, so that all that presumed to come in with him were astonished at the power of God, and feared and were faint of a fraid.

25 For there appeared unto them a horse, with a terrible rider upon him, and adorned with a very fair covering, and he ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his fore-feet, and it seemed that he that sate upon the horse, had complete harnesse of gold.

26 Moreover, two other young men appeared before him, notable in strength, excellent in beauty, and comely in apparell, who stood by him on either side, and scourged him continually, and gave him many sore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fell suddenly unto the ground, and was compassed with great darknesse: but they that were with him took him up, and put him into a litter.

28 Thus him that lately came with a great train, and with all his guard into the said treasury, they carried out, being unable to help himself with his weapons: and manifestly they acknowledged the power of God.

29 For he by the hand of God was cast down, and lay speechlesse, without all hope of life.

30 But they praised the Lord that had miraculously honoured his own place: for the Temple, which a little afore was full of fear and trouble, when the Almighty Lord appeared, was filled with joy and gladnesse.

31 Then straightwayes certain of Heliodorus friends prayed Onias, that he would call upon the most High to grant him his life, who lay ready to give up the ghost.

32 So the high Priest suspecting lest the King should misconceive that some treacherie had been done to Heliodorus by the Jews, offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

33 Now as the high Priest was making an atonement, the same young men, in the same clothing appeared, and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Give Onias the high Priest great thanks, insomuch as for his sake the Lord hath granted thee life.

34 And seeing that thou hast been scourged from heaven, declare unto all men the mighty power of God: and when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus, after he had offered sacrifice unto the Lord, and made great vowes unto him that had saved his life, and saluted Onias, returned with his host to the King.

36 Then testified he to all men the works of the great God, which he had seen with his eyes.

37 And when the King asked Heliodorus, who might be a fit man to be sent yet once again to Jerusalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enemy or traitour, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him well scourged, if he escape with his life: for in that place no doubt there is an especiall power of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heaven hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it, and he beateth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

40 And the things concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasury, fell out on this sort.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Simon slandereth Onias. 7 Jason by corrupting the King, obtaineth the office of the high Priest. 24 Menelaus getteth the same from Jason by the like corruption. 34 Andronicus traiterously murthereth Onias. 36 The King being informed thereof, causeth Andronicus to be put to death. 39 The beginning of Lysimachus by the instigation of Menelaus.

THis Simon now (of whom we spake afore) having been a bewrayer of the money, and of his country, slandered Onias, as if he had terrified Heliodorus, and been the worker of these evils.

2 Thus was he bold to call him a traitour, that had deserved well of the city, and tendred his own nation, and was so zealous of the Lawes.

3 But when their hatred went so farre, that by one of Simons faction, murthers were committed,

4 Onias seeing the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as being the Governour of Coelosyria and Phenice, did rage, and increase Simons malice,

5 He went to the King, not to be an accuser of his countreymen, but seeking the good of all, both publike and private:

6 For he saw that it was impossible, that the state should continue quiet, and Simon leave his folly, unlesse the King did look thereunto.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, called Epiphanes, took the kingdome, Jason the brother of Onias laboured under hand to be high Priest,

8 Promising unto the King by intercession, three hundred and threescore talents of silver, and of another revenue, eighty talents:

9 Besides this, he promised to assigne an hundred and fifty more, if he might have licence to set him up a place for exercise, and for the training up of youth in the fashions of the heathen, and to write them of Jerusalem [by the name of] Antiochians.

10 Which when the King had granted, and he had gotten into his hand the rule, he forthwith brought his own nation to the Greekish fashion.

11 And the royall priviledges granted of speciall favour to the Jews, by the meanes of John the father of Eupolemus, who went Ambassadour to Rome for amity and aide, he took away; and putting down the governments which were according to the law, he brought up new customes against the law.

12 For he built gladly a place of exercise under the tower it self, and brought the chiefe young men under his subjection, and made them weare a hat.

13 Now such was the height of Greek fashions, and increase of heathenish manners, through the exceeding profanenesse of Jason that ungodly wretch, and not high Priest:

14 That the Priests had no courage to serve any more at the Altar, but despising the Temple, and neglecting the sacrifices, haštened to be partakers of the unlawfull allowance in the place of exercise, after the game of [a] Discus called them forth:

15 Not setting by the honours of their fathers, but liking the glory of the Grecians best of all.

16 By reason whereof sore calamity came upon them: for they had them to be their enemies and avengers, whose custome they followed so earnestly, and unto whom they desired to be like in all things.

17 For it is not a light thing to do wickedly against the Lawes of God, but the time following shall declare these things.

18 Now when the game that was used every fifth yeer, was kept at Tyrus, the King being present, 19 This ungracious Jason sent [b] speciall messengers from Jerusalem, who were Antiochians, to carry three hundred drachmes of silver to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers thereof though fit not to bestow upon the sacrifice, because it was not convenient, but to be reserved for other charges.

20 This money then in regard of the sender was appointed to Hercules sacrifice, but because of the bearers thereof, it was imployed to the making of gallies.

21 Now when Apollonius the son of Menesthens was sent unto Egypt, for the [c] Coronation of Prolomeus Philometor, Antiochus [illegible] him not to be well affected to his affaires, [illegible] ded for his own safety: whereupon he [illegible] Joppe, and from thence to Jerusalem.

22 Where he was honourably [illegible] Jason, and of the city, and was brought [illegible] torch-light, and with great shoutings: and [illegible] terward went with his hoste unto Phenice.

23 Three years afterward, Jason sent Menelaus the foresaid Simons brother, to bear the money unto the King, and to put him in mind of certain necessary matters.

24 But he being brought to the presence of the King, when he had magnified him for the glorious appearance of his power, got the Priesthood to himself, offering more then Jason by three hundred talents of silver.

25 So he came with the Kings mandate, bringing nothing worthy of high Priesthood, but having the fury of a cruell tyrant, and of a rage of a savage beast.

26 Then Jason, who had undermined his own brother, being undermined by another, was compelled to flee into the country of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus got the principality: but as for the money that he had promised unto the King, he took no good order for it, though Sostratus the ruler of the castle required it.

28 For unto him appertained the gathering of the customes. Wherefore they were both called before the King.

29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his stead in the Priesthood, and Sostratus left Crates, who was governour of the Cyprians.

30 While those things were in doing, they of Tharsus and Mallos made insurrection, because they were given to the Kings concubine called Antiochis.

31 Then came the King in all haste to appease matters, leaving Andronicus a man in authority, for his deputy.

32 Now Menelaus supposing that he had gotten a convenient time, stole certain vessels of gold out of the Temple, and gave some of them to Andronicus, and some he sold into Tyrus, and to the cities round about.

33 Which when Onias knew of a surety, he reproved him, and withdrew himself into a sanctuary at Daphne, that lieth by Antiochia.

34 Wherefore Menelaus taking Andronicus aside, prayed him to get Onias into his hands; who being perswaded thereunto, and coming to Onias in deceit, gave him his right hand with oathes, and though he were suspected (by him) yet perswaded he him to come forth of the Sanctuary whom forthwith he slue up without regard of [illegible]

35 For the which cause not onely the Jews, but many also of other nations took great indignation, and were much grieved for the unjust murther of the man.

36 And when the King was come again from the places about Cilicia, the Jews that were in the city, and certain of the Greeks that hated the fact also, complained because Onias was slain without cause.

37 Therefore Antiochus was heavily chafed, and moved to pity, and wept, because of the sober and modest behaviour of him that was dead.

38 And being kindled with anger, forthwith he took away Andronicus his purple, and stripped off his clothes, and leading him through the whole city, unto that very place where he had committed impiety against Onias, there slue he the cursed murtherer. Thus the Lord him his punishment, as he had deserved.

Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by Lysimachus, with the consent of Menelaus, and the bruit thereof was spread abroad, the multitude gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, many vessels of gold being already carried away.

Whereupon the common people rising, and being filled with rage, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and began first to offer violence: and [a] Auranus, being the leader, a man farre gone in years, and no lesse in folly.

They then seeing the attempt of Lysimachus, some of them caught stones, some clubs, others taking handfuls of dust that was next at hand, cast them altogether upon Lysimachus, and those that set upon them.

Thus many of them they wounded, and some they stroke to the ground, and all [of them] they forced to flee; but as for the Church-robber himself, him they killed besides the treasury.

Of these matters therefore there was an accusation laid against Menelaus.

Now when the King came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the Senate, pleaded the cause before him:

But Menelaus being now convicted, promised Ptolome the sonne of Dorymenes, to give him much money, if he would pacifie the King towards him.

Whereupon Ptolome taking the King aside into a certain gallery, as it were to take the air, brought him to be of another minde:

Insomuch that he discharged Menelaus from the accusations, who notwithstanding was cause of all the mischief; and those poor men, who if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, should have been judged innocent, them he condemned to death.

Thus they that followed the matter for the city, and for the people, and for the holy vessels, did soon suffer unjust punishment.

Wherefore even they of Tyrus, moved with hatred of that wicked deed, caused them to be honourably buried.

And so through the covetousnesse of them that were in power, Menelaus remained still in authority, increasing in malice, and being a great traitor to the citizens.

CHAP. V.

1 Of the signes and tokens seen in Jerusalem. 6 Of the cruel and wicked death of Jason. 11 The pursuit of Antiochus against the Jews. 15 The spoiling of the Temple. 27 Matathias flieth into the wilderness.

About the same time Antiochus prepared his second voyage into Egypt:

And then it happened, that thorow all the city, for the space almost of fourty dales, there were seen horsemen running in the air, in cloth of gold, and armed with lances, like a band of souldiers,

And troops of horsemen in aray, encountering and meeting one against another, with shaking of shields, and multitude of [b] pikes, and drawing of swords, and casting of darts, and glittering of golden ornaments, and harnesse of all sorts.

Wherefore every man prayed, that that apparition might turn to good.

Now when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had been dead, Jason took no lesse than a thousand men, and suddenly made an assault upon the city, and they that were upon the walls being put back, and the city at length taken, Menelaus fled into the castle:

But Jason slew his own citizens without mercie (not considering that to get the day of them of his own nation, would be a most unhappy day for him: but thinking they had been his enemies, and not his country-men, whom he conquered.)

Howbeit for all this he obtained not the principality, but at the last received shame for the reward of his treason, and fled again into the country of the Ammonites.

In the end therefore he had an unhappy return, being accused before Aretas the King of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men, hated as a forsaker of the Lawes, and being had in abomination, as an open [c] enemy of his country, and country-men, he was cast out into Egypt.

[c] Or, common enemy.

Thus he that had driven many out of their country, perished in a strange land, retiring to the Lacedemonians, and thinking there to finde succour by reason of his kinred.

And he that had cast out many unburried, had none to mourn for him, nor any solemn funerals at all, nor sepulchre with his fathers.

Now when this that was done came to the Kings ear, he thought that Judea had revolted, whereupon removing out of Egypt in a furious minde, he took the city by force of armes,

And commanded his men of warre not to spare such as they met, and to slay such as went up upon the houses.

Thus there was killing of young and old, making away of men, women, and children, slaying of virgins and infants.

And there were destroyed within the space of three whole dayes, fourscore thousand, whereof fourty thousand were slain in the conflict; and no fewer sold then slain.

Yet was he not content with this, but presumed to go into the most holy Temple of all the world: Menelaus that traitour to the Lawes, and to his own country, being his guide.

And taking the holy vessels with polluted hands, and with profane hands pulling down the things that were dedicated by other Kings, to the augmentation, and glory, and honour of the place, he gave them away.

And so haughty was Antiochus in minde, that he considered not that the Lord was angry for a while for the sins of them that dwelt in the city, and therefore his eye was not upon the place.

For had they not been formerly wrapped in many sinnes, this man also as he had come, had forthwith been scourged, and put back from his presumption, as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the King sent to view the treasury.

Nevertheless, God did not chuse the people for the places sake, but the place for the peoples sake:

And therefore the place it self, that was partaker with them of the adversities that happened to the nation, did afterward communicate in the benefits sent from the Lord: and as it was forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty, so again, the great Lord being reconciled, it was set up with all glory.

So when Antiochus had carried out of the Temple a thousand and eight hundred talents, he departed in all hast into Antiochia, weening in his pride to make the land navigable, and the sea passable by foot: such was the haughtiness of his mind.

And he left governours to vex the nation: at Jerusalem Philip, for his country a Phrygian, and for manners more barberous than he that set him there:

And

23 And at Garizim, Andronicus; and besides, Menelaus, who worse then all the rest, bare an heavy hand over the citizens, having a malicious minde against his countrey-men the Jews.

24 He sent also that detestable ring-leader Apollonius, with an armie of two and twenty thousand, commanding him to slay all those that were in their best age, and to sell the women and the younger sort:

25 Who coming to Jerusalem, and pretending peace, did forbear till the holy day of the Sabbath, when taking the Jews keeping holy day, he commanded his men to arm themselves.

26 And so he slew all them that were gone to the celebrating of the Sabbath, and running thorow the city with weapons, slew great multitudes.

a Or, who bare the spoile.

27 But Judas Maccabeus, [a] with nine others, or thereabout, withdrew himself into the wilderness, and lived in the mountains, after the manner of beasts, with his company, who fed on herbs continually, lest they should be partakers of the pollution.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Jews are compelled to leave the Law of God. 4 The Temple is defiled. 8 Cruelty upon the people, and the women. 12 An exhortation to bear affliction, by the example of the valiant courage of Eleazarus, cruelly tortured.

NOt long after this, the King sent an old man of [b] Athens, to compell the Jews to depart from the Laws of their fathers, and not to live after the Laws of God:

b Antioch: the Latine interpreter.

2 And to pollute also the Temple in Jerusalem, and to call it § Temple of Jupiter Olympius: and that in Garizim, of Jupiter the defender of strangers, as they [c] did desire that dwelt in the place.

c Out of Jos. lib. 12. cap. 7. or as they were.

3 The coming in of this mischief was sore and grievous to the people:

4 For the Temple was filled with riot and revelling by the Gentiles, who dallied with harlots, and had to do with women, within the circuit of the holy places, and besides that, brought in things that were not lawfull.

5 The Altar also was filled with profane things which the Law forbiddeth.

6 Neither was it lawfull for a man to keep Sabbath dayes, or ancient feasts, or to professe himself at all to be a Jew.

7 And in the day of the Kings birth, every moneth they were brought by bitter constraint to eat of the sacrifices; and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, the Jews were compelled to go in procession to Bacchus, carrying Ivie.

8 Moreover there went out a decree to the neighbour cities of the [d] heathen, by the suggestion of Ptolemie, against the Jews, that they should observe the same fashions, and be partakers of their sacrifices.

d Greek, Graiues.

9 And whoso would not conforme themselves to the manners of the Gentiles, should be put to death: then might a man have seen the present misery.

10 For there were two women brought, who had circumcised their children, whom when they had openly led round about the city, the babes hanging at their breasts, they cast them down headlong from the wall.

11 And others that had run together into caues near by, to keep the Sabbath day secretly, being discovered to Philip, were all burnt together, because they made a conscience to help themselves, for the honour of the most sacred day.

12 Now I beseech those that read this book, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they judge those punishments not for destruction, but for a chastising of our 13 For it is a token of his great goodnesse, when wicked doers are not suffered any long time, but forthwith punished.

14 For not as with other nations whom the Lord patiently forbeareth to punish, till they come to the fulnesse of their sins, so dealeth he with us, 15 Lest that being come to the height of sins, afterwards he should take vengeance of us.

16 And therefore he never withdraweth his mercy from us: and though he punish with adversity, yet doth he never forsake his people.

17 But let this that we have spoken, be for a warning unto us: and now will we come to the declaring of the matter in few words.

18 Eleazar one of the principall Scribes, an aged man, and of a well-favoured countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and eat swines flesh.

19 But he chusing rather to die gloriously, than to live stained with such an abomination, spit it forth, and came of his own accord to the torment,

20 As it behoved them to come that are resolute to stand out against such things, as are not lawfull for love of life to be tasted.

21 But they that had the charge of that unlawfull feast, for the old acquaintance they had with the man, taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his own provision, such as was lawfull for him to use, and make as if he did eat of the flesh taken from the sacrifice commanded by the King,

22 That in so doing, he might be delivered from death, and for the old friendship with them finde favour.

23 But he began to consider discreetly, and became his age, and the excellencie of his ancient years, and the honour of his gray head, whereunto he was come, and his most honest education from a childe, or rather the holy Law made, and given by God: Therefore he answered accordingly, and willed them straightway to send him to the grave.

24 For it becometh not our age, said he, by any wise to dissemble, whereby many young persons might think that Eleazar being fourscore years old and ten, were now gone to a strange religion,

25 And so they through mine hypocrisie, and desire to live a little time, and a moment longer, should be deceived by me, and I get a stain and mine age, and make it abominable.

26 For though for the present time I should be delivered from the punishment of men: yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty, neither alive nor dead.

27 Wherefore now manfully changing this life, I will shew my self such an one as mine age requireth,

28 And leave a notable example to the young, to die willingly and courageously for the honorable and holy Laws: and when he had said these words, immediately he went to the 19 But think not thou that pulleſt in vaine to ſtrive againſt God, that thou ſhalt eſcape unpuniſhed.

20 But the mother was marvellous above all, and worthy of honourable memory: for when ſhe ſaw her ſeven ſonnes ſlain within the ſpace of one day, ſhe bare it with a good courage, becauſe of the hope that ſhe had in the Lord.

21 Yea, ſhe exhorted every one of them in her own language, filled with courageous ſpirits, and ſtirring up her womaniſh thoughts with a manly ſtomach, ſhe ſaid unto them;

22 I cannot tell how ye came into my woombe: for I neither gave you breath nor life, neither was it I that formed the members of every one of you.

23 But doubtleſſe the Creator of the world, who formed the generation of man, and found out the beginning of all things, will alſo of his own mercy give you breath and life again, as you now regard not your own ſelves for his Laws ſake.

24 Now Antiochus thinking himſelf deſpiſed, and ſuſpecting it to be a reproachfull ſpeech, while the youngeſt was yet alive, did not onely exhort him by words, but alſo aſſured him with oathes, that he would make him both a rich and a happy man, if he would turn from the laws of his fathers, and that alſo he would take him for his friend, and truſt him with affaires.

25 But when the young man would in no caſe hearken unto him, the King called his mother, and exhorted her that ſhe would counſell the young man to ſave his life.

26 And when he had exhorted her with many words, ſhe promiſed him that ſhe would counſell her ſonne.

27 But ſhe bowing her ſelf towards him, laughing the cruell tyrant to ſcorne ſpake in her countrey language on this manner; O my ſonne, have pity upon me, that bare thee nine moneths in my woombe, and gave thee ſuck three yeers, and nouriſhed thee, and brought thee up unto this age, and endured the troubles of education:

28 I beſeech thee, my ſon, look upon the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, and conſider that God made them of things that were not, and ſo was mankinde made likewiſe.

29 Feare not this tormentor, but being worthy of thy brethren, take thy death, that I may receive thee again in mercy with thy brethren.

30 While ſhe was yet ſpeaking theſe words, the young man ſaid, Whom wait ye for? I will not obey the Kings commandment: but I will obey the commandment of the Law that was given unto our fathers by Moſes.

31 And thou that haſt been the author of all miſchief againſt the Hebrewes, ſhalt not eſcape the hands of God.

32 For we ſuffer becauſe of our ſinnes.

33 And though the living Lord be angry with us a little while for our chaſtiſement and correction, yet ſhall he be at one again with his ſervants.

34 But thou, O godleſſe man, and of all other moſt wicked, be not lifted up without a cauſe, nor puffed up with uncertain hopes, lifting up thy hand againſt the ſervants of God:

35 For thou haſt not yet eſcaped the Judgement of Almighty God, who ſeeth all things.

36 For our brethren, who now have ſuffered a ſhort paine, are dead under Gods Covenant of everlaſting life: but thou, through the Judgement of God, ſhalt receive juſt puniſhment for thy pride.

37 But I, as my brethren, offer up my body and life, for the laws of our fathers, beſeeching God, that that he would ſpeedily be mercifull unto our nation, and that thou by torments and plagues mayeſt confeſſe that he alone is God:

38 And that in me and my brethren, the wrath of the Almighty, which is juſtly brought upon all our nation, may ceaſe.

39 Then the King being in a rage, handled him worſe then all the reſt, and took it grievouſly that he was mocked.

40 So this man died undefiled, and put his whole truſt in the Lord.

41 Laſt of all after the ſonnes, the mother died.

42 Let this be enough now to have ſpoken concerning the idolatrous feaſts, and the extreme tortures.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Judas gathereth an hoſt: 9 Nicanor is ſent againſt him: who preſumeth to make much money of his priſoners. 16 Judas encourageth his men and putteth Nicanor to flight, 28 and divideth the ſpoils. 30 Other enemies are alſo defeated: 35 And Nicanor flieth with grief to Antioch.

THen Judas Maccabeus, and they that were with him, went privily into the towns, and called their kinſefolks together, and took unto them all ſuch as continued in the Jews religion, and aſſembled about ſix thouſand men.

2 And they called upon the Lord, that he would look upon the people that was troden down of all, and alſo pity the Temple profaned of ungodly men,

3 And that he would have compaſſion upon the city ſore defaced, and ready to be made even with the ground, and hear the blood that cried unto him,

4 And remember the wicked ſlaughter of harmleſſe infants, and the blaſphemies committed againſt his Name, and that he would ſhew his hatred againſt the wicked.

5 Now when Maccabeus had his company about him, he could not be withſtood by the heathen: for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercy.

6 Therefore he came at unawares, and burnt up towns and cities, and got into his hands the moſt commodious places, and overcame and put to flight no ſmall number of his enemies.

7 But ſpecially took he advantage of the night, for ſuch privie attempts, inſomuch that the bruit of his manlineſſe was ſpread every where.

8 So when Philip ſaw that this man increaſed by little and little, and that things proſpered with him ſtill more and more, he wrote unto Ptolomeus the governour of Cœlosyria and Phenice, to yeeld more aide to the Kings affaires.

9 Then forthwith chooſing Nicanor the ſonne of Patrocles, one of his ſpeciall friends, he ſent him with no fewer then twenty thouſand of all nations under him, to root out the whole generation of the Jews, and with him he joyned alſo Gorgias a captain, who in matters of warre had great experience.

10 So Nicanor undertook to make ſo much money of the captive Jewes, as ſhould defray the tribute of two thouſand talents, which the King was to pay to the Romanes.

11 Wherefore immediately he ſent to the cities upon the ſea coaſt, proclaiming a ſale of the captive Jews, and promiſing that they ſhould have fourefcore and tenne bodies for one talent, not expecting the vengeance that was to follow upon him from the Almighty God.

12 Now when word was brought unto Judas of Nicanors coming, and he had imparted [illegible] that were with him, that the army was [illegible]

13 They that were fearfull, and [illegible] the juſtice of God, fled, and conveyed [illegible] away.

14 Others ſold all that they had left, and [illegible] beſought the Lord to deliver them; being [illegible] the wicked Nicanor before they met [illegible]

15 And if not for their own ſakes, yet [illegible] covenants he had made with their fathers, [illegible] his holy and glorious Names ſake, by which [illegible] were called.

16 So Maccabeus called his men together [illegible] to the number of ſix thouſand, and exhorted them, not to be ſtricken with terror of the enemy, nor to fear the great multitude of the heathen who came wrongfully againſt them, but to fight manfully,

17 And to ſet before their eies the injury that they had unjuſtly done to the holy place, and the cruell handling of the city, whereof they made mockery, and alſo the taking away of the government of their forefathers:

18 For they, ſaid he, truſt in their weapons and boldneſſe, but our confidence is in the Almighty God, who at a beck can caſt down both them that come againſt us, and alſo all the world.

19 Moreover, he recounted unto them the helps their forefathers had found, and how they were delivered, when under Sennacherib an hoſt of fourſcore and five thouſand periſhed.

20 And he told them of the battell that they had in Babylon with the Galatians, how they came but eight thouſand in all to the battell, with foure thouſand Macedonians, and that the Macedonians being perplexed, the eight thouſand ſlew an hundred and twenty thouſand, becauſe God helped them that they had from heaven, and ſo received many booty.

21 Thus when he had made them bold with theſe words, and ready to die for the Lawes and the country, he divided his army into four parts:

22 And joyned with himſelf his own brethren the leaders of each band, to wit, Simon, and Joſeph, and Jonathan, giving each one fifteen hundred men.

23 Alſo (he appointed) Eleazar to read the holy book: and when he had given them this watchword, The help of God; himſelf leading the firſt band, he joyned battell with Nicanor:

24 And by the help of the Almighty they ſlew above nine thouſand of their enemies, and wounded and maimed the moſt part of Nicanors hoſt, and put all to flight:

25 And took their money that came to buy them, and purſued them farre: but lacking time they returned.

26 For it was the day before the Sabbath, and therefore they would no longer purſue them.

27 So when they had gathered [illegible] together, and ſpoiled their enemies, they [illegible] themſelves about the Sabbath, yeelding [illegible] praiſe and thanks to the Lord, who had [illegible] them unto that day, which was the beginning of mercy diſtilling upon them.

28 And after the Sabbath, when they had [illegible] part of the ſpoils to the [illegible] widows and orphans, the reſidue they diſtributed [illegible] themſelves, and their ſervants.

29 When this was done, and they had made a common ſupplication, they beſought the merciful Lord to be reconciled with his ſervants for ever.

30 Moreover, of thoſe that were with Timotheus, and Bacchides who fought againſt [illegible]

...ore twenty thousand, and very easily got ...d strong holds, and divided amongst them ... many spoils more, and made the a maimed, ...s, widows, yea, and the aged also, equall in ... with themselves.

28 And when they had gathered their armour ...ther, they laid them up all carefully in convenient places, and the remnant of the spoils they brought to Jerusalem.

29 They slew also Philarches that wicked person, who was with Timotheus, and had annoyed the Jews many wayes.

30 Furthermore, at such time as they kept the feast for the victory in their countrey, they burnt Callisthenes, that had set fire upon the holy gates, who was fled into a little house, and so he received a reward meet for his wickednesse.

31 As for that most ungracious Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants to buy the Jews, 32 He was through the help of the Lord brought down by them of whom he made least account, and putting off his glorious apparell, and disbanding his company, he came like a fugitive alone thorow the mid-land unto Antioch, having very great dishonour, for that his host was destroyed.

33 Thus he that took upon him to make good unto the Romanes their tribute, by means of the captives in Jerusalem, told abroad, that the Jews had God to fight for them, and therefore they could not be hurt, because they followed the Laws that he gave them.

CHAP. IX.

1 Antiochus is chased from Persipolis. 5 He is stricken with a sore disease, 14 and promiseth to amend a Jew. 28 He dieth miserably.

About that time came Antiochus, b with dishonour out of the countrey of Persia.

2 For he had entred the city called Persipolis, and went about to rob the Temple, and to hold the city, whereupon the multitude running to defend themselves with their weapons, put them to flight; and so it happened, that Antiochus being put to flight of the inhabitants, returned with shame.

3 Now when he came to Ecbatana, news was brought him what had happened unto Nicanor and Timotheus.

4 Then swelling with anger, he thought to wreak upon the Jews the disgrace done unto him, by those that made him flee. Therefore commanded he his charet-man to drive without ceasing, and to dispatch the journey, the judgement of God now following him. For he had spoken proudly in this sort, That he would come to Jerusalem, and make it a common burying place of the Jews.

5 But the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel smote him with an incurable & invisible plague: for assoon as he had spoken these words, a pain of the bowels that was remediless, came upon him, and sore torments of the inner parts.

6 And that most justly: for he had tormented other mens bowels with many and strange torments.

7 Howbeit, he nothing at all ceased from his haughtiness, but still was filled with pride, breathing fire in his rage against the Jews, and commanding to haste the journey: but it came to pass that he fell down from his charet, carried violently, so that having a sore fall, all the members of his body were much pained.

8 And thus he that a little afore thought he might command the waves of the sea, (so proud was he beyond the condition of man) and weigh the high mountains in a balance, was now cast on the ground, and carried in an horse-litter, shewing forth unto all the manifest power of God.

9 So that the worms rose up out of the body of this wicked man, and whiles he lived in sorrow and pain, his flesh fell away, and the filthinesse of his smell was noisome to all his army.

10 And the man that thought a little afore he could reach to the Starres of heaven, no man could indure to carry for his intolerable stink.

11 Here therefore being plagued, he began to leave off his great pride, and to come to the knowledge [of himself] by the scourge of God, his pain increasing every moment.

12 And when he himself could not abide his own smell, he said these words, It is meet to be subject unto God, and that a man that is mortall should not proudly think of himself as if he were God.

13 This wicked person vowed also unto the Lord (who now no more would have mercy upon him) saying thus:

14 That the holy city (to the which he was going in haste, to lay it even with the ground, and to make it a common burying place) he would set at liberty.

15 And as touching the Jews, whom he had judged not worthy to be so much as buried, but to be cast out with their children, to be devoured of the fowls and wilde beasts, he would make them all equals to the citizens of c Athens, c Or, Athenians.

16 And the holy Temple, which before he had spoiled, he would garnish with goodly gifts, and restore all the holy vessels, with many more, and out of his own revenue defray the charges belonging to the sacrifices:

17 Yea, and that also he would become a Jew himself, and go thorow all the world that was inhabited, and declare the power of God.

18 But for all this his pains would not cease: for the just judgement of God was come upon him. Therefore despairing of his health, he wrote unto the Jews the letter under written, containing the form of a supplication after this manner:

19 Antiochus, King and governour, to the good Jews his citizens, wisheth much joy, health, and prosperity.

20 If ye and your children fare well, and your affaires be to your contentment, I give very great thanks to God, having my hope in heaven.

21 As for me, I was weak, or else I would have remembred kindly your honour and good will. Returning out of Persia, and being taken with a grievous disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all:

22 Not distrusting mine health, but having great hope to escape this sickness.

23 But considering that even my father, at what time he led an army into the high countreys, appointed a successour, 24 To the end that if any thing fell out contrary to expectation, or if any tidings were brought that were grievous, they of the land knowing to whom the d State was left, might not be troubled.

d Or, affairs.

25 Again, considering how that the Princes that are borderers and neighbours unto my kingdome, wait for opportunities, and expect what shall be the event, I have appointed my sonne Antiochus King, whom I often committed, and commended unto many of you, when I went up into the high provinces, to whom I have written as followeth.

26 There-

26 Therefore I pray, and requeſt you to remember the benefits that I have done unto you generally, and in ſpeciall, and that every man will be ſtill faithfull to me and my ſonne.

a Or, following.

27 For I am perſwaded, that he a underſtanding my minde, will favourably and graciouſly yeeld to your deſires.

28 Thus the murderer and blaſphemer, having ſuffered moſt grievouſly, as he intreated other men; ſo died he a miſerable death in a ſtrange country in the mountains.

29 And Philip that was brought up with him, carried away his body, who alſo fearing the ſonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolemeus Philometor.

CHAP. X.

1 Judas recovereth the city, and purifieth the Temple. 14 Gorgias vexeth the Jews. 16 Judas winneth their holds. 29 Timotheus and his men are diſcomfited. 35 Gazera is taken, and Timotheus ſlain.

NOw Maccabeus and his company, the Lord guiding them, recovered the Temple, and the city.

2 But the altars which the heathen had built in the open ſtreet, and alſo the chappels they pulled down.

3 And having cleanſed the Temple, they made another altar, and ſtriking ſtones, they took fire out of them, and offered a ſacrifice after two yeers, and ſet forth incenſe, and lights, and ſhewbread.

4 When that was done, they fell flat down, and beſought the Lord, that they might come no more into ſuch troubles: but if they ſinned any more againſt him, that he himſelf would chaſten them with mercy, and that they might not be delivered unto the blaſphemous and barbarous nations.

5 Now upon the ſame day that the ſtrangers profaned the Temple, on the very ſame day it was cleanſed again, even the five and twentieth day of the ſame moneth, which is Caſleu.

6 And they kept eight dayes with gladneſſe, as in the feaſt of the Tabernacles, remembring that not long afore they had held the feaſt of the Tabernacles, when as they wandered in the mountains and dens, like beaſts.

7 Therefore they bare branches, and fair boughs, and palmes alſo, and ſung Pſalmes unto him that had given them good ſucceſſe in cleanſing his place.

8 They ordained alſo by a common ſtatute and decree, That every yeer thoſe dayes ſhould be kept of the whole nation of the Jews.

9 And this was the end of Antiochus, called Epiphanes.

10 Now will we declare the acts of Antiochus Eupator, who was the ſonne of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the warres.

11 So when he was come to the crown, he ſet one Lyſias over the affairs of his realm, and [appointed him] chief governour of Celoſyria and Phœnice.

12 For Ptolemeus, that was called Macron, chuſing rather to do juſtice unto the Jews, for the wrong that had been done unto them, endeavoured to continue peace with them:

13 Whereupon being accuſed of [the Kings] friends before Eupator, and called traitor at every word, becauſe he had left Cyprus that Philometor had committed unto him, and departed to Antiochus Epiphanes; b and ſeeing that he was in no honourable place, he was ſo diſcouraged, that he poiſoned himſelf, and died.

b Or, and not bearing his authority as it becometh a noble man.

14 But when Gorgias was governour of the c holds, he hired ſouldiers, and made warre continually with the Jews:

15 And therewithall the Idumeans holding ſtrong holds, put the Jews to the worſe, and kept the Jews occupied, and receiving thoſe that were baniſhed from Jeruſalem, they went about to nourish warre.

16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made ſupplication, and beſought God, that he would be their helper; and ſo they ran with violence upon the ſtrong holds of the Idumeans, 17 And aſſaulting them ſtrongly, they won the holds, and kept off all that fought upon the wall, and ſlew all that fell into their hands; and there were no fewer then twenty thouſand.

18 And becauſe certain (who were no leſs than nine thouſand) were fled together into two very ſtrong caſtles, having all manner of things convenient to ſuſtain the ſiege,

19 Maccabeus left Simon, and Joſeph, and Zacheus alſo, and them that were with him, who were enow to beſiege them, and departed himſelf unto thoſe places which more needed his help.

20 Now d they that were with Simon, being led with covetouſneſſe, were perſwaded for money (through certain of thoſe that were in the caſtles) and took ſeventy thouſand drachmes, and let ſome of them eſcape.

21 But when it was told Maccabeus what was done, he called the governours of the people together, and accuſed thoſe men, that they had ſold their brethren for money, and ſet them even free to fight againſt them.

22 So he ſlew thoſe that were found traitors, and immediately took the two caſtles.

23 And having good ſucceſſe with his weapons in all things he took in hand, he ſlew in two holds more then twenty thouſand.

24 Now Timotheus, whom the Jews had ſometime before, when he had gathered a great multitude of ſtrange forces, and horſes out of Aſia a few, came as though he would take Jewry by force of armes.

25 But when he drew neer, e they that were with Maccabeus, turned themſelves to pray unto God, and ſprinkled earth upon their heads, and girded their loins with ſackcloth.

26 And fell down at the foot of the altar, and beſought him to be mercifull to them, and to be an f enemy to their enemies, and an adverſary to their adverſaries, as the Law declareth.

27 So after the prayer, they took their weapons, and went on further from the city, and when they drew neer to their enemies, they ſtayed by themſelves.

28 Now the ſun being newly riſen, they joined both together; the one part having together with their vertue, their refuge alſo unto the Lord, as a pledge of their ſucceſſe and victory: the other ſide making their rage leader of their battell.

29 But when the battell waxed ſtrong, there appeared unto the enemies from heaven five comely men upon horſes, with bridles of gold, and two of them led the Jews,

30 And took Maccabeus betwixt them, and covered him on every ſide with their weapons, and kept him ſafe, but they ſhot arrows and lightnings againſt the enemies: ſo that being confounded with blindneſſe, and full of trouble, they were killed.

31 And there were ſlain [of footmen] thouſand and five hundred, and ſix hundred horſemen.

32 As for Timotheus himſelf, he fled into

...ville, called Cazara, where Chemas was ...

...ere they that were with Maccabeus laid siege ... ...ing footemen courageously fought upon ...

...And they that were within, trusting to the ... ...ength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, ...ttered wicked words.

...Nevertheleſs, upon the fifth day early, ...young men of Maccabeus company ... ...fumed with anger, because of the blaſphemies, ...aſſaulted the wall manly, and with a fierce courage ... ...killed all that they met withall.

...Others likewiſe aſcending after them, whiles ... ...they were buſied with them that were within, ...burnt the towres, and kindling fires, burnt the ... ...blaſphemers alive, and others broke open the ... ...gates, and having received in the reſt of the army, ...took the city.

...And killed Timotheus that was hid in a cer... ...tain pit, and Chemas his brother, with Apollo...phanes.

...When this was done, they praiſed the Lord ... ...with Pſalmes and thankſgiving, who had done ſo ... ...great things for Iſrael, and given them the vi...ctory.

CHAP. XI.

1 Lyſias diſdaining to get Jeruſalem, 8 & yet to ... ... him. 16 The letters of Lyſias to the Jews: 22 Of ... ... this with Lyſias: 27 and to the Jews: 34 Of ... ... the Romans to the Jews.

NOt long after this, Lyſias the King's protector and coſin, who alſo managed the affairs, took ſore diſpleaſure for the things that were done.

2 And when he had gathered about fourſcore thouſand, with all the horſemen, he came againſt the Jews, thinking to make the city an habitation of the Grecians,

3 And to make a gain of the Temple, as of the other chappels of the heathen, and to ſet the high Prieſthood to ſale every year:

4 Not at all conſidering the power of God, but puffed up with his ten thouſand footmen, and his thouſand horſmen, and fourſcore Elephants.

5 So he came to Judea, and drew neer to Bethſura, which was a ſtrong town, but diſtant from Jeruſalem about five furlongs, and he laid ſore ſiege unto it.

6 Now when they that were with Maccabeus knew that he beſieged the holds, they, and all the people with lamentation and teares beſought the Lord that he would ſend a good Angel to deliver Iſrael.

7 Then Maccabeus himſelf firſt of all took weapons, exhorting the reſt that they would expoſe themſelves together with him, to help their brethren: ſo they went forth together with willing minds.

8 And as they were at Jeruſalem, there appeared before them on horſback, one in white clothing, ſhaking his armour of gold.

9 Then they praiſed the mercifull God all together, and took heart, inſomuch as not only were they ready to fight with men, but with moſt fierce beaſts, and to pierce through walls of Iron.

10 Thus they marched forward in their ordinance, having an helper from heaven: for the Lord had mercy upon them.

11 And giving a charge upon their enemies like lions, they ſlew eleven thouſand footmen, and nine hundred horſmen, and put all the reſt to flight.

12 Many of them alſo being wounded, eſcaped naked, and Lyſias himſelf fled away baſely, and ſo eſcaped.

13 Who as he was a man of underſtanding, calling unto himſelf what loſſe he had ſuſtained, and conſidering that the Hebrewes could not be overcome, becauſe the Almighty God helped them, he ſent unto them, 14 And perſwaded them to agree to all reaſonable conditions, and [a] promiſed that he would perſwade the King, that he muſt needs be a friend unto them.

15 Then Maccabeus conſented to all that Lyſias deſired, being carefull of the common good; and whatſoever Maccabeus wrote unto Lyſias concerning the Jews, the King granted it.

16 For there were letters written unto the Jews from Lyſias, to this effect: Lyſias unto the people of the Jews, ſendeth greeting.

17 John and Abſalon, who were ſent from you, delivered me the petition ſubſcribed, and made requeſt for the performance of the contents thereof.

18 Therefore what things ſoever were meet to be reported to the King, I have declared them, and he hath granted as much as might bee.

19 If then you will keep your ſelves loyall to the State, hereafter alſo will I endeavour to be a means of your good.

20 But of the particulars I have given order, both to theſe, and the other that came from me, to commune with you.

21 Fare ye well. The hundred and eight and fourtieth year, the four and twentieth day of the moneth [d] Dioſcorinthius.

22 Now the Kings letter contained theſe words, King Antiochus unto his brother Lyſias ſendeth greeting.

23 Since our father is tranſlated unto the gods, our will is, that they that are in our realm live quietly, that every one may mannage his own affairs.

24 We underſtand alſo that the Jews would not conſent to our father for to be brought unto the cuſtoms of the Gentiles, but had rather keep their own manner of living: for the which cauſe they require of us that we ſhould ſuffer them to live after their own laws.

25 Wherefore our minde is, that this nation ſhall be in reſt, and we have determined to reſtore them their Temple that they may live according to the cuſtomes of their anceſtors.

26 Thou ſhalt do well then to ſend unto them, and ſtraight grant them peace, that when they are certified of our minde, they may be of good comfort, and ever go cheerfully about their own affairs.

27 And the letter of the King unto the nation of the Jews was after this manner: King Antiochus ſendeth greeting unto the Councell, and the reſt of the Jews.

28 If ye fare well, we have our deſire, we are alſo in good health.

29 Menelaus declared unto us, that your deſire was to return home, and to follow your own buſineſſes.

30 Wherefore they that will depart ſhall have ſafe conduct, till the thirtieth day of Xanthicus with ſecurity.

31 And the Jews ſhall uſe their own kinde of meats, and laws as heretofore, neither ſhall any manner of proper thing be moleſted for things ignorantly done.

[a] Or, Diſpenſed.

[d] Or, Dioſcorus.

32 I have sent also Menelaus, that he may comfort you.

33 Fare ye well. So the hundred fourty and eighth yeer, and the fifteenth day of the moneth a Xanthicus.

a Or, April.

34 The Romanes also sent unto them a letter containing these words: Quintus Memmius, and Titus Manlius the ambassadours of the Romanes, send greeting unto the people of the Jews.

b Or, Consuls.

35 Whatsoever Lysias the Kings cousin hath granted, therewith we also are well pleased.

36 But touching such things as he judged to be referred to the King: after you have advised thereof, send one forthwith, that we may declare as it is convenient for you: for we are now going to Antioch.

37 Therefore send some with speed, that we may know what is your minde.

38 Fare well, this hundreth and eight and fourtieth yeer, the fifteenth day of the moneth Xanthicus.

CHAP. XII.

1 The Kings lieutenants vex the Jews. 3 They of Joppe drown two hundred Jews. 6 Judas is avenged upon them. 11 He maketh peace with the Arabians, 16 and taketh Caspis. 22 Timotheus is twice overthrown.

WHen these covenants were made, Lysias went unto the King, and the Jews were about their husbandry.

2 But of the governours of severall places, Timotheus, and Apollonius the sonne of Gennæus, also Hieronymus, and Demophon, and besides them Nicanor the governour of Cyprus would not suffer them to be quiet, and live in peace.

3 The men of Joppe also did such an ungodly deed: they prayed the Jews that dwelt among them, to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had prepared, as though they had meant them no hurt,

4 According to a decree of the citie, as being desirous to live in peace, and suspecting nothing: but when they were gone forth into the deep, they drowned no lesse than two hundred of them.

5 When Judas heard of this cruelty done unto his countrey men, he commanded those that were with him [to make them ready.]

6 And calling upon God the righteous Judge, he came against those murderers of his brethren, and burned the haven by night, and set the boats on fire, and whither soever they fled thither he slew.

7 And when the haven was shut up, he went back again, c as if he would return to root out all them of the citie of Joppe.

c Or, with a purpose to return.

8 But when he heard that the Jamnites were minded to do in like manner unto the Jews that dwelt among them;

9 He came upon the Jamnites also by night, and set fire on the haven, and the navie, so that the light of the fire was seen at Jerusalem, two hundred and fourty furlongs off.

10 Now when they were gone from thence nine furlongs in their journey toward Timotheus, no fewer than five thousand men and foure and five hundred horsemen of the Arabians set upon him.

11 Whereupon there was a very sore battell, but Judas side, by the help of God, got the victory, so that the vanquished of the tents, being overcome, besought Judas for peace, promising both to give [illegible]

12 [illegible] they would [illegible] things, and [illegible] peace,

13 He went also about to make a siege against a certain strong city, which was fenced with walls, and inhabited by people of divers nations: and the name of it was Caspis.

14 But they that were within it, put their trust in the strength of the walls, and provided victuals: thirdly, that they behaved themselves rudely toward them that were with Judas, using even blaspheming, and uttering such words as were not to be spoken.

15 Wherefore Judas, with his company, calling upon the great Lord of the world (who without any rammes, or engines of warre, did cast down Jericho in the time of Josua) gave a fierce assault against the walls, 16 And took the city by the will of God, and made unspeakable slaughters, insomuch that a lake two furlongs broad, neer adjoyning thereunto, being filled full, was seen running with blood.

17 Then departed they from thence seven hundred and fifty furlongs, and came to Characa, to the Jews that are called Tubieni.

18 But as for Timotheus, they found him not in the places: for before he had dispatched any thing, he departed from thence, having left a very strong garison in a certain hold:

19 Howbeit, Dositheus, and Sosipater, who were of Maccabeus captains, went forth, and slew them that Timotheus had left in the fortresse, above ten thousand men.

20 And Maccabeus ranged his army by bands, and set them over the bands, and went against Timotheus, who had about him an hundred and twenty thousand men of foot, and two thousand and five hundred horsemen.

21 Now when Timotheus had knowledge of Judas coming, he sent the women and children, and the other baggage unto a fortresse called Carnion (for the town was hard to besiege, and uneasie to come unto, by reason of the straitness of all the places:)

22 But when Judas his first band came in sight, the enemies (being smitten with fear and horrour, thorow the appearing of him that seeth all things) fled amain, one running this way another that way, so as that they were often hurt of their own men, and wounded with the points of their own swords.

23 Judas also was very earnest in pursuing, and killing those wicked wretches, of whom he slew about thirty thousand men.

24 Moreover, Timotheus himself fell into the hands of Dositheus, and Sosipater, whom he had fought with much craft to let him go with life, because he had many of the Jews parents, and brethren of some of them, who, if they put him to death, should not be regarded.

25 So when he had assured them with many words, that he would restore them without hurt according to the agreement, they let him go for the saving of their brethren.

26 Then Maccabeus marched forth into Gilead and to the Temple of d Atargatis, and slew five and twenty thousand persons.

d Or, Astaroth.

27 And after he had put to flight and destroyed them, Judas removed the host [illegible] a strong city, wherein Lysias [illegible] multitude of divers nations, and [illegible] men hope the walls, and [illegible] wherein also was great provision [illegible] cities.

Judas and his company lifted God, (who with his power work-strength of his enemies) they were the city, slaughter and five thousand of them that them.

Since thence they departed to Scythopo-

But when the Jews that dwelt there had that the Scythopolitans dealt lovingly them, and entreated them kindly in the time their adversity:

They gave them thanks, desiring them to be still unto them, and so they came to Jeruthe feast of the weeks approaching.

And after the feast called Pentecost, they forth against Gorgias the governour of Idumea,

Who came out with three thousand men of and four hundred horsemen.

And it happened that in their fighting toge-a few of the Jews were slain.

At which time Dositheus, one of Bacenors company, who was on horseback, and a strong man, upon Gorgias, and taking hold of his drew him by force, and when he would have that cursed man alive, a horseman of Thracia upon him, smote off his shoulder, so Gorgias fled unto Marisa.

Now when they that were with Gorgias had long, and were weary, Judas called upon Lord that he would shew himself to be their and leader of the battell.

And with that he began in his own lan-and sing Psalmes with a loud voice, and unawares upon Gorgias men, he put them

So Judas gathered his host, and came into the of Odollam. And when the seventh day came, purified themselves, (as the custome was) kept the Sabbath in the same place.

And upon the day following, (as the use had Judas and his company came to take up the of them that were slain, and to bury them their Kinsmen, in their fathers graves.

Now under the coats of every one that was they found things consecrated to the idols the Jamnites, which is forbidden the Jews by Law. Then every man saw that this was the wherefore they were slain.

All men therefore praising the Lord the righteous Judge, who had opened the things that hid,

Betook themselves unto prayer, and be-
Him that the sinne committed might wholly out of remembrance. Besides, that noble exhorted the people to keep themselves sinne, for so much as they saw before their the things that came to passe, for the sinne of that were slain.

And when he had made a gathering throthe company, to the summe of two thou-drachmes of silver, he sent it to Jerusalem a sinne offring, doing therein very well honestly, in that he was mindfull of the resur-

For if he had not hoped that they that were should rise again, it had been superfluvain to pray for the dead.

And also in that he perceived that there was laid up for those that died godly, it was a holy and good thought: wherupon he made reconciliation for the dead, that they might be delivered from sinne.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Eupator invadeth Judea. 13 Judas by night foreth many. 18 Eupator sueth for peace. 23 He maketh peace with Judas.

In the hundred fourty and ninth yere it was told Judas that Antiochus Eupator was coming with a great power into Judea:

2 And with him Lysias his protector, and ruler of his affaires, having either of them a Grecian power of footmen, an hundred and ten thousand, and five thousand and three hundred, and elephants two and twenty, and three hundred chariots armed with hookes.

3 Menelaus also joyned himself with them, and with great dissimulation encouraged Antiochus, not for the safegard of the countrey, but because he thought to have been made governour.

4 But the King of kings moved Antiochus minde against this wicked wretch, and Lysias informed the king, that this man was the cause of all mischief, so that the King commanded to bring him into Bera, and to put him to death, as the manner is in that place.

5 Now there was in that place a tower of fifte cubits high full of ashes, and it had a round instrument which on every side hanged down into the ashes.

6 And whosoever was condemned of sacriledge, or had committed any other grievous crime, there did all men thrust him unto death.

7 Such a death it happened that wicked man to die, not having so much as buriall in the earth, and that most justly.

8 For in as much as he had committed many sinnes about the Altar, whose fire and ashes were holy, he received his death in ashes.

9 Now the King came with a barbarous and haughty minde, to do far worse to the Jews than had been done in his fathers time.

10 Which things when Judas perceived, he commanded the multitude to call upon the Lord night and day, that if ever at any other time, he would now also help them, being at the point to be put from their law, from their country, and from the holy Temple:

11 And that he would not suffer the people that had even now been but a little refreshed, to be in subjection to the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had all done this together, and besought the mercifull Lord with weepings, and fasting, and lying flat upon the ground three dayes long, Judas having exhorted them, commanded they should be in a readinesse.

13 And Judas being apart with the elders, determined before the kings host should come into Judea and get the city, to go forth, and trie the matter [in fight] by the help of the Lord.

14 So when he had committed [all] to the Creator of the world, and exhorted his Souldiers to fight manfully, even unto death, for the laws, the temple, the city, the commonwealth, and the commonwealth he camped by Modin.

15 And having given the watch-word to them that were about him, Victory is of God: with the most valiant and chosen young men, he went in by the kings tent by night, and slew in the camp about four thousand men, and the chiefest of the elephants, with all that were upon them.

16 And at length they filled the host with fear and trembling, and departed with prosperity.

28 Now when the King had taken a taste of the manlinesse of the Jews, he went about to take the holds by policy.

29 And razed seuenty Bethsura, which was a strong hold of the Jews, but he was put to flight, failed, and left of his men.

30 But Judas had conveyed unto them that were in it, such things as were necessary.

31 But Rhocotis, who was in the Jews hoste, disclosed the secrets to the enemies, therefore he was sought out, and when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

32 The King treated with them in Bethsura the second time, gave his hand, took theirs, departed, fought with Judas, was overcome:

33 Heard that Philip who was left over the affaires in Antioch were desperately bent, confounded, intrested the Jews, submitted himself, and sware to all equall conditions, agreed with them, and offered sacrifice, honoured the Temple, and dealt kindly with the place,

34 And accepted well of Maccabeus, made him principall governour from Ptolemais unto the Gerrhenians, 35 Came to Ptolemais, the people there were grieved for the covenants: for they stormed because they would make their covenants void.

36 Lysias went up to the judgement seat, said as much as could be in defence of the cause, perswaded, pacified, made them well affected, returned to Antioch. Thus it went touching the Kings comming and departing.

CHAP. XIIII.

6 Alcimus accuseth Judas. 18 Nicanor maketh peace with Judas. 37 He seeketh to take Razis, 46 who slayeth his owne sword himself.

AFter three yeers was Judas informed that Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus having entred by the haven of Tripolis with a great power and navie, 2 Had taken the countrey, and killed Antiochus, and Lysias his protector.

3 Now one Alcimus who had been high Priest, and had defiled himself wilfully in the times of their mingling (with the Gentiles) seeing that by no meanes he could save himself, nor have any more accesse to the holy Altar,

4 Came to King Demetrius in the hundreth and one and thirtieth yeer, presenting unto him a crown of gold, and a palm, and also of the boughes which were used solemnly in the Temple: and so that day he held his peace.

5 Howbeit having gotten opportunity to further his foolish enterprise, [and] being called into counsell by Demetrius, and asked how the Jews stood affected, and what they intended, he answered thereunto;

6 Those of the Jews that be called Assideans (whose captain is Judas Maccabeus) nourish warre, and are seditious, and will not let the realm be in peace.

7 Therefore I being deprived of mine ancestors honour (I mean the high Priesthood) am now come hither,

8 First verily for the unfained care I have of things pertaining to the King, and secondly, even for that I purpose the good of mine own countrymen: for all our nation is in no small misery, through the unadvised dealing of them aforesaid.

9 Wherefore, O King, seeing most perfect all this matter, be careful for the country, and our nation, which is pressed on every side, according to the clemency that thou readily unto all.

10 For as long as Judas liveth, it is not that the rest should be quiet.

11 This was no sooner spoken of him, but some of the Kings friends being maliciously set against Judas, did more incense Demetrius.

12 And forthwith calling Nicanor, who had been master of the Elephants, and making him governour over Judea, he sent him forth;

13 Commanding him to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high Priest of the great temple.

14 Then the heathen that had fled out of Judea from Judas, came to Nicanor by flocks, thinking the harm and calamities of the Jews, to be their welfare.

15 Now when the Jews heard of Nicanors coming, and that the heathen were up against them, they cast earth upon their heads, and made supplication to him that had stablished his people for ever, and who alwaies helpeth his portion by manifestation of his presence.

16 So at the commandment of the captain they removed straitwaies from thence, and came unto them, at the town of Dessaro.

17 Now Simon Judas brother, had joined battell with Nicanor, but was somewhat discomfited through the sudden silence of his enemies.

18 Nevertheless, Nicanor hearing of the manlinesse of them that were with Judas, and the courageousnesse that they had to fight for their country, durst not try the matter by the sword.

19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, and Theodotus, and Mattathias to make peace.

20 So when they had taken long advisement thereupon, and the captain had made the multitude acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of one minde, they consented to the covenants,

21 And appointed a day to meet in, by themselves, and when the day came, that both were set for either of them,

22 Judas placed armed men ready in convenient places, lest some treachery should be practised by the enemies: so they made a reasonable conference, 23 Now Nicanor abode in Jerusalem, and did no hurt, but sent away the people that came flocking unto him.

24 And he would not willingly have any out of his sight: for he loved the man from his heart.

25 He prayed him also to take a wife, and beget children: so he married, and lived, and took part of this life.

26 But Alcimus perceiving the love betwixt them, and considering the covenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor was not well affected towards the state: for that he had ordained Judas, a traitour, to reign in his room.

27 Then the King being in a rage, and moved with the accusations of the most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was displeased with the covenants, and commanded him that he should send Maccabeus prisoner straightly unto Antioch.

28 When this came to Nicanors knowledge, he was much confounded, in that he misliked to break promise with a man that had done no wrong, which were agreed upon, the matter not requiring such fault.

a Or, prefixed.

b Or, thought to be of the Temple.

18 For the care that they took for their wives and their children, their brethren, and kinsfolk, was in least account with them: but the greatest and principall fear was for the holy Temple.

19 Also they that were in the city, took not the least care, being troubled for the conflict abroad.

20 And now when as all looked what should be the triall, and the enemies were already come neer, and the army was set in aray, and the beasts conveniently placed, and the horsemen for in wings;

21 Maccabeus seeing the coming of the multitude, and the diverse preparations of armour, and the fierceness of the beasts, stretched out his hands towards heaven, and called upon the Lord, that worketh wonders, knowing that victory cometh not by arms, but even as it seemeth good to him, he giveth it to such as are worthy:

22 Therefore in his prayer he said after this manner: O Lord, thou didst send thine Angel in the time of Ezekias King of Judea, and didst slay in the hoste of Sennacherib, an hundred foure score and five thousand.

23 Wherefore now also, O Lord of heaven, send a good Angel before us, for a fear and dread unto them.

24 And through the might of thine arm, let them be stricken with terrour, that come against thy holy people to blaspheme. And he ended thus.

25 Then Nicanor, and they that were with him, came forward with trumpets and songs.

26 But Judas and his company encountred the enemies with invocation and prayer.

27 So that fighting with their hands, and praying unto God with their hearts, they slew no lesse then thirtie and five thousand men: for through the appearance of God they were greatly cheered.

28 Now when the battell was done, returning again with joy, they knew that Nicanor lay dead in his armour.

29 Then they made a great shout, and praised the Almighty in their own

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT MATTHEW.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 It was ordained by the holy Ghost, the work of the Virgin Mary, when she was betrothed to Joseph. 19 The Angel satisfieth the pondering thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the name of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac, and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren, and Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar, and Phares begat Esrom, and Esrom begat Aram,

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson, and Naasson begat Salmon,

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse,

6 And Jesse begat David the King, and David the King begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias,

7 And Solomon begat Roboam, and Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa,

8 And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias, 9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz begat Ezekias,

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias, 11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel, 13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor, 14 And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud, 15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob, 16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her, is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call his name Emanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the Angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born Son: and he called his name Jesus.

CHAP. II.

1 The wise men out of the East are directed by a starre, 11 They worship him, offer their presents, &c. Joseph, fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod, seeking the child to kill him, 20 Himself is warned to bring it back again into Nazareth.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

and baptized [illegible]

13 And when they were departed, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young childe and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young childe to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young childe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying, [b] Out of Egypt have I called my Sonne.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two yeeres old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophet, saying, 18 In Rama was there a voyce heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an Angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young childe and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young childes life.

21 And he arose, and took the young childe and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAP. III.

Iohn preacheth, and is reproved. 11 He telleth of Christ. 13 Christ is baptized. 16 The Spirit descendeth upon him. 17 A voyce from heaven.

1 In those dayes came Iohn the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Iudea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdome of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the Prophet Esaias, saying, The voyce of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same Iohn had his raiment of camels hair, and a girdle of a skin about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Iudea, and all the region round about Iordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Iordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptisme, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for amendment:

9 And think not to say within your selves, [h] We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the roote of the trees: [i] Therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down, and cast into the fire.

11 [k] I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear, he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

12 Whose fanne is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floore, and gather his wheat into the garner; but will burn up the chaffe with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ [l] Then commeth Jesus from Galilee to Iordan, unto Iohn, to be baptized of him.

14 But Iohn forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousnesse. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went straightway out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

17 And lo, a voyce from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 ¶ [c] And Jesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, (for they were fishers.)

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they straightway left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ calling his Saviour to the office, reproveth rash judgment, 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to dogs, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter into the strait gate, 15 to beware of false prophets, 21 the hearers, but doers of the word, 24 likened unto a wise man building on a rock, 26 and not on the sand.

1 Judge not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then being evil know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets.

13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so, every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the Scribes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ cleanseth the leper, 3 healeth the Centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother in law, 16 and many other diseased: 18 Christ willing to be gone, 19 a scribe and a disciple would follow him: 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth devils out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

1 When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a Centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The Centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the Centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

[illegible] And his disciples came unto him, and [illegible] him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

28 ¶ f And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And behold, they cryed out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus thou Sonne of God? Art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their wayes into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAP. IX.

1 Christ curing one sick of the palsie, 9 calleth Matthew from the receit of custome, 10 eateth with Publicans and sinners, 14 excuseth his disciples for not [illegible] 18 raiseth the ruler's [illegible] 20 healeth the woman [illegible] 27 giveth sight to two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man possessed of a devil, 34 and they envy him.

AND he entred into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 g And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsie, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsie; Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And behold, certain of the Scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee: or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath power on earth to forgive sinnes, (then saith he to the sick of the palsie) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ h And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the receit of custome: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to passe, as Jesus sate at meat in the house, behold, many Publicans and sinners came and sate down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your master with Publicanes and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, i I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, k but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, l Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the dayes will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of m new cloth unto an old garment: for that which is put in to fill it up, taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ n While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come, and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his Disciples.

20 (¶ And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve yeers, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within her self, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.)

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels, and the people making a noise,

…Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tole…rable for the land of Sodome and Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.
…Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and [x] harmlesse as doves.
…But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the Councells, and they will scourge you in their Synagogues,
…And ye shall be brought before governours and Kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.
…But when they deliver you up, take no [y] thought how, or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
…For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
…And [z] the brother shall deliver up the bro…ther to death, and the father the childe: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.
…And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake: [a] but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.
…But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, ye shall not [b] have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Sonne of man be come.
…[c] The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.
…It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord: If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?
…Fear them not therefore: [d] for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.
…What I tell you in darkenesse, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house tops.
…[e] And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
…Are not two sparrowes sold for a [f] farthing, and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.
…But the very haires of your head are all numbered.
…Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.
…[h] Whosoever therefore shall confesse me before men, him will I confesse also before my Father which is in heaven.
…[i] But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
…[k] Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace but a sword.
…For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
…And a mans foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 [c] He that findeth his life, shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake, shall find it.

40 ¶ [d] He that receiveth you, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a Prophet in the name of a Prophet, shall receive a Prophets reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous mans reward.

42 [e] And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones, a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAP. XI.

1 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ testifieth concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people, both concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitency of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Father's wisdome in revealing the Gospel to the simple. 28 He calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sinnes.

AND it came to passe, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 ¶ Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come? or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 [f] The blinde receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and [h] the poor have the Gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderneſſe to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing, are in Kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A Prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a Prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, [i] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women, there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdome of heaven, is greater than he.

12 [k] And from the dayes of John the Baptist, until now, the kingdome of heaven [l] suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is [m] Elias which was for to come.

15 He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Sonne of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of Publicans and sinners: but wisdome is justified of her children.

20 ¶ Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee Chorazin, Woe unto thee Bethsaida: for if the mighty works which have been done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgement, than for you.

23 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodome, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodome, in the day of judgement, than for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 ¶ All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Sonne but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Sonne, and he to whomsoever the Sonne will reveal him.

28 ¶ Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavie laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your soules.

30 [n] For my yoke is easie, and my burden is light.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ reproveth the blindnesse of the Pharisees in wresting the breach of the Sabbath, 3 by David, 9 by custom, 12 and by a miracle. 22 He casteth out the devil, that was blinde and dumbe. 24 Blasphemy against the holy Ghost shall never be forgiven. 36 Idlenesse shall be made to render account for. 38 He refuseth the unbelieving, who require signs: 49 and showeth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

AT that time, [a] Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were hungred, and began to pluck the eares of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is unlawfull to do upon the Sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entred into the house of God, and did eat the shew-bread, which was not lawfull for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the Priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the Law, how that on the Sabbath dayes the Priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blamelesse?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the Temple.

sowe, and the multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, ‖ Behold, a Sower went forth to sowe. Luke 8.5.

4 And when he sowed, some seed fell by the wayes side, and the fowls came and devoured them up.

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepnesse of earth.

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched: & because they had not root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns: and the thorns grew up, and choked them.

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold.

9 Who hath eares to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdome of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 b For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away, even that he hath. b Chap. 25.29.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not: and hearing they heare not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecie of Esaias, which saith, c By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand: and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive. c Esa. 6.9. mar. 4.12. Joh. 8.10. Joh. 12.40. Act. 28.26. Rom. 11.8.

15 For this people's heart is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed: lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their eares, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your eares, for they heare.

17 For verily I say unto you, d That many Prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye heare, and have not heard them. d Luke 10.24.

18 ¶ Heare ye therefore the parable of the Sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdome, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sowen in his heart: this is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word, and the care of this world, and the deceitfulnesse of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitfull.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it, which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdome of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was [illegible] brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay: lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, e The kingdome of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ f Another parable spake he unto them: The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 g All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables, and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, h I will open my mouth in parables: I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered, and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed, is the Sonne of man:

38 The field is the world: the good seed are the children of the kingdome; but the tares are the children of the wicked one.

39 The enemy that sowed them, is the devil: the harvest is the end of the world: and the reapers are the Angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Sonne of man shall send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdome all things that offend, and them which do iniquity, 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 m Then shall the righteous shine forth as the Sunne in the kingdome of their Father. Who hath eares to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdome of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth it, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdome of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearles:

46 Who when he had found one pearle of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdome of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kinde:

48 Which when it was full, they drew to land, and sate down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the Angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

... And shall call them into the fornace of fire: ... shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.
52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdome of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.
53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.
54 [a] And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their Synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdome, and these mighty works?
55 [b] Is not this the Carpenters sonne? Is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?
56 And his sisters are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?
57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them; [c] A Prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.
58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

CHAP. XIIII.

Herods opinion of Christ. 3 Wherefore John Baptist was beheaded. 13 Jesus departeth into a desert place, 15 where he feedeth five thousand men, with five loaves and two fishes: 22 He walketh on the sea to his Disciples: 24 and landing at Gennesaret, healeth the sick by the touch of the hemme of his garment.

1 At that time [d] Herod the Tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,
2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist, he is risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works [e] do shew forth themselves in him.
3 [f] For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake his brothers Philips wife.
4 For John said unto him, [g] It is not lawfull for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, [h] because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herods birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.
7 Whereupon he promised with an oath, to give her whatsoever she would ask.
8 And she being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptists head in a charger.
9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless, for the oaths sake, and them which sate with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her;
10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.
11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damosell, and she brought it to her mother.
12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.
13 ¶ When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.
14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.
15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.
16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart: give ye them to eat.
17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves and two fishes.
18 He said, Bring them hither to me.
19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grasse, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his Disciples, and the Disciples to the multitude.
20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained, twelve baskets full.
21 And they that had eaten, were about five thousand men, beside women and children.
22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.
23 [i] And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: [m] and when the evening was come, he was there alone:
24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.
25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them walking on the sea.
26 And when the Disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit: and they cryed out for fear.
27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer: It is I, be not afraid.
28 And Peter answered him, and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.
29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.
30 But when he saw the wind [n] boisterous, he was afraid: and beginning to sink, he cryed, saying, Lord, save me.
31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?
32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.
33 Then they that were in the ship, came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Sonne of God.
34 ¶ [o] And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.
35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased, 36 And besought him, that they might onely touch the hemme of his garment: and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole.

CHAP. XV.

Christ reproveth the Scribes and Pharisees for transgressing Gods Commandements through their own traditions: 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth, doth not defile a man. 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 and with seven loaves, and a few little fishes, feedeth four thousand men, besides women and children.

Then [p] came to Jesus Scribes and Pharisees, [p] which were of Jerusalem, saying,
2 Why do thy Disciples transgresse the tradition of the Elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.
3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgresse the commandement of God by your tradition?

do you also transgresse the Commandement of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, a Honour thy father and mother: and b he that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, c It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6 And honour his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the Commandement of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesie of you, saying,

8 d This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips: but their heart is farre from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandements of men.

10 ¶ e And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Heare and understand.

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man: but that which commeth out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his Disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered, and said, f Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: g they be blinde leaders of the blinde. And if the blinde lead the blinde, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 ¶ Then answered Peter, and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entreth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth, come forth from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 ¶ For out of the heart proceed evill thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witnesse, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: But to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ h Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cryed unto him, saying, Have mercie on me, O Lord, thou Sonne of David, my daughter is grievously vexed with a devill.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she cryeth after us.

24 But he answered, and said, i I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord help me.

26 But he answered, and said, It is not meet to take the childrens bread, and cast it to dogs.

27 And she said, Truth Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbes which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Jesus answered, and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee, even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very houre.

29 ¶ And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee, and went up into a mountaine, and sate downe there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them [illegible], and many others, and cast them down at Jesus feet, and he healed them:

31 In so much that the multitude wondred when they saw the dumbe to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blinde to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three dayes, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his Disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wildernesse, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his Disciples, and the Disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat, were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and tooke ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a signe. 5 Jesus warneth his Disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 The people speake diversly of Christ. 16 and Peter confesseth him. 21 reproveth Peter for dissuading him from his passion. 24 He teacheth what manner of men they must be that will follow him, and the crosse.

THe ¶ Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting, desired him that he would shew them a signe from heaven.

2 He answered, and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be faire weather: for the skie is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foule weather to day: for the skie is red and lowring. O hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie; but can ye not discerne the signes of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a signe, and there shall no signe be given unto it, but the signe of the Prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And when his Disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among your selves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 ¶ Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 ¶ Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, but that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

[illegible] when Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his Disciples, saying, Whom do men say, that I the Sonne of man, am?
14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist, some Elias, and others Jeremias, or one of the Prophets.
15 He saith unto them; But whom say ye that I am?
16 And Simon Peter answered, and said, Thou art Christ the Sonne of the living God.
17 And Jesus answered, and said unto him, Blessed art thou Simon Bar-Jona: for flesh and bloud hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.
18 And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.
19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdome of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt binde on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.
20 Then charged he his Disciples, that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.
21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his Disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the Elders and chief Priests, and Scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.
22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it farre from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.
23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behinde me, Satan, thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.
24 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his Disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his crosse, and follow me.
25 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall finde it.
26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
27 For the Sonne of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his Angels, and then he shall reward every man according to his works.
28 Verily I say unto you, ‖ There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Sonne of man coming in his kingdome.

CHAP. XVII.

The transfiguration of Christ. 14 He healeth the lunatick, 22 foretelleth his own passion, 24 and payeth tribute.

1 And b after six dayes Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them into an high mountain apart,
2 And was transfigured before them, and his face did shine as the Sunne, and his raiment was white as the light.
3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.
4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three Tabernacles: one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.
5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voyce out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him.
6 And when the Disciples heard it, they fell upon their face, and were sore afraid.
7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.
8 And when they had lift up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.
9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Sonne of man be risen again from the dead.
10 And his Disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that Elias must first come?
11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truely shall first come, and restore all things:
12 But I say unto you, that Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed: likewise shall also the Sonne of man suffer of them.
13 Then the Disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.
14 ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, and saying,
15 Lord have mercy on my sonne, for he is lunatick, and sore vexed, for oft times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.
16 And I brought him to thy Disciples, and they could not cure him.
17 Then Jesus answered, and said, O faithlesse and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.
18 And Jesus rebuked the devill, and he departed out of him: and the childe was cured from that very hour.
19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?
20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, ‖ If ye have faith, as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place: and it shall remove, and nothing shall be unpossible unto you.
21 Howbeit, this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.
22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:
23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.
24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received ° tribute money, came to Peter, and said, Doeth not your master pay tribute?
25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? Of whom do the Kings of the earth take custome or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?
26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.
27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde ° a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

Christ warneth his Disciples to humble and become little. 7 To avoid offences, and not to despise the little ones: 15 Teacheth how we are to deal with our brethren when they offend us: 21 and how often in forgiving them: 23 which he setteth forth by a parable of the king that took account of his servants, 32 and punished him who forgave not his fellow.

AT the same time came the Disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little childe unto him, and set him in the midst of them, b Chap. 19.14. 1.Cor.14. 20.

3 And said, Verely, I say unto you, b Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdome of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little childe, the same is greatest in the kingdome of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little childe in my Name, receiveth me.

c Mark 9.42. Luk. 17.1,2.

6 c But whoso shall offend one of these little ones, which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Wo unto the world because of offences: for it must needs be that offences come: but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh.

d Chap. 5.30. Mar. 9.45

8 d Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather then having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thy eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather then having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you, that in heaven their Angels do alwayes behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 e For the Sonne of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 f How think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety & nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, Verely I say unto you, he rejoyceth more of that sheep, then of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

18 Verely I say unto you, k Whatsoever ye shall binde on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again, I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the midst of them.

l Luke 17.4.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sinne against me, and I forgive him? l till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Till seven times: but untill seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdome of heaven likened unto a certain King, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to make reckoning, there was brought unto him, which ought him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants which ought him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came, and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormenters, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

2 Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorcement: 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 Receiveth little children: 16 Instructeth the young man how to attain eternall life. 20 and how to be perfect: 23 telleth his Disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God: 27 and promiseth reward to them that forsake any thing to follow him.

AND it came to passe, P that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan:

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, ¶ that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female?

5 And said, r For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and s they twain shall be one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joyned together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him; t Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardnesse of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 u And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away, doth commit adultery.

his disciples thy unto him, If the caſe of the man be ſo with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he ſaid unto them, All men cannot receive this ſaying, ſave they to whom it is given.

12 For there are ſome Eunuchs, which were ſo born from their mothers wombe; and there are ſome Eunuchs, which were made Eunuchs of men: and there be Eunuchs, which have made themſelves Eunuchs for the kingdome of heavens ſake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ [a] Then were there brought unto him little children, that he ſhould put his hands on them, and pray: and the Diſciples rebuked them.

14 But Jeſus ſaid, Suffer little children, and forbid them not to come unto me: for of ſuch is the kingdome of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ [b] And behold, one came and ſaid unto him, Good maſter, what good thing ſhall I do, that I may have eternall life?

17 And he ſaid unto him, Why calleſt thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the Commandments.

18 He ſaith unto him, Which? Jeſus ſaid, Thou ſhalt do no murder; Thou ſhalt not commit adultery; Thou ſhalt not ſteal; Thou ſhalt not bear falſe witneſſe:

19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou ſhalt love thy neighbour as thy ſelf.

20 The young man ſaith unto him, All theſe things have I kept from my youth up; What lack I yet?

21 Jeſus ſaid unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and ſell that thou haſt, and give to the poor, and thou ſhalt have treaſure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that ſaying, he went away ſorrowfull: for he had great poſſeſſions.

23 ¶ Then ſaid Jeſus unto his Diſciples; Verely I ſay unto you, that a rich man ſhall hardly enter into the kingdome of heaven.

24 And again I ſay unto you, It is eaſier for a camell to go thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

25 When his diſciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, ſaying, Who then can be ſaved?

26 But Jeſus beheld them, and ſaid unto them, With men this is impoſſible, but with God all things are poſſible.

27 ¶ [c] Then anſwered Peter, and ſaid unto him, Behold, we have forſaken all, and followed thee, what ſhall we have therefore?

28 And Jeſus ſaid unto them, Verely I ſay unto you, that ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the Sonne of man ſhall ſit in the throne of his glory, [d] ye alſo ſhall ſit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Iſrael.

29 And every one that hath forſaken houſes, or brethren, or ſiſters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Names ſake, ſhall receive an hundred fold, and ſhall inherite everlaſting life.

30 [e] But many that are firſt, ſhall be laſt, and the laſt ſhall be firſt.

CHAP. XX.

A ſimilitude of the kindneſſe of the husbandman in the vineyard, wherein that God is debtor unto no man: 17 Chriſt foretelleth his paſſion: 20 He reproveth the mother of Zebedees children, rebuking the Diſciples to be lowly: 30 And giveth two blinde men their ſight.

FOr the kingdome of heaven is like unto a man that is an houſholder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he ſent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and ſaw others ſtanding idle in the market place,

4 And ſaid unto them, Go ye alſo into the vineyard, and whatſoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again, he went out about the fifth and ninth hour, and did likewiſe.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others ſtanding idle, and ſaith unto them, Why ſtand ye here all the day idle?

7 They ſay unto him, Becauſe no man hath hired us. He ſaith unto them, Go ye alſo into the vineyard, and whatſoever is right, that ſhall ye receive.

8 So when Even was come, the lord of the vineyard ſaith unto his ſteward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the laſt unto the firſt.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a peny.

10 But when the firſt came, they ſuppoſed that they ſhould have received more, and they likewiſe received every man a peny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured againſt the good man of the houſe, 12 Saying, Theſe laſt [f] have wrought but one hour, and thou haſt made them equall unto us, which have born the burden, and heat of the day.

13 But he anſwered one of them, and ſaid, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didſt not thou agree with me for a peny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way, I will give unto this laſt even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawfull for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evill, becauſe I am good?

16 [g] So the laſt ſhall be firſt, and the firſt laſt: for many be called, but few choſen.

17 ¶ [h] And Jeſus going up to Jeruſalem, took the twelve Diſciples apart in the way, and ſaid unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jeruſalem, and the Sonne of man ſhall be betrayed unto the chief Prieſts, and unto the Scribes, and they ſhall condemne him to death:

19 [i] And ſhall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to ſcourge, and to crucifie him: and the third day he ſhall riſe again.

20 ¶ [m] Then came to him the mother of Zebedees children, with her ſonnes, worſhipping him, and deſiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he ſaid unto her, What wilt thou? She ſaith unto him, Grant that theſe my two ſons may ſit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left in thy kingdome.

22 But Jeſus anſwered, and ſaid, Ye know not what ye aſk. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I ſhall drink of; and to be baptized with the baptiſme that I am baptized with? They ſay unto him, We are able.

23 And he ſaith unto them, Ye ſhall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptiſme that I am baptized with: but to ſit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it ſhall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were ſore

23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things:

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people, for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the Publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the Publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 Hear another parable. There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

28 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 ¶ And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple, 17 curseth the fig tree, 23 puzzleth the Priests and Elders, 28 and reproveth them by the similitude of the two sons, 33 and the husbandmen, who slew their lord's sons.

AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt, the foal of an ass.

6 ¶ And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 ¶ And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased, 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus said unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany, and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it shall be done.

22 And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, and in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things:

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people, for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the Publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the Publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable. There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden, were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the high ways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the high ways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he espied there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the King to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawfull to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cesars. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and unto God the things that are Gods.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren, and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother.

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered, and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the Angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a Lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great Commandement in the Law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy minde.

38 This is the first and great Commandement.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

40 On these two Commandements hang all the Law and the Prophets.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the Temple: 3 what and how great calamities shall be: 29 the signes of his coming to judgement: 36 because that day and hour is unknown, [illegible] to watch like good servants, expecting [illegible] our masters coming.

AND r Jesus went out, and departed from the Temple, and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the Temple.

r Luke 21.5.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, [a] There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sate upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the signe of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered, and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ: and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of warres, and rumours of warres: See that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to passe, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, and there shalbe famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 [b] Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my Names sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this Gospel of the kingdome shall be preached in all the world, for a witnesse unto all nations, and then shall the end come.

15 [c] When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by [d] Daniel the Prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)

16 Then let them which be in Judea, flee into the mountains.

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field, return back to take his clothes.

19 And wo unto them that are with childe, and to them that give suck in those dayes.

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day:

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those dayes should be shortned, there should no flesh be saved: but for the Elects sake those dayes shall be shortned.

23 [e] Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there: believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signes and wonders: insomuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very Elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers, believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the East, and shineth even unto the West: so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

28 [f] For wheresoever the carkase is, there will the Eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those dayes shall the Sunne be darkned, and the Moone shall not give her light, and the Starres shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the 30 And then shall appeare the signe of the Sonne of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, [h] and they shall see the Sonne of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 [i] And he shall send his Angels with [k] a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his Elect from the four windes, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree: when [l] his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is neer, even at the doors.

34 Verely I say unto you, this generation shall not passe, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 [l] Heaven and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the Angels of heaven, but my Father onely.

37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

38 [m] For as in the dayes that were before the flood, they were eating, and drinking, marrying, and giving in marriage, untill the day that Noe entred into the Ark, 39 And knew not untill the flood came, and took them all away: so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

40 [n] Then shall two be in the field, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill: the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ [o] Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 [p] But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not, the Sonne of man cometh.

45 ¶ Who then is a faithfull and wise servant, [q] whom his lord hath made ruler over his houshold, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall finde so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evill servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming,

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken:

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an houre that he is not aware of:

51 And shall [r] cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents. 31 Also the discription of the last judgement.

THen shall the kingdome of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the Bridegroome.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the Bridegroom tarried, they all slumbred and slept.

6 And at midnight there was cry made, Behold, the Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil, for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you, but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selves.

10 And while they went to buy, the Bridegroom came, and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord open to us.

12 But he answered, and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 [b] Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day, nor the hour, wherein the Sonne of man cometh.

14 ¶ [c] For the kingdome of heaven is as a man travelling into a farre country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods:

15 And unto one he gave five [d] talents, to another two, and to another one, to every man according to his severall ability, and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lords money.

19 After a long time, the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents, behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithfull over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents, came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithfull over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered, and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothfull servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers; and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 [e] For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, shall be taken away, even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkenesse, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When the Sonne of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdome prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 ¶ For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer, and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, ¶ Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devill and his angels:

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or a thirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, In as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And [h] these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternall.

CHAP. XXVI.

The rulers conspire against Christ. 7 The woman anointeth his head. 14 Judas sayth him. 17 Christ eateth the Passover: 26 instituteth his holy Supper: 36 prayeth in the garden? 47 and being betrayed with a kisse, 57 is carried to Caiaphas, 69 and denied of Peter.

AND it came to passe, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his Disciples,

2 [i] Ye know that after two dayes is the feast of the Passover, and the Sonne of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 [k] Then assembled together the chief Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people, unto the palace of the high Priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ [l] Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came unto him a woman, having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and powred it on his head, as he sate at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 [b] For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ [b] Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief Priests, 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ [c] Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the Passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the Passover.

20 [d] Now when the Even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 [d] And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, [c] He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, [f] Jesus took bread, and [g] blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat, this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an [h] Hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, [i] All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ [k] Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful, and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: For their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And [l] while he yet spake, lo, Judas one of the twelve came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief Priests and Elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, [illegible] are thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And behold, one of them which were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of Angels?

54 But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitude, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the [illegible] of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ [l] And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to [illegible]

58 [illegible]

60 Yea, tho many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, a I am able to destroy the Temple of God, and to build it in three dayes.

62 And the high Priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witnesse against thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high Priest answered, and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ the Sonne of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said. Nevertheless I say unto you, b Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high Priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? Behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered, and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him, and others smote him with c the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophesie unto us, thou Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 Now Peter sate without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again, he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to sweare, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembred the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Judas hanging himself, 3 casteth down the money in the temple. 5 The Priests buy the potters field with it. 9 Jeremy fulfilled. 11 Jesus before Pilate. 19 Pilate admonished of his wife. 24 He washeth his hands before the people. 26 Jesus is scourged. 29 Is crowned with thorns, 34 crucified, 40 reviled, and in anguish. 46 His lamentable cry. 50 He yeeldeth up the ghost. 51 The vail of the temple rent, 52 and the dead arise. 57 Joseph buryeth the body of Jesus. 62 The Jews set a watch at the sepulchre.

1 When the morning was come, a all the chief Priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death,

2 And bound him, and led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governour.

3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief Priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the Temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief Priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsell, and bought with them the potters field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, b The field of blood unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, c whom they of the children of Israel did value:

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governour: and the governour asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief Priests and Elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witnesse against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governour marvelled greatly.

15 ¶ Now at the feast the governour was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you, Barabbas, or Jesus, which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgement seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief Priests and elders perswaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governour answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governour said, Why, what evil hath he done? but they cried out the more exceedingly, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ Then the souldiers of the governour took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of souldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

…stop this speech him, and bold me …
…him on the hands.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took off the robe from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

32 ¶ And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his croſſe.

33 ¶ And when they were come unto a place named Golgotha, that is to ſay, a place of a ſkull, 34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had taſted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, caſting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken by the Prophet, a They parted my garments among them, and upon my veſture did they caſt lots.

36 And ſitting down, they watched him there:

37 And ſet up over his head his accuſation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that paſſed by, reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And ſaying, Thou that deſtroyeſt the Temple, and buildeſt it in three days, ſave thy ſelf: If thou be the Son of God, come down from the croſs.

41 Likewiſe alſo the chief Prieſts mocking him, with the Scribes, and Elders, ſaid, 42 He ſaved others; himſelf he cannot ſave: If he be the King of Iſrael, let him now come down from the croſs, and we will believe him.

43 a He truſted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he ſaid, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves alſo, which were crucified with him, caſt the ſame in his teeth.

45 Now from the ſixth hour there was darkneſs over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jeſus cried with a loud voice, ſaying, Eli, Eli, lama ſabachthani, that is to ſay, a My God, my God, why haſt thou forſaken me?

47 Some of them that ſtood there, when they heard that, ſaid, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And ſtraightway one of them ran, and took a ſponge, a and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The reſt ſaid, Let be, let us ſee whether Elias will come to ſave him.

50 ¶ Jeſus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghoſt.

51 And behold, the vail of the Temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom; a and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent,

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of ſaints which ſlept arole, 53 And came out of the graves after his reſurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now when the Centurion, and they that were with him watching Jeſus, ſaw the earthquake, and thoſe things that were done, they feared greatly, ſaying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jeſus from Galilee, …
…miniſtered unto him:

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joſes, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 ¶ When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathæa, named Joſeph, who alſo himſelf was Jeſus' diſciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jeſus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joſeph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great ſtone to the door of the ſepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, ſitting over againſt the ſepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief Prieſts and Phariſees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver ſaid, while he was yet alive, a After three days I will riſe again.

64 Command therefore that the ſepulchre be made ſure until the third day, leſt his diſciples come by night, and ſteal him away, and ſay unto the people, He is riſen from the dead: ſo the laſt error ſhall be worſe than the firſt.

65 Pilate ſaid unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as ſure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the ſepulchre ſure, ſealing the ſtone, and ſetting a watch.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Chriſt's reſurrection is declared by an Angel to the women. 9 He himſelf appeareth unto them. 11 The high Prieſts give the ſoldiers money to ſay that his diſciples came by night and ſtole him away while they ſlept. 16 He appeareth unto the eleven in Galilee, 19 and giveth them commiſſion to preach and baptize all nations.

IN the a end of the ſabbath, as it began to dawn toward the firſt day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to ſee the ſepulchre.

2 a And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the Angel of the Lord deſcended from heaven, and came and rolled back the ſtone from the door, and ſate upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as ſnow:

4 And for fear of him, the keepers did ſhake, and became as dead men.

5 And the Angel anſwered, and ſaid unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye ſeek Jeſus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is riſen, a as he ſaid. Come, ſee the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his diſciples that he is riſen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there ſhall ye ſee him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the ſepulchre with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his diſciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his diſciples, behold, Jeſus met them, ſaying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worſhipped him.

10 Then ſaid Jeſus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there ſhall they ſee me.

11 Now when they were going, behold, ſome of the watch came into the city, and ſhewed unto the chief Prieſts all the things that were done.

CHAP. I.

¶ The office of John the Baptist. 9 Jesus is baptized, 12 tempted, 14 he preacheth, 16 calleth Peter, Andrew, James, and John, 23 healeth one that had a devil, 29 Peter, mother in law, 32 many diseased persons, 41 and cleanseth the leper.

THE beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Sonne of God;

2 As it is written in the Prophets, a Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 b The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 c John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptisme of repentance, d for the remission of sinnes.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Jewry, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sinnes.

6 e And John was f clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skinne about his loins: and he did eat locusts and wilde honey,

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier then I after me, g the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost.

9 h And it came to passe in those dayes, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway comming up out of the water, he saw the heavens i opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Sonne, k in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness fourty dayes, l tempted of Satan, and was with the wilde beasts; and the Angels ministred unto him.

14 m Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of the kingdome of God, 15 And saying, n The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the Gospel.

16 o Now when he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea, (for they were fishers.)

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the sonne of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 p And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught.

22 q And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the Scribes.

23 r And there was in their Synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, The Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 s And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 t And forthwith when they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simons wives mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lift her up, and immediately the fever left her, and she ministred unto them.

32 u And at even when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils, and suffered the devils not to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

And he preached in their Synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And assoon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosie departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away,

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thy self to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter: insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP. II.

Christ healeth one sick of the palsie, 14 Calleth Matthew from the receit of custome, 15 eateth with Publicans and sinners, 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, 23 and for plucking the ears of corn on the Sabbath day.

AND again he entred into Capernaum after some dayes, and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsie, which was born of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the presse, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsie lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsie, Sonne, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sinnes but God only?

8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit, that they so reasoned with themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsie, Thy sinnes be forgiven thee: or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath power on earth to forgive sinnes, (He saith to the sick of the palsie)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all, insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side, and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the sonne of Alpheus sitting at the receit of custome, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

15 And it came to passe, that as Jesus sate at meat in his house, many Publicans and sinners sate together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw him eate with Publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with Publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the Physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 And the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees used to fast; and they come, and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride chamber fast, while the Bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the Bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the dayes will come, when the Bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

21 No man also soweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up, taketh away from the old, and the rent is worse made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottels, else the new wine doth burst the bottels, and the wine is spilled, and the bottels will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottels.

23 And it came to passe, that he went through the corn fields on the Sabbath day, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the Sabbath day that which is not lawfull?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the high Priest, and did eate the Shewbread, which is not lawfull to eate, but for the Priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath:

28 Therefore the Sonne of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand: 19 and many other infirmities: 31 reconcileth unto him his kinsfolk 23 shutteth his twelve Apostles: 24 reconcileth his kingdom of heaven and devils by Beelzebub: 31 and sheweth who are his brother, sister, and mother.

AND he entred again into the Synagogue, and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawfull to do good on the Sabbath dayes, or to do evill? to save life, or to kill? but they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardnesse of their hearts, He saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsell with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But

ples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan, and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples that a small ship should wait on him, because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many, insomuch that they pressed upon him, for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Sonne of God.

12 And he straightly charged them, that they should not make him known.

13 b And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach:

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils.

16 And Simon he firnamed Peter.

17 And James the sonne of Zebedee, and John the brother of James (and he firnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sonnes of thunder)

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the sonne of Alphæus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Cananite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went c into a house.

20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his d friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him, for they said, He is beside himself.

22 ¶ And the Scribes which came down from Jerusalem, said, e He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kingdome be divided against it self, that kingdome cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against it self, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand but hath an end.

27 No man can enter into a strong mans house, and spoil his goods, except he will first binde the strong man, and then he will spoil his house.

28 f Verily I say unto you, All sinnes shall be forgiven unto the sonnes of men, and blasphemies, wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the holy Ghost, hath never forgiveneſſe, but is in danger of eternall damnation.

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 ¶ g There came then his brethren, and his mother, and standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sate about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren.

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the growing secretly. 30 and of the mustard seed. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea.

AND h he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entred into a ship, and sate in the sea: and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken, Behold, there went out a sower to sowe:

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the aire came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth: and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the Sonne was up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yeelded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yeeld fruit that sprang up, and increased, and brought forth some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you is it given to know the mystery of the kingdome of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 i That seeing they may see, and not perceive, and hearing they may hear, and not understand, lest at any time they should be converted, and their sinnes should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? And how then will you know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown, but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground, who when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladnesse;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward when affliction or persecution ariseth for the words sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns: such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, k and the deceitfulnesse of riches, and the lusts of other things entring in, choke the word, and it becommeth unfruitfull.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground, such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ l And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a m bushell, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 n For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested: neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have eares to hear, let him hear.

24 And he ſaid unto them, Take heed what you hear: a With what meaſure ye mete, it ſhall be meaſured to you: And unto you that hear, ſhall more be given.
25 b For he that hath, to him ſhall be given:
and he that hath not, from him ſhall be taken, even that which he hath.
26 ¶ And he ſaid, So is the kingdome of God, as if a man ſhould caſt ſeed into the ground, 27 And ſhould ſleep, and riſe night and day, and the ſeed ſhould ſpring, and grow up, he knoweth not how.
28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her ſelf; firſt the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.
29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the ſickle, becauſe the harveſt is come.
30 ¶ And he ſaid, c Whereunto ſhall we liken the kingdome of God? Or with what compariſon ſhall we compare it?
31 It is like a grain of muſtard ſeed, which when it is ſowe in the earth, is leſſe then all the ſeeds that be in the earth.
32 But when it is ſowne, it groweth up, and becometh greater then all herbs, and ſhooteth out great branches, ſo that the fowls of the air may lodge under the ſhadow of it.
33 d And with many ſuch parables ſpake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.
34 But without a parable ſpake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his Diſciples.
35 e And the ſame day, when the Even was come, he ſaith unto them, Let us paſſe over unto the other ſide.
36 And when they had ſent away the multitude, they took him, even as he was in the ſhip, and there were alſo with him other little ſhips.
37 And there aroſe a great ſtorm of winde, and the waves beat into the ſhip, ſo that it was now full.
38 And he was in the hinder part of the ſhip aſleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and ſay unto him, Maſter, careſt thou not that we periſh?
39 And he aroſe, and rebuked the winde, and ſaid unto the ſea, Peace, be ſtill: and the winde ceaſed, and there was a great calm.
40 And he ſaid unto them, Why are ye ſo fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?
41 And they feared exceedingly, and ſaid one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the winde and the ſea obey him?

CHAP. V.

1 Chriſt delivering the poſſeſſed of the legion of devils, 13 they enter into the ſwine. 25 He healeth the iſſue of the bloudy iſſue. 35 and raiſeth from death
Jairus his daughter.

AND f they came over unto the other ſide of the ſea, into the country of the Gadarenes.
2 And when he was come out of the ſhip, immediately there met him out of the tombes, a man with an unclean ſpirit,
3 Who had his dwelling among the tombes, and no man could bind him, no not with chaine:
4 Becauſe that he had been often bound with fetters and chaines, and the chaines had been plucked aſunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.
5 And alwayes night and day he was in the mountaines, and in the tombes, crying and cutting himſelf with ſtones.
6 But when he ſaw Jeſus afarre off, he ran and worſhipped him,
7 And cryed with a loud voice, and ſaid, What have I to do with thee, Jeſus, thou Sonne of the moſt high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.
8 (For he ſaid unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean ſpirit.)
9 And he aſked him, What is thy Name? And he anſwered, ſaying, My name is Legion: for we are many.
10 And he beſought him much, that he would not ſend them away out of the country.
11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountaines a great herd of ſwine, feeding.
12 And all the devils beſought him, ſaying, Send us into the ſwine, that we may enter into them.
13 And forthwith Jeſus gave them leave. And the unclean ſpirits went out, and entred into the ſwine, and the herd ran violently down a ſteep place into the ſea, (they were about two thouſand) and were choked in the ſea.
14 And they that fed the ſwine, fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to ſee what it was that was done.
15 And they come to Jeſus, and ſee him that was poſſeſſed with the devill, and had the Legion, ſitting, and clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afraid.
16 And they that ſaw it, told them how it befell to him that was poſſeſſed with the devill, and alſo concerning the ſwine.
17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coaſts.
18 And when he was come into the ſhip, he that had been poſſeſſed with the devill prayed him that he might be with him.
19 Howbeit Jeſus ſuffered him not, but ſaith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compaſſion on thee.
20 And he departed, and began to publiſh in Decapolis, how great things Jeſus had done for him: and all men did marvell.
21 And when Jeſus was paſſed over againe by ſhip unto the other ſide, much people gathered unto him, and he was nigh unto the ſea.
22 h And behold, there cometh one of the rulers h Matth.
of the Synagogue, Jairus by name, and when he 9.18.
ſaw him, he fell at his feet,
23 And beſought him greatly, ſaying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death, I pray thee, come, and lay thy hands on her, that ſhe may be healed, and ſhe ſhall live.
24 And Jeſus went with him, and much people followed him, and thronged him.
25 And a certain woman which had an iſſue of blood twelve yeers,
26 And had ſuffered many things of many Phyſicians, and had ſpent all that ſhe had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worſe, 27 When ſhe had heard of Jeſus, came in the preaſſe behinde, and touched his garment.
28 For ſhe ſaid, If I may touch but his cloathes,
I ſhall be whole.
29 And ſtraightway the fountain of her blood was dryed up: and ſhe felt in her body that ſhe was healed of that plague.
30 And Jeſus immediately knowing in himſelf that vertue had gone out of him, turned him about in the preaſſe, and ſaid, Who touched my cloathes?
31 And his Diſciples ſaid unto him, Thou ſeeſt
the multitude thronging thee, and ſayeſt thou,
Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the Ruler of the Synagogues house, certain which said, Thy daughter is dead, why troublest thou the master any further?

36 Assoon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the Ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the Ruler of the Synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damosell is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn: but when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damosell, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damosell was lying.

41 And he took the damosell by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damosell, (I say unto thee) arise.

42 And straightway the damosell arose, and walked: for she was of the age of twelve years: and they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly, that no man should know it: and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

1 Christ is contemned of his countreymen. 7 He giveth the twelve power over unclean spirits. 14 Divers opinions of Christ. 18 John Baptist is beheaded, 29 and buried. 30 The Apostles return from preaching. 34 The miracle of five loaves and two fishes. 45 Christ walketh on the sea: 53 and healeth all that touch him.

AND a he went out from thence, and came into his own countrey, and his Disciples follow him.

a Matth. 13.54.

2 And when the Sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the Synagogue: and many hearing him, were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdome is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

b John 4.44.

3 Is not this the carpenter, the sonne of Mary, the brother of James and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

c Matth. 9.35. Luke 13.31. d Matth. 10.1.

4 But Jesus said unto them, b A Prophet is not without honour, but in his own countrey, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

e The word signifieth a piece of brasse money, in value somewhat lesse than a farthing. Mat. 10.9. Luke 9.3. & 12.59.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. c And he went round about the villages teaching.

7 d And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth, by two and two, and gave them power over unclean spirits,

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staffe only: no scrip, no bread, no e money in their purse;

9 But be shod with sandals: and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 f And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, g shake off the dust under your feet, for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Sodome and Gomorrha in the day of judgement, than for that city.

12 And they went out and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, h and anointed with oyl many that were sick, and healed them.

14 i And King Herod heard of him, (for his name was spread abroad) and he said that John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a Prophet, or as one of the Prophets.

16 k But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John whom I beheaded, he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife, for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, l It is not lawfull for thee to have thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had m a quarrell against him, and would have killed him, but she could not.

20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man, and an holy, and n observed him: and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to the lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee:

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sate with him, o the King said unto the damosell, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdome.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the King, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the King was exceeding sorry: yet for his oaths sake, and for their sakes which sate with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the King sent p an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damosell, and the damosell gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corps, and laid it in a tomb.

30 q And the Apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a...

were many coming and going, and they had not leisure so much as to eat.

32 ¶ And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and out-went them, and came together unto him.

34 [b] And Jesus when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 [c] And when the day was now farre spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is farre passed.

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred [d] peny worth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go, and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grasse.

40 And they sat down in ranks by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves, were about five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before [e] unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 [f] And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing (for the winde was contrary unto them:) and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out.

50 (For they all saw him, and were troubled) and immediatly he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship, and the winde ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondred.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves, for their heart was hardened.

53 ¶ And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Genesareth, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran thorow that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds, those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entred, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched [h] him, were made whole. h Or, it.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Pharisees finde fault at the disciples for eating with unwashen hands. 3 They break the commandment of God by the traditions of men. 14 What defileth not the man. 24 He healeth the Syrophenitian woman's daughter of an unclean spirit. 31 and one that was deaf and stammered in his speech.

THen [i] came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the Scribes, which came from Jerusalem. i Matth. 15. 1.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with [k] defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault. k Or, common.

3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [l] oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. l Or, diligently, in the original, with the fist: The ceremonial, up to the elbow.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and [m] pots, brazen vessels, and of [n] tables. m Sextarius is about a pint and an half. n Or, beds.

5 Then the Pharisees and Scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you, hypocrites, as it is written, [o] This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is farre from me. o Isa. 29. 13. mat. 15. 8.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots, and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye [p] reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. p Or, frustrate.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is [q] Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me: he shall be free. q Matth. 15. 5.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother:

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ [r] And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand. r Matth. 15. 10.

15 There is nothing from without a man that entring into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when [s] he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. s Or, Jesus.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive that whatsoever thing from without entreth into the man, it cannot defile him, 19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

a Gen. 6. 5. & 8. 21. 21 a For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evill thoughts, adulteries, fornications, b Matth. 15. 19. 22 murthers, b Theefts, covetousnesse, wickednesse, deceit, lasciviousnesse, an evill eye, blasphemie, pride, foolishnesse:

23 All these evill things come from within, and defile the man.

c Matth. 15. 21. 24 ¶ c And from thence he arose and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entred into an house, and would have no man know it, but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet.

d Or, Gentile. 26 (The woman was a d Greek, a Syrophenician by nation:) and she besought him that he would cast forth the devill out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the childrens bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes Lord, yet the dogges under the table eat of the childrens crumbes.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying, go thy way, the devill is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devill gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, thorow the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech: and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue, 34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto h'm, Ephphata, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it, 37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously: 10 refuseth to give a signe to the Pharisees: 14 admonisheth his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod: 22 giveth sight unto the blinde: 27 acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again: 34 and exhorteth to patience in persecution for the profession of the Gospell.

p Matth. 15. 32. IN those dayes the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude because they have now been with me three dayes, and have nothing to eat.

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from farre.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the wildernesse?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up, of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand, and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entred into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 q And the Pharisees came forth, and began q Matth. 16. 1. to question with him, seeking of him a signe from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, Why doth this generation seek after a signe? Verily I say unto you, There shall no signe be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entring into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ g Now the disciples had forgotten to take g Matth. 16. 5. bread, neither had they in the ship with them more then one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is h because we have no bread. h Matth. 16. 7.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? Perceive ye not yet, neither understand? Have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand.

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida, and they bring a blinde man unto him, and besought him to touch him:

23 And he took the blinde man by the hand, and led him out of the town, and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him, if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ i And Jesus went out, and his disciples, i Matth. 16. 13. into the townes of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the Prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejelders, and of the chief Priests, and Scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behinde me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, a Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his crosse and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospels, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 b Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words in this adulterous and sinfull generation, of him also shall the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy Angels.

CHAP. IX.

1 Jesus is transfigured. 11 He instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elias: 14 Casteth forth a devil, and deaf spirit: 30 Foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 Exhorteth his disciples to humility: 38 forbidding them not to prohibite such as are not against them, nor to give offence to any of the faithfull.

AND he said unto them, c Verely I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdome of God come with power.

2 ¶ d And after six dayes, Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow: so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered, and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say, for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Sonne, hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man, what things they had seen, till the Sonne of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another, what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered, and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things: and e how it is written of the Sonne of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, that Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ f And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the Scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered, and said, Master I have brought unto thee my Sonne, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him, and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithlesse generation, how long shall I be with you, how long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him, and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.

21 And he asked his father, how long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the childe cryed out and said with teares, Lord, I believe, help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him, and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kinde can come forth by nothing, but by prayer, and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed thorow Galilee, and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said, unto them, The Sonne of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ h And he came to Capernaum, and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among your selves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sate down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a childe, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ i And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, he followeth not us, and we forbade him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not, a for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my Name, that can lightly speak evill of me.

40 For he that is not against us, is on our part.

41 b For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my Name, because ye belong to Christ: verely I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 c And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 d And if thy hand * offend thee, cut it off: It is better for thee to enter into life maimed, then having two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 ‖ Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, then having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye g offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the Kingdome of God with one eye, then having two eies, to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, * and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 ‖ Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltnesse, wherewith will you season it? Have salt in your selves, and have peace one with another.

CHAP. X.

1 He teacheth what the Pharisees touching divorcement: 13 Blesseth the children that are brought unto him: 17 Resolveth a rich man how he may inherit life everlasting: 23 To the Disciples of the danger of riches: 28 promiseth rewards to them that for sake any thing for the Gospel: 32 Foreshewith his death and rising again: 35 Biddeth the two ambitious suiters to think rather of suffering with him: 46 And restoreth to sight Bartimeus his sight.

1 ‖ AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again, and as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered, and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered, and said unto them, For the hardnesse of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife,

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joyned together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his Disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, ‖ Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ m And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them, and his Disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdome of God.

15 Verely I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the Kingdome of God as a little childe, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his armes, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ n And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternall life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? There is no man good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the Commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witnesse, Defraud not, Honour thy father, and mother.

20 And he answered, and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: Goe thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, take up the crosse, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jesus looked round about, and said unto his Disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the Kingdome of God?

24 And the Disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the Kingdome of God?

25 It is easier for a camell to go through the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the Kingdome of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them, said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ o Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verely I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake, and the Gospels, 30 But he shall receive an hundred fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternall life.

31 ‖ But many that are first, shall be last, and the last, first.

32 ¶ q And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them, and they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraid: and he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should befall unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Sonne of man shall be delivered unto the chief Priests, and unto the Scribes, and condemne him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mocke him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit vpon him, and shall kill him, and the third day he shall rise againe.

35 ¶ a And Iames and Iohn the sonne of Zebedee came vnto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for vs whatsoeuer we shall desire.

36 And he said vnto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said vnto him, Grant vnto vs that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Iesus said vnto them, Ye know not what ye aske: Can ye drinke of the cup that I drinke of? and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with?

39 And they said vnto him, We can. And Iesus said vnto them, Ye shall indeed drinke of the cup that I drinke of: and with the baptisme that I am baptized withall, shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to giue, but it shall be giuen to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Iames and Iohn.

42 But Iesus called them to him, and saith vnto them, b Ye know that they which c are accounted to rule ouer the Gentiles, exercise lordship ouer them: and their great ones exercise authority vpon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoeuer will be great among you, shall be your Minister:

44 And whosoeuer of you will be the chiefest, shall be seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be ministred vnto, but to minister, and to giue his life a ransome for many.

46 ¶ d And they came to Iericho: and as he went out of Iericho with his Disciples, and a great number of people, blinde Bartimeus, the sonne of Timeus, sate by the high wayes side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Iesus thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cryed the more a great deal, Thou Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

49 And Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be called, and they call the blinde man, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort, rise, he calleth thee.

50 And he casting away his garment, rose and came to Iesus.

51 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, What wilt thou that I should do vnto thee? The blinde man said vnto him, Lord, that I might receiue my sight.

52 And Iesus said vnto him, Go thy way, thy faith hath e made thee whole: and immediatly he receiued his sight, and followed Iesus in the way.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ rideth with triumph into Ierusalem: 12 curseth the fruitlesse figge tree: 15 purgeth the Temple: 20 exhorteth his Disciples to stedfastnesse of faith, and to forgiue their brethren: 27 and defendeth the lawfulnesse of his calling by the witnesse of Iohn, who was sent from God.

AND f when they came nigh to Ierusalem, vnto Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his Disciples,

2 And saith vnto them, Go into the village ouer against you, and assoone as ye be entred into it, ye shall finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man sate, loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him, and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met: and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there, said vnto them, What do ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said vnto them euen as Iesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sate vpon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut downe branches of the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

10 Blessed be the kingdome of our father Dauid, that cometh in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the Highest.

11 And Iesus entred into Ierusalem, and into the Temple, and when he had looked round about vpon all things, and now the euentide was come, he went out vnto Bethanie with the twelue.

12 ¶ And on the morrow when they were come from Bethanie, he was hungry.

13 g And seeing a figtree afarre off hauing leaues, he came, if haply he might finde any thing thereon, and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figs was not yet. g Matthe. 21.19.

14 And Iesus answered, and said vnto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for euer. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ h And they come to Ierusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doues, h Matthe. 21.12.

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessell thorow the Temple.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye haue made it a denne of theeues.

18 And the Scribes and chiefe Priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when Even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ i And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the figtree dried vp from the roots. i Matthe. 21.19.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance, saith vnto him, Master, behold, the figtree which thou cursedst, is withered away.

22 And Iesus answering, saith vnto them, k Haue faith in God. k Or, haue the faith of God.

23 For verely I say vnto you, That whosoeuer shall say vnto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall beleeue that those things which he saith shall come to passe, he shall haue whatsoeuer he saith.

24 Therefore I say vnto you, l What things soeuer ye desire when ye pray, beleeue that ye receiue them, and ye shall haue them. l Matthe. 7.7. & 21.22. Luke 11.9.

25 And when ye stand praying, m forgiue, if ye haue ought against any: that your Father also which is in heauen, may forgiue you your trespasses. m Matthe. 6.14.

26 But if you do not forgiue, neither will your your Father which is in heaven, forgive your trespasses.

a Matth. 21.23. 27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the Scribes, and the elders, 28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

b Or, thing. 29 And Jesus answered, and said unto them, I will also ask of you one b question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things:

30 The baptisme of John, was it from heaven, or of men? Answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men, they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a Prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering, saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

1 In a parable of the vineyard let out to unthankfull husbandmen, Christ foretelleth the reprobation of the Jews, and the calling of the Gentiles. 13 He evicteth the fraud of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Cesar: 18 Convinceth the errour of the Sadducts, who denyed the resurrection: 28 resolveth the Scribe who questioned of the first Commandment: 35 refuteth the opinion that the Scribes held of Christ: 38 Bidding the people to beware of their ambition, and hypocrisie: 41 And commendeth the poor widow for her two mites above all.

c Matth. 21.33. AND c he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a farre countrey.

2 And at the season, he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again, he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another, and him they killed: and many others, beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one sonne his welbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my sonne.

7 But those husbandmen said amongst themselves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the Lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

d Psal. 118.22. 10 d And have ye not read this Scripture? The stone which the builders rejected, is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and [illegible] him, and went their way.

13 ¶ e And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawfull to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he knowing their hypocrisie, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a f peny that I may see it.

f Or, penny.

16 And they brought it: and he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesars.

17 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesars: and to God the things that are Gods. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ g Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection, and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a mans brother die, and leave his wife behinde him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed, and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Do ye not therefore erre, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the Angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly erre.

28 ¶ h And one of the Scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him which is the first Commandment of all.

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the Commandments is, Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy minde, and with all thy strength: This is the first Commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self: there is none other Commandment greater than these.

32 And the Scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not the kingdome of God. And no man after that durſt aſk him any queſtion.

27 ¶ [a] And Jeſus anſwered, and ſaid, while he taught in the Temple, How ſay the Scribes that Chriſt is the Sonne of David?

36 For David himſelf ſaid by the holy Ghoſt, The Lord ſaid to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footſtool.

37 David therefore himſelf calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his ſonne? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he ſaid unto them in his doctrine, [b] Beware of the Scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love ſalutations in the market places,

39 And the chief ſeats in the Synagogues, and the uppermoſt rooms at feaſts:

40 [c] Which devour widows houſes, and for a pretence make long prayers: theſe ſhall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ [d] And Jeſus ſat over againſt the treaſury, and beheld how the people caſt [e] money into the treaſury: and many that were rich caſt in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and ſhe threw in two [f] mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his diſciples, and ſaith unto them, Verily I ſay unto you, that this poor widow hath caſt more in, then all they which have caſt into the treaſury.

44 For all they did caſt in of their abundance: but ſhe of her want did caſt in all that ſhe had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Chriſt foretelleth the deſtruction of the Temple: 9 the perſecutions for the Goſpel: 10 that the Goſpel muſt be preached to all nations: 14 that great calamities ſhall happen to the Jews: 24 and the manner of his coming to judgement: 32 the hour whereof being known to none, every man is to watch and pray, that we be not found unprovided, when he cometh to each one particularly by death.

AND [g] as he went out of the Temple, one of his diſciples ſaith unto him, Maſter, ſee what manner of ſtones, and what buildings are here.

2 And Jeſus anſwering, ſaid unto him, Seeſt thou theſe great buildings? there ſhall not be left one ſtone upon another, that ſhall not be thrown down.

3 And as he ſat upon the mount of Olives, over againſt the Temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew aſked him privately;

4 [h] Tell us, when ſhall theſe things be? And what ſhall be the ſigne when all theſe things ſhall be fulfilled?

5 And Jeſus anſwering them, began to ſay, Take heed leſt any man deceive you.

6 For many ſhall come in my Name, ſaying, I am Chriſt: and ſhall deceive many.

7 And when ye ſhall hear of warres, and rumours of warres, be ye not troubled: For ſuch things muſt needs be; but the end ſhall not be yet.

8 For nation ſhall riſe againſt nation, and kingdome againſt kingdome: and there ſhall be earthquakes in divers places, and there ſhall be famines, and troubles: theſe are the beginnings of ſorrowes.

9 ¶ But take heed to your ſelves: for they ſhall deliver you up to councels, and in the Synagogues ye ſhall be beaten, and ye ſhall be brought before rulers and Kings for my ſake, for a teſtimonie againſt them.

10 And the Goſpel muſt firſt be publiſhed among all nations.

11 [i] But when they ſhall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought before hand what ye ſhall ſpeak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatſoever ſhall be given you in that houre, that ſpeak ye: for it is not ye that ſpeak, but the holy Ghoſt. i Matth. 10.19.

12 Now the brother ſhall betray the brother to death, and the father the ſonne: and children ſhall riſe up againſt their parents, and ſhall cauſe them to be put to death.

13 And ye ſhall be hated of all men for my Names ſake: but he that ſhall endure unto the end, the ſame ſhall be ſaved.

14 ¶ [l] But when ye ſhall ſee the abomination of deſolation ſpoken of by Daniel the Prophet, ſtanding where it ought not (let him that readeth underſtand) then let them that be in Jodea, flee to the mountains: l Matth. 24.15.

15 And let him that is on the houſe top, not go down into the houſe, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his houſe.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But wo to them that are with childe, and to them that give ſuck in thoſe dayes.

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in thoſe dayes ſhall be affliction, ſuch as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither ſhall be.

20 And except that the Lord had ſhortned thoſe dayes, no fleſh ſhould be ſaved: but for the elects ſake whom he hath choſen, he hath ſhortned the dayes.

21 [m] And then, if any man ſhall ſay to you, Lo, here is Chriſt, or lo, he is there: believe him not. m Matth. 24.23.

22 For falſe chriſts and falſe prophets ſhall riſe, and ſhall ſhew ſignes and wonders, to ſeduce, if it were poſſible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ [n] But in thoſe dayes, after that tribulation, the Sunne ſhall be darkned, and the Moon ſhall not give her light. n Matth. 24.29.

25 And the Starres of heaven ſhall fall, and the powers that are in heaven ſhall be ſhaken.

26 And then ſhall they ſee the Sonne of man coming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

27 And then ſhall he ſend his Angels, and ſhall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermoſt part of the earth, to the uttermoſt part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree. When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that ſummer is neer:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye ſhall ſee theſe things come to paſſe, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I ſay unto you, that this generation ſhall not paſſe, till all theſe things be done.

31 Heaven and earth ſhall paſſe away: but my words ſhall not paſſe away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no not the Angels which are in heaven, neither the Sonne, but the Father.

33 [o] Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. o Matth. 24.42.

34 For the ſonne of man is as a man taking a farre journey, who left his houſe, and gave authority to his ſervants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch:

35 Watch

37 Watch ye therefore (for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning)

36 Lest coming suddenly, he finde you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 Precious ointment is powred on his head by a woman. 10 Judas selleth his master for money. 12 Christ himself foreshewes how he shall be betrayed of one of his disciples: 22 after the Passover prepared and eaten, instituteth his supper: 26 foreshewes afterward the flight of all his disciples, and Peters denial. 43 Judas betrayeth him with a kisse. 46 He is apprehended in the garden. 53 falsly accused, and impiously condemned of the Jews Counsell: 65 shamefully abused by them: 66 and thrice denied of Peter.

a Matth. 26.2. AFter [a] two dayes was the feast of the Passeover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief Priests and the Scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

b Matth. 26.6. 3 ¶ [b] And being in Bethanie in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaster box of ointment of [c] spikenard very precious, and she brake the box, and powred it on his head.

c Or, pure nard, or liquid nard.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

d Exo. Matth. 18. 28. 5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [d] pence, and have been given to the poor: and they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, why trouble you her? She hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you alwayes, and whensoever ye will, ye may do them good: but me ye have not alwayes.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this Gospel shalbe preached thorowout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

e Matth. 26.14. 10 ¶ [e] And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief Priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

f Matth. 26.17. g Or, fitteth. 12 ¶ [f] And the first day of unleavened bread, when they [g] killed the Passeover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go, and prepare, that thou maiest eat the Passeover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the Passeover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the Passeover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 h And as they sat, and did eat, Jesus said, Verily, I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me, shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowfull, and to say unto him, one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Sonne of man indeed goeth as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: Good were it for that man, if he had never been born.

22 ¶ [i] And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the Vine, untill that day that I drink it new in the kingdome of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an [k] hymne, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 [l] And Jesus said unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 [m] But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 [n] And they came to a place which was named Gethsemani, and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavie, 34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowfull unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, the hour might passe from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me: Nevertheless not that I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? Couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: The spirit truely is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavie) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come, behold, the Sonne of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go, Lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ [o] And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief Priests, and the Scribes, and

...the that betrayed him, gave them a ...ken, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same ...e him, and lead him away safely.
...and straightway came to him, saying, Master, ...ster; and kissed him.
...And they laid their hands on him, and ...
...And one of them that stood by, drew a ...and smote a servant of the high Priest, and ...his ear.
...And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ...out as against a thief, with swords and ...staves to take me?
...I was daily with you in the Temple, teaching, ...and ye took me not: but the Scriptures must ...filled.
...And they all forsook him, and fled.
...And there followed him a certain young ...having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; ...the young men laid hold on him:
...And he left the linen cloth, and fled from ...naked.
...And they led Jesus away to the high ...and with him were assembled all the chief ...and the Elders, and the Scribes.
...And Peter followed him afar off, even into ...palace of the high Priest: and he sate with the ...servants, and warmed himself at the fire.
...Now the chief Priests, and all the Council, ...sought for witness against Jesus, to put him to ...but found none.
...For many bare false witness against him, ...their witness agreed not together.
...And there arose certain, and bare false wit...against him, saying,
...We heard him say, I will destroy this ...that is made with hands, and within ...days I will build another made without ...hand.
...But neither so did their witness agree together.
...And the high Priest stood up in the midst, ...asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? ...what is it which these witness against thee?
...But he held his peace, and answered nothing. ...Again the high Priest asked him, and said ...him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the ...blessed?
...And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the ...Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, ...coming in the clouds of heaven.
...Then the high Priest rent his clothes, and ...What need we any further witnesses?
...Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ...? And they all condemned him to be guilty of ...death.
...And some began to spit on him, and to cover ...his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, ...Prophesie: and the servants did strike him with ...the palms of their hands.
...And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high Priest:
...And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.
...But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.
...And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.
...And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilæan, and thy speech agreeth thereto.
...But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.
...And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to remembrance the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

1 Jesus is brought bound, and accused before Pilate. 15 Upon the clamour of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified. 17 He is crowned with thorns, 19 spit on, and mocked, 21 Simon is to bear his cross: 27 betwixt two thieves, 29 suffereth the triumphing reproaches of the Jewes. 39 But confessed by the Centurion to be the Sonne of God: 43 and is honourably buried by Joseph.

AND straightway in the morning the chief Priests held a consultation with the Elders and Scribes, and the whole Council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.
2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.
3 And the chief Priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.
4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.
5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.
6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.
7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.
8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?
10 (For he knew that the chief Priests had delivered him for envy.)
11 But the chief Priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.
12 And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?
13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? and they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.
15 And so Pilate willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 And the souldiers led him away into the hall, called Prætorium, and they call together the whole band.
17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews.
19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit on him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.
20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.
21 And [illegible]

mon called Simon, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrhe: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucifie two thieves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbred with the transgressours.

Isaiah 53.12.

29 And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 30 Save thy self, and come down from the crosse.

31 Likewise also the chief Priests mocking, said among themselves with the Scribes, He saved others, himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the crosse, that we may see, and believe: And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

Matth. 27.45.

33 ¶ And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkenesse over the whole land, until the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cryed with a loud voice, saying, [b] Eloi, Eloi, lamasabachthani? which is being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone, let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus cryed with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the vail of the Temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottome.

39 ¶ And when the Centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cryed out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 There were also women looking on afarre off, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the lesse, and of Joses, and Salome:

Luke 8.3.

41 Who also when he was in Galilee, [c] followed him, and ministred unto him, and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

Matth. 27.57.

42 ¶ [d] And now when the Even was come, (because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath)

43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable Counseller, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead, and calling unto him the Centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the Centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre, which was hewen out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAP. XVI.

1 An Angel doth tell the resurrection of Christ to three women. 9 Christ himself appeareth to Mary Magdalene: 12 to two going into the country. 14 Then to the Apostles: 15 whom he sendeth forth to preach the Gospel: 19 and ascendeth to heaven.

AND when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 [e] And very early in the morning, the first day of the week they came unto the sepulchre, at the rising of the Sunne:

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 (And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away) for it was very great.

5 [f] And entring into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment, and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his Disciples and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled, and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man, for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, [h] he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ [i] Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sate [k] at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardnesse of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 [l] And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; [m] but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

17 And these signes shall follow them that believe; [n] In my Name shall they cast out devils, [o] they shall speak with new tongues, 18 [p] They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; [q] they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sate on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signes following.

¶ THE GOSPEL ACCORDING to Saint LUKE.

CHAP. I.

The preface of Luke to the whole Gospel. 5 The conception of John the Baptist, 26 and of Christ. The prophesy of Elizabeth, and of Mary concerning Christ. 57 The nativity, and circumcision of John. 67 The prophesy of Zachary both of Christ, and of John.

Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye witnesses, and Ministers of the word:

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ There was in the dayes of Herod, the King of Judea, a certain Priest, named Zacharias, of the course of Abia, and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the Commandements and Ordinances of the Lord, blameless.

7 And they had no children, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in yeers.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the Priests office before God in the order of his course, 9 According to the custome of the Priests office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the Temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an Angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the Altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the Angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a Sonne, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoyce at his birth:

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine, nor strong drink, and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, even from his mother's wombe.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto the children, and the disobedient [c] to the wisdome of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the Angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in yeers.

19 And the Angel answering, said unto him, I am Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Temple: for he beckned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to passe, that as soon as the dayes of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid her self five moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the Angel came in unto her, and said, Hail thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: Blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the Angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy wombe, and bring forth a Sonne, and shalt call his name Jesus.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Sonne of the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his Kingdome there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the Angel answered and said unto her, The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the highest shall overshadow thee: Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a sonne in her old age, and this is the sixth moneth with her who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be unpossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word. And the Angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth.

41 And it came to passe, that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her wombe, and Elisabeth was filled with the holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy wombe.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, as soon as the voice of ...Lord performed to them which believed, and the child leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said: My soul doth magnifie the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm, he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, 55 As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elizabeth's full time came, that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her, and they rejoyced with her.

59 And it came to passe that on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the childe, and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so, but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred also is called by this name.

62 And they made signes to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John; and they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them, and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea.

66 And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of childe shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying, 68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David.

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us,

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy Covenant,

73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before him all the dayes of our life.

76 And thou child shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sinnes,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us, 79 To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the childe grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts, till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAP. II.

1 Augustus taxeth all the Roman Empire. 4 The nativity of Christ: 8 One Angel reveileth it to the shepherds: 13 Many sing praises to God for it. 21 Christ is circumcised. 22 He is purified: 28 Simeon and Anna prophesie of Christ, 40 who increaseth in wisdome, questioneth in the Temple with the doctors, 51 and is obedient to his parents.

AND it came to passe in those dayes, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governour of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with childe.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished, that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first borne sonne, and wrapped him in swadling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the Inne.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And lo, the Angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 And the Angel said unto them, Fear not: For behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe unto you; Ye shall finde the Babe wrapped in swadling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

15 And it came to passe, as the Angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to passe, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this Childe.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

[illegible] their days,
[illegible] departed not from the Temple,
[illegible] and prayers night
[illegible] coming in at that instant, gave [illegible] unto the Lord, and spake of him
[illegible] that looked for redemption in Jeru-[illegible] when they had performed all things [illegible] to the Law of the Lord, they returned into [illegible] to their own city Nazareth.
[illegible] and the child grew, and waxed strong in [illegible] with wisdom: and the grace of God
[illegible] him.
[illegible] to Jerusalem every [illegible] Passover.
[illegible] when he was twelve years old,
[illegible] to the custom of the feast.
[illegible] when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned,
[illegible] child Jesus tarried still in Jerusalem; and Joseph [illegible] his mother knew not of it.
[illegible] they supposed him to have been in the company, [illegible] a day's journey; and they sought him among their kindred [illegible] acquaintance.
[illegible] they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.
[illegible] it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.
47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.
48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.
49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?
50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.
51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.
52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAP. III.

1 The preaching and baptism of John. 15 He testifieth of Christ. 20 He is imprisoned. 21 Christ baptized, receiveth testimony from heaven, and the age and genealogy of Christ from Joseph upwards.

NOw in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being Tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Ituræa, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas and Caiaphas being the High Priests, the word of God came unto John the Son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the Prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

13 And he ſaid vnto them, Exact no more then that which is appointed you.

14 And the ſouldiers likewiſe demanded of him, ſaying, And what ſhall we do? And he ſaid vnto them, a Do violence to no man, neither accuſe any falſly, and be content with your b wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men c muſed in their hearts of Iohn, whether he were the Chriſt, or not:

16 Iohn anſwered, ſaying vnto them all, I indeed baptize you with water, but one mightier then I cometh, the latchet of whoſe ſhoes I am not worthy to vnlooſe, he ſhall baptize you with the holy Ghoſt, and with fire.

17 Whoſe fanne is in his hand, and he will thorowly purge his floore, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaffe he will burn with fire vnquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he vnto the people.

19 f But Herod the Tetrarch being reproved by him, for Herodias his brothers Philips wife, and for all the euils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this aboue all, that he ſhut vp Iohn in priſon.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, g it came to paſſe that Ieſus alſo being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened:

22 And the holy Ghoſt deſcended in a bodily ſhape like a doue vpon him, and a voice came from heaven, which ſaid, h Thou art my beloued Sonne, in thee I am well pleaſed.

23 And Ieſus himſelfe began to be about thirty yeeres of age, being (as was ſuppoſed) the ſonne of Ioſeph, which was the ſonne of Heli,

24 Which was the ſonne of Matthat, which was the ſonne of Leui, which was the ſonne of Melchi, which was the ſonne of Ianna, which was the ſonne of Ioſeph,

25 Which was the ſonne of Mattathias, which was the ſonne of Amos, which was the ſonne of Naum, which was the ſonne of Eſli, which was the ſonne of Nagge,

26 Which was the ſonne of Maath, which was the ſonne of Mattathias, which was the ſonne of Semei, which was the ſonne of Ioſeph, which was the ſonne of Iuda,

27 Which was the ſonne of Ioanna, which was the ſonne of Rheſa, which was the ſonne of Zorobabel, which was the ſonne of Salathiel, which was the ſonne of Neri,

28 Which was the ſonne of Melchi, which was the ſonne of Addi, which was the ſonne of Coſam, which was the ſonne of Elmodam, which was the ſonne of Er,

29 Which was the ſonne of Ioſe, which was the ſonne of Eliezer, which was the ſonne of Iorim, which was the ſonne of Matthat, which was the ſonne of Leui,

30 Which was the ſonne of Simeon, which was the ſonne of Iuda, which was the ſonne of Ioſeph, which was the ſonne of Ionan, which was the ſonne of Eliakim,

31 Which was the ſonne of Melea, which was the ſonne of Menam, which was the ſonne of Mattatha, which was the ſonne of Nathan, which was the ſonne of Dauid,

32 Which was the ſonne of Ieſſe, which was the ſonne of Obed, which was the ſonne of Booz, which was the ſonne of Salmon, which was the ſonne of Naaſſon,

33 Which was the ſonne of Aminadab, which was the ſonne of Aram, which was the ſonne of Eſrom, which was the ſonne of Phares, which was the ſonne of Iudah,

34 Which was the ſonne of Iacob, which was the ſonne of Iſaac, which was the ſonne of Abraham, which was the ſonne of Thara, which was the ſonne of Nachor,

35 Which was the ſonne of Saruch, which was the ſonne of Ragau, which was the ſonne of Phalec, which was the ſonne of Heber, which was the ſonne of Sala,

36 Which was the ſonne of Cainan, which was the ſonne of Arphaxad, which was the ſonne of Sem, which was the ſonne of Noe, which was the ſonne of Lamech,

37 Which was the ſonne of Mathuſala, which was the ſonne of Enoch, which was the ſonne of Iared, which was the ſonne of Maleleel, which was the ſonne of Cainan, 38 Which was the ſonne of Enos, which was the ſonne of Seth, which was the ſonne of Adam, which was the ſonne of God.

CHAP. III.

1 The temptation and faſting of Chriſt. 4 He anſwereth the deuil. 5 Appeareth to the people of Nazareth. 21 He is baptized. 23 He cometh of a mother, of God, and diuers perſons. 41 The deuils acknowledge him. 42 He is reproued for his departure from the elders.

AND a Ieſus being full of the holy Ghoſt returned from Iordan, and was led by the ſpirit into the wildernes,

2 Being fourty dayes tempted of the deuil: and in thoſe dayes he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungred.

3 And the deuill ſaid vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, command this ſtone that it be made bread.

4 And Ieſus anſwered him, ſaying, It is written, that man ſhall not liue by bread alone, but by euery word of God.

5 And the deuill taking him vp into a high mountain, ſhewed vnto him all the kingdomes of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the deuill ſaid vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glory of them: for that is deliuered vnto me, and to whomſoeuer I will I giue it.

7 If thou therefore wilt b worſhip me, all ſhall be thine.

8 And Ieſus anſwered, and ſaid vnto him, Get thee behinde me, Satan: for it is written, Thou ſhalt worſhip the Lord thy God, and him only ſhalt thou ſerue.

9 And he brought him to Ieruſalem, and ſet him on a pinacle of the Temple, and ſaid vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, caſt thy ſelfe downe from hence.

10 For it is written, He ſhall giue his Angels charge ouer thee, to keepe thee:

11 And in their hands they ſhall beare thee vp, leſt at any time thou daſh thy foote againſt a ſtone.

12 And Ieſus anſwering, ſaid vnto him, It is ſaid, Thou ſhalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuill had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a ſeaſon.

14 ¶ And Ieſus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and there went a fame of him thorow all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their ſynagogues, and was glorified of all.

a Or put no man in fear.
b Or, alloweance.
c Or, in ſuſpence.
d Or, reaſoned, or, diſputed.
e Matth. 3.11.
f Matth. 14.3.
g Matth. 3.13.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go and shew thy self to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and Doctors of the Law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

a Matth. 8.2. 18 ¶ [a] And behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsie: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling, with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sinnes, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgiven thee: or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath power upon earth to forgive sinnes, (he said unto the sick of the palsie) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

b Matth. 9.9. 27 ¶ And after, [b] these things he went forth, and saw a Publicane named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custome: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of Publicanes, and of others that sate down with them.

30 But their Scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with Publicanes and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a Physician: but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

c Matth. 9.14. 33 ¶ And they said unto him, [c] Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees: but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the daies will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those daies.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them, No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAP. VI.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees blindness about the observation of the Sabbath, by Scripture, reason, and miracle. 13 Ordaineth twelve Apostles. 17 Healeth the diseased. 20 Preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessings and curses. 27 How we must love our enemies: 46 and ground the assurance of our works in the hearing of the word: but in the day of temptation, we fall like an house built upon the face of the earth without any foundation.

AND it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields: and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the Sabbath daies?

3 And Jesus answering them, said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him?

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also unto them that were with him, which it is not lawfull to eat but for the Priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Sonne of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

6 ¶ And it came to pass also on another Sabbath, that he entred into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him whether he would heal on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing, Is it lawfull on the Sabbath daies to do good, or to do evill? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness, and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those daies, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles;

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother; James and John, Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the sonne of Alphæus, and Simon called Zelotes,

16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the

…ſtood he upon the ſtand where they ſtood, and the company of his Diſciples, and a great multitude of people, out of all Judea and Jeruſalem, and from the ſea coaſt of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diſeaſes, 18 And they that were vexed with unclean ſpirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude ſought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his Diſciples, and ſaid, [b] Bleſſed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 Bleſſed are ye that hunger now: for ye ſhall be filled. Bleſſed are ye that weep now, for ye ſhall laugh.

22 Bleſſed are ye when men ſhall hate you, and when they ſhall ſeparate you from their company, and ſhall reproach you, and caſt out your name as evill, for the Sonne of mans ſake.

23 Rejoyce ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for in the like manner did their fathers unto the Prophets.

24 [b] But woe unto you that are rich: for ye have received your conſolation.

25 [c] Woe unto you that are full: for ye ſhall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now: for ye ſhall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you when all men ſhall ſpeak well of you: for ſo did their fathers to the falſe prophets.

27 ¶ [d] But I ſay unto you which hear, Love your enemies, Do good to them which hate you, 28 Bleſſe them that curſe you, and pray for them which deſpitefully uſe you.

29 [e] And unto him that ſmiteth thee on the one cheek, offer alſo the other: [f] and him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat alſo.

30 Give to every man that aſketh of thee, and of him that taketh away thy goods aſk them not again.

31 ¶ And as ye would that men ſhould do to you, do ye alſo to them likewiſe.

32 [h] For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for ſinners alſo love thoſe that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for ſinners alſo do even the ſame.

34 [i] And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for ſinners alſo lend to ſinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again: and your reward ſhall be great, and ye ſhall be the children of the Higheſt, for he is kinde unto the unthankfull, and to the evill.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father alſo is mercifull.

37 [k] Judge not, and ye ſhall not be judged: condemne not, and ye ſhall not be condemned: forgive, and ye ſhall be forgiven.

38 Give, and it ſhall be given unto you, good meaſure, preſſed down, and ſhaken together, and running over, ſhall men give into your boſome: for with the ſame meaſure that ye mete withall, it ſhall be meaſured to you again.

39 And he ſpake a parable unto them, [l] Can the blinde lead the blinde? ſhall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The diſciple is not above his Maſter: but every one that is perfect ſhall be as his maſter.

41 [m] And why beholdeſt thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, but conſiderſt not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canſt thou ſay to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thy ſelf beholdeſt not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, caſt out firſt the beam out of thine own eye, and then ſhalt thou ſee clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

43 [p] For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit: neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good treaſure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good: and an evill man out of the evill treaſure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evill: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth ſpeaketh.

46 ¶ ¶ And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do [q] not the things which I ſay.

47 Whoſoever cometh to me, and heareth my ſayings, and doth them, I will ſhew you to whom he is like.

48 He is like a man which built an houſe, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock. And when the flood aroſe, the ſtream beat vehemently upon that houſe, and could not ſhake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an houſe upon the earth, againſt which the ſtream did beat vehemently, and immediatly it fell, and the ruine of that houſe was great.

CHAP. VII.

1 Chriſt ſeeketh a greater faith in the Centurion a Gentile, then in any of the Jews: 10 healeth his ſervants being abſent: 11 raiſeth from death the widowes ſonne of Naim: 19 anſwereth Johns meſſengers with the declaration of his miracles: 24 teſtifieth to the people what opinion he held of John: 30 upbraideth againſt the Jews, who were neither the manners of John, nor of Chriſt could be won: 36 and ſheweth by occaſion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to ſinners, not to maintain ſinne, but to forgive them their ſinne, upon their faith and repentance.

NOw when he had ended all his ſayings in the audience of the people, [r] he entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certain Centurions ſervant, who was dear unto him, was ſick and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jeſus, he ſent unto him the Elders of the Jews, beſeeching him that he would come and heal his ſervant.

4 And when they came to Jeſus, they beſought him inſtantly, ſaying, That he was worthy for whom he ſhould do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a ſynagogue.

6 Then Jeſus went with them. And when he was now not farre from the houſe, the Centurion ſent friends to him, ſaying unto him, Lord, trouble not thy ſelf: for I am not worthy that thou ſhouldeſt enter under my roof.

7 Wherefore neither thought I my ſelf worthy to come unto thee: but ſay in a word, and my ſervant ſhall be healed.

8 For I alſo am a man ſet under authority, having under me ſouldiers: and I ſay unto one, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh:

eth; and to my servant, Do this; and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Naim: and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only sonne of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the a biere, (and they that bare him stood still) And he said, Yong man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sate up, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, That a great Prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throwout all Judea, and throwout all the region round about.

18 b And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evill spirits, and unto many that were blinde, he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard, how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the Gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John: What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in Kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? a Prophet? yea, I say unto you, and much more then a Prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is not a greater Prophet then John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the Publicanes justified God, being baptized with the baptisme of John.

30 But the Pharisees and Lawyers rejected the counsell of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Wherunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye say, He hath a devill.

34 The Sonne of man is come, eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a wine bibber, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisdome is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisees house, and sate down to meat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sate at meat in the Pharisees house, brought an Alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with teares, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man if he were a Prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered, and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with teares, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kisse: but this woman since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

46 Mine head with oil thou diddest not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, her sinnes which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sate at meat with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sinnes also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee, go in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

3 Women minister unto Christ of their substance. 4 Christ after he had preached from place to place, attended with his Apostles, propoundeth the parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 21 declareth who are his mother and brethren. 22 rebuketh the winde: 26 casteth the devils out of the man into the herd of swine. 37 is rejected of the Gadarens, 43 but healeth the woman of her bloody issue, 49 and raiseth from death Jairus daughter.

AND it came to passe afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching, and shewing the glad tidings and [illegible] the twelve were with him,

2 And certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,
3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herods steward, and Susanna, and many others which ministred unto him of their substance.
4 ¶ b And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:
5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the wayes side, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.
6 And some fell upon a rock; and assoon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.
7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.
8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he said these things, he cryed, He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.
9 And his Disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?
10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdome of God: but to others in parables, that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.
11 c Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.
12 Those by the wayes side, are they that hear: then cometh the devill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe, and be saved.
13 They on the rock, are they, which when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.
14 And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.
15 But that on the good ground, are they, which in an honest and good heart having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.
16 ¶ d No man when he hath lighted a candle covereth it with a vessell, or putteth it under a bed: but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in, may see the light.
17 e For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad.
18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: f for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken, even that which he seemeth to have.
19 ¶ h Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the presse.
20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.
21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.
22 ¶ i Now it came to passe on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake; and they launched forth.
23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storme of winde on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

[illegible] he [illegible] there came a cloud, [illegible] and they feared, as they [illegible] the cloud.
And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.
¶ a And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.
And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee look upon my son, for he is mine only child.
And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.
And I besought thy Disciples to cast him out; and they could not.
And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy son hither.
And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.
And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his Disciples, b Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.
But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.
¶ c Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.
And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,
And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: For he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.
¶ d And John answered, and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.
And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.
¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,
And sent messengers before his face, and they went and entred into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him.
And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.
And when his disciples, James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as e Elias did?
But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.
For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.
¶ f And it came to pass, as they went [illegible] Lord, I [illegible]

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoyce not, that the spirits are subject unto you: but rather rejoyce, because your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In that hour Jesus rejoyced in spirit, and said, I thank thee O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: and who the Father is, but the Sonne, and he to whom the Sonne will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his Disciples, and said privately, b Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see.

24 For I tell you, that many Prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And behold, a certain Lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, c Master, what shall I do to inherite eternall life? He said unto him, 26 What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbour as thy self.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he willing to justifie himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour.

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among theeves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain Priest that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritane, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, powring in oyl and wine, and set him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and tooke care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two d pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the theeves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 Now it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sate downe at Jesus feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbred about much serving, and came to him, and said, Master, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? Bid her therefore that she helpe me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art carefull, and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is necessary, and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, and the infinity of it, 5 by a thing that God of his owne proper motion will grant, 11 and by giving out a dumbe devill; 15 rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisies: 28 and sheweth who are blessed, 29 preacheth to the people, 37 and reproveth more sharpely the Pharisies, 45 and Lawyers.

AND it came to passe, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, e Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdome come, Thy will be done as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us f day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sinnes; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evill.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves:

6 For a friend of mine is in his journey come to me, and I have nothing to set before him.

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not, the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity, he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 g And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and ye shall finde: knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egge, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evill, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the holy Ghost to them that aske him?

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devill, and it was dumbe. And it came to passe, when the devill was gone out, the dumbe spake: and the people wondred.

15 But some of them said, h He casteth out devills through Beelzebub the chief of the devills.

16 And other tempting him, sought of him a signe from heaven.

17 But he knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdome divided against it selfe is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house, falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdome stand? because ye say that I cast out devills through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devills,

…do your deeds, and allow them: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

48 Truely ye bear witnesse, that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdome of God, I will send them Prophets and Apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute;

50 That the blood of all the Prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, 51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the Altar and the Temple: Verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 Wo unto you Lawyers, for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entred not in your selves, and them that were entring in, ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the Scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisie and fearfulnesse in publishing his doctrine: 8 Warneth the people to beware of covetousnesse, by the parable of the rich man, who for his prosperous gains, 21 We must not be over careful of earthly things; 31 but seek the kingdome of God: 33 give alms: 36 be ready at a knock: comfort to the Lord whensoever he cometh. 41 Christ ministers are to see to their charge, 49 and look for persecution. 54 The people must take this time of grace: 58 because it is a fearfull thing to die without reconciliation.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.

2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore, whatsoever ye have spoken in darkenesse, shall be heard in the light: and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house tops.

4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered: fear not therefore, ye are of more a Matth. 10. 31. value than many sparrows.
8 a Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Sonne of man
Rom. 10. 10. also confesse before the Angels of God.
9 But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the Angels of God.
10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Sonne of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.
b Matth. 10. 19. 11 b And when they bring you unto the Synagogues, and unto Magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought, how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:
12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour, what ye ought to say.
13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.
14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a Judge or a divider over you?
15 And he said unto them, Take heed and beware of covetousnesse: for a mans life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.
16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully.
17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?
18 And he said, This will I do, I will pull down my barns, and build greater, and there will I bestow all my fruits, and my goods.
19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years, take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
c Psal. 49. 17. 20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night c thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?
21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.
22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, d Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, neither for the body, what ye shall put on.
23 The life is more then meat, and the body is more then raiment.
24 Consider the ravens, for they neither sowe, nor reap, which neither have store-house nor barne, and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better then the fowls?
25 And which of you with taking thought can adde to his stature one cubit?
26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?
27 Consider the lilies how they grow; they toyl not, they spin not: and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arayed like one of these.
28 If then God so clothe the grasse, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven: how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith!
29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, e neither be ye of doubtfull minde.
30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.
31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdome of God, and all these things shall be added unto you.
32 Feare not, little flocke, for it is your Fathers good pleasure to give you the kingdome.
33 Sell that ye have, and give alms: f make your selves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no theefe approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.
34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35 ¶ Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning,
36 And ye your selves like unto men that wait for their Lord, when he will return from the wedding, that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.
37 Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord, when he cometh, shall finde watching: Verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.
38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and finde them so, blessed are those servants.
39 h And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the theef would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken thorow.
40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Sonne of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.
41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?
42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithfull and wise steward, whom his Lord shall make ruler over his houshold, to give them their portion of meat in due season?
43 Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord, when he cometh, shall finde so doing.
44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.
45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his coming, and shall begin to beat the men-servants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken:
46 The Lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an houre when he is not ware, and will i cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.
47 And that servant which knew his Lords will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.
49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth, and what will I, if it be already kindled?
50 But I have a baptisme to be baptized with, and how am I k straitned till it be accomplished!
51 l Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay, but rather division:
52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.
53 The father shall be divided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
54 ¶ And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.
55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it commeth to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of your selves judge ye not what is right?

58 ¶ When thou goest with thine adversary to the Magistrate: as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him, lest he hale thee to the Judge, and the Judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, Thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last [b] mite.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ preacheth repentance upon the punishment of the Galilæans and others. 6 The parable of the barren fig-tree. 11 He healeth the crooked woman, 18 sheweth the powerful working of the Word in the hearts of his elect, by the parable of the grain of mustard-seed, and of leaven: 24 exhorteth to enter in at the strait gate, 31 and reproveth Herod, and Jerusalem.

THere were present at that season, some that told him of the Galilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloe fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certain man had a figtree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down, why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering, said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath.

11 ¶ And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up her self.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and cast into his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [c] measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 ¶ And he went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ¶ Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence you are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 [h] But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence you are; depart from me all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and you your selves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdome of God.

30 ¶ And behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence, for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless, I must walk to-day and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a Prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 [k] O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not?

35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: And verily I say unto you, ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

2 Christ healeth the dropsie on the Sabbath, 7 teacheth humility: 12 to feast the poor: 15 by the parable of the great supper shadoweth [illegible] 25 to forsake all for him.

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms, saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him,

9 And he that bade thee and him, come, and say to thee, Give this man place: and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor the rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompence thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sate at meat heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time, to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compell them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 If any man come to me, and hate not his brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what King going to make warre against another King, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 ¶ Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill: but men cast it out. He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

CHAP. XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep, 8 of the piece of silver, 11 of the prodigall sonne.

THen drew neere unto him all the Publicans and sinners for to heare him.

2 And the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoycing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends, and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoyce with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, That likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends, and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoyce with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the Angels of God, over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sonnes:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his substance.

13 And not many dayes after, the younger sonne gathered all together, and took his journey into a farre country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joyned …

of whom. And he said unto him, Take thy and write fourscore.
8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.
9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.
10 He that is faithful in that which is least, faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.
11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?
13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other.
Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
14 And the Pharisees also who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.
15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed amongst men, is abomination in the sight of God.
16 The Law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.
17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.
18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.
19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.
20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; 23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.
25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.
27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, 28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this torment.
29 Abraham

CHAP. XVI.

The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisie of the covetous Pharisees. 19 The rich glutton and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.
2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.
3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do, for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed.
4 I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?
6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil.

[illegible] saith unto him, They have Moses and the Prophets, let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence. 3 One to forgive another. 6 The power of faith. 7 How we are bound to God, and not he to us. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 20 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Sonne of man.

a Matth. 18.7. THen said he unto the disciples, a It is impossible but that offences will come, but wo unto him through whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, then that he should offend one of these little ones.

b Matth. 18.21. 3 ¶ Take heede to your selves: b If thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him, and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespasse against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the Apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

c Matth. 17.20. 6 c And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this Sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you.

7 But which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattel, will say unto him by and by when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thy self, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken: and afterward thou shalt eat and drink.

9 Doth he thank that servant, because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants, we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to passe, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entred into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afarre off.

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, master, have mercy on us.

d Levit. 13.49. 14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, d Go shew your selves unto the Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritane.

17 And Jesus answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed, but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdome of God cometh not with observation.

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or lo there! for behold, the kingdome of God is within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The dayes will come when ye shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven: so shall also the Sonne of man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

e Gen. 6.5. 26 e And as it was in the dayes of Noe, so shall it be also in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entred into the Ark: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

f Gen. 19.24. 28 f Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded:

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all:

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man is revealed.

31 In that day he which shall be upon the house top, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

g Gen. 19.26. 32 g Remember Lots wife.

33 h Whosoever shall seek to save his life, shall lose it, and whosoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it.

34 i I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed, the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 k Two men shall be in the field, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered, and said unto him, l Where, Lord? and he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the Eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Of the importunate widow. 9 Of the Pharisee and the Publicane. 15 Children brought to Christ. 18 A ruler that would follow Christ, is bidden to sell all his riches. 28 The reward of them that leave all for his sake. 31 He foretelleth his death, 35 and restoreth a blinde man to his sight.

AND he spake a parable unto them, to this end, that men ought a always to pray, and not to faint:

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary:

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continuall coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge a King

them

till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant, because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath, shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set

36 And as he went they spread their clothes in

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the Name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ¶ And he went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought, 46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the Temple. But the chief Priests and the Scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAP. XX.

1 Christ avoucheth his authority by a question of John's baptism. 9 The parable of the husbandmen giving tribute to Cæsar. 27 He confoundeth them that denied the resurrection. 41 He is the Son of David. 45 He warneth his disciples of the Scribes.

AND it came to pass on a certain day, as he taught the people in the Temple, and preached the Gospel, the chief Priests and the Scribes came upon him with the Elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing, and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men, all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a Prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 ¶ Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long season.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

a Mine have here stirred a pound, it should be mine, and so but, which according to you fall, the same, & three pounds two & five: for pound.

b Matth. 13.12.

c Matth. 21.9.

And spake he first another servant, and they him also, and intreated him shamefully, and him away empty.

And again he sent the third, and they wounded also, and cast him out.

Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved Son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the Lord of the vineyard do unto them?

He shall come and destroy the husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

And the chief Priests and the Scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him, and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither accepteth thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly.

Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them,

Why tempt ye me?

Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsar's.

And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

Last of all the woman died also.

Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

But they which shall be accounted worthy to equall unto the Angels,
God
shewed at the bush,
God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

Then certain of the Scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's sonne?

And David himself saith in the book of Psalmes, The Lord said unto my Lord, lay at my right hand,

Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his sonne?

Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his Disciples,

Beware of the Scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

Which devour widows houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

A And he looked up
A casting their gifts that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts,

he said,

As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom,

And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

But before all these

C 2 And

CHAP. XXII.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ. 3 Judas covenanteth to betray him. 7 The disciples prepare the Passover. 19 Christ instituteth the holy Supper. 21 covertly foretelleth his betrayer, 24 who is rebuked thereof by his master. 31 Satan desireth Peter by sifting to have him fall: 34 and yet he should deny his master. 35 Rapacity in the ministers, and simplicity of the disciples. 47 Judas betrayeth Christ with a kiss: 51 healeth Malchus his ear, 54 he is thrice denied of Peter, 63 shamefully abused, 66 and confesseth himself to be the Son of God.

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief Priests and Scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then entered Satan into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief Priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the Passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the Passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest chamber, where I shall eat the Passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the Passover.

14 ¶ And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve Apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after Supper, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves which of them it was that should do this thing.

…and he that hath none, …The kings of the …nations exercise lordship over them; and they
…that exercise authority upon them, are called be…nefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest …among you, let him be as the younger; and he
…that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at …meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at
…meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me
…in my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdome, as my …Father hath appointed unto me,

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in …my kingdome, b and sit on Thrones judging the …twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold,
…Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift
…you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, for thy faith
…fail not; and when thou art converted, strength-
…then thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to …go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 d And he said, I tell thee Peter, the cock …shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt
…thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And he said unto them, When I sent you …without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye
…any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now he that …hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his
…scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his
…garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, That this that is writ…ten must yet be accomplished in me; f And he …was reckoned among the transgressors: For the …things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two …swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ g And he came out, and went as he was …wont, to the mount of Olives, and his Disciples
…also followed him.

40 h And when he was at the place, he said unto …them, Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a …stone cast, and kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove …this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but
…thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel unto him from …heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony, he prayed more …earnestly, and his sweat was as it were great drops
…of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was …come to his Disciples, he found them sleeping for …sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? Rise,
…and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, i behold, a mul…titude, and he that was called Judas, one of the …twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Je…sus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou
…the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 When they which were about him, saw what …would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we
…smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the …high priest, and cut off his right eare.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus …far. And he touched his eare, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and k Matth. brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter 26.57. followed afarre off.

55 ¶ And when they had kindled a fire in the Matth. midst of the hall, and were set down together, 26.69. Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sate by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter, and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jesus, mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they strook him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesie, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ m And assoon as it was day, the Elders of the Matth. people, and the chief Priests and the 27.1. Scribes came together, and led him into their Councill, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? Tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Sonne of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Sonne of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am. n Mark 14.62.

71 And they said, What need we any further witnesse? For we our selves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, and sent by him to Herod. 8 Herod mocketh him. 12 Herod and Pilate are made friends. 18 Barrabas is released by the people, and he hated by Pilate, and crucified. 27 He admonisheth the women that bewail him. 33 He is crucified in the middest of two malefactors. 39 Two malefactors reviled him. 46 His death. 50 His burial.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, That he himself is Christ a King.

3 ¶ And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering him said, Thou sayest it.

6 Then asked he him many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief Priests and Scribes stood, and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at variance between themselves.

p Matth. 27.23. 13 ¶ p And Pilate, when he had called together the chief Priests, and the Rulers, and the people, 14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, and behold, I having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him.

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 For of necessity he must release one unto them at the Feast.

18 And they cryed out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas, 19 Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast in prison.

20 Pilate therefore willing to release Jesus, spake again to them:

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him, I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voyces, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief Priests, prevailed.

b Or, assented. 24 And Pilate b gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them, him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison whom they had desired, but he delivered Jesus to their will.

c Matth. 27.32. 26 c And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the crosse, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selves, and for your children.

29 For behold, the dayes are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

d Isa. 2. 19. hos. 10.8 rev. 6.16. 30 d Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us, and to the hills, Cover us.

31 e For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 f And there were also two other malefactors led with him, to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called ¶ Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding, and the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others, let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the souldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vineger, 37 And saying, If thou be the King of the Jews, save thy self.

38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latine, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ And one of the malefactours, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thy self and us.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdome.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 And it was about the sixt hour, and there was a darknesse over all the g earth, until the ninth hour.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cryed with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: And having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 Now when the Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their brests and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afarre off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ h And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a Counsellor, and he was a good man, and a just.

51 (The same had not consented to the counsell and deed of them) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews (who also himself waited for the kingdome of God.)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the Sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day according to the Commandment.

CHAP. XXIIII.

Christ's resurrection is shewed unto certain of his disciples. 13 The journey that some of them had to Emmaus. 15 Christ himself appeareth unto them that went to Emmaus: 36 afterwards he appeareth to the apostles, and reprooveth their unbelief: 44 he opens unto them the Scriptures concerning himself. 50 He ascendeth into heaven.

NOw [a] upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entred in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to passe, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [b] the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: [c] Remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, the Sonne of man must be delivered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembred his words,

9 And returned from the Sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the Apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 [d] Then arose Peter, and ranne unto the Sepulchre, and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes layd by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to passe.

13 ¶ [e] And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to passe, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew neer, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were held, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to passe there in these dayes?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a Prophet, mighty in deed and word before God, and all the people.

20 And how the chief Priests, and our Rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the Sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they also had seen a vision of Angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the Sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fooles, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken:

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew neer unto the village, whither they went, and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is farre spent: and he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he [f] vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures?

33 And they arose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ [g] And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands, and my feet, that it is I my self: handle me and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondred, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broyled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes concerning me.

45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 The Divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ. 19 The calling of Peter, &c.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ¶ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth.

15 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me, for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the Law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent Priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? What sayest thou of thy self?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that Prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water, but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sins of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 ¶ And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven, like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record, that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples.

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ¶ about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Anointed.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation a stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered, and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and said unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

[illegible] Jesus [illegible] unto him, Whereof knowest thou me? Jesus answered, and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God, thou art the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verely, verely I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the Angels of God ascending, and descending upon the Sonne of man.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 12 departeth to Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 where he purgeth the Temple of buyers and sellers. 19 He foretelleth his death and resurrection. 23 Many believe because of his miracles, but he would not trust himself with them.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was called, and his Disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins a piece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governour of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which drew the water, knew) the governour of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory, and 12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there many dayes.

13 And the Jews Passeover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And [illegible] of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables,

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three dayes I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six yeares was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that he had told this unto them: and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passeover, in the feast day, many believed in his Name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration. 14 Of faith in his death. 16 The great love of God towards the world. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. 23 The baptisme of Jesus, and doctrine of John concerning Christ.

THere was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewes:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mothers wombe, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvell not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testifie that we have seen, and ye receive not our witnesse.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Sonne of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Sonne of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternall life.

already, because he [illegible] in the Name of the only begotten

19 And this is the [illegible] that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light: because their deeds were evill.

20 For every one that doeth evill, hateth the light, neither commeth to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things, came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea, and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Aenon, near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of Johns disciples and the Jewes, about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witnesse, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered, and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye your selves bear me witnesse, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegroome: but the friend of the bridegroome, which standeth and heareth him, rejoyceth greatly because of the bridegroomes voyce: This my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above, is above all: he that is of the earth, is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all:

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth, and no man receiveth his testimony:

33 He that hath received his testimony, hath set to his seal, that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

35 The Father loveth the Sonne, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He that believeth on the Sonne, hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Sonne, shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Christ taketh pain a woman of Samaria, and reproveth himself unto her. 27 His Disciples marvell. 28 He sheweth to them his meat to do Gods glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe in him. 43 He departeth into Galilee, and healeth the Ruler-Jones sonne sick at Capernaum.

When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples:)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go thorow Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, neere to the parcell of ground, that Jacob gave to his sonne Joseph.

6 Now Jacobs well was there. Jesus therefore [illegible] his journey, sate thus on the well: and it was about the sixt hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 For his disciples were gone away into the city to buy meat.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jewes have no dealings with the Samaritanes.

10 Jesus answered, and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater then our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Jesus answered, and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truely.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jewes.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in spirit, and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and said to the men, 29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: Is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

…reapeth harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternall: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth may rejoyce together.

37 And herein is that saying true: One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritanes of that city beleved on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritanes were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleeved, because of his own word:

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him our selves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ [b] Now after two dayes he departed thence, and went into Galilee:

44 For Jesus himself testified that a Prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, [c] where he made the water wine. And there was a certain [d] noble man whose sonne was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his sonne: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The noble man saith unto him, Sir, come downe ere my childe die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy sonne liveth. And the man beleeved the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy sonne liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said unto him, Yesterday [e] the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy sonne liveth: and himself beleeved, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

1 Jesus at the Sabbath day cureth him that was diseased eight and thirty years. 10 The Jews therefore cavil, and go about him for it. 17 He answereth for himself, and reproveth them, drawing by the testimony of his Father 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the Scriptures, who he is.

AFter [a] this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep [illegible] in the Hebrew

…and the water [illegible] troubling of the water [illegible] first after the troubling of the water [illegible] whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another stepeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the Sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the Sabbath day, it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed, wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the Temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, not only because he had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equall with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doth these also doth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvell.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgement unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgement also, because he is the Sonne of man.
28 Marvell not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, a Matth. 25.46. 29 And shall come forth: they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evill, unto the resurrection of damnation.
30 I can of mine owne self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgement is just, because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.
b Chap. 8.14. 31 b If I bear witnesse of my self, my witnesse is not true.
c Matth. 3.17. 32 ¶ c There is another that beareth witnesse of me, and I know that the witnesse which he witnesseth of me, is true.
d Chap. 1.7. 33 Ye sent unto John, d and he bare witnesse unto the truth.
34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.
35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoyce in his light.
36 ¶ But I have greater witnesse then that of John; for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witnesse of me, that the Father hath sent me.
e Matth. 3.17. and 17.5. & Mark. 9.7. & Luke. 9.35. 37 And the Father himself which hath sent me, e hath born witnesse of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, f nor seen his shape.
38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.
39 ¶ Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternall life, and they are they which testifie of me.
40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.
41 I receive not honour from men.
42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.
43 I am come in my Father's Name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.
44 g How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that commeth from God only?
45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.
h Genes. 3.15. Deut. 18.15. 46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: h for he wrote of me.
47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAP. VI.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 14 The people would have made him a king. 16 But withdrawing himself, he walketh in the sea to his Disciples. 22 He reproveth the people seeking after him, and all the unbelievers of his words. 30 He declareth himself to be the bread of life to believers. 66 Many depart from him. 68 Peter confesseth him for Jesus Christ.

1 After these things Jesus went over the [illegible] of Galilee, which is the [illegible] of Tiberias:
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw the miracles which he did on them that
3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there
4 And the Passeover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.
5 ¶ When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he said unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
6 (And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)
7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.
8 One of his Disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grasse in the place. So the men sat down in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the Disciples, and the Disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would.
12 When they were filled, he said unto his Disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.
13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.
14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.
15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a King, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.
16 ¶ And when Even was now come, his Disci- Matth. ples went down unto the sea, 14.23.
17 And entred into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum: and it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.
18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.
19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty, or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.
20 But he saith unto them, It is I, be not afraid.
21 Then they willingly received him into the ship, and immediatly the ship was at the land whither they went.
22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his Disciples were entred, and that Jesus went not with his Disciples into the boat, but his Disciples were gone away alone:
23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)
24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his Disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.
25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?
26 Jesus answered them, and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves and were filled.
27 m Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Sonne of man shall give unto you: n for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what doest thou work?

31 b Our fathers did eat Manna in the desert; as it is written, c He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, shall never hunger: and he that believeth on me, shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me, shall come to me; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Sonne, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, d Is not this Jesus the sonne of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered, and said unto them, Murmure not among your selves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 e It is written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat Manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread, which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give, is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove amongst themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life

[illegible] I will raise him [illegible]
[illegible] day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so, he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat Manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his Disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself, that his Disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 f What and if ye shall see the Sonne of man ascend up where he was before? 3 Chap. 3. 13.

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you they are Spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning, who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his Disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternall life.

69 h And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Sonne of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devill?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

Jesus reproveth the unbelief and hatred of his brethren, 10 goeth up secret from Galilee to the feast of the Tabernacles, 14 teacheth in the Temple, 25 reproveth the ignorance of them which sought to kill him, 37 The great confusion that arose among the people about him, which sent officers to apprehend him, but in vain.

AFter these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jury, because the Jews sought to kill him.

1 h Now the Jews feast of Tabernacles was at hand.

2 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Jewry, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

3 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thy self to the world.

4 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

5 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

6 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

7 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast,

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast, for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people, concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay, but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the Temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man [b] letters, having never learned?

b Or, learning.

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 [c] Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? [d] Why go ye about to kill me?

c Exod. 24.3. d Chap. 5.18.

20 The people answered, and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered, and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvell.

22 [e] Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, [f] but of the fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

e Levit. 12.3.
f Gene. 17.10.

23 If a man on the Sabbath day receive circumcision, [g] that the Law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the Sabbath day?

g Or, without breaking the Law of Moses.

24 [h] Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgement.

h Deut. 1.16.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

26 But lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him: Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is: but, when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the Temple, as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am, and I am not come of my self, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him; for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles then these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him. And the Pharisees and the chief Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 [i] Ye shall seek me, and shall not finde me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

i Chap. 13.33.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not finde him? Will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not finde me? and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 [l] In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood, and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

l 7.37.

38 [m] He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

m 7.38.

39 (n) But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him, should receive. For the holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

n 7.39.

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said; This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 [o] Hath not the Scripture said, that Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

o Mich. 5.2.

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief Priests and Pharisees, and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the Law, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus (p) saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them)

51 ¶ Doeth our Law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doth?

52 They answered, and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no Prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery. He preacheth himself the light of the world. 13 He justifieth his doctrine. 33 He proveth the Jews to be the seed of Abraham, 39 but not children: 44 and therefore reproveth them for their cruelty.

1 JEsus went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the Temple, and all the people came unto him, and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the Scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and when they had set her in the midst, 4 They said unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 [q] Now Moses in the Law commanded us, that such should be stoned; but what sayest thou?

q Levit. 20.10. Deut. 22.22.

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted himself up, and said unto them, He that is without sinne among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again, he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one,

ing at the theft; both unto the left hand none left alone; and the woman standing in the midst.
10 When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.
12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying,
I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thy self, thy record is not true.
14 Jesus answered, and said unto them, Though
I bear record of my self, yet my record is true;
for I know whence I came, and whither I go:
but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither
I go.
15 Ye judge after the flesh, I judge no man.
16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true:
for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.
17 ¶ It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.
18 I am one that bear witness of my self, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.
19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.
20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the Temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.
21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.
22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.
23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath,
I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.
24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.
25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou?
And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.
26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.
27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.
28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lift up the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self: but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.
29 And he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone: for I do always those things that please him.
30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.
31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.
32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.
33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?
34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sinne, is the servant of sinne.
35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Sonne abideth ever.
36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.
37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed, but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.
38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.
39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham.
40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God:
this did not Abraham.
41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication, we have one Father, even God.
42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me; for I proceeded forth and came from God: neither came I of my self, but he sent me.
43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.
44 ¶ Ye are of your father the devill, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a mur-derer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.
45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.
46 Which of you convinceth me of sinne? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?
47 ¶ He that is of God, heareth Gods words:
ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.
48 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritane, and hast a devill?
49 Jesus answered, I have not a devill, but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.
50 And I seek not mine own glory, there is one that seeketh and judgeth.
51 Verily, verily I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.
52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devill. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets: and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.
53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy self?
54 Jesus answered, If I honour my self, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God:
55 Yet ye have not known him, but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.
56 Your father Abraham rejoyced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.
57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?
58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.
59 Then

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 45 Many Jews believe. 47 The Priests and Pharisees Letter a council against Christ. 54 Caiaphas prophesieth. 55 Christ withdraweth himself. 57 The Pharisees Decree to take him.

NOw a certain man was sick named Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had already lain in the grave four days.

[illegible]

24 Martha saith unto him, [a] I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, [b] I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, I believe that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 Assoon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and [c] was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him.

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blinde, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four dayes.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the chief Priests and the Pharisees a counsell, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romanes shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high Priest that same yeere, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high Priest that yeere, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsell together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but went thence unto a country neere to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jews Passeover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the Passeover, to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the Temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief Priests and the Pharisees had given a commandement, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jesus comforteth Mary mourning his death. 2 The people flock to see Lazarus. 9 The Priests consult to kill him. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 20 Greeks desire to see him. 23 Wherein he comforteth his disciples. 37 The Jews are scarce confuted: 42 yet many rulers believe, 48 but not confesse. 49 Therefore Jesus exhorteth unto the confession of faith.

THen Jesus six dayes before the Passeover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of Spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poore?

6 ¶ This he said, not that he cared for the poore: but because he was a theefe, and had the bagge, and bare what was given.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone, against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poore [illegible]

9 Much people of the Jews [illegible]

10 But the chief Priests [illegible]

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

24 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,
15 Fear not, daughter of Sion, behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.
16 These things understood not his Disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.
17 The people therefore that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.
18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.
19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? Behold, the world is gone after him.
20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:
21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.
22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again
Andrew and Philip told Jesus.
23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Sonne of man should be glorified.
24 Verily, verily I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.
25 b He that loveth his life, shall lose it: and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternall.
26 If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am, there shall also my servant be: If any man serve me, him will my Father honour.
27 Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour, but for this cause came I unto this hour.
28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorifie it again.
29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said, that it thundred: others said, An Angel spake to him.
30 Jesus answered, and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.
31 Now is the Judgement of this world: now shall the Prince of this world be cast out.
32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.
33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)
34 The people answered him, c We have heard out of the Law, that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Sonne of man must be lift up?
Who is this Sonne of man?
35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the Light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darkenesse come upon you: for he that walketh in darkenesse, knoweth not whither he goeth.
36 While ye have Light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.
37 ¶ But though he had done so many [illegible]
[illegible] yet believed they not on him:
38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?
39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,
40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted,
and I should heal them.
41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory and spake of him.
42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confesse him, lest they should be put out of the Synagogue:
43 f For they loved the praise of men more f Ch.
than the praise of God. 5.44.
44 ¶ Jesus cried, and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.
45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

last day.
49 For I have not spoken of my self, but the Father which sent me, he gave me Commandement what I should say, and what I should speak.
50 And I know that his Commandement is life everlasting; whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Jesus washeth the Disciples feet, whereby he giveth them an example of humility and charity. 18 He foretelleth Judas his treason. 21 Judas by a token that Jesus giveth him: 31 Commandeth them to love one another: 36 and foretelleth Peter of his denial.

NOw k before the feast of the Passover, k Ch.
Jesus knew that his hour was come, that he 12.1.
should depart out of this world unto the Father: and having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
2 And supper being ended (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betray him)
3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God:
4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, and took a towell, and girded himself.
5 After that he powreth water into a basen, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.
6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know hereafter.
8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Christ comforteth his Disciples, 6 tells the way to heaven: 6 professeth himself the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and one with the Father: 12 promiseth their prayers to be heard in his Name: 15 promiseth love and obedience, 16 to send the holy Ghost the Comforter, 27 and leaveth with them peace.

LEt not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you: I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest: and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works sake.

12 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father.

13 ¶ And whatsoever ye shall ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my Name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my Commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever,

17 Even the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more, but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my Commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

[illegible] and of right[illegible] kind
[illegible] they believe that thou
[illegible] because I go to my Fa-[illegible] and be [illegible] no more.
[illegible] because the Prince of this [illegible] is judged.
[illegible] many things to say unto you, but [illegible] now.
[illegible] that he the spirit of truth is [illegible] you into all truth: for he [illegible] of himself: but whatsoever he [illegible] that shall he speak, and he will shew you [illegible] to come.
[illegible] glorify me, for he shall receive of [illegible] and shall shew it unto you.
[illegible] things that the Father hath, are mine:
[illegible] said I, that he shall take of mine, and [illegible] shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and [illegible] while, and ye shall see me; because [illegible] to the Father.

17 Then said some of his Disciples among [illegible] What is this that he saith unto us,
A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me; and, because I [illegible] to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith,
A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice:
and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman, when she is in travail, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing.
Verily, verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his Apostles, 11 to unite, 17 to sanctify, 20 to glorify them, and all other believers, that they may be with him in heaven.

THese words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy Name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me, and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine;
and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

CHAP. I.

S. Luke preparing his Apostles to the behold day of his ascension, publisheth them together, into the mount Olivet, commandeth them to expect the promise of the sending down of the holy Ghost from, whereupon they were to stand in it, to the utmost parts of the earth. After his ascension they are warned by two Angels, to depart, and to fit their minds upon his second coming: 12 They accordingly return, and among themselves together upon Matthias, chosen in the place of Judas.

THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen.

3 To whom also he showed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power after that the holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 ¶ And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath days journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (The number of names together were about an hundred and twenty)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and obtained part of this ministry.

18 ¶ Now this man purchased

CHAP. II.

1 The Apostles filled with the holy Ghost, and speaking divers languages, are mocked by some, and derided by others: 14 whom Peter disproving, and shewing that the Apostles spake by the power of the holy Ghost, that Jesus was risen from the dead, exalted into heaven, and poured down the same holy Ghost, and was the Messias, 4 1 men converted to be baptized in the name of Jesus, 42 who afterward devoutly, and charitably continue together: the Apostles working wonders, and God daily increasing his Church.

AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now at this voice the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and wondered, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel, and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the Patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a Prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 he seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

…And it came to passe the morrow, that their Rulers, and Elders, and Scribes,

And Annas the high Priest, and Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high Priest, were gathered together at Ierusalem.

And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name have ye done this?

Then Peter filled with the holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye Rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and perceived that they were unlearned, and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Iesus.

And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the Councill, they conferred among themselves, Saying, What shall we do to these men? For that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them, is manifest to all them that dwell in Ierusalem, and we cannot deny it.

But that it spread no further among the people, let us straightly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this Name.

And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the Name of Iesus.

But Peter and Iohn answered, and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

So when they had further threatned them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people; for all men glorified God for that which was done.

For the man was above fourty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief Priests and Elders had said unto them.

And when they heard that, they lift up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

Who by the mouth of thy servant David …

…and gathered together …

…Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of …

…For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsell determined before to be done.

And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy Childe Iesus.

And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldnesse.

And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them, that ought of the things which he possessed, was his own; but they had all things common.

And with great power gave the Apostles witnesse of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was upon them all.

Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

And laid them down at the Apostles feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

And Ioses, who by the Apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, The sonne of consolation) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the Apostles feet.

CHAP. V.

After the Ananias and Saphira lie with for their hypocrisie at Peters words had fallen down dead, 12. and that the rest of the Apostles had wrought many miracles, 14. to the increase of the faith: 17. the Apostles are again imprisoned, 19. but delivered by an Angel bidding them to preach openly, 21. When after that reading were openly in the Temple, 29. and before the Councell, 33. they were purposed to be killed, through the advice of Gamaliel, 34. whose counsell taking they depart, 40. and are but beaten: for which they glorifie God, and cease not day from preaching.

BUt a certain man named Ananias, with Saphira his wife, sold a possession,

And kept backe part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the Apostles feet.

But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

While it remained, was it not thine? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

And …

9 And I was there, [illegible] of those hands [illegible] that was done, [illegible]

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether [illegible] for so much? And she said, Yea, for [illegible]

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband, are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the Church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the Apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people. (And they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by, might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high Priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the Temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught: but the high Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truely found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high Priest, and the captain of the Temple, and the chief Priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: (For they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Council, and the high Priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this Name? And behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter, and the other Apostles answered [illegible]

30 The God of our [illegible] raised up Jesus, [illegible] ye slew and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the Council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctour of Law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space, 35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to your selves, what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be some body, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee, in the daies of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the Apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the Council, rejoycing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Apostles desirous to have the poor regarded in their bodily sustenance, as also carefull themselves to dispatch the word of God, the seat of the soul, 3 appoint the office of Deaconship in seven chosen men, 5 of whom Stevven, a man full of faith and the holy Ghost, is one. 12 Who is taken of them, whom they have suborned to slandering, 13 and after false accusal of blasphemy against the Law and the Temple.

AND in those daies, when the number of the Disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the Disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the holy Ghost and wisdome, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give our selves continually to prayer, and to the ministery of the Word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stevven, a man full of faith and of the holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the Apostles: and [illegible] and all them of Gi[illegible] and of Asia, disputing with Steven.

[illegible] they were not able to resist the wisdom
[illegible] by which he spake.
[illegible] which said, We [illegible] words against
Moses, and against God.
12 And they stirred up the people, and the Elders, and the Scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council:
13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the Law:
14 For we have heard him say, That this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.
15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly upon him, saw his face as it had been the face of an Angel.

CHAP. VII.

Steven permitted to answer, to the accusation of blasphemy. 2. Records what the ancestors enjoyed from God rightly, and how God chastised them: he defends Moses and Aaron, and shews that the tabernacle and temple were built: 37 that Moses himself foretold of Christ: 44 and that all outward ornaments were ordained according to the heavenly pattern, to last but for a time: 51 reprehending their rebellion, and murdering of Christ the just one, whom the Prophets foretold should come into the world. 54 Whereupon they stone him to death, commending his soul to Jesus, and humbly praying for them.

THen said the high Priest, Are these things so?
2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken: The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,
3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.
4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell.
5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.
6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.
7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.
8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob the twelve patriarchs.
9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,
10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and all his house.
11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.
12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.
13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.
14 Then sent Joseph and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.
15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, 16 And were carried over into Sichem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emor the father of Sichem.
17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another King arose, which knew not Joseph.
19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil-intreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.
20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:
21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.
22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.
23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.
24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:
25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood, how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.
26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?
27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?
28 Will thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?
29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.
30 ¶ And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.
31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

[illegible]

35 This Moſes whom they refuſed, ſaying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the ſame did God ſend to be a ruler and a deliverer, by the hand of the Angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had ſhewed wonders and ſigns in the land of Egypt, and in the Red ſea, and in the wilderneſs forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Moſes which ſaid unto the children of Iſrael, A Prophet ſhall the Lord your God riſe up unto you of your brethren like unto me; him ſhall ye hear.

38 This is he that was in the Church in the wilderneſs with the Angel, which ſpake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thruſt him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: For as for this Moſes which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in thoſe days, and offered ſacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worſhip the hoſt of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets, O ye houſe of Iſrael, have ye offered to me ſlain beaſts and ſacrifices by the ſpace of forty years in the wilderneſs?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the ſtarre of your god Remphan, figures which ye made, to worſhip them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the Tabernacle of witneſs in the wilderneſs, as he had appointed, ſpeaking unto Moſes, that he ſhould make it according to the faſhion that he had ſeen.

45 Which alſo our fathers that came after, brought in with Joſhua into the poſſeſſion of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David, 46 Who found favour before God, and deſired to find a Tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon built him an houſe.

48 Howbeit the moſt High dwelleth not in Temples made with hands, as ſaith the Prophet, 49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footſtool: what houſe will ye build me, ſaith the Lord? Or what is the place of my reſt?

50 Hath not my hand made all theſe things?

51 ¶ Ye ſtiff-necked, and uncircumciſed in heart, and ears, ye do always reſiſt the holy Ghoſt: as your fathers did, ſo do ye.

52 Which of the Prophets have not your fathers perſecuted? and they have ſlain them which ſhewed before of the coming of the juſt One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the Law by the diſpoſition of Angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard theſe things, they were cut to the heart, and they gniſhed on him with their teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghoſt, looked up ſtedfaſtly into heaven, and ſaw the glory of God, and Jeſus ſtanding on the right hand of God, 56 And ſaid, Behold, I ſee the heavens opened, and the Sonne of man ſtanding on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried with a loud voice, and ſtopped their ears, and ran upon him with one conſent, 58 And caſt him out of the city, and ſtoned him: and the witneſſes laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whoſe name was Saul.

59 And they ſtoned Stephen, calling upon God, and ſaying, Lord Jeſus, receive my ſpirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this ſinne to their charge. And when he had ſaid this, he fell aſleep.

CHAP. VIII.

By occaſion of the perſecution the Church being ſcattered, Philip preacheth Chriſt in Samaria: Simon Magus, who ſometime uſed witchcraft, is baptized: Peter and John come to confirm and bleſſe the Churchmembers by prayer & impoſition of hands, giving the holy Ghoſt. 18 When Simon would have bought the like power of them, he ſore ſharply reproving his hypocriſie and covetouſneſs, and exhorting him to repentance, baptiſeth with John preaching the word of the Lord, returneth to Jeruſalem. 26 But the Angel ſendeth Philip to preach Chriſt to the Ethiopian Eunuch.

AND Saul was conſenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great perſecution againſt the Church which was at Jeruſalem: and they were all ſcattered abroad thorowout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the Apoſtles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his buriall, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havock of the Church, entring into every houſe, and haling men and women, committed them to priſon.

4 Therefore they that were ſcattered abroad, went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip came down to the city of Samaria, and preached Chriſt unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto thoſe things which Philip ſpake, hearing and ſeeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean ſpirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were poſſeſſed with them: and many taken with palſies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before time in the ſame city uſed ſorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himſelf was ſome great one.

10 To whom they all gave head from the leaſt to the greateſt, ſaying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, becauſe that of long time he had bewitched them with ſorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdome of God, and the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himſelf believed alſo: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondred, beholding the miracles and great powers which were done.

14 Now when the Apoſtles which were at Jeruſalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they ſent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the holy Ghoſt:

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them, only they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jeſus.)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghoſt.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles hands, the holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken, come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the Angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the South, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose, and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an Eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot, read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thy self to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip, that he would come up, and sit with him.

32 The place of the Scripture which he read, was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb dumb before the shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the Eunuch said, See, here is water, what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered, and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

CHAP. IX.

1 Saul going towards Damascus, 3 is stricken down to the earth, 10 is called to the Apostleship, 18 and is baptized by Ananias: 20 He preacheth Christ boldly. 23 The Jews lay wait to kill him: 29 Is in the Grecians last he escapeth both. 31 The Church having rest, Peter healeth Æneas of the palsie, 36 and restoreth Tabitha to life.

AND Saul yet breathing out threatnings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high Priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus, and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him, stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three dayes without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and require in the house of Judas, for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy Saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief Priests to bind all that call on thy Name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my Name before the Gentiles, and Kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house, and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales, and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief Priests?

called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent that he might bring them bound unto the chief Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jews took counsell to kill him.

a 2. Cor. 11. 32. 24 a But their laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to joyn himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the Apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in, and going out at Jerusalem, 29 And he spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest thorowout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to passe, as Peter passed thorowout all quarters, he came down also to the Saints, which dwelt at Lydda:

33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight yeers, and was sick of the palsie.

34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron, saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple, named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: This woman was full of good works, and almes deeds which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not b delay to come to them.

b Or, be grieved.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them: when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: And all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed, and turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sate up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up: and when he had called the Saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known thorowout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe, that he tarried many dayes in Joppa, with one Simon a Tanner.

CHAP. X.

1 Cornelius a devout man, 5 being commanded by an Angel, sendeth for Peter: 11 who by a vision, 15, 20 is taught not to dispise the Gentiles. 34 As he preacheth Christ to Cornelius, and his company, 44 the holy Ghost falleth on them, 48 and they are baptized.

THere was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a Centurion of the band, called the Italian band,

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an Angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose firname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a Tanner, whose house is by the sea side; he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the Angel which spake unto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout souldier of them that waited on him continually.

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house to pray, about the sixth hour.

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready he fell into a trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessell descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter: kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessell was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean: behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made enquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was firnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men, which were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the Centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them: And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entred into Cesarea: and Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and neer friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up, I my self also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawfull thing for a man that is a Jew, to keep company, or come unto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, assoon as I was sent for. I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me.

30 And Cornelius said, Four dales ago I was fasting untill this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a Tanner, by the sea side, who when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast well done, that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here prest before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, [a] Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ, (he is Lord of all)

37 That word (I say) you know which was published thorowout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptisme which John preached:

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devill: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem, whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses, chosen before of God, even to us who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testifie that it is he which was ordained of God to be the judge of quick and dead.

43 [b] To him give all the Prophets witness, that through his Name whosoever believeth in him, shall receive remission of sinnes.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain dales.

CHAP. XI.

1 Peter being accused for going in to the Gentiles, 5 maketh his defence, 18 which is accepted. 19 The Gospel being spread into Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, Barnabas is sent to confirme them. 26 The Disciples there are first called Christians. 27 They send relief to the brethren in Judea in time of famine.

AND the Apostles, and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessell descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even to me.

6 Upon the which when I had fastned mine eies, I considered, and saw four footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise Peter, slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the spirit bade me go with them nothing doubting: Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entred into the mans house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an Angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou, and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, [c] as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembred I the word of the Lord, how that he said, [d] John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ: what was I that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ [d] Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Steven, travelled as farre as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none, but unto the Jews onely.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus, and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number beleeved, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the eares of the Church, which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as farre as Antioch:

23 Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to passe, that a whole yeer they assembled themselves [a] with the Church, and taught much people, and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

a Or, in the Church.

27 ¶ And in these dayes came Prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to passe in the dayes of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the Disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren, which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the Elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter, whom an Angel delivereth upon the prayers of the Church. 20 In his priae taking to himself the honour due to God, he is stricken by an Angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After his death the word of God prospereth.

NOw about that time, Herod the King [b] stretched forth his hands, to vex certain of the Church.

b Or, began.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the dayes of unleavened bread)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of souldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison, but [c] prayer was made without ceasing of the Church unto God for him.

c Or, instant and earnest prayer was made.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two souldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, the Angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel said unto him, Gird thy self, and bind on thy sandals: And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and wist not that it was true which was done by the Angel: but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the Iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out and passed on through one street, and forthwith the Angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damosell came [d] to hearken, named Rhoda.

d Or, came to hearken.

14 And when she knew Peters voice, she opened not the gate for gladnesse, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he beckning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison: And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now assoon as it was day, there was no small stirre among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod [e] was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus [f] the Kings chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because their country was nourished by the Kings country.

e Or, was ill affected to them of Tyre and Sidon.

f Or, the Kings bedchamber.

21 And upon a set day Herod arayed in royall apparell, sate upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a God, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of wormes, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But the word of God grew, and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their [g] ministery, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

g Or, office.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ. 42 The Gentiles beleeve, but the Jews Lapidate Paul, and blaspheme: 46 Wherupon they turn to the Gentiles. 48 All many as were ordained to life, beleeved.

NOw there were in the Church that was at Antioch, certain Prophets and Teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the Tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they being sent forth by the holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the Synagogues of the Jews: and they had also Johu to their Minister.

6 And when they had gone thorow the Ile unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false Prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country Sergius Paulus, a prudent man: who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the Deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischiefe, thou childe of the devill, thou enemy of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right wayes of the Lord?

11 And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the Sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darknesse, and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputy when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate down.

15 And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of fourty yeers suffered he their manners in the wildernesse.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot:

20 And after that he gave unto them Judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty yeers, until Samuel the Prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a King, and God gave unto them Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fourty yeers.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their King, to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the sonne of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this man hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus.

24 When John had first preached before his coming, the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the Word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Hierusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabboth day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many dales of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again, as it is also written in the 2 second Psalme: Thou art my Sonne, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another Psalme, Thou shalt not suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

36 For David after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgivenesse of sinnes.

39 And by him all that believe, are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the Law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your dayes, a work which you shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the Synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.

43 Now when the Congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious Proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who speaking to them, perswaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envie, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting, and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, a Esiah 49.6. a I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternall life, believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published thorowout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the citie, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

b Matth. 10.14. 51 b But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium. 8 At Lystra Paul healeth a creeple, whereupon they are reputed as gods. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They passe thorow divers Churches, confirming the Disciples in faith and patience. 26 Returning to Antioch, they report what God had done with them.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbeleeving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evill affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the Gospel.

8 ¶ And there sate a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a creeple from his mothers wombe, who never had walked.

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 10 Said with a loud voyce, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the Priest of Jupiters, which was before their city, brought oxen, and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the Apostles, Barnabas, and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We likewise are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, c which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein.

16 d Who in times past, suffered all nations to walk in their own wayes.

17 Nevertheless, he left not himself without witnesse, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who perswaded the people, e and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the Gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the Kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordained them Elders in every Church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed thorowout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the Word in Perga, they went down into Attalia, 26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God, for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the Disciples.

CHAP. XV.

Great dissention ariseth touching Circumcision. 6 The Apostles consult about it, 22 and send their determination by letters to the Churches. 36 Paul and Barnabas thinking to visite the brethren together, fall at strife, and part asunder.

AND certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, f Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissention and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the Church, they passed thorow Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees, which believed, saying, That it was needfull to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the Apostles and Elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing,

Peter

Peter rose up, and said unto them; a Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the Gospel, and believe.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, giving them the holy Ghost, even as he did unto us, 9 b And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, c to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 d After this I will return, and will build again the Tabernacle of David, which is fallen down: and I will build again the ruines thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, & all the Gentiles upon whom my Name is called, saith the Lord, who doth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the Synagogues every Sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the Apostles and Elders, with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas: namely Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chiefmen among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, The Apostles, and Elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the Law, to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep your selves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the Epistle.

31 Which when they had read, they rejoyced for the e consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being Prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some dales after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Paul having circumcised Timothy, 7 and being called by the spirit from one country to another, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination: 19 For which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned. 26 The prison doors are opened. 31 The Jayler is converted, 37 and they are delivered on Remonstrance. 35

THen came he to Derbe, and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, f named Timotheus, the sonne of a certain woman, which was a Jewesse, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him, and took, and circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia, came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, & prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the Gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is a the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a Colonie: and we were in that city abiding certain dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made, and we sate down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman, named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to passe, as we went to prayer, a certain damosell possessed with a spirit b of divination, met us: which brought her masters much gaine by soothsaying.

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the Name of Jesus Christ, to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the c market place, unto the Rulers,

20 And brought them to the Magistrates, saying, These men being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customes which are not lawfull for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romanes.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them, and the Magistrates rent off their clothes, d and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the Jaylor to keep them safely:

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every ones bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voyce, saying, Do thy self no harm, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Beleeve on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thine house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house, 33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes, and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoyced, beleeving in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the Magistrates sent the Sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul; The Magistrates have sent to let you go: Now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romanes, and have cast us into prison, and now do they thrust us out privily? Nay verely, but let them come themselves, and fetch us out.

38 And the Sergeants told these words unto the Magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, e and entred into the house of Lydia, and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 5 where some believe, and other persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 13 Being persecuted at Thessalonica, 15 He cometh to Athens, and disputeth, and preacheth of the living God to them unbeleevers, 34 whereby many are converted unto Christ.

NOw when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three Sabbath dayes reasoned with them out of the Scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead: and that this Jesus whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them beleeved, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Gentils a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which beleeved not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason, and certain brethren unto the Rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also,

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another King, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the Rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken surety of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the Synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readinesse of minde, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeved: also honourable women, which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

5 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

6 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

7 And they that conducted Paul, brought him unto Athens, and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

8 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

9 Therefore disputed he in the Synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

10 Then certain Philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountred him: and some said, What will this babbler say? Other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

11 And they took him and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

12 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

13 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

14 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

15 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

16 ¶ God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in Temples made with hands:

17 Neither is worshipped with mens hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things:

18 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation:

19 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us.

20 For in him we live, and move, and have our being, as certain also of your own Poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

21 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone graven by Art, and mans device.

22 And the times of this ignorance God winked at, but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

23 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained, whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

24 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

25 So Paul departed from among them.

26 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth to the Gentiles. 9 The Lord encourageth him in a vision. 12 He is accused before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed. 18 Afterward sailing from city to city, he strengtheneth the Disciples. 24 Apollos being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, 28 preacheth Christ unto greater profiting.

AFter these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth,

2 And found a certain Jew named [k] Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought (for by their occupation they were tent-makers).

4 And he reasoned in the Synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded the Jews, and the Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews, that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [l] he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads, I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entred into a certain mans house named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 [m] And Crispus the chief Ruler of the Synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he [n] continued there a year, and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the Deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you.

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it: for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes the chief ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat: and Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila: having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And

k 1 Cor. 16. 19.

l Matth. 10. 14.

m 1 Cor. 1. 14.

n Or, abode.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entred into the Synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh, in Jerusalem; but I will return again unto you, [a] if God will: and he sailed from Ephesus.

a 1 Cor. 4. 19. Jam. 4. 15.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up, and saluted the Church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ [b] And a certain Jew, named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.

b 1 Cor. 3. 5.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptisme of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the Synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to passe into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace.

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publikely, shewing by the Scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The holy Ghost is given by Paul's hands. 9 The Jews blaspheme his doctrine which is confirmed by miracles. 13 The Jewish exorcists 16 are beaten by the devill. 19 Conjuring books are burnt. 24 Demetrius for love of gain, raiseth an uproar against Paul, 35 which is appeased by the Town-Clerk.

AND it came to passe, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed thorow the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and finding certain Disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto Johns baptisme.

c Matth. 3. 11.

4 [c] Then said Paul, John verely baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and perswading the things concerning the kingdome of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evill of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples: disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two yeers, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought speciall miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evill spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evill spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sonnes of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the Priests, which did so.

15 And the evill spirit answered, and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evill spirit was, leapt on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus, and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books together and burned them before all men: and they counted the prices of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed thorow Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministred unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stirre about that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver smith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen:

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost thorowout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying, that they be no gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not onely this our craft is in danger to be set at nought: but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia, and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions in travell, they rushed with one accord into the Theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entred in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the Theatre.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours, cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is [a] a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of Churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesse:

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, [b] the law is open, and there are deputies; let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a [c] lawfull assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this dayes uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus having fallen down dead, 10 is raised to life. 17 At Miletus he calleth the Elders together, telleth them what shall befall to himself, 28 committeth Gods flock to them, 29 warneth them of false teachers, 32 commendeth them to God, 36 prayeth with them, and goeth his way.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three moneths: and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea: and of the Thessalonians Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus: and of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas:

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the dayes of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five dayes, where we abode seven dayes.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [d] to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep, and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not your selves, for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Asos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Asos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publikely, and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, That bonds and afflictions [e] abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto my self, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsell of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto your selves, and to all the flock, over the which the holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember that by the space of three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I have coveted no mans silver, or gold, or apparell.

34 Yea, your selves know, [f] that these hands have ministred unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give, than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And

[a] Or, worshipful.
[b] Or, assizes are holden.
[c] Or, ordinary.
[d] Or, to eat.
[e] Or, wait for.
[f] 1 Cor. 4. 12. 1 Thes. 2. 9. 2 Thes. 3. 8.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Pauls neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

Paul will not by any means be disswaded from going to Jerusalem. 9 Philips daughters Prophetesses. 17 Paul cometh to Jerusalem: 27 where he is apprehended, and in great danger, 31 but by the chief captain is rescued, and permitted to speak to the people.

AND it came to passe, that after we were gotten from them, and had lanched, we came with a straight course unto Choos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden:

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven dayes: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those daies, we departed, and went our way, and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship, and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Pauls company, departed, and came unto Cesarea, and we entred into the house of Philip the Evangelist (a which was one of the seven) & abode with him.

a Chap. 6. 3.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came down from Judea a certain Prophet named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Pauls girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem binde the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready, not to be bound onely, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James, and all the Elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe, and they are all zealous of the Law.

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying, That they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customes.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them, 24 Them take, and purifie thy self with them, and be at charges with them, that they may b shave their heads; and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest orderly, and keepest the Law.

b Num. 6. 13, 18.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, c we have written and concluded, That they observe no such thing, save onely that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

c Chap. 15. 19.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entred into the Temple, d to signifie the accomplishment of the dayes of purification, untill that an offering should be offered for every one of them:

d Num. 6. 13.

27 And when the seven dales were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the Temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the Law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the Temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they took Paul, and drew him out of the Temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took souldiers, and Centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came neer, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was born of the souldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 e Art not thou that Egyptian which before these dayes madest an uproar, and ledest out into the wildernesse four thousand men that were murderers?

e Chap. 5. 36.

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew

...sus is city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean ...ich I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto ...e people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul ...ood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand ...nto the people: and when there was made a great ...ence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, ...aying,

CHAP. XXII.

1 Paul declareth at large how he was converted to the faith, 17 and called to his Apostleship. 22 At the very mentioning of the Gentiles, the people exclaim on him. 24 He should have been scourged, 25 but claiming the privilege of a Romane he escapeth.

MEn brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith)

3 a I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous towards God, as ye all are this day.

4 b And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women,

5 As also the high Priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the Elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? and he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus:

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the Law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men, of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now, why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every Synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 c And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him. c Chap. 7. 58.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief Captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging: that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge a man that is a Romane, and uncondemned?

26 When the Centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou dost, for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Romane? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great summe obtained I this freedome. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have d examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid after he knew that he was a Romane, and because he had bound him. d Or, tormented him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief Priests and all their councill to appeare, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 As Paul pleadeth his cause, 2 Ananias commandeth them to smite him. 7 Dissention among his accusers. 11 God encourageth him. 14 The Jews laying wait for Paul, 20 it declared unto the chief Captain. 27 He sendeth him to Felix the governour.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the Councill, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high Priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then saith Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the Law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou Gods high Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not brethren, that he was the high Priest: For it is written, e Thou shalt not speak evill of the ruler of thy people. e Exod. 22. 27.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the Councill, Men and brethren, f I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: g of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. f Phil. 3. 5. g Chap. 24. 21.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 h For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both. h Matth. 22. 23.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the Scribes that were of the Phariſies parte aroſe, and ſtroue, ſaying, We finde no euill in this man: but if a ſpirit, or an Angel hath ſpoken to him, let us not fight againſt God.

10 And when there aroſe a great diſſention, the chief captain feeding leſt Paul ſhould haue been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the ſouldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the caſtle.

11 And the night following, the Lord ſtood by him, and ſaid, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou haſt teſtified of me in Jeruſalem, ſo muſt thou bear witneſſe alſo at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themſelues a vnder a curſe, ſaying, That they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

a vnder a curſe, or vnder execration

13 And they were more then fourty which had made this conſpiracie.

14 And they came to the chief Prieſts and Elders, and ſaid, We haue bound our ſelues vnder a great curſe, that we will eat nothing vntill we haue ſlain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the Councill, ſignifie to the chief captain, that he bring him down vnto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire ſomething more perfectly concerning him: and we, or euer he come neer, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Pauls ſiſters ſonne heard of their laying in wait, he went and entred into the caſtle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and ſaid, Bring this young man vnto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and ſaid, Paul the priſoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this young man vnto thee, who hath ſomething to ſay vnto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aſide priuately, and aſked him, What is that thou haſt to tell me?

20 And he ſaid, The Jews haue agreed to deſire thee, that thou wouldeſt bring down Paul to morrow into the Councill, as though they would enquire ſomewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yeeld vnto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more then fourty men, which haue bound themſelues with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promiſe from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man, that thou haſt ſhewed theſe things to me.

23 And he called vnto him two Centurions, ſaying, Make ready two hundred ſouldiers to go to Ceſarea, and horſmen threeſcore and teane, and ſpearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night:

24 And prouide them beaſts, that they may ſet Paul on, and bring him ſafe vnto Felix the gouernour.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lyſias, vnto the moſt excellent gouernour Felix, ſendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and ſhould haue been killed of them: Then came I with an army, and reſcued him, hauing vnderſtood that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue known the cauſe wherefore they accuſed him, I brought him forth into their Councill.

29 Whom I perceiued to be accuſed of queſtions of their Law, but to haue nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bands.

30 And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I ſent ſtraightway to thee, and gaue commandement to his accuſers alſo, to ſay before thee what they had againſt him. Farewell.

31 Then the ſouldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horſmen to go with him, and returned to the caſtle.

33 Who when they came to Ceſarea, and deliuered the Epiſtle to the gouernour, preſented Paul alſo before him.

34 And when the gouernour had read the letter, he aſked of what prouince he was. And when he vnderſtood that he was of Cilicia:

35 I will heare thee, ſaid he, when thine accuſers are alſo come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Paul being accuſed by Tertullus the Orator, 10 anſwereth for his life and doctrine. 24 He preacheth Chriſt to the gouernour and his wife. 26 The gouernour hopeth for a bribe, but in vain. 27 After long ſuit of his office, he leaueth Paul in priſon.

AND after fiue daies, Ananias the high Prieſt deſcended with the Elders, and with a certain Orator named Tertullus, who informed the gouernour againſt Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuſe him, ſaying, Seeing that by thee we enioy great quietneſſe, and that very worthy deeds are done vnto this nation by thy prouidence:

3 We accept it alwaies, and in all places, moſt noble Felix, with all thankfulneſſe.

4 Notwithſtanding, that I be not farther tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldeſt heare us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we haue found this man a peſtilent fellow, and a mouer of ſedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the ſect of the Nazarens.

6 Who alſo hath gone about to prophane the Temple: whom we tooke, and would haue iudged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lyſias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him away out of our hands:

8 Commanding his accuſers to come vnto thee, by examining of whom thy ſelf maiſt take knowledge of all theſe things whereof we accuſe him.

9 And the Jews alſo aſſented, ſaying, that theſe things were ſo.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckned vnto him to ſpeak, anſwered. Foraſmuch as I know that thou haſt been of many yeeres a Judge vnto this nation, I do the more cheerfully anſwer for my ſelf:

11 Becauſe that thou mayeſt vnderſtand, that there are yet but twelue daies, ſince I went vp to Jeruſalem for to worſhip.

12 And they neither found me in the Temple diſputing with any man, neither raiſing vp the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they proue the things whereof they now accuſe me.

14 But this I confeſſe vnto thee, that after the way which they call hereſie, ſo worſhip I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, which

...ld ...es also allow, that there shall be a reſur-
...ction of the dead, both of the juſt and unjuſt.
16 And herein do I exerciſe my ſelf to have always a conſcience void of offence toward God, and toward men.
17 Now after many yeers I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings:
18 [a] Whereupon certain Jews from Aſia found me purified in the Temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:
19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought againſt me.
20 Or elſe let theſe ſame here ſay, if they have found any evill doing in me, while I ſtood before the counſell,
21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried ſtanding among them, [b] Touching the reſurre-ction of the dead I am called in queſtion by you this day.
22 And when Felix heard theſe things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and ſaid, When Lyſias the chief captain ſhall come down, I will know the uttermoſt of your matter.
23 And he commanded a Centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he ſhould forbid none of his acquaintance to miniſter, or come unto him.
24 And after certain dayes, when Felix came with his wife Druſilla, which was a Jew, he ſent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Chriſt.
25 And as he reaſoned of righteouſneſſe, temperance, and judgement to come, Felix trembled, and anſwered, Go thy way for this time, when I have a convenient ſeaſon, I will call for thee.
26 He hoped alſo that money ſhould have been given him of Paul, that he might looſe him:
wherefore he ſent for him the oftner, and communed with him.
27 But after two yeers, Portius Feſtus came into Felix room: and Felix willing to ſhew the Jews a pleaſure, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

3 The Jews accuſe Paul before Feſtus: 8 He anſwereth for himſelf, 11 and appealeth unto Cæſar. 14 Afterwards Feſtus openeth his matter to King Agrippa: 23 and he is brought forth. 25 Feſtus affirmeth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

NOw when Feſtus was come into the Province, after three dayes he aſcended from Cæſarea to Jeruſalem.
2 Then the high Prieſt, and the chief of the Jews informed him againſt Paul, and beſought
him,
3 And deſired favour againſt him, that he would ſend for him to Jeruſalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.
4 But Feſtus anſwered, that Paul ſhould be kept at Cæſarea, and that he himſelf would depart ſhortly thither.
5 Let them therefore, ſaid he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuſe this man, if there be any wickedneſſe in him.
6 And when he had tarried among them [c] more than ten dayes, he went down unto Cæſarea, and the next day ſitting in the judgement ſeat, commanded Paul to be brought.
7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jeruſalem, ſtood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints againſt Paul, which they could not prove,
8 While he anſwered for himſelf, Neither againſt the law of the Jews, neither [illegible] Temple, nor yet againſt Cæſar, have I offended any thing at all.
9 But Feſtus willing to do the Jews a pleaſure, anſwered Paul, and ſaid, Wilt thou go up to Jeruſalem, and there be judged of theſe things before me?
10 Then ſaid Paul, I ſtand at Cæſars judgement ſeat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have
I done no wrong, as thou very well knoweſt.
11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuſe not to die:
but if there be none of theſe things whereof theſe accuſe me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cæſar.
12 Then Feſtus, when he had conferred with the counſell, anſwered, Haſt thou appealed unto Cæ-ſar? unto Cæſar ſhalt thou go.
13 And after certain dayes, King Agrippa, and Bernice came unto Cæſarea to ſalute Feſtus.
14 And when they had been there many dayes, Feſtus declared Pauls cauſe unto the King, ſaying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:
15 About whom when I was at Jeruſalem, the chief Prieſts and the Elders of the Jews informed me, deſiring to have judgement againſt him.
16 To whom I anſwered, It is not the manner of the Romanes to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accuſed, have the accuſers face to face, and have licence to anſwer for himſelf concerning the crime laid againſt him.
17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow I ſate on the judgement ſeat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.
18 Againſt whom when the accuſers ſtood up, they brought none accuſation of ſuch things as I ſuppoſed:
19 But had certain queſtions againſt him of their own ſuperſtition, and of one Jeſus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
20 And becauſe [d] I doubted of ſuch manner of queſtions, I aſked him whether he would go to Jeruſalem, and there be judged of theſe matters.
21 But when Paul had appealed to be reſerved unto the [e] hearing of Auguſtus, I commanded him to be kept till I might ſend him to Cæſar.
22 Then Agrippa ſaid unto Feſtus, I would alſo hear the man my ſelf. To morrow, ſaid he, thou ſhalt hear him.
23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with great pomp, and was en-tred into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principall men of the city; at Feſtus commandement Paul was brought forth.
24 And Feſtus ſaid, King Agrippa, and all men which are here preſent with us, Ye ſee this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jeruſalem, and alſo here, crying, that he ought not to live any longer.
25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himſelf hath appealed to Auguſtus, I have determined to ſend him.
26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord: wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and ſpecially before thee, O King Agrippa, that after examination had, I may have ſomewhat to write.
27 For it ſeemeth to me unreaſonable to ſend a priſoner, and not withall to ſignifie the cauſes laid againſt him.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXVI.

Paul before the presence of Agrippa declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his Apostleship. 24 Festus thought him to be mad: wherunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost perswaded to be a Christian. 31. The whole company pronounce him innocent.

THen Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thy self. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself.

2 I think my self happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer for my self this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert in all customes and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My maner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 Which knew me from the beginning (if they would testifie) that after the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand, and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come: For which hopes sake, King Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with my self, that I ought to do many things contrary to the Name of Jesus of Nazareth:

a Chap. 8.3. 10 a Which thing I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the Saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief Priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every Synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

b Chap. 9.2. 12 b Whereupon, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief Priests:

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the Sunne, shining round about me, and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet, for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnesse, both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, 18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darknesse to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgivenesse of sinnes, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Jewry, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thy self, much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberneſſe.

26 For the King knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am perswaded, that none of these things are hidden from him, for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the Prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the King rose up, and the governour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

Paul shipping toward Rome, 10 forewarneth of the danger of the voyage. 11 but is not believed. 14 They are tossed to and fro with tempest; 41 and suffer shipwrack. 22, 34, 44 yet all come safe to land.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul, and certain other prisoners, unto one named Julius, a Centurion of Augustus band.

2 And entring into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus a Macedonian of Thessalonica being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon: and Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy, and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete over against Salmone.

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens, nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and sailing

[illegible] dangerous, becauſe the faſt was [illegible] paſſed, Paul admoniſhed them,

10 And ſaid unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ſhip, but alſo of our lives.

11 Nevertheleſſe the Centurion believed the maſter and the owner of the ſhip, more then thoſe things which were ſpoken by Paul.

12 And becauſe the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part adviſed to depart thence alſo, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter, which is an haven of Creet, and lieth toward the Southweſt, and Northweſt.

13 And when the South winde blew ſoftly, ſuppoſing that they had obtained their purpoſe, loſing thence they ſailed cloſe by Crete.

14 But not long after there [b] aroſe againſt it a tempeſtuous winde, called Eutoclydon.

15 And when the ſhip was caught and could not bear up into the winde, we let her drive.

16 And runing under a certain Iſland, which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they uſed helps, under-girding the ſhip: and fearing leſt they ſhould fall into the quick-ſands, ſtrake ſail, and ſo were driven.

18 And being exceedingly toſſed with a tempeſt, the next day they lightned the ſhip:

19 And the third day we caſt out with our own hands the tackling of the ſhip.

20 And when neither Sunne nor Starres in many dayes appeared, and no ſmall tempeſt lay on us, all hope, that we ſhould be ſaved, was then taken away.

21 But after long abſtinence, Paul ſtood forth in the midſt of them, and ſaid, Sirs, ye ſhould have harkned unto me, and not have looſed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loſſe.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there ſhall be no loſſe of any mans life among you, but of the ſhip.

23 For there ſtood by me this night the Angel of God, whoſe I am, and whom I ſerve, 24 Saying, Fear not Paul, thou muſt be brought before Ceſar, and lo, God hath given thee all them that ſail with thee.

25 Wherefore ſirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it ſhall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit, we muſt be caſt upon a certain Iſland.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria about midnight, the ſhip-men deemed that they drew neer to ſome country:

28 And ſounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they ſounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing leſt we ſhould have fallen upon rocks, they caſt four ancres out of the ſtern, and wiſhed for the day.

30 And as the ſhip-men were about to flee out of the ſhip, when they had let down the boat into the ſea, under colour as though they would have caſt ancres out of the fore ſhip, 31 Paul ſaid to the Centurion, and to the ſouldiers, Except theſe abide in the ſhip, ye cannot be ſaved.

32 Then the ſouldiers gat [illegible] ſhip ropes of the [illegible] and let her fall off.

[illegible] day dawning, Paul beſought [illegible] all to take meat, ſaying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued faſting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore, I pray you to take ſome meat: for this is for your health: for there ſhall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus ſpoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in preſence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they alſo took ſome meat.

37 And we were in all in the ſhip two hundred threeſcore and ſixteen ſoules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightned the ſhip, and caſt out the wheat into the ſea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they diſcovered a certain creek, with a ſhore, into the which they were minded, if it were poſſible, to thruſt in the ſhip.

40 And when they had [c] taken up the ancres, they committed themſelves unto the ſea, and looſed the rudder bands, and hoiſed up the main ſail to the winde, and made toward ſhore.

41 And falling into a place where two ſeas met, they ran the ſhip aground, and the forepart ſtuck faſt, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the ſouldiers counſell was to kill the priſoners, leſt any of them ſhould ſwim out, and eſcape.

43 But the Centurion, willing to ſave Paul, kept them from their purpoſe, and commanded that they which could ſwim, ſhould caſt themſelves firſt into the ſea, and get to land:

44 And the reſt, ſome on boards, and ſome on broken pieces of the ſhip: and ſo it came to paſſe, that they eſcaped all ſafe to land.

[b] Or, Beat the ſhip againſt it.

[c] Or, left the ancres where they were.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul after his ſhipwrack is kindly entertained of the Barbarians. 3 The viper on his hand harmeth him not. 8 He healeth many diſeaſes in the Iſland. 11 They depart towards Rome. 17 He declareth to the Jews the cauſe of his coming. 24 After his preaching, ſome were perſwaded, and ſome believed not. 30 Two he remaineth there two yeares.

AND when they were eſcaped, then they knew that the Iſland was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people ſhewed us no little kindneſſe: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one becauſe of the preſent rain, and becauſe of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of ſticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and faſtened on his hand.

4 And when the Barbarians ſaw the venomous beaſt hang on his hand, they ſaid among themſelves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom though he hath eſcaped the ſea, yet vengeance ſuffereth not to live.

5 And he ſhook off the beaſt into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he ſhould have ſwollen, or fallen down dead ſuddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and ſeen no harme come to him, they changed their minds, and ſaid that he was a god.

7 In the ſame quarters were poſſeſſions of the chief man of the Iland, whoſe name was Publius, who received us, and lodged us three days courteouſly.

8 And it came to passe, that the father of Publius lay sick of a feuer, and of a bloody flix, to whom Paul entred in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the Iland came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours, and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whose signe was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse we tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium, and after one day the South winde blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven dayes: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as farre as Appii-Forum, and the three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the Centurion delivered the prisoners to the Captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a souldier that kept him.

17 And it came to passe, that after three dayes, Paul called the chief of the Jews together. And when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customes of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner, from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cesar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kingdome of God, perswading them concerning Jesus, both out of the Law of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet, unto our fathers, 26 Saying, [a] Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their eares, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole yeers in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

The end of the Acts of the Apostles.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE Apostle to the ROMANES,

CHAP. I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romanes, 9 and his desire to come to them. 16 What his Gospel is, and the righteousnesse which it sheweth. 18 God is angry with all manner of sinne. 21 What were the sinnes of the Gentiles.

PAul a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an Apostle, [a] separated unto the Gospel of God,

2 (Which he had promised afore by his Prophets in the holy Scriptures)

3 Concerning his Sonne Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh,

4 And [b] declared to be the Sonne of God, with power, according to the Spirit of holinesse, by the resurrection from the dead,

5 By whom we have received grace and Apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his Name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ.

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be Saints: Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witnesse, whom I serve with my spirit in the Gospel of his Sonne, that without ceasing I make mention of you, always in my prayers,

10 Making request, (if by any meanes now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spirituall gift, to the end ye may be established,

12 That is, that I may be comforted together a Acts 13.1.

b Or, declared.

c Or, to the obedience of faith.

meet you, by the mutuall faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that often times I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto) that I might have some fruit [b] among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousnesse of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [c] The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodlinesse, and unrighteousnesse of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousnesse.

19 Because that which may be known of God, is manifest [d] in them, for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternall power and Godhead, [e] so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened:

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible [f] God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanesse, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more then the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the naturall use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the naturall use of the woman, burned in their lust one towards another, men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their errour which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like [g] to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to [h] a reprobate minde, to do those things which are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, covetousnesse, maliciousnesse; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despitefull, proud, boasters, inventers of evill things, disobedient to parents;

31 Without understanding, covenant breakers, [i] without naturall affection, implacable, unmercifull;

32 Who knowing the judgement of God (that they which commit such things are worthy of death) not onely do the same, but [k] have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

1 They that sinne, though they condemne it in others, cannot excuse themselves, 6 and much lesse escape the judgement of God, 9 whether they be Jews or Gentiles. 14 The Gentiles cannot escape, 17 nor yet the Jews, 25 whom their circumcision shall not profit, if they keep not the law.

THerefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thy self; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgement of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodnesse, and forbearance, and long-suffering, not knowing that the goodnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardnesse and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thy self wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgement of God; 1 James 5.3.

6 [m] Who will render to every man according to his deeds: m Psal. 62.12. Prov. 24.12. Matt. 16. 27. Rev. 22.12.

7 To them, who by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternall life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousnesse, indignation, and wrath,

9 Tribulation, and anguish upon every soul of man that doth evill, of the Jew first, and also of the [n] Gentile. n Greek.

10 But glory, honour, and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the [o] Gentile. o Greek.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without Law, shall also perish without Law: and as many as have sinned in the Law, shall be judged by the Law.

13 For not the hearers of the Law are just before God, but the doers of the Law shall be justified:

14 For when the Gentiles which have not the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Law: these having not the Law, are a law unto themselves, 15 Which shew the work of the Law written in their hearts, their [p] conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts [q] the mean while accusing or else excusing one another: p Or, all mine inward parts. q Or, between themselves.

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my Gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the Law, and makest thy boast of God:

18 And knowest his will, and [r] approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the Law, r Or, allowest the things that differ.

19 And art confident that thou thy self art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse:

20 An instructer of the foolish, a teacher of babes: which hast the forme of knowledge and of the truth in the Law;

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy self? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacriledge?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the Law, through breaking the Law dishonourest thou God?
24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is a written:
25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the Law: but if thou be a breaker of the Law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousnesse of the Law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the Law, judge thee, who by the letter, and circumcision, doest transgresse the Law?
28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Jew which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 The Jews prerogative: 3 which they have not lost:
9 Howbeit the Law convinceth them also of sinne.
20 Therefore no flesh is justified by the Law, 28 but all, without difference, by faith only: 31 and yet the Law is not abolished.

WHat advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?
2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the Oracles of God.
3 For what if some did not beleeve? shall their unbeliefe make the faith of God without effect?
4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar, as it is written, b That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.
5 But if our unrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous, who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)
6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
8 And not rather as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say, Let us do evill, that good may come: whose damnation is just.
9 What then? are we better then they? No, in no wise: for we have before c proved both Jews, and Gentiles, that they are all under sinne,
10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one:
11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth good, no not one.
13 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of asps is under their lips:
14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse:
15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their wayes:
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the Law saith, it saith to them who are under the Law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
20 Therefore by the deeds of the Law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the Law is the knowledge of sinne.
21 But now the righteousnesse of God without the Law is manifested, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets:
22 Even the righteousnesse of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that beleeve: for there is no difference:
23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God,
24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:
25 Whom God hath e set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse for the f remission of sinnes that are past, through the forbearance of God.
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousnesse: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which beleeveth in Jesus.
27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? of works? Nay: but by the Law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the Law.
29 Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing it is one God which shall justifie the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the Law through faith? God forbid; yea, we establish the Law.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Abrahams faith was imputed to him for righteousnesse 10 before he was circumcised. 13 By faith only he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousnesse.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.
3 For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleeved God, and it was counted unto him for righteousnesse.
4 Now to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeveth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.
6 Even as David also describeth the blessednesse of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works:
7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sinne.
9 Cometh this blessednesse then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnesse.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And he received the signe of circumcision, a seal of the righteousnesse of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that beleeve, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnesse might be imputed unto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision, to them who are not of the circumcision only, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promiſe that he ſhould be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his ſeed through the Law, but through the righteouſneſſe of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promiſe made of none effect.

15 Becauſe the Law worketh wrath: for where no Law is, there is no tranſgreſſion.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promiſe might be ſure to all the ſeed, not to that only which is of the Law, but to that alſo which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, [a] I have made thee a father of many nations) [b] before him whom he believed, even God who quickeneth the dead, and calleth thoſe things which be not, as though they were;

18 Who againſt hope, believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations: according to that which was ſpoken, [c] So ſhall thy ſeed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he conſidered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred yeers old, neither yet the deadneſſe of Sara's wombe:

20 He ſtaggered not at the promiſe of God through unbelief; but was ſtrong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully perſwaded, that what he had promiſed he was able alſo to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteouſneſſe.

23 Now it was not written for his ſake alone, that it was imputed to him:

24 But for us alſo, to whom it ſhall be imputed, if we believe on him that raiſed up Jeſus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raiſed again for our juſtification.

CHAP. V.

1 Being juſtified by faith, we have peace with God. 2 and joy in our hope, 6 that ſith we were reconciled by his blood, when we were enemies, 10 we ſhall much more be ſaved being reconciled. 12 As ſinne and death came by Adam. 17 ſo much more righteouſneſſe and life by Jeſus Chriſt. 20 Where ſinne abounded, grace did ſuper abound.

THerefore being juſtified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

2 By whom alſo we have acceſſe by faith, into this grace wherein we ſtand, and rejoyce in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not onely ſo, but we glory in tribulations alſo, knowing that tribulation worketh patience:

4 And patience, experience: and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not aſhamed, becauſe the love of God is ſhed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghoſt which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without ſtrength, [d] in due time Chriſt died for the ungodly.

7 For ſcarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man ſome would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet ſinners, Chriſt died for us.

9 Much more then being now juſtified by his blood, we ſhall be ſaved from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God, by the death of his Sonne: much more being reconciled, we ſhall be ſaved by his life.

11 And not onely ſo, but we alſo joy in God, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man ſinne entred into the world, and death by ſinne: and ſo death paſſed upon all men, [e] for that all have ſinned.

13 For until the Law ſinne was in the world: but ſinne is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheleſſe, death reigned from Adam to Moſes, even over them that had not ſinned after the ſimilitude of Adams tranſgreſſion, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, ſo alſo is the free gift. For if through the offence of one, many be dead: much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jeſus Chriſt, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that ſinned, ſo is the gift: for the judgement was by one to condemnation: but the free gift is of many offences unto juſtification.

17 For if [f] by one mans offence, death reigned by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteouſneſſe, ſhall reign in life by one, Jeſus Chriſt.

18 Therefore as [g] by the offence of one, judgement came upon all men to condemnation: even ſo [h] by the righteouſneſſe of one, the free gift came upon all men unto juſtification of life.

19 For as by one mans diſobedience many were made ſinners: ſo by the obedience of one, ſhall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover, the Law entred, that the offence might abound: but where ſinne abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as ſinne hath reigned unto death, even ſo might grace reign through righteouſneſſe unto eternall life, by Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

1 We may not live in ſin, 2 for we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our Baptiſme. 12 Let not ſinne reign any more, 13 becauſe we have yielded our ſelves to the ſervice of righteouſneſſe, 23 and for that death is the wages of ſinne.

WHat ſhall we ſay then? ſhall we continue in ſinne, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid: How ſhall we that are dead to ſinne, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not that ſo many of us as [i] were baptized into Jeſus Chriſt, were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptiſme into death, that like as Chriſt was raiſed up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even ſo we alſo ſhould walk in newneſſe of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeneſſe of his death, we ſhall be alſo in the likeneſſe of his reſurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of ſinne might be deſtroyed, that henceforth we ſhould not ſerve ſinne.

7 For he that is dead, is [k] freed from ſinne.

8 Now if we be dead with Chriſt, we believe that we ſhall alſo live with him:

9 Knowing that Chriſt being raiſed from the dead, dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto ſinne once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewiſe reckon ye alſo your ſelves to be dead indeed unto ſinne, but alive unto God, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

12 Let not ſinne reign therefore in your mortall body, that ye ſhould obey it in the luſts thereof.

13 Neither yeeld ye your members as [a] inſtruments of unrighteouſneſſe unto ſinne: but yeeld your ſelves unto God, as thoſe that are alive from the dead, and your members as inſtruments of righteouſneſſe unto God.

14 For ſinne ſhall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? ſhall we ſin, becauſe we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yeeld your ſelves ſervants to obey, his ſervants ye are to whom ye obey: whether of ſinne unto death, or of obedience unto righteouſneſſe?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the ſervants of ſinne: but ye have obeyed from the heart that forme of doctrine, [b] which was delivered to you.

18 Being then made free from ſinne, ye became the ſervants of righteouſneſſe.

19 I ſpeak after the manner of men, becauſe of the infirmitie of your fleſh: for as ye have yeelded your members ſervants to uncleanneſſe and to iniquitie, unto iniquitie: even ſo now yeeld your members ſervants to righteouſneſſe, unto holineſſe.

20 For when ye were the ſervants of ſinne, ye were free [c] from righteouſneſſe.

21 What fruit had ye then in thoſe things, whereof ye are now aſhamed? for the end of thoſe things is death.

22 But now being made free from ſinne, and become ſervants to God, ye have your fruit unto holineſſe, and the end everlaſting life.

23 For the wages of ſinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer then he liveth. 4 But we are dead to the law. 7 Yet is not the law ſinne, 12 but holy, juſt, good, 16 as I acknowledge, who am grieved becauſe I cannot keep it.

KNow ye not brethren (for I ſpeak to them that know the law) how that the law hath dominion over a man, as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband ſo long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, ſhe is looſed from the law of the husband.

3 So then if while her husband liveth, ſhe be married to another man, ſhe ſhall be called an adultereſſe: but if her husband be dead, ſhe is free from that law, ſo that ſhe is no adultereſſe, though ſhe be married to another man.

4 Wherefore my brethren, ye alſo are become dead to the law by the body of Chriſt, that ye ſhould be married to another, even to him who is raiſed from the dead, that we ſhould bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the fleſh, the [d] motions of ſinnes which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held, that we ſhould ſerve in newneſſe of ſpirit, and not in the oldneſſe of the letter.

7 What ſhall we ſay then? Is the law ſinne? God forbid. Nay, I had not known ſinne, but by the law: for I had not known luſt, except the law had ſaid, Thou ſhalt not covet.

8 But ſinne taking occaſion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiſcence. For without the law ſinne was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once, but when the commandment came, ſinne revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For ſinne taking occaſion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it ſlew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and juſt, and good.

13 Was then that which is good, made death unto me? God forbid. But ſinne, that it might appear ſinne, working death in me by that which is good: that ſinne by the commandment might become exceeding ſinfull.

14 For we know that the law is ſpirituall: but I am carnall, ſold under ſinne.

15 For that which I do, I [e] allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I conſent unto the law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it: but ſinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my fleſh) dwelleth no good thing. For to will is preſent with me: but how to perform that which is good, I finde not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evill which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but ſinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then a law, that when I would do good, evill is preſent with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, after the inward man:

23 But I ſee another law in my members, warring againſt the law of my minde, and bringing me into captivitie to the law of ſinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am: who ſhall deliver me from [f] the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. So then, with the minde I my ſelf ſerve the law of God: but with the fleſh, the law of ſinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 They that are in Chriſt, and live according to the ſpirit, are free from condemnation. 5. 13 What harm cometh of the fleſh, 6. 14 and what good of the ſpirit, 17 and what of being Gods children, 19 whoſe glorious deliverance all things long for, 29 was before hand decreed from God. 38 What can ſever us from him?

THere is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Chriſt Jeſus, who walk not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Chriſt Jeſus, hath made me free from the law of ſinne and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the fleſh, God ſending his own Sonne in the likeneſſe of ſinfull fleſh, and for ſinne condemned ſinne in the fleſh:

4 That the righteouſneſſe of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the fleſh, do mind the things of the fleſh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For [g] to be carnally minded, is death: but to be ſpiritually minded, is life and peace.

7 Becauſe [h] the carnall mind is enmity

And not it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the spirit is life, because of righteousnesse.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you: he that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, [a] by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debters, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the spirit do mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to feare: but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit it self beareth witnesse with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joynt heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory, which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sonnes of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope:

21 Because the creature it self also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that [b] the whole creation groaneth and travelleth in pain together, until now.

23 And not only they, but our selves also which have the first fruits of the spirit, even we our selves groan within our selves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the [c] redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh intercession for us with groanings, which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the minde of the Spirit, [d] because he maketh intercession for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne amongst many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his owne Sonne, but delivered him up for us all: how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that justifieth:

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea, rather that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distresse, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 (As it is written, [e] For thy sake we are killed all the day long, we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter)

37 Nay, in all these things we are more then conquerours, through him that loved us.

38 For I am perswaded, that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 14 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The power he doth with his clay whose he list. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejecting of the Jews were foretolde. 32 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousnesse of faith.

I Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witnesse in the holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heavinesse, and continuall sorrow in my hart.

3 For I could wish that my self were [f] accursed from Christ, for my brethren my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites, to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the [g] covenants, and the giving of the Law, and the service of God, and the promises:

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever, Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a sonne.

10 And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth)

12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the [h] younger.

13 As it is written, [i] Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, [k] I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh, [a] Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me; Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay, but O man, who art thou that [b] repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, [c] Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the [d] potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long suffering the vessels of wrath [e] fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercie, which he had afore prepared unto glory?

24 Even us whom he hath called, not of the Jewes only, but also of the Gentiles.

25 As he saith also in Osee, [f] I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall come to passe, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, [h] Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

28 For he will finish the [i] work, and cut it short in righteousnesse: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, [k] Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousnesse, have attained to righteousnesse, even the righteousnesse which is of faith:

31 But Israel which followed after the Law of righteousnesse, hath not attained to the Law of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the Law: for they stumbled at that stumbling stone.

33 As it is written, [l] Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him, shall not be [m] ashamed.

CHAP. X.

5 The Scripture sheweth the difference betwixt the righteousnesse of the Law, and that of faith, 11 and that all both Jew and Gentile that believe, shall not be confounded. 18 And that the Gentiles by the preaching of the word, and believe. 19 Israel was not ignorant of these things.

BRethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods righteousnesse, and going about to establish their own righteousnesse, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousnesse of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousnesse to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Law, that [n] the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith speaketh on this wise: [o] Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? That is to bring Christ down from above.

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? That is to bring up Christ again from the dead.

8 But what saith it? [p] The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is the word of faith which we preach.

9 That if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousnesse, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the Scripture saith, [q] Whosoever believeth on him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 [r] For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a Preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written: [s] How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, [t] Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [u] their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, [x] I will provoke you to jealousie by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, [y] I was found of them that sought me not: I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, [z] All day long have I stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gain-saying people.

CHAP. XI.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them: 25 For there is a measure of their salvation. 33 Gods judgements are unsearchable.

I Say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he fore-knew. Wot ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 [a] Lord, they have killed thy Prophets, and digged down thine Altars, and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [b] I have reserved to my self seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even [illegible]

[illegible] a remnant according [illegible]

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace, otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for, but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were a blinded.

8 According as it is written, b God hath given them the spirit of c slumber: d eyes that they should not see; and ears that they should not hear unto this day.

9 And David saith, e Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompence unto them.

10 f Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid. But rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousie.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the g diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles: how much more their fulnesse?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world: what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde olive-tree wert graffed in h amongst them, and with them partakest of the root and fatnesse of the olive tree:

18 Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well: because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded, but fear.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodnesse and severitie of God: on them which fell, severitie; but towards thee, goodnesse, if thou continue in his goodnesse: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they bide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree, which is wilde by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these which be the naturall branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits) that i blindnesse in part is happened to Israel, until the fulnes of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, k There shall come out of Sion the deliverer, and shall turn away ungodlinesse from Jacob.

27 For this is my Covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath l concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdome and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 m For who hath known the minde of the Lord, or who hath been his counseller?

35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

1 Gods mercies must move us to please God. 3 We must thinke soberly of himself, 6 and exercise every one on that calling wherein he is placed. 9 Loving and many other duties are required of us. 14 Revenge is specially forbidden.

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renuing of your minde, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly then he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we being many are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecie let us prophesie according to the proportion of faith:

7 Or ministery, let us wait on our ministring: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it n with simplicity: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulnesse.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evill, cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love, in honour preferring one another.

11 Not slothfull in businesse: fervent in spirit, serving the Lord:

12 Rejoycing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer:

13 Distributing to the necessity of Saints, given to hospitality.

14 Bless them which persecute you, bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoyce with them that do rejoyce, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same minde one toward another. Minde not high things, but o condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man evill for evill. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not your selves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [a] Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 [b] Therefore if thine enemie hunger, feed him: if he thirst, give him drink. For in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evill, but overcome evill with good.

CHAP. XIII.

2 Subjection, and many other duties we owe to the Magistrate: 8 Love is the fulfilling of the Law. 11 Gluttony and drunkenesse, and the works of darknesse, are out of season in the time of the Gospell.

LEt every soul be subject unto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God. The powers that be, are [c] ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terrour to good works, but to the evill. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evill, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evill.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not onely for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause pay you tribute also: for they are Gods ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues, tribute to whom tribute is due, custome to whom custome, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another, hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this; Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation neerer then when we believed.

12 The night is farre spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darknesse, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk [d] honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkennesse, not in chambering and wantonnesse, not in strife and envying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 We may not contemne nor condemne one the other for things indifferent. 13 but take heed that they give no offence in them: 15 for then the Apostle proveth unlaw'full by many reasons.

HIm that is weak in the faith, receive you, but [e] not to doubtfull disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not, and let not him which eateth not, judge him that eateth. For God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that judgest another mans servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth; yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be [f] fully perswaded in his own minde.

6 He that [g] regardeth a day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks: and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord: and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore or die, we are the Lords.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why doest [h] thou judge thy brother? or why doest thou set at nought thy brother? we shall all stand before the judgement seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, [i] As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confesse to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block, or an occasion to fall in his brothers way.

14 I know and am perswaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing [k] unclean of it self; but to him that esteemeth any thing to be [l] unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not [m] charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evill spoken of.

17 For the kingdome of God is not meat and drink, but righteousnesse, and peace, and joy in the holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edifie another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God: all [n] things indeed are pure; but it is evill for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat [o] flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thy self before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that [p] doubteth, is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: For whatsoever is not of faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please our selves, 3 for Christ did not so. 7 but receive one the other, as Christ did us all. 8 both Jews and Gentiles. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 28 and promiseth to see them, 30 and requireth their prayers.

WE then that are strong, ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our selves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For

For even Christ pleased not himself; but as it is written, [a] The reproaches of them that reproached thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

5 [b] Now the God of patience and consolation, grant you to be like minded one towards another according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may with one mind, and one mouth glorifie God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a Minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorifie God for his mercy, as it is written, [d] For this cause I will confesse to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name.

10 And again he saith, [e] Rejoyce ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And again, [f] Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laud him all ye people.

12 And again, Esaias saith, [g] There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnesse, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you, in some sort, as putting you in minde, because of the grace that is given to me of God:

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the [h] offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 Through mighty signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another mans foundation:

21 But as it is written, [i] To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard, shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been [k] much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many yeeres to come unto you:

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled [l] with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem, to minister unto the Saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certain contribution for the poor Saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily, and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spirituall things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnall things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulnesse of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christs sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me, in your prayers to God for me,

31 That I may be delivered from them that [m] do not believe in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be accepted of the Saints:

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. XVI.

3 Paul willeth the brethren to greet many. 17 He advertiseth them to take heed of such which cause division and offences. 21 and after sundry salutations, endeth with praise and thanks to God.

I Commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the Church which is at Cenchrea,

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh Saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever businesse she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of my self also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 (Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the Churches of the Gentiles.)

5 Likewise greet the Church that is in their house. Salute my beloved Epenetus, who is the first fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my kinsmen, and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the Apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus [n] houshold.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the [o] houshold of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the Saints which are with them.

16 Salute one another with an holy kisse. The Churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you [illegible] divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned, and avoid them.

18 For

18 For they that are ſuch, ſerve not our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, but their own belly, and by good words and fair ſpeeches deceive the hearts of the ſimple.

19 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wiſe unto that which is good, and [a] ſimple concerning evill.

a Or, harmleſſe.

20 And the God of peace ſhall [b] bruiſe Satan under your feet ſhortly. The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you. Amen.

b Or, tread.

21 Timotheus my work-fellow, and Lucius, and Jaſon, and Soſipater my kinſmen ſalute you.

22 I Tertius who wrote this Epiſtle, ſalute you in the Lord.

23 Gaius mine hoſt, and of the whole Church, ſalluteth you. Eraſtus the Chamberlain of the citie ſaluteth you, and Quartus a brother,

24 The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all. Amen.

25 Now to him that is of power to ſtablish you according to my Goſpel, and the preaching of Jeſus Chriſt, according to the revelation of the myſtery, which was kept ſecret ſince the world began,

26 But now is made manifeſt, and by the Scriptures of the Prophets, according to the commandment of the everlaſting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith, 27 To God onely wiſe, be glory through Jeſus Chriſt for ever. Amen.

¶ Written to the Romans from Corinthus, and ſent by Phebe, ſervant of the Church at Cenchres.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL the Apoſtle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

After his ſalutation, and thankſgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, 12 and reproveth their diſſentions. 18 God deſtroyeth the wiſdome of the wiſe, 21 by the fooliſhneſſe of preaching, and 26 calleth not the wiſe, mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the fooliſh, weak, and vile of no account.

PAul called to be an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, through the will of God, and Soſthenes our brother,

2 Unto the Church of God which is at Corinth, to them that [c] are ſanctified in Chriſt Jeſus, called to be Saints, [d] with all that in every place call upon the Name of Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, both theirs and ours.

c Acts 15. 9. d Rom. 10. 13.

3 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jeſus Chriſt,

5 That in every thing ye are inriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge:

6 Even as the teſtimony of Chriſt was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye come behinde in no gift, waiting for the [e] coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, e Greek, revelation.

8 Who ſhall alſo confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameleſſe in the day of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

9 [f] God is faithfull by whom ye were called into the fellowſhip of his Sonne Jeſus Chriſt our Lord f 1 Theſſ. 5. 24. 2 Tim. 2. 13.

10 Now, I beſeech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that ye all ſpeak the ſame thing, and that there be [g] no diviſions among you: but that ye be perfectly joyned together in the ſame minde, and in the ſame judgement.

g Greek, diviſions.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the houſe of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I ſay, that every one of you ſaith, I am of Paul, and I of [h] Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Chriſt.

h Acts 18. 24.

13 Is Chriſt divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you but [i] Criſpus and Gaius:

i Acts 18. 8.

15 Leſt any ſhould ſay, that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized alſo the houſhold of Stephanas: beſides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Chriſt ſent me not to baptize, but to preach the Goſpel: [k] not with wiſdom of words, leſt the croſſe of Chriſt ſhould be made of none effect.

k 1 Cor. 2. 1, 4.

18 For the preaching of the croſſe is to them that periſh, fooliſhneſſe: but unto us which are ſaved, it is the [m] power of God.

m Rom. 1. 16.

19 For it is written, I will deſtroy the wiſdome of the wiſe, and will bring to nothing the [n] underſtanding of the prudent.

n Iſa. 29. 14.

20 [o] Where is the wiſe? where is the Scribe? where is the diſputer of this world? Hath not God made fooliſh the wiſdome of this world?

o Iſa. 33. 18.

21 [p] For after that, in the wiſdome of God the world by wiſdome knew not God, it pleaſed God by the fooliſhneſſe of preaching to ſave them that believe.

p Rom. 1. 20.

22 For the [q] Jews require a ſigne, and the Greeks ſeek after wiſdome.

q Matth. 12. 38.

23 But we preach Chriſt crucified, unto the Jews a ſtumbling block, and unto the Greeks fooliſhneſſe:

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Chriſt the power of God, and the wiſdome of God.

25 Becauſe the fooliſhneſſe of God is wiſer than men: and the weakneſſe of God is ſtronger than men.

26 For ye ſee your calling, brethren, how that not many wiſe men after the fleſh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath choſen the fooliſh things of the world, to confound the wiſe: and God hath choſen the weak things of the world, to confound the things which are mighty:

28 And baſe things of the world, & things which are deſpiſed, hath God choſen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no fleſh ſhould glory in his preſence.

30 But of him are ye in Chriſt Jeſus, who of God is made unto us wiſdome, and righteouſneſſe, and ſanctification, and redemption:

31 That according as it is written, [r] He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

r Jer. 9. 24.

CHAP.

CHAP. II.

He declareth this his preaching. 1 Though it bring not enticing of words, or of humane wisdome: yet it is effectuall in the 4, 5 power of God: and is farre exalted 6 the wisdome of this world, and 9 humane sense, as that 14 the naturall man cannot understand it.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, [a] came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdome, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakenesse, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech, and my preaching [b] was not with [c] enticing words of mans wisdome, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdome of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdome among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdome of this world, nor of the Princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdome which God ordained before the world, unto our glory.

8 Which none of the Princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [d] Eye hath not seen, nor eare heard, neither have entred into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man save the spirit of man which is in him? Even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 [e] Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdome teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spirituall things with spirituall.

14 But the naturall man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishnesse unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 [f] But he that is spirituall, [g] judgeth all things, yet he himself is [h] judged of no man.

16 [i] For who hath known the minde of the Lord that he [k] may instruct him? But we have the minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

Milk is fit for children. 3 Strife and division argueth a fleshly minde. 7 He that planteth, and he that watereth, is nothing. 9 The Ministers are Gods fellow-workmen. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which 17 must be kept holy. 19 The wisdome of this world is foolishnesse with God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spirituall, but as unto carnall, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and [l] divisions, are ye not carnall, and walk [m] as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnall?

5 Who then is Paul? and who is Apollo? but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man.

6 I have planted, Apollo watered: but God gave the increase.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: [n] and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together with God, ye are Gods [o] husbandry, ye are Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every mans work shall be made manifest: For the day shall declare it, because it [p] shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every mans work of what sort it is.

14 If any mans work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any mans work shall be burne, he shall suffer losse: but he himself shall be saved; yet so, as by fire.

16 [q] Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man [r] defile the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which Temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself: If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdome of this world is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, [s] He taketh the wise in their own craftinesse.

20 And again, [t] The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men, for all things are yours.

22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours.

23 And ye are Christs, and Christ is Gods.

CHAP. IIII.

1 In what account the Ministers ought to be had. 7 We have nothing which we have not received. 9 The Apostles spectacle to the world, Angels, and men, 13 the filth and off-scouring of the world. 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 16 whom we ought to follow.

LET a man so account of us, as of the Ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithfull.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of mans [u] judgement: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by my self, yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 [x] Therefore judge nothing before the time, untill the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make a Or, differ-eth thee?

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to my self, and to Apollo, for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not to think of men, above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who [a] maketh thee to differ from another? And what hast thou that thou didst not receive? Now if thou didst receive it, why doest thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as Kings without us, and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the Apostles last, as it were men appointed to death. For we are made a [b] spectacle unto the world, and to Angels, and to men.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sonnes I warn you.

15 For though you have ten thousand instructers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my wayes which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every Church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

e Acts 19.21. Jam.4.15

19 [e] But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdome of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? Shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAP. V.

1 The incestuous person 6 is cause rather of shame unto them, then of rejoycing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Hainous offenders are to be shunned and avoided.

IT is reported commonly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication, as is not so much as named amongst the Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might be taken away from among you.

5 [h] To deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your glorying is not good: [i] know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our Passover [k] is sacrificed for us.

8 Therefore let us keep the [l] Feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickednesse: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an Epistle, not to company with fornicators.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such a one, no, not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without, God judgeth. Therefore put away from among your selves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Corinthians must not vex their brethren, in going to law with them: 6 especially under infidels. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdome of God. 15 Our bodies are the members of Christ, 19 and Temples of the holy Ghost: 16, 17 They must not therefore be defiled.

DAre any of you having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the Saints?

2 Do ye not know that the Saints shall judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge Angels? How much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgement of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers?

7 Now therefore, there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another? why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer your selves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, you do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdome of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankinde, 10 Nor theeves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners shall inherit the kingdome of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawfull unto me, but all things are not [m] expedient: all things are lawfull for man, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord: and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What, know ye not that he which is joyned to an harlot, is one body? for two (saith he) shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joyned unto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: every sinne that a man doth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

19 What, know ye not that your body is the Temple of the holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God; and ye are not your own?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit, which are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

3 He treateth of marriage, 4 shewing it to be a remedy against fornication: 10 And that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 18. 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects we may either marry, or abstain from marrying.

NOw concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me; It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud you not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give your selves to fasting and prayer, and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I my self: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widowes, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry then to burn.

10 And unto the married, I command, yet not I but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord, If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband, else were your children unclean, but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbeleiving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [a] to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk, and so ordain I in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised: is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the Commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lords [b] free-man: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christs servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price, be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgement as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithfull.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present [c] distresse, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulnesse. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Never-a Greek, in peace.

b Greek, made free.

c Or, present necessity.

37 Nevertheless, he that ſtandeth ſtedfaſt in his heart, having no neceſſity, but hath power over his own will, and hath ſo decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage, doth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is bound by the Law as long as her huſband liveth: but if her huſband be dead, ſhe is at liberty to be married to whom ſhe will, only in the Lord.

40 But ſhe is happier if ſhe ſo abide, after my judgement: and I think alſo that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 To abſtain from meats offered unto idols. 8, 9 We muſt not abuſe our Chriſtian liberty, to the offence of our brethren: 11 but muſt bridle our knowledge with charity.

NOw as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up: but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the ſame is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of thoſe things that are offered in ſacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth (as there be gods many, and lords many)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we [a] in him, and one Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge: for ſome with conſcience of the idol unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol, and their conſcience being weak, is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, [b] are we the better: neither if we eat not, [c] are we the worſe.

9 But take heed leſt by any means this [d] liberty of yours become a ſtumbling block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man ſee thee which haſt knowledge, ſit at meat in the idols temple: ſhall not the conſcience of him which is weak, be [e] emboldened to eat thoſe things which are offered to idols?

11 And through thy knowledge ſhall the weak brother perish, for whom Chriſt died?

12 But when ye ſinne ſo againſt the brethren, and wound their weak conſcience, ye ſinne againſt Chriſt.

13 Wherefore if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no fleſh while the world ſtandeth, leſt I make my brother to offend.

CHAP. IX.

1 He ſheweth his liberty. 7 and that the Miniſters ought to live by the Goſpel: 15 Yet that himſelf doth of his own accord abſtaine. 18 In his reward: 19 in becoming all things unto them, 22 to offend no man in any thing: 24 but to run the race.

AM I not an Apoſtle? am I not free? have I

[illegible] Chriſt our Lord? are not you

[illegible] the ſeal of mine Apoſtleſhip

[illegible] the Lord.

3 Mine anſwer to them that do examine me is this:

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a ſiſter [f] wife as well as other Apoſtles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I theſe things as a man? or ſaith not the Law the ſame alſo?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moſes, [g] Thou ſhalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn: doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or ſaith he it altogether for our ſakes? for our ſakes no doubt this is written: that he that ploweth, ſhould plow in hope: and that he that threſheth in hope, ſhould be partakers of his hope.

11 [h] If we have ſown unto you ſpirituall things, is it a great thing if we ſhall reap your carnall things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheleſſe, we have not uſed this power: but ſuffer all things, leſt we ſhould hinder the Goſpel of Chriſt.

13 [i] Do ye not know, that they which miniſter about holy things, [k] live of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the Altar, are partakers with the Altar.

14 Even ſo hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Goſpel, ſhould live of the Goſpel.

15 But I have uſed none of theſe things. Neither have I written theſe things, that it ſhould be ſo done unto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man ſhould make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the Goſpel, I have nothing to glory of: for neceſſity is laid upon me, yea, wo is unto me, if I preach not the Goſpel.

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if againſt my will, a diſpenſation of the Goſpel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily, that when I preach the Goſpel, I may make the Goſpel of Chriſt without charge, that I abuſe not my power in the Goſpel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my ſelf ſervant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews: to them that are under the Law, as under the Law, that I might gain them that are under the Law:

21 To them that are without Law, as without Law, (being not without Law to God, but under the Law to Chriſt) that I might gain them that are without Law.

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things unto all men, that I might by all means ſave ſome.

23 And this I do for the Goſpels ſake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that ſtriveth for the maſtery, is temperate in all things: Now they do it

CHAP. X.

1 The admonition of the fore-going types of our, 7 and their unwitnesses, to beware of 12 presumption, 13 and assureth us that no temptation shall be too strong for us, 14 wherefore we must flee from idolatry, 21 and not take the Lords table with the table of devils, 24 And in things indifferent we must have regard of our brethren.

MOreover brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ).

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as pertaineth unto man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men: judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For the earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols; eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof.

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the Church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

1 He exhorteth them to follow him as he followeth Christ, 2 commendeth them for keeping his traditions, 3 teacheth the order of man and woman, 10 and that women must have power on their heads, 17 reproveth their disorder in the Lords supper, 23 and declareth the right use thereof.

14. Doth not even nature it self teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15. But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16. But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17. Now in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that ye come together, not for the better, but for the worse.

18. For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I hear that there be [b] divisions among you, and I partly believe it.

19. For there must be also [c] heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20. When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lords Supper.

21. For in eating, every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22. What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23. For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night he was betrayed, took

24. And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lords death till he come.

27. Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh [d] damnation to himself, not discerning the Lords body.

30. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31. For if we would judge our selves, we should not be judged.

32. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34. And if any man hunger, let him eat at home, that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1. Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say, that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4. Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit,

5. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God, which worketh all in all.

7. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withall.

8. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdome; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9. To another faith by the same Spirit: to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10. To another the working of miracles, to another prophecie, to another discerning of spirits, to another diverse kindes of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

11. But all these worketh that one and the self same Spirit, dividing to every man severally, as he will.

12. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

13. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or [e] Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14. For the body is not one member, but many.

15. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16. And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

17. If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18. But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19. And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20. But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22. Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23. And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comelinesse.

24. For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25. That there should be no schisme in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26. And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27. Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the Church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all Teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: And yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

1 All gifts, 2, 3 how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity. 4 The praise thereof, and 13 it abideth before hope and faith.

THough I speak with the tongues of men and of Angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have no charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind: charity envieth not: charity vaunteth not it self, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave it self unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil,

6 Rejoyceth not in iniquity, but rejoyceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophecie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part, but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three: but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Prophecie is commended. 2, 3, 4, and implied to excel speaking with tongues. 6 By 9, 11, 12, 16, 17, 18, 19 drawn from the end of tongues, which is to edifie. 13 And therefore to be used to edifying. 21 It is no sufficient proof. 26 The true use of gifts in general. 27 and the chief unities. 34 Women are forbidden to speak in the Church.

FOllow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him, howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the Church.

5 Now I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the Church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battel?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words † easie to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them are without signification.

11 Therefore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, for as much as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and will pray with understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily giv'st thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than you all.

19 Yet in the Church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice be children, but in understanding be ‡ men.

21 In the Law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to unbelievers: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole Church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come speaketh, let there be but two, or at the most but three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the Church, and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the Churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speak: but they are commanded to be under obedience: as also saith the b Law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the Church.

36 What, came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you, are the Commandements of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesie, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently, and in order.

CHAP. XV.

1 Christ's resurrection. 12 He proveth the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 33 and manner thereof. 51 And of the changing of them that shall be found alive at the last day.

MOreover, brethren, I declare unto you the Gospel, which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sinnes according to the Scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he arose again the third day according to the Scriptures;

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that he was seen of James, then of all the Apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, that am not meet to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain:

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain, ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first fruits, afterward they that are Christs, at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdome to God, even the Father, when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all his enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Sonne also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoycing, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evill communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sinne not: for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestiall bodies, and bodies terrestriall: but the glory of the celestiall is one, and the glory of the terrestriall is another.

41 There is one glory of the Sunne, another of the Moone, and another glory of the Starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sowen in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sowen in dishonour, it is raised in glory; it is sowen in weaknesse, it is raised in power:

44 It is sowen a naturall body, it is raised a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 And so it is written: The first man Adam was made a living soule, the last Adam was made a quickning spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: The second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy, and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have born the image of the earthy, we shall also beare the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mysterie; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinckling of an eye, at the last trumpe (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortall shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O b grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, alwayes abounding in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

The order how to relieve the poore of the Saints, at Jerusalem. 10. Commendeth Timothy. 13. And other friendly admonitions. 19. Salutes the Church with divers salutations.

NOw concerning the collection for the Saints, as I have given order to the Churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the weeke, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your c liberality unto Jerusalem. c Gift.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall passe throw Macedonia; for I do passe throw Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey, whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; for I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectuall is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without feare: for he worketh the worke of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you, with the brethren, but his will was not at all to come at this time: but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men: be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministery of the Saints,)

16 That ye submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and labareth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the Church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you: greet ye one another with an holy kisse.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¶ The first Epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and sent by them.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL, the Apoſtle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

¶ The Apoſtle incourageth them againſt troubles, by the conſorts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, 8 ſo particularly in his late danger in Aſia. 12 And telling forth his own conſcience, and their, to witneſſe of his ſincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the Goſpel, 15 he excuſeth his not coming to them, 23 as proceeding not of lightneſſe, but of his loving towards them.

PAul an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the Church of God which is at Corinth, with all the Saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 Bleſſed be God even the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we our ſelves are comforted of God.

5 For as the ſufferings of Chriſt abound in us, ſo our conſolation alſo aboundeth by Chriſt.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your conſolation and ſalvation, which [a] is effectuall in the enduring of the ſame ſufferings which we alſo ſuffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your conſolation and ſalvation.

7 And our hope of you is ſtedfaſt, knowing that as you are partakers of the ſufferings, ſo ſhall ye be alſo of the conſolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Aſia, that we were preſſed out of meaſure, above ſtrength, inſomuch that we deſpaired even of life.

9 But we had the [b] ſentence of death in our ſelves, that we ſhould not truſt in our ſelves, but in God which raiſeth the dead.

10 Who delivered us from ſo great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we truſt that he will yet deliver us:

11 You alſo helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift beſtowed upon us by the means of many perſons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoycing is this, the teſtimonie of our conſcience, that in ſimplicity, and godly ſincerity, not with fleſhly wiſdome, but by the grace of God, we have had our converſation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what you read, or acknowledge, and I truſt you ſhall acknowledge even to the end.

14 As alſo you have acknowledged us in part that we are your rejoycing, even as ye alſo are ours in the day of the Lord Jeſus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have a ſecond [c] benefit:

16 And to paſſe by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I uſe lightneſſe? or the things that I purpoſe, do I purpoſe according to the fleſh, that with me there ſhould be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is true, our [d] word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Sonne of God, Jeſus Chriſt, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Sylvanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea and Nay, but in him was Yea.

20 For all the promiſes of God in him are Yea, and in him, Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which ſtabliſheth us with you, in Chriſt, and hath anointed us, is God, 22 Who hath alſo ſealed us, and given the earneſt of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my ſoul, that to ſpare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye ſtand.

CHAP. II.

1 Having ſhewed the reaſon why he came not to them, 6 He requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated perſon, 10 even as himſelfe alſo upon his true repentance had forgiven him, 12 declaring withall why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy ſucceſſe which God gave to his preaching in all places.

BUt I determined this with my ſelf, that I would not come again to you in heavineſſe.

2 For if I make you ſorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the ſame which is made ſorry by me?

3 And I wrote this ſame unto you, leſt when I came, I ſhould have ſorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoyce, having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguiſh of heart, I wrote unto you with many teares, not that you ſhould be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have cauſed grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to ſuch a man is this [e] puniſhment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwiſe, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, leſt perhaps ſuch a one ſhould be ſwallowed up with overmuch ſorrow.

8 Wherefore I beſeech you, that you would confirm your love towards him.

9 For to this end alſo did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive alſo: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your ſakes forgave I it, [f] in the perſon of Chriſt, 11 Leſt Satan ſhould get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Chriſts Goſpel, and a dore was opened unto me of the Lord, a Or, is effectuall.

b Or, anſwer of.

c Or, grace.

d Or, preaching.

e Or, cenſure.

f Or, in the perſon of.

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish.

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death, and to the other the savour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which a corrupt the word of God; but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Lest their false teacher should charge him with vain glory, he sheweth the faith and grace of the Corinthians, to be a sufficient commendation of his ministery. 6 Wherupon entring a comparison between the Ministers of the Law and of the Gospel, 12 he proveth that his ministry is far the more excellent, as the Gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation.

DO we begin again to commend our selves? or need we, as some others, Epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our Epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men.

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the Epistle of Christ ministred by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selves to think any thing as of our selves; but our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new Testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and graven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away;

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old Testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IV.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the Gospel, 7 and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same, did redound to the praise of Gods power, 13 to the benefit of the Church, 16 and to the Apostles own eternal glory.

THerefore seeing we have this ministery, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth, commending our selves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not our selves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selves your servants for Jesus sake.

6 For God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed.

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, are always delivered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAP. V.

1 That the life of the godly is not subject to death, but is a passage to a better life, and of the glorious estate of the godly in the life to come. 11 He exhorteth to keep a good conscience, 14 and to live to the glory of Christ, 16 and not to know him after the flesh, 17 but to be renewed in him, 18 and to be reconciled to God by him, 20 and to be ambassadors for him, 21 and to be made righteous by him.

For we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan earnestly, desiring to be clothed upon with our house, which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For, we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight.)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we a labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not our selves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them, which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside our selves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, b he is a new creature: old things are past away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

1 He protesteth in exhorting them to purity of life, and to shun the society of infidels as it were in three. 3 Wherewith he giveth none occasion to slander: 4 but approveth himself by many great things to be a minister of God. 11 He requireth the like of them, 14 and dissuadeth them from the society and participation of idolatry, as being the glorious Temples of the living God.

WE then as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving our selves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, b in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report, as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? for ye are the Temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, 18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 He proceedeth in exhorting them to purity of life, and to shun the society of infidels as it were in three. 2 Wherewith he giveth none occasion to slander: 4 but approveth himself by many great things to be a minister of God. 11 He requireth the like of them, 14 and dissuadeth them from the society and participation of idolatry, as being the glorious Temples of the living God.

HAVING therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse our selves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have before said, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless, God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoyced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent; though I did repent: for I perceive that the same Epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoyce, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of, but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold, this self same thing that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! in all things ye have approved your selves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort; yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because the spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his [b] inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembreth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

16 I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

He stirreth them up unto the collection for the poor Saints at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 7 by the profession of their former forwardness, 9 by the obedience of Christ, 14 and by the faithfulness of those whom he sendeth to them before: 16 Commending to them the integrity and willingness of Titus and two other brethren, who were purposely come to them for this purpose.

MOreover, brethren, we make known unto you the grace of God bestowed on the Churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty

3 [illegible]

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministring to the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my [illegible] for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality: that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [a] He that had gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gathered little, had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches.

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the Churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administred by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administred by us:

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence [illegible]

23 Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the Churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

for it is superfluous for me to write to you.

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago, and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf, that as I said ye may be ready.

4 Lest happily if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up before hand your [a] bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, not of covetousness.

6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly, shall reap sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully, shall reap bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for [c] God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound towards you, that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.

9 (As it is written; [d] He hath dispersed abroad, he hath given to the poor, his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [e] ministreth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness:)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the Saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God,

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration, they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution unto them, and unto all men:

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

Against the false Apostles, who disparaged the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth out the spirituall might and authority, with which he is armed against all ungodly power, 7 affirming them that as he appeared in word by letters when he was absent, so he was no less doing effect: 12 and without setting them for rivalling or themselves beyond their measure, but keeping themselves into other mens labours.

NOw I Paul my self beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who [f] in presence am base among you, but being absent, am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present, with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us, as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 (For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mighty [g] through God, to the pulling down of strong holds)

5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth it self against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ:

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christs, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christs, even so are we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority (which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction) I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrifie you by letters.

10 For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerfull, but [h] his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selves of the number, or compare our selves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves amongst themselves, [k] are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not our selves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you, for we are come as farre as to you also, in preaching the Gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other mens labours, but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be [m] enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the Gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another mans [n] line of things made ready to our hand:

17 [o] But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For, not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

1 Out of his jealousie over the Corinthians, who seemed to make more account of the false Apostles, than of him, he entreth into a forced commendation of himself, 5 of his equality with the chief Apostles, 7 of his preaching the Gospel to them freely, and without any their charge, 13 shewing that he was not inferiour to those deceitfull workers in any legall prerogative, 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kinds of sufferings for his ministery, yea superiour.

WOuld to God you could bear with me a little in my folly, and indeed [p] bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousie; for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, [q] whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another Christ, which ye have not received, or another Gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose, I was not a whit behinde the very chiefest Apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing my self that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, taking wages of them to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I have kept my self from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep my self.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall [a] stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitfull workers, transforming themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvell, for Satan himself is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousnesse, whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool [b] receive me, that I may boast my self a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye your selves are wise.

20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak: howbeit, whereinsoever any is bold, I speak foolishly, I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I: are they Israelites? so am I: are they the seed of Abraham? so am I:

23 Are they ministers of Christ? I speak as a fool, I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes above measure: in prisons more frequent: in deaths oft:

24 Of the Jews five times received I [c] fourty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwrack: a night and a day I have been in the deep.

26 In journying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In wearinesse and painfulnesse, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednesse.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the governour under Aretas the King, kept the city with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me.

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

1 For commending of his Apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderfull revelations, 2 yet he rather chuseth to glory of his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting: 14 He promiseth to come to them again: 20 and yet altogether in the affection of a father, 20 although he feareth he shall to his grief find many offenders, and publike disorders there.

IT is not expedient for me, doubtlesse, to glory, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen yeers ago, whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell; God knoweth: such a one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth)

4 How that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawfull for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one will I glory, yet of my self I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool: For I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me:

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a [c] thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weaknesse. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresse for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behinde the very chiefest Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signes of an Apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signes, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferiour to other Churches, except it be that I my self was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you, though the more abundantly I love you, the lesse I be loved.

16 But be it so: I did not burden you: nevertheless being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother: did Titus make a gain of you? Walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think you that we excuse our selves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not, lest there be debates, envyings, wrathes, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults;

21 And lest when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already and have not repented of the uncleanesse, and fornication, and lasciviousnesse which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

He threatneth severity and the power of his Apostleship against obstinate sinners. 5 And advising them to a triall of their faith, 7 and to a reformation of their lives before his coming, 11 he concludeth his Epistle with a generall exhortation and a prayer.

THis is the third time I am coming to you: in the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you as if I were present the second time, and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ, speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weaknesse, yet he liveth by the power of God: for we also are weak [b] in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. [b] 2. Cor. 5. 21. him.

5 Examine your selves, whether ye be in the faith: prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray God, that ye do no evill, not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpnesse, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell: be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one minde, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kisse.

13 All the Saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second Epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippos, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

He wondreth that they have so soon left him and the Gospel, 8 and accursseth those that preach any other Gospel then he did. 11 He learned the Gospel not of men, but of God: 14 And setteth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

PAul an Apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sinnes, that he might deliver us from this present evill world, according to the will of God and our Father,

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvell that you are so [c] soone removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another Gospel: [c] Or, so lightly.

7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an Angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you, then that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other Gospel unto you, than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now perswade men or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation [d] in time past in the Jews religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the Church of God, and wasted it: [d] Or, sometime.

14 And profited in the Jews religion above many my [e] equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. [e] Or, equall in years.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Sonne in me, that I might preach him among the heathen, immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the Apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea, which were in Christ.

23 But they had heard only, that he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith, which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose: 3 And that Titus was not circumcised, 11 and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why he and other being Jews, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in sins, who are so justified.

THEN fourteen years after, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel, which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run in vain.

3 But neither Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage.

5 To whom we gave place by subjection no not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these, who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me, God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles,)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor, the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews: why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ: even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang upon the law. 6 They that believe are blessed, 9 and justified with Abraham. 10 And that no man is justified by the law, 13 but by Christ.

O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain, if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law being dead, a curse for us: for it is written, a Cursed is every one that hangeth on tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ: that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: Though it be but a mans b covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law which was four hundred and thirty yeers after, cannot disannull, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the Law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made, and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one, but God is one.

21 Is the Law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a Law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all under sinne, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the Law, shut up unto the faith, which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IIII.

1 We were under the Law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age: 5 But Christ freed us from the Law: 7 therefore we are servants no longer to it. 14 He remembreth their good will to him, and his to them, 22 and sheweth that we are the sonnes of Abraham by the free-woman.

NOw I say, that the heir, as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all,

2 But is under tutors and governours, until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the c elements of the world:

4 But when the fulnesse of the time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, made under the Law,

5 To redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a sonne: and if a sonne, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit, then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now after that ye have knowne God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye d again to the weak and beggerly c elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeers.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you be as I am: for I am as ye are, ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the Gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected, but received me as an Angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 e Where is then the blessednesse you spake of? for I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eies, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but not well: yea, they would exclude f you, that you might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected alwaies in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.

19 My little children of whom I travell in birth again, untill Christ be formed in you:

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice, for g I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the Law, do ye not hear the Law?

22 For it is written that Abraham had two sonnes, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman, was born after the flesh: but he of the free-woman, was by promise.

24 Which things are an Allegory; for these are the two h covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendreth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and k answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, l Rejoyce thou barren that bearest not, break forth, and cry, thou that travellest not, for the desolate hath many more children then she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then, he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what saith the Scripture? m Cast out the bond-woman and her sonne: for the sonne of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the sonne of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

CHAP.

He reproveth them for seeking to be justified by the Law, 3 and not to obey the circumcision, 13 but rather love, which is the summe of the Law. 16 He reckoneth up the works of the flesh, 22 and the fruits of the Spirit, 25 and exhorteth to walk in the Spirit.

STand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not intangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie again to every man that is circumcised; that he is a debtor to do the whole Law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the Law: ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ, neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well; [a] who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This perswasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded; but he that troubleth you, shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty, onely use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the Law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: [b] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that you cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the Law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, sedition, heresies,

21 Envy, murder, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdome of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christs, have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 He warneth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped, 2 and to bear one another's burden: 6 To be liberall to their teachers, 9 and not weary of well doing. 12 He sheweth what they intend that preach circumcision, 14 He glorieth in nothing, save in the cross of Christ.

BRethren, [a] if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spirituall, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the Law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoycing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the Word, communicate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto those that are of the houshold of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised: only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ:

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised, keep the Law, but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Unto the Galatians, written from Rome.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE Apostle to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

Before the Salutation, 3 he blesseth God for the Redemption, 5 the Vocation, 6 and Adoption to grace, 11 which is the true and proper Inheritance of those Saints. 17 And, because the Knowledge of this mystery cannot rightly be attained unto, but in Prayer, that they may know 18 to the full knowledge, and 20 possession thereof, in Christ.

PAUL an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, to the Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith which is in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints:

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power:

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, 23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

By comparing what we were by nature with what we are by grace, 5 he proveth that we do not live for good works, and 13 that being brought to Christ, we should not live to the World, 14 forasmuch as he is our Peace, and our Forerunner to God.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others:

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the Law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby.

17 And

12 For through him we have an access by one Spirit unto the Father.
13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.
14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,
16 That he would grant you according to the riches of his glory to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;
17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye being rooted and grounded in love, 18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;
19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.
20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding

21 Unto him be glory in the Church by Christ
Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end.
Amen.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth to unity. 7 And declareth how God distributeth gifts unto us. 11 And that also he ordained the ministry for the edifying of the Church, until it be grown up in Christ.
13 He exhorteth them from the liberty of the Gentiles, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to cast off lying, 29 corrupt communication.

I Therefore the prisoner [b] of the Lord, beseech you, that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,
2 With all lowliness and meekness, with long suffering, forbearing one another in love;
3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;
5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
7 But unto every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, [c] When he ascended up on high, he led [d] captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.
9 (Now that he ascended, what is it, but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might [e] fill all things.)
11 [f] And he gave some, Apostles; and some, Prophets; and some, Evangelists; and some, Pastors, and Teachers;
12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come [g] in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the [h] stature of the fulness of Christ:
14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;
15 But [i] speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
16 [k] From whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.
17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,
18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:
19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.
20 But ye have not so learned Christ;
21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:
22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

[b] Or, bound. [c] Psal. 68. 18. [d] Or, multitude of captives. [e] Or, fulfil. [f] 1 Cor. 12. 28. [g] Or, the unity. [h] Or, age. [i] Or, the truth in love. [k] Col. 2. 19.

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness, and true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sinne not: let not the Sunne go down upon your wrath:

27 Neither give place to the devill.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have [b] to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good [c] to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitternesse, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evill speaking, be put away from you, with all malice.

32 [d] And be ye kinde one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christs sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

1 After generall exhortations to love, 3 to flee fornication, 4 and all uncleanesse, 7 not to converse with the wicked, 15 to walk warily, and to be 18 filled with the Spirit, 22 he descendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Christ doth his Church.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as deare children.

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour;

3 But fornication, and all uncleanesse, or covetousnesse, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh Saints:

4 Neither filthinesse, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an Idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdome of Christ, and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of [e] disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For ye were (sometimes darknesse, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light,

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodnesse, and righteousnesse, and truth)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord:

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitfull workes of darknesse, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are [f] reproved, are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, [g] Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 [h] See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the dayes are evill.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunke with wine, wherein is excesse: but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to your selves in Psalmes, and Hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God, and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 Submitting your selves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it:

26 That he might sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joyned unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the Church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular, so love his wife even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duty of children towards their parents: 5 of servants towards their masters. 10 Our life is a warfare, 12 not only against flesh and blood, but also spirituall enemies. 13 The compleat armour of a Christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

CHildren, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandement with promise)

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with feare and trembling, in singlenesse of your heart, as unto Christ:

6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart:

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men,

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, do the same things unto them, [i] forbearing threatning: [illegible] a Or, bestowed of himself.

b Or, ill dispositions.
c Or, to edifie profitably.
d 2. Cor. 2. 10.
e Or, unto.
f Or, are reproved.
g Isa. 60. 1.
h Coloss. 4. 5.
i Or, and forbear threatning.

10 Finally my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devill.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkenesse of this world, against b spirituall wickednesse in c high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evill day, and d having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loyns girt about with truth, and having on the brest-plate of righteousnesse:

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace.

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel:

20 For which I am an ambassadour a in bonds, that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affaires, and how I do, Tychicus a beloved brother, and faithfull minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affaires, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love, with faith from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ b in sincerity. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome unto the Ephesians by Tychicus.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

a He testifieth his thankfulness to God, and his love toward them for the fruits of their faith, and fellowship in his sufferings, 9 daily praying to them for their increase in grace. 12 He sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorifie Christ, either by life or death, 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 and to fortitude in perfection.

PAul and Timotheus the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Jesus, which are at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thanke my God upon every a remembrance of you,

4 Alwayes in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the Gospel, from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, b will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to thinke this of you all, because c I have you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the Gospel, ye all are d partakers of my Grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound [illegible] in knowledge, and in all [illegible] excellent things, that ye are [illegible] and without of-

[illegible] fruits of righteousnesse, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me, have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the Gospel;

13 So that my bonds b in Christ are manifest in all c the palace, and d in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, and not sincerely, supposing to adde affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein do rejoyce, yea, and will rejoyce.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my salvation through your prayer, and [illegible] Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldnesse, as alwayes, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall 23 For I am in a [illegible] desire to depart, [illegible] farre better.

24 Nevertheless [illegible] needfull for you.

25 And having [illegible] shall abide and [illegible] therance and joy of [illegible]

26 That [illegible] Jesus [illegible] again.

[illegible] worthy of the Gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may heare of your affaires, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel, cious and few years after the flesh, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the Gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition: but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth them to unity, and to all humbleness of mind, by the example of Christs humility and exaltation: 12 to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation; that they be no lights to the wicked world, 16 and to conform to him their Apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth: 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies;

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the a likeness of men.

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess, that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence; work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom c ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be d poured forth upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus, to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man e like minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proof of him, That as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also my self shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-souldier, but your messenger, and he that ministred to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and f hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

1 He warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision, 4 shewing that himself had more cause than they to trust to the righteousness of the Law: 7 Which he counteth but dung, that he may win and live in Christ and his righteousness, 12 that in attaining he is not imperfect. 15 He exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

FInally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; touching the Law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the Church; touching the righteousness which is in the Law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

a Or, shape.

b Or, flavers.

c Or, shine ye.

d Greek, powred forth.

e Or, like affected.

f Or, make such in reputation.

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an example.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

From particular admonitions, he proceeds to general instructions, and shewing how to do good as their blessed example, from whom to profess, and what to abhorr the contrary of, as for the glory of God in them, so what is to be done by them, that salvation.

THerefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Evodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. I.

unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before by the word of the truth of the Gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth,

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow servant, who is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdome and spirituall understanding:

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitfull in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God:

11 Strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long suffering with joyfulnesse:

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darknesse, and hath translated us into the kingdome of [a] his dear Sonne, a Greek, the sonne of his love.

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgivenesse of sinnes:

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first borne of every creature.

16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible, and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

b 1. Cor. 8. 6. John 1. 3.

17 [b] And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the Church: who is the beginning, the first borne from the dead, that [c] in all things he might have the preeminence.

c Or, obtaining all.

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulnesse dwell, 20 And (d having made peace through the blood of his Crosse) by him to reconcile all things unto himself, by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

d Or, making peace.

21 And you that were sometimes alienated, and enemies [e] in your minde by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled, e Or, by your minde is wicked works.

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable, and unreproveable in his sight.

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and setled, and be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister.

24 Who now rejoyce in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behinde of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is the Church.

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you, [f] to fulfill the word of God:

f Or, fully to preach the word of God Rom. 15. 19.

26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his Saints,

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ [g] in you, the hope of glory:

g Or, amongst you.

28 Whom we preach warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdome, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus, 29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

1 He stil exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of Philosophy, and vain traditions, 18 worshipping of Angels, 20 and legall Ceremonies, which are indeed in Christ.

FOr I would that ye knew what great [h] conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh:

h Or, fight.

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ,

3 [i] In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdome and knowledge.

i Ioh. 1. 4. Rom. 11. 33.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastnesse of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man spoil you through Philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the [k] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

k Or, ministers.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulnesse of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power.

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the Circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sinnes of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ:

12 Buried with him in Baptisme, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you being dead in your sinnes, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickned together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses,

14 Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his crosse:

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them [l] in it.

l Or, in himself.

16 Let no man therefore judge you [m] in meat, or in drink, or [n] in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath dayes?

m Or, in eating. n Or, for.

17 Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man [o] beguile you of your reward, [p] in a voluntary humility, and worshipping of Angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puft up by his fleshly mind, o Or, defraud you of. p Or, in a pretence of humility.

19 And not holding the head, from which all the body by joynts and bands having nourishment ministred, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the [q] rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to q Or, ministers.

21 (Touch not, taste not, handle not,

22 Which all are to perish with ter the commandements and doctrines of men:

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdome in will-worshipp and humility, and a neglecting of the body, not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth where we should seek Christ. 5 He exhorteth to mortification, 10 to put off the old man, and to put on Christ, 12 exhorting to charity, humility, and other severall duties.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things a which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God:
2 Set your b affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.
5 Mortifie therefore your members which are upon the earth: fornication, uncleanesse, inordinate affection, evill concupiscence, and covetousnesse, which is idolatry:
6 For which things sake, the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience,
7 In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.
8 But now you also put off all these, anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.
9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds:
10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him,
11 Where there is neither Greek, nor Jew, circumcision, nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.
12 Put on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) bowels of mercies, kindnesse, humblenesse of mind, meekenesse, long suffering, 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrell against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.
14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectnesse.
15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body: and be ye thankfull.
16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdome, teaching and admonishing one another in Psalmes, and Hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
17 And whatsoever ye doe in word, or deed, do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, and the Father by him.
18 Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.
19 Husbands love your wives, and be not bitter against them.
20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.
21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.
22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh: not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singlenesse of heart, fearing God.
23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men:
24 Knowing, that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.
25 But he that doth wrong, shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. 10 He saluteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

MAsters, give unto your servants that which is just and equall, knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.
2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving:
3 Withall, praying also for us, that God would open unto us a dore of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:
4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
5 Walk in wisdome toward them that are without, redeeming the time.
6 Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how ye ought to answer every man.
7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithfull minister, and fellow servant in the Lord:
8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts.
9 With Onesimus a faithfull and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.
10 Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Marcus sisters sonne to Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandements: if he come unto you, receive him)
11 And Jesus which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdome of God, which have been a comfort unto me.
12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ saluteth you, always f labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect & complete in all the will of God.
13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.
14 Luke the beloved Physician, and Demas greet you.
15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the Church which is in his house.
16 And when this Epistle is read amongst you, cause that it be read also in the Church of the Laodiceans, and that ye likewise read the Epistle from Laodicea.
17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministery which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.
18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to the Colossians, by d Epaphras and Onesimus.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL
the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindfull of them Paul was at all times in thanksgiving and prayer; 3 and also how well he was perswaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and love unto God.

PAul and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembring without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God, and our Father:

4 Knowing, brethren [a] beloved, your election of God.

5 For our Gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to Godward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us, what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God;

10 And to wait for his Sonne from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 What manner the Gospel was preached to the Thessalonians, and of what fruit it was among them. 13 How they received it. 14 How they suffered persecution for the same, as the Churches of Judea did before them.

FOr your selves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the Gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness, God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been [b] burdensome, as the Apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the Gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblameably we behaved our selves among you that believe:

11 As you know, how we exhorted and comforted, and charged every one of you (as a father doth his children)

12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God, which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the Churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own Prophets, and have [c] persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sinnes alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time, in presence not in heart, endeavored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, (even I Paul) once and again; but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoycing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

1 Paul testifieth the great love in the Thessalonians, partly by sending Timothy unto them to establish and confirm their faith in affliction: 6 partly by rejoycing for their faith, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

WHerefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and our fellow labourer in the Gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for your selves know, that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before, that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some make the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress, by your faith:

8 For now we [a] live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ [b] direct our journey unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

He exhorteth them to go on forward in all manner of godliness, 3 to live holily and justly; 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own business: 13 and lastly of all to suffered meekly death for the truth. 17 And unto this last exhortation he annexeth a brief description of the latter resurrection, and general coming of Christ to judgement.

FURTHERMORE then we [c] beseech you, brethren, and [d] exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandements we gave you, by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour:

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter, because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore that [e] despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye abound more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, That we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 Then we which are alive, and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore [f] comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 He proceedeth in the former exhortation of Christ's coming to judgement, 16 and giveth certain precepts, 23 and so concludeth the Epistle.

BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For your selves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 Who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore [g] comfort your selves together, and edifie one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their works sake, and be at peace among your selves.

14 Now we [h] exhort you, brethren, warn them that are [i] unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among your selves, and to all men.

16 Rejoice evermore.

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesyings.

21 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And the very [k] God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

soul, and body be preserved blameleſſe unto the coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

24 Faithfull is he that calleth you, who alſo will do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiſſe.

27 I [a] charge you by the Lord, that this Epiſtle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you. Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience. 11 and therewithall uſeth divers reaſons for the comforting of them in perſecution, whereof the cheefeſt is taken from the righteous judgement of God.

PAul and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the Church of the Theſſalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

2 Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 We are bound to thank God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meet, becauſe that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth:

4 So that we our ſelves glory in you in the Churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your perſecutions and tribulations that ye endure.

5 Which is a manifeſt token of the righteous judgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for which ye alſo ſuffer;

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God, to recompenſe tribulation to them that trouble you:

7 And to you who are troubled, reſt with us, when the Lord Jeſus ſhall be revealed from heaven, [a] with his mighty Angels,

8 In flaming fire, [b] taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt,

9 Who ſhall be puniſhed with everlaſting deſtruction from the preſence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power:

10 When he ſhall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (becauſe our teſtimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore alſo we pray alwayes for you, that our God would [c] count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleaſure of his goodneſſe, and the work of faith with power;

12 That the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

CHAP. II.

1 He willeth them to continue ſtedfaſt in the truth received, 3 ſheweth that there ſhall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a diſcovery of Anti-chriſt before the day of the Lord come. 15 And thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and prayeth for them.

NOw we beſeech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not ſoon ſhaken in minde, or be troubled, neither by ſpirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Chriſt is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any meanes; for that day ſhall not come, except there come a falling away firſt, and that man of ſinne be revealed, the ſonne of perdition,

4 Who oppoſeth and exalteth himſelf above all that is called God, or that is worſhipped: ſo that he as God, ſitteth in the Temple of God, ſhewing himſelf that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you theſe things?

6 And now ye know what [d] withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the myſtery of iniquity doth already work; onely he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then ſhall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord ſhall conſume with the ſpirit of his mouth, and ſhall deſtroy with the brightneſſe of his coming:

9 Even him whoſe coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and ſignes, and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableneſſe of unrighteouſneſſe in them that periſh: becauſe they received not the love of the truth, that they might be ſaved.

11 And for this cauſe God ſhall ſend them ſtrong delu ſion, that they ſhould believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleaſure in unrighteouſneſſe.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, becauſe God hath from the beginning choſen you to ſalvation, through ſanctification of the ſpirit, and belief of the truth, 14 Whereunto he called you by our Goſpel, to the obtaining of the glory of ¶ Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

15 Therefore brethren, ſtand faſt, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word or our Epiſtle.

16 Now our Lord Jeſus Chriſt himſelf, and God even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlaſting conſolation, and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and ſtabliſh you in every good word and work.

CHAP. III.

He craveth their prayers for himſelf, 3 aſſureth what confidence he hath in them, 7 maketh requeſt to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, eſpecially to ſhunne idleneſſe and ill company, 16 and laſt of all concludeth with prayer and ſalutation.

FInally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord [a] may have free courſe, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from [b] unreaſonable

[a] Or, Angels of his power.

[b] Or, to puniſh.

[c] Or, make you.

reaſonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithfull, who ſhall ſtabliſh you, and keep you from evill.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do, and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into [a] the patient waiting for Chriſt.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that ye withdraw your ſelves from every brother that walketh diſorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For your ſelves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not our ſelves diſorderly among you,

8 Neither did we eat any mans bread for nought: but wrought with labour and travell night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not becauſe we have not power, but to make our ſelves an enſample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither ſhould he eat.

11 For we hear that there are ſome which walk among you diſorderly, working not at all, but are buſie-bodies.

12 Now them that are ſuch, we command, and exhort by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that with quietneſſe they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, [b] be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word, by this Epiſtle, [c] note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be aſhamed:

15 Yet count him not as an enemie, but admoniſh him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himſelf, give you peace alwayes, by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The ſalutation of Paul, with mine own hand, which is the token in every Epiſtle: ſo I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all. Amen.

¶ The ſecond Epiſtle to the Theſſalonians was written from Athens.

[a] Or, which thou haſt by our Epiſtle.

[b] Or, faint not.

[c] Or, note that man by our Epiſtle.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE OF Paul the Apoſtle to Timothie.

CHAP. I.

1 Timothie is put in minde of the charge which was given unto him by Paul at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right uſe and end of the Law. 11 Of S. Pauls calling to be an Apoſtle, 20 and of Hymenæus and Alexander.

PAul an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which is our hope,

2 Unto Timothie my own ſonne in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

3 As I beſought thee to abide ſtill at Epheſus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mighteſt charge ſome that they teach no other doctrine:

4 Neither give heed to fables, and endleſſe genealogies, which miniſter queſtions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: ſo do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conſcience, and of faith unfained.

6 From which ſome [a] having ſwerved, have turned aſide unto vain janglings,

7 Deſiring to be teachers of the Law, underſtanding neither what they ſay, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the Law is good, if a man uſe it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawleſſe and diſobedient, for the ungodly, and for ſinners, for unholy, and prophane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-ſlayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themſelves with mankinde, for men-ſtealers, for liars, for perjured perſons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to ſound doctrine,

11 According to the glorious Goſpel of the bleſſed God, which was committed to my truſt.

12 And I thank Chriſt Jeſus our Lord, who hath enabled me; for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the miniſtery, 13 Who was before a blaſphemer, and a perſecuter, and injurious. But I obtained mercy, becauſe I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, and love, which is in Chriſt Jeſus.

15 This is a faithfull ſaying, and worthy of all acceptation, That Chriſt Jeſus came into the world to ſave ſinners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cauſe I obtained mercy, that in me firſt Jeſus Chriſt might ſhew forth all long-ſuffering, for a patern to them which ſhould hereafter believe on him to life everlaſting.

17 Now unto the King eternall, immortall, inviſible, the onely wiſe God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, ſonne Timothie, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mighteſt war a good warfare, 19 Holding faith, and a good conſcience, which ſome having put away concerning faith have made ſhipwrack.

20 Of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaſpheme.

[a] Or, having ſwerved, have turned aſide.

CHAP. II.

1 That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reaſon why. 9 How women ſhould be attired: 12 They are not permitted to teach. 13 They ſhall be ſaved, notwithſtanding the teſtimonie of Gods wrath in childbirth, if they continue in faith.

I [b] Exhort therefore, that firſt of all ſupplications, prayers, intercceſſions, and giving of thanks be made for all men:

2 For Kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godlineſſe and honeſty.

[b] Or, I will.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour,

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, 6 Who gave himself a ransome for all, [a] to be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a Preacher, and an Apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands without wrath, and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparell, with shamefastnesse and sobriety, not with [b] broidred hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly aray,

10 But (which becometh women professing godlinesse) with good works.

11 Let the women learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve:

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression:

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childe-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holinesse, with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

How Bishops, and Deacons, and their wives should be qualified, 14 and to what end S. Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the Church, and the blessed truth thereof taught and professed.

1 This is a true saying: If a man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A Bishop then must be blamelesse, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, [c] of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach:

3 Not [d] given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous:

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity:

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care for the Church of God?)

6 Not a [e] novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devill.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devill.

8 Likewise must the Deacons be grave, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre:

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved, then let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blamelesse.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithfull in all things.

12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

13 For they that [f] have used the office of a Deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldnesse in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou ought'st to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the Church of the living God, the pillar and [g] ground of the truth.

16 And without controversie great is the mystery of godlinesse: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of Angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAP. IIII.

He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. 6 And if he shall that Timothy might not fail in doing his duetie, he exhorteth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

NOw the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils:

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisie, having their consciences seared with a hot iron,

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe, and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thy self rather unto godlinesse.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth [h] little, but godlinesse is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophesie, with the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things, give thy self wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear unto all.

16 Take heed unto thy self, and unto the doctrine: continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thy self and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

1 How he is to admonish reproving. 3 Of widows. 17 Of Elders. 24 Some men's sins are before-hand manifest, and some do follow after.

REbuke not an Elder, but intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children, or nephews,

[a] Or, a testimony.

[b] Or, plaited.

[c] Or, modest.

[d] Or, addicted.

[e] Or, one newly converted to the faith.

[f] Or, attained.

[g] Or, stay.

[h] Or, for a little time.

to relieve their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth b in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own c house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be d taken into the number, under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the Saints feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withall they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tatlers also, and busie-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary e to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the Church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the Elders that rule well, be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, f Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and, g The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an Elder receive not an accusation, but h before two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sinne rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect Angels, that thou observe these things, without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sins. Keep thy self pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomachs sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sinnes are open before, going before to judgement: and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest before-hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 Servants must honour their masters, 3 and not teach otherwise. 5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, 6 and destitute of the truth, suppose that gain is godliness: 7 From such withdraw thy self. 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. 9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For the love of money is the root of all evil, which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. 11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. 13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickneth all things, and before Christ Jesus who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession. 14 That thou keep this commandement without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed, and only Potentate, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords; 16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; 18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; 19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternall life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding prophane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: 21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶ The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

¶ THE

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL the Apoſtle to TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

Paul loves to Timothie, and the unfained faith which was in Timothie himſelf, his mother, and grandmother. 6 He is exhorted to ſtirre up the gift of God which was in him, 8 to be ſtedfaſt and patient in perſecution, 13 and to perſiſt in the ſame and truth of that doctrine which he had learned of him. 15 Phygellus and Hermogenes, and ſuch like are noted, and Oneſiphorus is highly commended.

PAul an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the will of God, according to the promiſe of life, which is in Chriſt Jeſus,

2 To Timothie my dearly beloved ſonne: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Chriſt Jeſus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I ſerve from my forefathers with pure conſcience, that without ceaſing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Greatly deſiring to ſee thee, being mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with joy,

5 When I call to remembrance the unfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt firſt in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice: and I am perſwaded that in thee alſo.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou ſtirre up the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the ſpirit of fear, but of power, of love, and of a ſound minde.

8 Be not thou therefore aſhamed of the teſtimony of our Lord, nor of me his priſoner, but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the Goſpel according to the power of God,

9 Who hath ſaved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpoſe and grace which was given us in Chriſt Jeſus, before the world began,

10 But is now made manifeſt by the appearing of our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, who hath aboliſhed death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Goſpel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a Preacher, and an Apoſtle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cauſe I alſo ſuffer theſe things; nevertheleſſe I am not aſhamed: for I know whom I have [a] beleeved, and I am perſwaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him againſt that day.

13 Hold faſt the forme of ſound words which thou haſt heard of me, in faith and love, which is in Chriſt Jeſus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the holy Ghoſt which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knoweſt, that all they which are in Aſia be turned away from me, of whom am Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the houſe of Oneſiphorus, for he oft refreſhed me, and was not aſhamed of my chain.

17 But when he was in Rome, he ſought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him, that he may finde mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he miniſtred unto me at Epheſus, thou knoweſt very well.

CHAP. II.

1 He is exhorted again to conſtancy, and perſeverance, and to do the duty of a faithfull ſervant of the Lord, in ſhunning the word ſtrife, and ſlaying profane and vain babblings. 17 Of Hymenæus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of the Lord is ſure. 22 He is taught wherefore to labour, and what to follow after, and in what ſort the ſervant of the Lord ought to behave himſelf.

THou therefore, my ſonne, be ſtrong in the grace that is in Chriſt Jeſus.

2 And the things that thou haſt heard of me b among many witneſſes, the ſame commit thou to faithfull men, who ſhall be able to teach others alſo. b Or, among.

3 Thou therefore endure hardneſſe, as a good ſouldier of Jeſus Chriſt.

4 No man that warreth, intangleth himſelf with the affaires of this life, that he may pleaſe him who hath choſen him to be a ſouldier.

5 And if a man alſo ſtrive for maſteries, yet is he not crowned except he ſtrive lawfully.

6 c The husbandman that laboureth, muſt be firſt partaker of the fruits. c Or, husbandmen must labouring

7 Conſider what I ſay, and the Lord give thee underſtanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jeſus Chriſt of the ſeed of David, was raiſed from the dead, according to my Goſpel: of, in 9 Wherein I ſuffer trouble as an evill doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elects ſakes, that they may alſo obtain the ſalvation which is in Chriſt Jeſus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a faithfull ſaying: for if we be dead with him, we ſhall alſo live with him.

12 If we ſuffer, we ſhall alſo reign with him, if we deny him, he alſo will deny us.

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithfull, he cannot deny himſelf.

14 Of theſe things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord, that they ſtrive not about words to no profit, but to the ſubverting of the hearers.

15 Study to ſhew thy ſelf approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be aſhamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But ſhun profane and vain babblings, for they will increaſe unto more ungodlineſſe.

17 And their word will eat as doth a d canker; of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus: d Or, gren.

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, ſaying that the reſurrection is paſt already, and overthrow the faith of ſome.

19 Nevertheleſſe, the foundation of God ſtandeth e ſure, having this ſeal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And let every one that nameth the Name of Chriſt, depart from iniquity. e Or, ſtandeth and meet for the maſters uſe, and prepared unto every good work.

20 But in a great houſe, there are not only veſſels of gold, and of ſilver, but alſo of wood, and of earth; and ſome to honour, and ſome to diſhonour.

22 Flee alſo youthfull luſts: but follow righteouſneſſe, faith, charity, peace with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But fooliſh and unlearned queſtions avoid, knowing that they do gender ſtrifes.

24 And the ſervant of the Lord muſt not ſtrive: but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, [a] patient;

25 In meekneſſe inſtructing thoſe that oppoſe themſelves, if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the trueth.

26 And that they may [b] recover themſelves out of the ſnare of the devill, who are [c] taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He adverti ſeth him of the times to come, 6 deſcribeth the evill ſets of the truth, 10 propoundeth unto him his own example, 16 and commendeth the holy Scriptures.

THis know alſo, that in the laſt dayes perillous times ſhall come.

2 For men ſhall be lovers of their own ſelves, covetous, boaſters, proud, blaſphemers, diſobedient to parents, unthankfull, unholy,

3 Without naturall affection, truce breakers, [d] falſe accuſers, incontinent, fierce, deſpiſers of thoſe that are good,

4 Traitours, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleaſures more then lovers of God,

5 Having a form of godlineſſe, but denying the power thereof: from ſuch turn away.

6 For of this ſort are they which creep into houſes, and lead captive ſilly women laden with ſinnes, led away with divers luſts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withſtood Moſes, ſo do theſe alſo reſiſt the trueth: men of corrupt mindes, [e] reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they ſhall proceed no further: for their folly ſhall be manifeſt unto all men, as theirs alſo was.

10 But [f] thou haſt fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpoſe, faith, long-ſuffering, charity, patience, 11 Perſecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lyſtra, what perſecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Chriſt Jeſus, ſhall ſuffer perſecution.

13 But evill men and ſeducers, ſhall wax worſe and worſe, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou haſt learned, and haſt been aſſured of, knowing of whom thou haſt learned them.

15 And that from a childe thou haſt known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wiſe unto ſalvation, through faith which is in Chriſt Jeſus.

16 All Scripture is given by inſpiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for inſtruction in righteouſneſſe, 17 That the man of God may be perfect, [g] throughly furniſhed unto all good works.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth him to be diligent, with all care and diligence, 6 certifieth him of the approach of his owne departure, 14 declareth how he ſhould behave himſelfe to Alexander the ſmith, 16 informeth him what ſhall befalle him at his firſt anſwering, 19 and ſalutes him at the concluſion.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who ſhall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing, and his kingdome:

2 Preach the word, be inſtant in ſeaſon, out of ſeaſon, reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-ſuffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure ſound doctrine, but after their own luſts ſhall they heap to themſelves teachers, having itching ears:

4 And they ſhall turn away their ears from the trueth, and ſhall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangeliſt, [h] make full proof of thy miniſtery. [h] or, fulfill

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finiſhed my courſe, I have kept the faith.

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crowne of righteouſneſſe, which the Lord the righteous Judge ſhall give me at that day: and not to me onely, but unto them alſo that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come ſhortly unto me:

10 For Demas hath forſaken me, having loved this preſent world, and is departed unto Theſſalonica: Creſcens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the miniſtery.

12 And Tychicus have I ſent to Epheſus.

13 The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comeſt, bring with thee, and the bookes, but eſpecially the parchments.

14 Alexander the copperſmith did me much evill, the Lord reward him according to his works.

15 Of whom be thou ware alſo, for he hath greatly withſtood [i] our words. [i] Or, preachings

16 At my firſt anſwer no man ſtood with me, but all men forſook me: I pray God, that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithſtanding the Lord ſtood with me, and ſtrengthened me, that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the Lion.

18 And the Lord ſhall deliver me from every evill work, and will preſerve me unto his heavenly kingdome; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Priſca and Aquila, and the houſhold of Oneſiphorus.

20 Eraſtus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum ſick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with thy ſpirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAP. I.

1 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 6 How they that are to be chosen Ministers, ought to be qualified. 10 The number of evil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

PAul a servant of God, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the acknowledging of the trueth which is after godlinesse

2 [a] In hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lie, promised before the world began:

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus mine own sonne after the common faith, Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are [b] wanting, and ordain Elders in every city, as I had appointed thee.

6 If any be blamelesse, the husband of one wife, having faithfull children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a Bishop must be blamelesse, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not [c] given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre,

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of [d] good men, sober, just, holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull word, [e] as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine, both to exhort, and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouthes must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 One of themselves, even a Prophet of their own said, The Cretians are alwayes liars, evill beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witnesse is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the trueth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure, but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their minde and conscience is defiled.

16 They professe that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work [f] reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 The things which are meet for the sound doctrine. 9 The duty of servants. 11 The instruction of all Christians.

BUt speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be [g] sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holinesse, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be [h] sober-minded.

7 In all things shewing thy self a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptnesse, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned, that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evill thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things, not [i] answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God [k] that bringeth salvation, hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us that denying ungodlinesse and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world,

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ, 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purifie unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach: and me teach. 10 He is willed also to reject obstinate heretikes: 12 Which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he should come unto him, and so concludeth.

PUt them in minde to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey Magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evill of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekenesse unto all men.

3 For we our selves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envie, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindnesse and [l] love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of righteousnesse which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which he shed on us [m] abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a faithfull saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God, might be carefull to maintain good works: these things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the Law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick, after the first and second admonition reject:

11 Knowing that he that is such, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When

21 What I shall do more than this, I will set in order when I come.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow-labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

He rejoiceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon. 9 Wherein he desireth to shadow his private business, and hopeth to receive him again.

PAUL a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the Church in thy house.

3 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and unward all Saints:

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing, which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the Saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient;

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels.

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be, as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee aught, put that on mine account.

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow-labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE Apostle to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

1 Christ to speak by more excellency than by the Father. 4 He is preferred above the Angels, both in person and office.

they all shall wax old as doth a garment.

26 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

27 But to which of the Angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministring spirits, sent forth to minister for them, who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

1 We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 5 and that he should be crucified to take our nature upon him, 10 as it was necessary.

THerefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by Angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward:

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him,

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the Angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindfull of him: or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the Angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the Angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sonnes unto glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him: and again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the 15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of Angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be 18 For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses: 7 Therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy punishment than have learned Israel.

WHerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and high Priest of our profession Christ Jesus,

2 Who was faithfull to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithfull in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house, hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithfull in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after.

6 But Christ as a Sonne over his own house, whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoycing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works fourty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their hearts, and they have not known my wayes.

11 So I sware in my wrath: They shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evill heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called, To day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end.

15 Whilest it is said, To day if ye will heare his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved fourty yeers? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carkasses fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of unbelief.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 11 The power of God's word. 14 By our high Priest Jesus the Sonne of God we have boldnesse in invocation, his and grace, 16 we may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LEt us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the Gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest,

6 Seeing it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entred not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if [b] Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a [c] rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of [d] unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick and powerfull, and sharper then any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joynts and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked, and opened unto the eies of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Sonne of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sinne.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and finde grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviours Priesthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

FOr every high Priest taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way, for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sinnes.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself, to be made an high Priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Sonne, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the dayes of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and teares, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard [e] in that he feared;

8 Though he were a Sonne, yet learned he obedience

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternall salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the Oracles of God, and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk is [f] unskilfull in the word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are [g] of full age, even those who by reason [h] of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be stedfast, 12 diligent, and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is mindfull of his promises.

THerefore leaving the [a] principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God,

2 Of the doctrine of Baptismes, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternall judgement.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucifie to themselves the Sonne of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [i] by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloved, we are perswaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his Name, in that ye have ministred to the Saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability

19 (And [illegible] have an entrance of the [illegible] hope set before us:) which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail;

20 Whither the fore-runner is for us entred; even Jesus, made an high Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ, Jesus a Priest after the order of Melchisedek.
11 How he, being not a Levite, then the Priests of Aaron were.

FOr this Melchisedec King of Salem, Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace:

3 Without father, without mother, [a] without descent, having neither beginning of dayes, nor end of life; but made like unto the Sonne of God, abideth a Priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the Patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sonnes of Levi, who receive the office of the Priesthood, have a commandement to take tithes of the people according to the Law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose [b] descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die, receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the Law,) what further need was there that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the Priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the Law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the Altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning Priesthood.

15 And it is yet more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another Priest, 16 Who is made not after the law of a carnall commandement, but after the power of an endlesse life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandement going before, for the weakenesse and unprofitablenesse thereof.

19 For the Law made nothing perfect, [c] but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made Priest:

21 (For those Priests were made [d] without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said unto him, The Lord sware, and will not repent, thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better Testament.

23 And they truely were many Priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death.

24 But this man because he continueth ever, hath an [e] unchangeable Priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them [f] to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high Priest became us, who is holy, harmlesse, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily as those high Priests to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the peoples: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the Law maketh men high Priests, which have infirmity, but the word of the oath, which was since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is [h] consecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the eternall Priesthood of Christ, the Levitical Priesthood of Aaron is abolished: 7 And the carnall covenant with the fathers, by the eternall covenant of the Gospel.

NOw of the things which we have spoken, this is the summe: We have such an high Priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the majesty in the heavens:

2 A Minister [i] of the Sanctuary, and of the true Tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high Priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a Priest, seeing that [k] there are priests that offer gifts according to the Law;

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God, when he was about to make the Tabernacle: For see (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministery, by how much also he is the Mediatour of a better [l] Covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first Covenant had been faultlesse, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the dayes come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new Covenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the Covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my Covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the Lord; I will put my Lawes into their mind, and write them [m] in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these: but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the Holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the High Priest entereth into the Holy place every year with blood of others:

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sinne by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement:

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sinnes of many, and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin, unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

1 The weakness of the Law sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christs body once offered, 14 for ever perfecteth them that are sanctified. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOr the Law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offer yeer by yeer continually, make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered, because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more consciousness of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sinnes every yeer.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me;

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sinne thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come, (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings, and offering for sinne thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the Law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God: He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every Priest [illegible] standeth daily ministring and offering often times the same sacrifices, which can never take away sinnes:

[illegible] of God.

[illegible]

22 But [illegible] and their iniquities will I remember no more.

23 In that he saith, A new Covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 The description of the first and yearly sacrifices of the Law, 11 serve inferiour to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THen verely the first Covenant had also a ordinances of divine service, and a worldly Sanctuary.

2 For there was a Tabernacle made, the first, wherein was the Candlestick, and the Table, and the Shew-bread, which is called the b Sanctuary.

3 And after the second vail, c The Tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all:

4 Which had the golden Censer, and the Ark of the Covenant, overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had Manna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the Tables of the Covenant,

5 And over it the Cherubims of glory shadowing the Mercy-seat: of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the Priests went always into the first Tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the High Priest alone once every yeer, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errours of the people.

8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first Tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience,

10 Which stood in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnall ordinances imposed untoem until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an High Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entred in once into the Holy place, having obtained eternall redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternall Spirit, offered himself without d spot to God, purge your consciences from dead works, to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the Mediator of the new Testament, that by meanes of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first Testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a e Testament is, there must also of necessity the death of the Testator come.

17 For a Testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the Testator liveth.

[illegible]

[illegible] of the people according to the Law, he took [illegible]

[illegible] expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the holy Ghost also is a witnesse to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the Covenant that I will make with them after those dayes, saith the Lord: I will Jer. 31. 33. put my lawes into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sinne.

b or, boldnesse. 19 Having therefore, brethren, bboldnesse to enter into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, c or, new made. 20 By a new and living way which he hath cconsecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh:

21 And having an high Priest over the house of God:

22 Let us draw neer with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evill conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering (for he is faithfull that promised)

24 And let us consider one another, to provoke unto love, and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of our selves together, as the manner of some is: but exhorting one another, and so much the more as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sinne wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes, 27 But a certain fearfull looking for of judgement, and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses Law, died without mercy under two or three witnesses.

29 Of how much sorer punishment suppose ye shall he be thought worthy, who hath troden under foot the Sonne of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

d Deut. 32. 35. Rom. 12. 19. 30 For we know him that hath said; dVengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord: and again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearfull thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former dayes, in which after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions:

33 Partly whilest ye were made a gazing stock, both by reproaches and afflictions, and partly whilest ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in your selves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance:

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in 39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe, to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOw faith is the e substance of things hoped e or, ground for, the evidence of things not seen:

2 For by it the Elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen, were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice then Cain, by which he obtained witnesse that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead, f yet speaketh. f or, still

5 By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: For before his translation he had this testimonie, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet, g moved with fear, prepared an Ark to the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousnesse which is by faith. g or, was 8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in Tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara her self received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithfull who had promised:

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died h in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afarre off, and were perswaded of them, and imbraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. h or, according to faith,

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of that country, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises, offered up his onely begotten Sonne, i Gen. 21. 12. 18 i Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead: from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By both the causer of sanctification, and they which are sanctified, are all of one: for the which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 22 By faith Joseph when he died, a made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses when he was born was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper childe, and they not afraid of the Kings commandment.

24 By faith Moses when he was come to years, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 Chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures of sinne for a season:

26 Esteeming the reproach b of Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the King: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the Passeover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first born should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the red Sea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them c that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah, of David also, and Samuel, and of the Prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousnesse, obtained promises, stopped the mouthes of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weaknesse were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were d tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

36 And others had triall of cruell mockings and scourgings; yea moreover, of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented:

38 Of whom the world was not worthy: they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens, and caves of the earth.

39 And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having e provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godlinesse. 22 A consolation of the new Testament above the old.

WHerefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the

[illegible] of our [illegible]

[illegible] 31.] [illegible]

[illegible] dition of Saints against [illegible] [illegible] ed; and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sinne.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, My sonne, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every sonne whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sonnes: for what sonne is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened us after their own pleasure, but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yeeldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousnesse, unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees, 13 And make f straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holinesse, without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently, lest any man g fail of the grace of God, lest any root of bitternesse springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicatour, or prophane person, as Esau, who for one morsell of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no h place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with teares.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darknesse, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard, entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 For they could not endure that which was commanded: And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear, and quake.

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the citie of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the generall assembly and church of the first borne, which are written in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

24 And to [illegible] the mediatour of the new [illegible] and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things then that of

CHAP. I.

What we ought to refuse under the cross, 5 to ask patience of God: 13 and in our trials not to impute any unrighteousness to him: 19 but rather to hearken to the Word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter: 26 otherwise our service is vain.

[illegible] a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that wavereth is like a wave of the Sea, driven with the winde, and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree [k] rejoyce in that he is exalted: k Or, glory.

10 But the rich in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grasse he shall passe away.

11 For the Sunne [l] is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grasse, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: [m] so shall the rich man fade away in his wayes.

l Or, when the Sunne is risen.

m Or, even the rich man shall wither away in his wayes.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the 12 Let us pray that we may be [illegible] of God, for [illegible]

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us, with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted Word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the Word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect Law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAP. II.

He is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren: 13 rather we ought to forgive and mercifully: 14 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is dead alone, 19 the faith of devils, 21 as of Abraham, 23 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy, and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God, thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

1 We are not readily to undertake the office of teaching: 3 but rather to bridle the tongue, which is a world of wickedness, but a powerful instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 The wisdom which is from above, is mild and peaceable; without partiality and strife.

MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

matter a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue amongst our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every [b] kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of [c] mankind.

8 But the tongue can no man tame, it is an unruly evill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God, even the Father: and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same [d] place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yeeld salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge amongst you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekenesse of wisdome.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdome descendeth not from above, but is earthy, [e] sensuall, devillish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is [f] confusion, and every evill work.

17 But the wisdome that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be entreated, full of mercy, and good fruits, [g] without partiality, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the fruit of righteousnesse is sowen in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

1 We are to strive against covetousnesse, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction and rash judgement of others: 13 and not to be confident in the good successe of worldly busines, but mindfull ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit our selves, and all our affairs to Gods providence.

FRom whence come warres and [h] fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your [i] lusts, that warre in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and warre, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amisse, that ye may consume it upon your [k] lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth [l] to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace, wherefore he saith, [m] God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit your selves therefore to God: resist the devill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands ye sinners, and purifie your hearts ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your [n] joy to heavinesse.

10 Humble your selves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evill one of another (brethren) he that speaketh evill of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evill of the Law, and judgeth the Law: but if thou judge the Law, thou art not a doer of the Law, but a judge.

12 There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save, and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a yeer, and buy, and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: [o] for what is your life? [p] it is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoyce in your boastings: all such rejoycing is evill.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

1 Wicked rich men are to bee Gods instruments. 7 We ought to be patient in afflictions after the example of the Prophets, and Job: 12 to for bear swearing, 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually our faults, to pray one for another, 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten:

3 Your gold and silver is canker'd, and the rust of them shall be a witnesse against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire: ye have heaped treasure together for the last dayes.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, cryeth: and the cries of them which have reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of Sabbath.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton: ye have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter:

6 Ye have condemned, and killed the just, and he doth not resist you.

7 [q] Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord: behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, untill he receive the early and latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient, stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 ¶ Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets, who have spoken in the Name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord: that the Lord is very pitifull, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, sweare not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay: lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing Psalmes.

14 Is

14 Is any ſick among you? let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith ſhall ſave the ſick, and the Lord ſhall raiſe him up: and if he have committed ſinnes, they ſhall be forgiven him.

16 Confeſſe your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: the effectuall fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man ſubject to like paſſions as we are, and he prayed earneſtly that it might not raine: and it rained not on the earth by the ſpace of three yeares and ſix moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heaven gave raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do erre from the truth, and one convert him, 20 Let him know, that he which converteth the ſinner from the error of his way, ſhall ſave a ſoul from death, and ſhall hide a multitude of ſinnes.

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reſerved in heaven [c] for you,

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto ſalvation; ready to be revealed in the laſt time:

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoyce, though now for a ſeaſon (if need be) ye are in heavineſſe through manifold temptations:

7 That the triall of your faith, being much more precious then of gold that periſheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praiſe, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jeſus Chriſt:

8 Whom having not ſeen, ye love; in whom though now ye ſee him not, yet believing, ye rejoyce with joy unſpeakable and full of glory,

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the ſalvation of your ſouls:

10 Of which ſalvation the Prophets have enquired, and ſearched diligently, who prophecied of the grace that ſhould come unto you,

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Chriſt which was in them did ſignifie, when it teſtified beforehand the ſufferings of Chriſt, and the glory that ſhould follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themſelves, but unto us, they did miniſter the things which are now reported unto you, by them that have preached the Goſpel unto you, with the holy Ghoſt ſent down from heaven, which things the Angels deſire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be ſober, and hope [d] to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jeſus Chriſt:

14 As obedient children, not faſhioning your ſelves according to the former luſts, in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, ſo be ye holy in all manner of converſation;

16 Becauſe it is written, [e] Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without reſpect of perſons judgeth according to every mans work, paſſe the time of your ſojourning here in fear:

18 Foraſmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as ſilver, and gold, from your vain converſation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious bloud of Chriſt, as of a lambe without blemiſh and without ſpot:

20 Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifeſted in theſe laſt times for you:

21 Who by him do believe in God that raiſed him up from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your ſoules in obeying the truth through the Spirit, unto unfained love of the brethren: ſee that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently, 23 Being born againe, not of corruptible ſeed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 [f] For all fleſh is as graſſe, and all the glory of man as the flower of graſſe: the graſſe withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever: and this is the word which by the Goſpel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

He diſwadeth them from the breach of charity: 4 ſhewing that Chriſt is the foundation whereupon they are built, 11 he diſſwadeth them alſo to abſtain from fleſhly luſts, 13 to be obedient to Magiſtrates, 18 and to ſervants how to obey their maſters, 20 patient in ſuffering for well-doing after the example of Chriſt.

WHerefore laying aſide all malice, and all guile, and hypocriſies, and envies, and all ſpeakings,

2 As newborn babes deſire the ſincere milke of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If ſo be ye have taſted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming as unto a

1 He teacheth the duties of wives and husbands to each other, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer persecution. 19 He declareth also the lowness of Christ toward the old world.

LIkewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands, that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives:

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning, of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparell;

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time, the holy women also who trusted in God adorned themselves being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose [p] daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindred.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, [q] love as brethren, be pitifull, be courteous,

9 Not rendring evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For he that will love life, and see good dayes, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his [r] lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil and do good, let him seek peace and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is [s] against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness sake, happy are ye, and be not [t] afraid of their terrour, neither be troubled:

15 But sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and [u] fear:

16 Having a good conscience; that whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsly accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

6 For this cause was the Gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among your selves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so ministring the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the Oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth, that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery tryall, which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings; that when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the Name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory, and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evill spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evill doer, or as a busie-body in other mens matters.

16 Yet if as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgement must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the Gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their soules to him in well doing, as unto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

1 He exhorteth the Elders to feed their flocks, 5 the younger to obey, 8 and all to Christian, watchfull, and constant in the faith: 9 To resist the world, and other sorts of the devill.

THe Elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an Elder, and a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed.

2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as being lords over their charges, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that shall not fade away.

5 Likewise ye younger, submit your selves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble your selves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

7 Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant: because your adversary the devill, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternall glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus a faithfull brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying, that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The Church that is at Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my sonne.

14 Greet ye one another with a kisse of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Second Epistle generall of Peter.

CHAP. I.

1 Confirming them in hope of the increase of Gods grace, 3 he exhorteth them by faith and good works to make their calling sure: 12 wherefore he is carefull to remember them, knowing that his dayes are at hand: 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Sonne of God by the Eye-witnesse of the Apostles, beholding his Majesty, and by the testimonie of the Father, and the Prophets.

SImeon Peter, a servant and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us, through the righteousnesse of God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godlinesse, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and vertue.

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises, that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And besides this, giving all diligence, adde to your faith, vertue; and to vertue, knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godlinesse;

7 And to godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse; and to brotherly kindnesse, charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren, nor unfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things, is blinde, and cannot see afarre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sinnes.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall.

11 For so an entrance shall be ministred unto you abundantly, into the everlasting kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you up, by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endevour that you may be able after my decease, to have these things alwayes in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his Majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father, honour, and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven, we heard when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, untill the day dawne, and the day-starre arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecie of the Scripture is of any private interpretation:

21 For the prophecie came not c in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers: 7 from which the godly shall be delivered as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those prophane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known and avoided.

BUt there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their d pernicious wayes, by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evill spoken of;

d Or, lascivious.

3 And through covetousnesse shall they with e fained words make merchandise of you, whose f judgement now of a long time lingreth not, and their damnation slumbreth not.

e Or, feigned. f Or, sentence.

4 For if God spared not the Angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darknesse to be reserved unto judgement;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eight person, a preacher of righteousnesse, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of Sodome and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawfull deeds)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh, in the lust of uncleannesse, and despise g government. Presumptuous are they; self-willed; they are not afraid to speak evill of dignities:

g Or, authority.

11 Whereas Angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation h against them before the Lord.

h Or, from.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evill of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousnesse, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time: spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of i adultery, and that cannot cease from sinne, beguiling unstable soules: an heart they have exercised with covetous practises, cursed children;

i Or, a wife.

15 Which

19 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with mans voice, forbade the madnesse of the Prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkenesse is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonnesse, those that were [a] clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again intangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousnesse, then after they have known it, to turn from the holy Commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb; The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

He sheweth them of the certainty of Christs coming to judgement, against those scorners who dispute against it; 8 warning the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 11 exhorting them from the expectation thereof, to all holinesse of life; 15 and again to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his Epistles.

THis second Epistle (beloved) I now write unto you, in both which I stirre up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindfull of the words which were spoken before by the holy Prophets, and of the commandment of us the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first that there shall come in the last dayes scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [b] standing out of the water, and in the water,

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgement, and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But (beloved) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand yeers, and a thousand yeers as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, (as some men count slackenesse) but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heavens shall passe away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, What manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godlinesse, 12 [c] Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore (beloved) seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdome given unto him, hath written unto you.

16 As also in all his Epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE generall of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternall life, by a communion with God:
5 To which we must adjoyn holinesse of life, to testifie the truth of that the communion and profession of faith, as also it assures us of the forgivenesse of our sinnes by Christs bloud.

[illegible] which was from the beginning, [illegible] we have heard, which we have [illegible] our eyes, which we have [illegible] and our hands have [illegible] of the word of life:

2 (For the life was manifested, [illegible] have seen it, and bear witnesse, and shew unto you that eternall life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Sonne Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darknesse at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darknesse, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the bloud of Jesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth us from all sinne.

CHAP. II.

[illegible] 2 [illegible] 3 [illegible] 7 [illegible] 12 [illegible] 18 [illegible] 20 [illegible] 24 [illegible] 28 [illegible] 29 [illegible]

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Father also.]

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one which doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAP. III.

He declareth the singular love of God towards us in making us his sons, 3. who therefore ought also [illegible] 11 as [illegible]

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God [illegible]

9 [illegible]

10 [illegible]

13 These things have I written unto you, that believe on the name of the Sonne of God; that ye may know that ye have eternall life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we aske, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne which is not unto death, he shall aske, and he shall give him life for them that sinne not unto death. There is a sinne unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousnesse is sinne, and there is a sinne not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 And we know that the Sonne of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Sonne Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternall life.

21 Little children, keep your selves from idols. Amen.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He exhorteth a certain honourable Matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief, 8 lest they lose the reward of their former profession: 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

THE elder unto the elect Lady and her children, whom I love in the truth: and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth:

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Sonne of the Father in truth and love.

4 I rejoyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, Lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee: but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entred into the world, who confesse not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an Antichrist.

8 Look to your selves, that we lose not those things which we have [a] wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him, God speed.

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evill deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you, and speak [b] face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

¶ THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality 7 to true preachers: 9 complaining of the ambitious dealing of ambitious Diotrephes on the contrary side: 11 whose evill example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

THE elder unto the welbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth:

2 Beloved, I [b] wish above all things that thou mayest prosper, and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy, than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witnesse of thy charity before the Church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the Church, but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doth, prating against us with malicious words: and not contented therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evill, but that which is good. He that doth good, is of God: but he that doth evill, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth it self: yea, and we also bear record, and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee, 14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak [d] face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

¶ THE GENERAL EPISTLE of JUDE.

He exhorteth them to be conſtant in the profeſſion of the faith. 14 Falſe teachers are crept in to whom there for which deteſtable doctrine and manners horrible puniſhment is prepared: 20 wherein the godly by the aſſiſtance of the holy Spirit, and prayer to God, may perſevere and grow in grace, and keep themſelves, and recover others out of the ſnares of thoſe deceivers.

JUde the ſervant of Jeſus Chriſt, and brother of James, to them that are ſanctified by God the Father, and preſerved in Jeſus Chriſt, and called:

2 Mercie unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common ſalvation: it was needfull for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye ſhould earneſtly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the Saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into laſciviouſneſſe, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord having ſaved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward deſtroyed them that believed not.

6 And the Angels which kept not their [a] firſt eſtate, but left their own habitation, he hath reſerved in everlaſting chaines under darkneſſe, unto the judgement of the great day.

7 Even as Sodome and Gomorra, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themſelves over to fornication, and going after [b] ſtrange fleſh, are ſet forth for an example, ſuffering the vengeance of eternall fire.

8 Likewiſe alſo theſe filthy dreamers defile the fleſh, deſpiſe dominion, and ſpeak evill of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the Archangel, when contending with the devill, he diſputed about the body of Moſes, durſt not bring againſt him a railing accuſation, but ſaid, [c] The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But theſe ſpeak evill of thoſe things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beaſts, in thoſe things they corrupt themſelves.

11 Woe unto them, for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and periſhed in the gainſaying of Core.

12 Theſe are ſpots in your feaſts of charity, when they feaſt with you, feeding themſelves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whoſe fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the ſea, foaming out their own ſhame: wandring ſtarres, to whom is reſerved the blackneſſe of darkneſſe for ever.

14 And Enoch alſo, the ſeventh from Adam, propheſied of theſe, ſaying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thouſands of his Saints, 15 To execute judgement upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard ſpeeches which ungodly ſinners have ſpoken againſt him.

16 Theſe are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own luſts, and their mouth ſpeaketh great ſwelling words, having mens perſons in admiration becauſe of advantage.

17 But beloved, remember ye the words which were ſpoken before of the Apoſtles of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

18 How that they told you there ſhould be mockers in the laſt time, who ſhould walk after their own ungodly luſts.

19 Theſe be they who ſeparate themſelves, ſenſuall, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up your ſelves on your moſt holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghoſt, 21 Keep your ſelves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt unto eternall life.

22 And of ſome have compaſſion, making difference:

23 And others ſave with fear, pulling them out of the fire: hating even the garment ſpotted by the fleſh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to preſent you faultleſſe before the preſence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the onely wiſe God our Saviour, be glory and majeſty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

¶ THE REVELATION OF S. JOHN the DIVINE.

CHAP. I.

John wiſheth his Revelation to the ſeven Churches of Aſia, ſignified by the ſeven golden Candleſticks. 7 The coming of Chriſt. 14 His glorious power and majeſtie.

THE Revelation of Jeſus Chriſt, which God gave unto him, to ſhew unto his ſervants things which muſt ſhortly come to paſſe: and he ſent and ſignified it by his Angel unto his ſervant John,

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt, and of all things that he ſaw.

3 Bleſſed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecie, and keep thoſe things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 John to the ſeven Churches which are in Aſia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the ſeven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jeſus Chriſt, who is the faithfull witneſſe, and the firſtbegotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that him that hath loved us, [a] and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us Kings and Priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever, Amen.

7 [c] Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him: even so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdome and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the Ile that is called Patmos, for the Word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lords day, and heard behind me a great voice as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and what thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven Churches which are in Asia, unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamus, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden Candlesticks, 13 And in the midst of the seven Candlesticks, one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and his hairs were white like wooll, as white as snow, and his eies were as a flame of fire,

15 And his feet like unto fine brasse, as if they burned in a furnace: and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven Stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two edged sword: and his countenance was as the Sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first, and the last.

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead: and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen, and have the keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter, 20 The mystery of the seven Starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden Candlesticks. The seven Stars are the Angels of the seven Churches: and the seven Candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven Churches.

CHAP. II.

What is commanded to be written to the Angels, that is, the Ministers of the Churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamus, 18 Thyatira: and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

UNto the Angel of the Church of Ephesus, write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven Stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden Candlesticks;

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evill, and thou hast tried them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast born, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches, To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.

8 And unto the Angel of the Church in Smyrna, write, These things saith the First and the Last, which was dead, and is alive.

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, but thou art rich, and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devill shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten dales: be thou faithfull unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches, He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the Angel of the Church in Pergamos, write, These things saith he, who hath the sharp sword with two edges:

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwelleth, even where Satans seat is, and thou holdest fast my Name, and hast not denied my Faith, even in those dales, wherein Antipas was my faithfull martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [e] Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches, To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the hidden Manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the Angel of the Church in Thyatira, write, These things saith the Sonne of God, who hath his eies like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brasse:

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works, and the last to be more then the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [f] Jezebel, which calleth her self a Prophetesse, to teach, and to seduce my servants, to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her, into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak, I will put upon you none other burden:

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 (b) And he shall rule them with a rod of iron: as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning starre.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

2 The Angel of the Church of Sardis reproved, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatned if he do not repent. 7 The Angel of the Church of Philadelphia 10 is approved for his diligence and patience. 15 The Angel of Laodicea rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold, 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the door and knocketh.

AND unto the Angel of the Church in Sardis write, These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven starres; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchfull, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. (c) If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the (d) book of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Church.

7 And to the Angel of the Church in Philadelphia write, These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denyed my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which commeth down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new Name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches.

14 And unto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans, write, These things saith the Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou were cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing: and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blinde, and naked:

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakednesse do not appear, and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 (e) As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voyce, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh, will I grant to sit with me in my Throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his Throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches.

CHAP. IIII.

2 John seeth the Throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty Elders. 6 The four beasts full of eyes before and behinde. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sate on the Throne.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a dore was opened in heaven: and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet, talking with me, which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the Spirit: and behold, a Throne was set in heaven, and one sate on the Throne.

3 And he that sate was to look upon like a Jasper, and a Sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the Throne, in sight like unto an Emerald.

4 And round about the Throne were four and twenty seats, and upon the seats I saw four and twenty Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the Throne proceeded lightnings, and thunderings, and voyces: and there were seven lampes of fire burning before the Throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the Throne there was a sea of glasse like unto Crystall: and in the midst of the Throne, and round about the Throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the foure beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within, and they rest not day and night, saying, f Or, they Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the Throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The foure and twenty Elders fall downe before him that sate on the Throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crownes before the Throne, saying,

11 g Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are, and were created.

CHAP. V.

1 The booke sealed with seven seales: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open: 12 Therefore the Elders praise him, 9 and confesse that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate on the Throne, a booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seven seales.

2 And I saw a strong Angel proclaiming with a loud voyce; Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the booke, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the booke, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the Elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, h the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the roote of David, hath prevailed to open the booke, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the Throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the midst of the Elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came, and took the booke out of the right hand of him that sate upon the Throne.

8 And when he had taken the booke, the foure beasts, and foure and twenty Elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of i odours, which are the prayers of Saints:

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the booke, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation:

10 k And hast made us unto our God Kings and Priests, and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the Throne, and the beasts, and the Elders, and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the Lambe that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Blessing, honour, glory, and power be unto him that sitteth upon the Throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen. And the foure and twenty Elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

1 The opening of the seals in order, and what followed thereupon, containing a prophesie to the end of the world.

AND I saw when the Lambe opened one of the seals, and I heard as it were the noise of thunder, one of the foure beasts, saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sate on him had a bowe, and a crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse: and he that sate on him, had a paire of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the midst of the foure beasts say, l A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny, and see thou hurt not the oyl and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was death, and hell followed with him: and power was given m unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the Altar, the soules of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, doest thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, untill their fellow servants also, and their brethren that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake, and the Sunne became black as sackcloth of hair, and the Moone became as blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a figtree casteth her n untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 o And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and Iland were moved out of their places.

15 And the Kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains,

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, p Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the Throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?

CHAP.

CHAP. VII.

9 An Angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number: 9 of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the Throne, clad in white robes, and Palmes in their hands. 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lambe.

AND after these things, I saw four Angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four windes of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the Sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another Angel ascending from the East, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four Angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the Sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the Sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and fourty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the Throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands:

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God, which sitteth upon the Throne, and unto the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the Throne, and about the Elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the Throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdome, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the Elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they before the Throne of God, and serve him day and night in his Temple: and he that sitteth on the Throne shall dwell among them.

16 b They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the Sunne light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lambe which is in the midst of the Throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven Angels had seven trumpets given them. Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow. 3 Another Angel powreth incense to the prayers of the Saints on the golden Altar.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven Angels which stood before God, and to them were given seven Trumpets.

3 And another Angel came and stood at the Altar, having a golden censer, and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all Saints upon the golden Altar which was before the Throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the Saints, ascended up before God out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the Altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voyces, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake:

6 And the seven Angels which had the seven Trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first Angel sounded, and there followed hail, and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grasse was burnt up.

8 And the second Angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the Sea, and the third part of the Sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the Sea, and had life, died, and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third Angel sounded, and there fell a great Starre from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the Starre is called wormwood, and the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel sounded, and the third part of the Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the Moon, and the third part of the Starres, so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an Angel flying thorow the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitours of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the Trumpet of the three Angels which are yet to sound.

CHAP. IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth Angel, a Starre falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomlesse pit. 3 He openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 13 The first wo past. 13 The sixth Trumpet soundeth. 14 Four Angels are let loose, which were bound.

AND the fifth Angel sounded, and I saw a Starre fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne and the aire were darkened, by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth, and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree: but onely those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five moneths, and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those dayes shall men seek death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battell, and on their heads were as it were crownes like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breast-plates as it were breast-plates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses running to battell.

10 And they had tailes like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tailes: and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

11 And they had a King over them, which is the angel of the bottomelesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

That is to say, a destroyer.

12 One woe is past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth Angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the foure horns of the golden Altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth Angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four Angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four Angels were loosed, which were prepared b for an houre, and a day, and a moneth, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

b Or, at.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sate on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of jacinct, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions, and out of their mouthes issued fire, and smoak, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoak, and by the brimstone which issued out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, c and idols of gold, and silver, and brasse, and stone, and of wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

c Psal. 115.4. & 135.15.

21 Neither repented they of their murthers, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

A mighty strong Angel appeareth with a book open in his hand. 8 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

AND I saw another mighty Angel come a down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rain-bow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the Sunne, and his feet as pillars of fire.

a Or, from.

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cryed with a loud voice, as when a Lion roareth: and when he had cryed, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seventh Angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the Prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the Angel which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the Angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, d Take it, and eat it up, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

d Ezek. 3.1, 2, 3.

10 And I took the little book out of the Angels hand, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and assoon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesie again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and Kings.

CHAP. XI.

3 The two witnesses prophesie. 6 They have power to shut heaven, that it rain not. 7 The beast shall fight against them, and kill them. 8 They lie unburied, 11 and after three dayes and a half rise again. 14 The second woe is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod, and the Angel stood, saying, Rise and measure the temple of God, and the Altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the Court which is without the Temple e leave out, and measure it not: for it is given unto the Gentiles, and the holy City shall they tread under foot fourty and two moneths.

e Or, cast out.

f Or, I will give my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie.

3 And f I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and three score dayes, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the g two Olive trees, and the two Candlesticks, standing before the God of the earth.

g Zech. 4.3, 11, 14.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecie: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomeless pit, shall make warre against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three dayes and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoyce over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another, because these two Prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three dayes and a half, the Spirit of life from God entred into them: and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voyce from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain a of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh Angel sounded, and there were great voyces in heaven, saying, The kingdomes of this world are become the kingdomes of our Lord, and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty Elders which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and them that fear thy Name, small and great, and shouldest destroy them which b destroy the earth.

19 And the Temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his Temple the Ark of his Testament, and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

1 A woman clothed with the Sunne, travelleth. 4 The great red Dragon standeth before her, ready to devoure her childe: 6 when she was delivered she flieth into the wilderness. 7 Michael and his Angels fight with the Dragon, and overcome. 13 The Dragon being cast down into the earth, persecuteth the woman.

AND there appeared a great c wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the Sunne, and the Moon under her feet, and upon her head a crowne of twelve Starres:

2 And she being with childe cryed travelling in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another d wonder in d Or, heaven, and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads, and ten horns, and seven crownes upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the starres of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her childe as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man childe, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her childe was caught up unto God, and to his Throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where he hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was warre in heaven, Michael and his Angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devill and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voyce, saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the Kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the Word of their Testimony, and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoyce, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Wo to the inhabiters of the earth, and of the sea: for the devill is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man childe.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great Eagle, that she might flie into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the Serpent.

15 And the Serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman: that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth holped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make warre with the remnant of her seed, which keep the Commandements of God, and have the Testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

1 A beast ripish out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns: 3 of whom one growes to power. 11 Another beast ascends up out of the earth: 14 causeth an image to be made to the former beast: 15 and that men should worship it: 16 and receive his mark.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads, and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crownes, and upon his heads the e name of e Or, blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like unto a Leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a Bear, Bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a Lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were [a] wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondred after the beast.

a Greek, slain.

4 And they worshipped the Dragon which gave power unto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make warre with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth, speaking great things, and blasphemies, and power was given unto him [b] to continue fourty and two moneths.

b Or, to make warre.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his Tabernacle, and them that dwelt in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lambe, slain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear:

10 He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity: [c] He that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the Saints.

c Matth. 26.52.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lambe, and he spake as a Dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give [d] life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

d Greek, breath.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, [e] to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

e Greek, to give.

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdome. Let him that hath understanding, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is, six hundred threescore and six.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The Lambe standing on mount Sion with his company. 6 An Angel preacheth the Gospel. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world, and putting in of the sickle. 20 The vintage and winepresse of the wrath of God.

AND I looked, and lo, a Lambe stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Fathers name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heaven, as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new Song before the Throne, and before the four beasts, and the Elders, and no man could learn that Song, but the hundred and fourty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women: for they are virgins: These are they which follow the Lambe whithersoever he goeth: These [f] were redeemed from among men, being the first fruits unto God, and to the Lambe.

f Greek, bought.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the Throne of God.

6 And I saw another Angel flie in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel, to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voyce, Fear God, and give glory to him, for the hour of his judgement is come: & worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

g Psal. 146.6. 14.15. 97.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, [h] Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

h Isai. 21.9. Jer. 51.8. chap. 18.2.

9 And the third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is powred out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy Angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoak of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever. And they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the Commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voyce from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, [i] from henceforth, yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.

i Or, henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sate like unto the Sonne of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voyce to him that sate on the cloud: [k] Thrust in thy sickle and reap, for the time is come for thee to reap, for the harvest of the earth is [l] ripe.

k Joel 3.13.

l Or, white.

16 And he that sate on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the Altar, which had power over fire, and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast cast it into the great winepresse of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepresse was troden without the city, and blood came out of the winepresse, even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven Angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them that overcame the beast. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND I saw another signe in heaven great and marvellous, seven Angels having the seven last plagues, for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glasse, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glasse, having the harps of God.

3 a And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty, b just and true are thy wayes, thou King of Saints.

4 c Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou onely art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee, for thy judgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the Temple of the Tabernacle of the Testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven Angels came out of the Temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven Angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the Temple was filled with smoak from the glory of God, and from his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath. 6 The plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Go your wayes, and powre out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his vial upon the earth, and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his vial upon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third Angel powred out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say; Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6 For they have shed the blood of Saints, and Prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial upon the sunne, and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were [d] scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not, to give him glory.

[d] Or, burned.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his vial upon the seat of the beast, and his kingdome was full of darknesse, and they gnawed their tongues for pain, 11 And blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains, and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth Angel powred out his vial upon the great river Euphrates, and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the Kings of the East might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils working miracles, which go forth unto the Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 e Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

e Matth. 24.44.

16 And he gathered them together into a place, called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.

17 And the seventh Angel powred out his vial into the ayr, and there came a great voice out of the Temple of heaven, from the Throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, f to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

f Jer. 25.15.

20 And every Iland fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent, and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

3, 4 A woman arayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, Riseth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 8 The punishment of the whore. 14 The victory of the Lambe.

AND there came one of the seven Angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither, I will shew unto thee the judgement of the great whore, that sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the Kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabiters of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wildernes: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, having seven heads, and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arayed in purple and scarlet-colour, and decked with gold, and precious precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERIE, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF a Or, fornications. [a] HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the bloud of the Saints, and with the bloud of the Martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the Angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvell? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads, and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and go into perdition; and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the minde which hath wisdome. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven Kings, five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten Kings, which have received no kingdome as yet: but receive power as Kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one minde, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make warre with the Lamb, and b 1 Tim. 6.15. cha. 19.16. the Lamb shall overcome them: [b] For he is Lord of lords, and King of Kings, and they that are with him, are called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdome unto the beast, untill the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is that great City which reigneth over the Kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Babylon is fallen. 4 The people of God commanded to depart out of her. 9 The Kings of the earth, 11 with the merchants, and mariners, lament over her. 20 The Saints rejoyce for the judgements of God upon her.

AND after these things I saw another Angel come down from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightned with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, c Chap. 14.8. saying, [c] Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devills, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hatefull bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the d abundance of her delicacies.
d Or, power.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sinnes, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For her sinnes have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified her self, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a e Queen, e Isa. and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. 47.8

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine, and she shall be utterly burnt with fire; for strong is the Lord God, who judgeth her.

9 And the Kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoak of her burning:

10 Standing afarre off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city: for in one hour is thy judgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their merchandise any more.

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all f Thyine wood, and all manner vessels of Ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and iron, and marble, f Or, sweet.

13 And cynamome, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyl, and fine flowre, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and g slaves, and soules of men, g Or, bodies.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afarre off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls:

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailers, and as many as trade by sea, stood afarre off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoak of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great citie?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costlinesse, for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets, for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty Angel took up a stone, like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee:

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee: and the voice of the bridegroom, and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth: for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of Prophets, and of Saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his Saints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voice, of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia, salvation, and glory, and honour, and power unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgements, for he hath judged the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia: and her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty Elders, and the four beasts fell down, and worshipped God that sate on the Throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the Throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoyce, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made her self ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousnesse of Saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [a] Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him: and he said unto me, [b] See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren, that have the testimony of Jesus, Worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecie.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he that sate upon him was called faithfull and true, and in righteousnesse he doth judge and make warre.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns, and he had a name written, that no man knew but he himself.

13 [c] And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood, and his Name is called, The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepresse of the fiercenesse and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture, and on his thigh a name written, [d] KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. [d] Chap. 17.14.

17 And I saw in an Angel standing in the Sunne, and he cryed with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather your selves together unto the supper of the great God:

18 That ye may eat the flesh of Kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make warre against him that sate on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet, that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sate upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection. 7 Satan let loose again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devill cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 11 The last and generall resurrection.

AND I saw an Angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon that old serpent, which is the devill and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand yeers should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I saw the soules of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his marke upon their foreheads, or in their hands: and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand yeers.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again, untill the thousand yeers were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be Priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand yeers.

7 And when the thousand yeers are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [e] Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. [e] Ezek. 38.2.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devill that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the the beaſt and the falſe prophet are, and ſhall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I ſaw a great white throne, and him that ſate on it, from whoſe face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them.

12 And I ſaw the dead, ſmall and great, ſtand before God: and the books were opened: and another [a] book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of thoſe things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the ſea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and [b] hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were caſt into the lake of fire: this is the ſecond death.

15 And whoſoever was not found written in the book of life, was caſt into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jeruſalem, with a full deſcription thereof. 23 She needeth no Sunne, the glory of God is her light. 24 The Kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

AND [c] I ſaw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the firſt heaven, and the firſt earth were paſſed away, and there was no more ſea.

2 And I John ſaw the holy city, new Jeruſalem coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her huſband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, ſaying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they ſhall be his people, and God himſelf ſhall be with them, and be their God.

4 [d] And God ſhall wipe away all tears from their eies: and there ſhall be no more death, neither ſorrow, nor crying, neither ſhall there be any more pain: for the former things are paſſed, away.

5 And he that ſate upon the throne, ſaid [e] Behold, I make all things new. And he ſaid unto me, Write: for theſe words are true and faithfull.

6 And he ſaid unto me, It is done: [f] I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirſt, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh, ſhall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and he ſhall be my ſonne.

8 But the fearfull, and unbeleeving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers and ſorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars ſhall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimſtone: which is the ſecond death.

9 And there came unto me one of the ſeven Angels, which had the ſeven vials full of the ſeven laſt plagues, and talked with me, ſaying, Come hither, I will ſhew thee the Bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he carried me away in the ſpirit to a great and high mountain, and ſhewed me that great city, the holy Jeruſalem, deſcending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a ſtone moſt precious, even like a Jaſper ſtone, cleare as Cryſtall;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve Angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Iſrael.

13 On the eaſt three gates, on the north three gates, on the ſouth three gates, and on the weſt three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations; and in them the names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lambe.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reed to meaſure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lyeth four ſquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he meaſured the city with the reed, twelve thouſand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he meaſured the wall thereof, an hundred and fourty and four cubits, according to the meaſure of a man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Jaſper, and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glaſſe.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garniſhed with all manner of precious ſtones. The firſt foundation was Jaſper, the ſecond Saphir, the third a Chalcedonie, the fourth an Emerald, 20 The fifth Sardonix, the ſixth Sardius, the ſeventh Cryſolite, the eighth Beryll, the ninth a Topas, the tenth a Chryſopraſus, the eleventh a Jacinct, the twelfth an Amethyſt.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearles, every ſeverall gate was of one pearle, and the ſtreet of the city was pure gold, as it were tranſparent glaſſe.

22 And I ſaw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lambe, are the Temple of it.

23 [h] And the city had no need of the Sunne, neither of the Moon to ſhine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lambe is the light thereof.

24 [i] And the nations of them which are ſaved, ſhall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 [k] And the gates of it ſhall not be ſhut at all by day: for there ſhall be no night there.

26 And they ſhall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there ſhall in no wiſe enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatſoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambes book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 5 The light of the city of God is himſelf. 9 The Angel will not be worſhipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken there from.

AND he ſhewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as Cryſtall, proceeding out of the Throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the midſt of the ſtreet of it, and of either ſide of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yeelded her fruit every moneth: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there ſhall be no more curſe, but the Throne of God, and of the Lambe ſhall be in it, and his ſervants ſhall ſerve him.

4 And they ſhall ſee his face, and his name ſhall be in their foreheads.

the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithfull and true. And the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: Blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecie of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the Angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, [a] See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecie of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me, [b] to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, [c] the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine Angel, to testifie unto you these things in the Churches. I am the root, and the off-spring of David, and the bright and morning Starre.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. [d] Mich. 55. 1.

18 For I testifie unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecie of this book, [e] If any man shall adde unto these things, God shall adde unto him the plagues that are written in this book. [e] Deut. 4. 2. prov. 30. 6.

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecie, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Even so, Come Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
